One of Hunnewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be sacred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

ON THE RIVER.

Would you like to pass half a day in exquisite pleasures and at a trifling expense? If so, leave your place of business some warm, sunshiny afternoon, and stroll down to Pier Wharf. You will find Mike the Boatman there, with a small fleet of safe boats and careful skippers, ready to give you a sail on the salt sea, and let you take a sniff of the salt air, which will make you feel like another man, and give you a hearty appetite for a week to come. Perhaps it would be well to invite a few of your friends, just enough to keep the boat well ballasted, and give the thing a social appearance. You will first make for Sullivan's Island, for as there has been much talk about the new battery there, and there may be such a thing as your being sent down there to do guard duty some day, it will be as well for you to find out the way. You soon arrive at a dilapidated wharf, which has seen better days, and walking the stringers, you pass through an aged matron's kitchen garden, and ascend the hill to the fort. You find there a long parapet of heavy oak timbers, with rings and eyebolts for ropes, and a dozen heavy guns.—Seven of them lie close together and point in the direction of Whale's Back. Three are on the other side of the fort, and will fire down at an angle of 45 degrees and strike a vessel within a few yards of the shore. At the apex of the angle formed by the two lines of guns, is a pivot gun which sweeps around to all points of the compass. They are all sixty-four-pounders, and are mounted on substantial carriages; and sheltered from the elements by a shed. In the centre of the fort, is a bomb proof shell and powder house. It is a pretty place, and you have a magnificent view of ocean, river, mainland, islands, bridges, towns and country, which will repay you for climbing the steep hill.

After seeing all the sights, then sail over to Fort Constitution. There you find a handsome new landing place for boats, and a flight of heavy steps lead up to a new pile wharf, which extends out into the river 60 feet, and is constructed in the most substantial manner. Arriving at the top you must stop and look at those immense derricks placed there to hoist stone and other heavy material. A railway runs on the wharf, and continues along the side of the old fort and down to the light house. At various parts of the ground heavy derricks are in position, and workmen are engaged in laying the foundation of a new fort. From the lighthouse to Capt. Davidson's residence, a narrow chasm has been drilled out of the solid rocks, in which to place the foundation walls. Now blacksmiths' and joiners' shops are in full blast; a click of hammers on the ponderous stones greets your ears everywhere. A large gang of hands are here at work, and from the appearance of the foundation, the new fort will be one of the most extensive on the coast.

And now you are skimming the blue waves again, bound to Fort McClary. You land at the end of the unfinished cob wharf, which is slowly rising to its destined height, projecting 130 feet out into the river.—Here are large gangs of mechanics and laborers busily at work, laying out the rocks and grounds for another fortress. Along near the water's edge, for nearly 300 feet, a chasm has been cut out of the ledge, and a wide pathway of stones built up inside.

In the chasm there is to be placed the first tier of foundation stones for the immense water battery; and the pathway alongside is for the workmen to stand on and build stagings. On the high ground is to be the main citadel. Here are workshops of various kinds, and the work moving on by a large body of blacksmiths, joiners and stone cutters. The citadel or main fort is to be an immense structure. It covers all the high ground in the vicinity of the old fort, crosses the road and runs back into the woods 60 feet. Covered bomb-proof ways are to run from the front face of the citadel to the water battery below, and the whole structure is to be mounted with the largest and most efficient cannon in the world. With these two Forts completed and garrisoned, the seaport of New Hampshire will be secure from any force that can be brought against it. While waiting for the tide to turn you will take a stroll down the country road, and then if the moon is full enjoy a moonlight sail up the harbor. We have been there, and we advise all who enjoy a boat ride, to embrace the first opportunity, and see what is going on in the harbor. ANON.

☞ Wood's Minstrels, it will be seen by the advertisement, are to appear at the Temple this evening. They have given Concerts recently in many towns in this State and in Maine, and are favorably spoken of. The Lewiston Journal says:—

Since the company was last here many new novelties have been added. We have no hesitation in saying that this is the best company that has ever visited Lewiston. We would advise all who wish to see a first class minstrel entertainment, and enjoy a pleasant evening, to go early to secure seats, as their stay is limited to one night only.

SINGING SCHOOLS.—We are requested to state that the Juvenile and Adult Singing Classes of Mr. Davis, will commence at Mercantile Hall, on Monday afternoon and evening, June 15th—the juveniles at 5 o'clock, and the evening class at 8. After the first two lessons, the classes will meet on Wednesdays, at 3 and 8 o'clock.

Names may be left at Mr. J. H. Head's Book and Music Store—and the Books used can be procured there in due season.

Terms—for Children $1 for the term.—Evening School, $1.50 for Gentlemen, 15 cents single evening after the first; $1 for Ladies, 10 c.s. single evening after the first. Per order Com.

"THE OPERA."—By reference to our advertising columns, it will be observed that the celebrated Holman National Opera Troupe will return to this city to morrow, Wednesday evening. Since their visit here, they have been playing in Bangor, Portland, &c.; and for the past four weeks they have been in Boston, where they have won enviable fame. The Boston Journal, in speaking of the Opera "La Somnambula," says:—

Miss Sallie sustained the difficult character of the injured almost heart-broken "Amina" with an exactness, facility and extraordinary power, which in others would be wonderful, but which in a little Miss not yet fourteen years of age, certainly approaches the miraculous.

In the after piece, Miss Sallie will sustain six distinct characters. We hope to see the house crowded, to welcome the return of these popular favorites, and will vouch that all who attend and can appreciate fine singing and spirited acting, will be pleased.

Communication.

THE SPRINKLER.—We learn that the committee entrusted with the business, have purchased a two horse machine, with horse power pump, that will pump sixty gallons per minute. So far this looks like doing business as it should be.

We also learn that some of our wealthy citizens at the West end contemplate having a machine for their own use and benefit. The whole together shows a commendable public spirit, and we hope that such a spirit will be fostered and encouraged, till our city shall not only take rank with other enterprising places, but go ahead and occupy a stand to which its natural and artificial advantages entitle it. Let Portsmouth be alive to introducing the improvements and business of other places, (not send their capital floating, and their young men floating after it,) and with the Navy Yard to help, instead of ten or twelve thousand inhabitants we might, and ought to, have double that number, and the value of real estate increased in like proportion.

As the city is getting to be well shaded, let the other useful public improvements go on, and Portsmouth will soon be a desirable summer resort for people who have money to spend, but want its worth.—Newport, R. I., is a great summer resort, and the most money that is left there is from visitors; some of the real estate is sold for large sums. Our city being about one hundred and fifty miles further north, (other things being equal), should have the preference as a resort in the hot season.

We are of the opinion that if a delegation of our citizens should visit New Haven and Hartford, Ct., and witness the improvements that have been introduced there, while the number of inhabitants has more than doubled and the value of real estate has greatly increased—and should, on coming home, make report, they would infuse new life and spirit into our citizens, and awaken them to their true interest to use exertions to do the same. B.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

SCHOOLEY'S
NEW IMPROVED
ICEBERG REFRIGERATORS.

This upright REFRIGERATOR combines every improvement. It is the most perfect article of the kind in the market, requiring less ice than any other, and keeping its contents sweet and free from any unpleasant odors.

Daniel T. Curtis, Fruit dealer, Boston says of it, "I have preserved grapes and pears, peaches, and an extensive variety of plums and berries for five or six weeks in Schooley's Refrigerator."

Oren Peck, Boylston Market, Boston, says, "I find, on careful trial, that it will keep meats perfectly fresh and dry for ten or twelve days."

John Hunt, Butter dealer, Cincinnati, says, "I can keep butter sweet and fresh any length of time in reason, say six weeks."

C. E. Carpenter, Ice Dealer, Providence, says, "I have kept a cup of custard in one of Schooley's Refrigerators during the warm weather one week, when I ate it and found it perfectly good."

Thousands of similar testimonials can be shown in its favor.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR. (Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of these Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made, lined throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

The various sizes of the above are for sale by the subscriber—also, ICE PITCHERS, ICE AWLS, &c.

THE ALL SUFFICIENT THREE.
The Great "American Remedies,"
Known as "Helmbold's"
Genuine Preparations, Viz.:
HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT "BUCHU,"
" " SARSAPARILLA,
" " IMPROVED ROSE WASH.

HELMBOLD'S
GENUINE PREPARATION,
"HIGHLY CONCENTRATED"
COMPOUND
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
A Positive and Specific Remedy
For Diseases of the
BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL, AND DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.

This Medicine increases the power of Digestion, and excites the Assimilative into healthy action, by which the Watery or Calcareous depositions, and all Unnatural Enlargements are reduced, as well as pain and inflammation, and is good for Men, Women, or Children.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
FOR WEAKNESSES
Arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion, or Abuse,
ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

Indisposition to Exertion,	Loss of Power,
Loss of Memory	Difficulty of Breathing,
Weak Nerves,	Trembling,
Horror of Disease,	Wakefulness,
Dimness of Vision,	Pain in the Back,
Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System,	Flushing of the Body,
Hot Hands,	Eruptions on the Face,
	Pallid Countenance.
	Dryness of the Skin.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on, which this medicine invariably removes, soon follow IMPOTENCY, FATUITY, EPILEPTIC FITS, in one of which the patient may expire. Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases,"

INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION,

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess. The records of the Insane Asylums and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion.

THE CONSTITUTION, ONCE AFFECTED WITH ORGANIC WEAKNESS,

Requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. A trial will convince the most skeptical.

Females, Females, Females,
OLD OR YOUNG, SINGLE, MARRIED, OR CONTEMPLATING MARRIAGE.

In many affections peculiar to Females the Extract Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy, as in Chlorosis, Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrous state of the Uterus, Leucorrhea, or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from Indiscretion, Habits of Dissipation, or the DECLINE OR CHANGE OF LIFE.

SEE SYMPTOMS ABOVE.

NO FAMILY SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT.

Take no Balsam, Mercury, or Unpleasant Medicine for unpleasant and dangerous diseases.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
CURES
Secret Diseases
In all their stages; at little expense; little or no change in diet; no inconvenience.

AND NO EXPOSURE.

It causes frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing obstructions, preventing and curing Strictures of the Urethra, allaying pain and inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling Poisonous, Diseased and Worn-out Matter.

Thousands upon Thousands
WHO HAVE BEEN THE VICTIMS OF QUACKS,

and who have paid heavy Fees to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "Powerful Astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in an aggravated form, and

PERHAPS AFTER MARRIAGE.

USE
HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
For all Affections and Diseases of
The Urinary Organs,

Whether existing in MALE OR FEMALE, from whatever cause originating, and no matter

OF HOW LONG STANDING.

Diseases of the organs require the aid of diuretics.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
IS THE GREAT DIURETIC,

And it is certain to have the desired effect in all diseases for which it is recommended.

BLOOD! BLOOD! BLOOD!
Helmbold's Highly Concentrated Compound
Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla,
SYPHILIS.

This is an affection of the Blood, and attacks the Sexual Organs, Linings of the Nose, Ears, Throat, Windpipe, and other Mucous Surfaces, making its appearance in the form of Ulcers.—Helmbold's Extract Sarsaparilla purifies the Blood, and removes all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, giving to the complexion a clear and healthy Color. It being prepared expressly for this class of complaints, its Blood-Purifying Properties are preserved to a greater extent than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla.

Helmbold's Rose Wash.

An excellent Lotion for Diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection in Diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with Extracts Buchu and Sarsaparilla, in such diseases as recommended.

Morning Chronicle.

THE CHILD AND THE MOURNERS.

A little child beneath a tree,
Sat and chanted cheerily
A little song, a pleasant song,
Of joy was—she sang it all day long—
"When the wind blows the blossoms fall,
But a good God reigns over all."
There passed a lady by the way,
Mourning in the face of day;
There were tears upon her cheek,
Grief in her heart too great to speak;
Her husband died but yester morn,
And left her in the world forlorn.
She stopped and listened to the child
That looked to Heaven, and singing smiled,
And saw not, for her own despair,
Another lady, young and fair.
Who also passing, stopped to hear
The innocent's anthem ringing clear.
For she, but few and days before
Had lost the little babe she bore;
And grief was heavy at her soul,
As that secret memory o'er her stole,
And showed how bright had been the past,
The present drear and overcast.
And as they stood beneath the tree,
Listening soothed and placidly,
A youth came by where sunken eyes
Told of a load of miseries;
And he arrested like the train,
Stopped and listened to the strain.
Death had bowed the youthful head
Of his bride beloved—his bride wedded;
Her marriage robes were fitted on,
Her fair young face with blushes shone,
When the destroyer smote her low,
And changed the lover's bliss to woe.
And these three listened to the song,
Silvery-toned and sweet and strong,
Which that child, the love-long day
Chanted to itself in play;
"When the wind blows the blossoms fall,
But a good God reigns over all."
The widow's lips impulsive moved;
The mother's grief, though unproved,
Softened, as her trembling tongue
Repeated what the child sang;
And the sad lover, with a start,
Conned it over to his heart.
And though the child—if child it were,
And not a seraph sitting there—
Was seen no more, the sorrowing three
Went on their way resignedly—
The song still ringing in their ears;
Was it the music of the spheres?
Who shall tell! They did not know,
But in the midst of deepest woe
The strain received, when sorrow grew
To warm them, and console them too:
"When the wind blows the blossoms fall,
But a good God reigns over all."

ATTENTION, THE WHOLE!
RYE, N.H., Feb. 28, 1866. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his HUMOR WASH, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. SWETT'S in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it.
JOSIAH JENKINS.
PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.
I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness and vertigo, want of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health.
From ELDER I. CHASLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.
DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a physician, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has regained her health, can rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the diseases above named. ISRAEL CHASLEY.
☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26eo

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continued in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign records, to determine the validity or utility of patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting the Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities to obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and trustworthy practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse"
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plates, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meat can be prevented from coming into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin reservoir for meat attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated from the same place as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING FURNACES.
The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from the smallest fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former models, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the same side the room can hinder to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
The Fire-pot is made deep way with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used.
We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Menduni,
Henry F. Wendell, John Stes, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.
1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.
3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.
5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet, as water will not stand when finished the work presents one whole piece.
6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.
DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,
Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.
No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.
DR. GOODALL
Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER, as formerly, if preferred.
The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no fastenings or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.
Besides all this, the mostacourate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of more much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.
Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth in Rubber that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.
In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.
ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.
I return my thanks to the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth filled or plugged with Gold with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

A steamer from New Orleans brings dates to June 2d. 600 wagons, with 6000 negroes, 3000 mules and horses, and 1500 head of cattle, together with nearly all the troops in Teche County as guards, arrived at New Orleans from Barr's Landing, on the 30th. On the march they had several skirmishes with guerillas, who infest the country. Porter's two fleets—one above and the other below Vicksburg—were within three miles of each other, and are in communication. Supplies of all kinds are regularly received. On the 22d ult., after a hard fight, the fleet silenced all the bill batteries at Vicksburg, and then raked the water and upper bluff batteries for two hours. Grant's and Pemberton's forces were muzzle to muzzle, and Grant was receiving reinforcements rapidly. The N.O. Era claims to have most satisfactory information in regard to the progress of the siege of Port Hudson. All the officers serving on detailed duty in and around New Orleans have been ordered to their regiments at Port Hudson.

The N. Y. Tribune's account says there had been no fighting of consequence since the assault of the 27th, but Gen. Banks had been industriously and rapidly contracting his lines and approaching the rebel works. Col. Grierson is "slashing around," and was at last accounts up between Port Hudson and Vicksburg, tearing up railroads, destroying bridges, hunting for Confederate stores, &c. The Times' dispatch says Col. Gardner offered to surrender if Gen. Banks would allow him to march out with their guns, provisions, &c., but the offer was declined. The steamer Fulton had gone up from New Orleans with reinforcements.—The 9th Conn. and 26th Mass. are the only regiments left in the city. Gen. Sherman is not expected to live. Col. O. W. Lull, of Milford, 8th N. H. regiment, is reported to be killed.

It is feared that Gen. Neal Dow will not recover from his wounds.

Suffolk, Va., has not been evacuated by our troops, but has been made stronger than ever by fortifications, as has the whole line of the Nansemond river.

Most of the rebel troops on James Island have disappeared;—it is thought have gone to Vicksburg.

Howe's division was still south of the Rappahannock on Sunday evening, but there was no prospect of an immediate engagement. It has been ascertained that the enemy are still in large force on the south side of the river, and there is no indication that many of Lee's troops have been sent elsewhere.

200 of Col. Montgomery's negro regiment at Port Royal, have returned from an expedition into the interior without loss, with 1000 contrabands and a large amount of other property. 50 rebel dwellings were destroyed.

Rumor says Gen. Stoneman has resigned and Gen. Pleasanton will succeed him.

Gen. Herron has left St. Louis for below, with a large force of troops.

Gen. Grant is still progressing satisfactorily.

☞ European advices bring a report that Earl Russell had taken a very bold diplomatic step in advance of the Western allies of England, on the Polish question, having proposed to Russia a plan of peace combining independence for Poland. The proposal is thus stated:

First, the conclusion of an armistice for one year.

Second, the Polish fortresses to continue to be garrisoned by the Russian troops.

Third, the immediate institution of a Polish administration.

Fourth, no individual implicated in the rebellion to be arrested or brought to trial.

The cabinet of the Tuilleries, it is said, has eagerly associated itself with that of St. James in the presentation of these demands, but it was thought that the Czar would refuse to entertain them.

☞ Great preparations are being made in Boston for the reception of the Mass. 44th regiment, which is expected to reach that city in a few days.

☞ Two steamers with the Massachusetts 44th on board, passed Highland Light bound to Boston, on Tuesday afternoon.

☞ It is stated that two tons and a half of oysters were actually stripped from the copper of the French iron-clad La Gloire, not long since. She was not intended to carry that kind of shell.

☞ The surrender of Puebla to the French is confirmed. The Mexicans were without ammunition, and were starving.—They are determined to defend their capital.

☞ The New-Haven Journal says that Admiral Foote had not on Saturday any knowledge of his appointment to the command of the South Atlantic Squadron.

☞ 800 emigrants from Europe passed through Rochester, N. Y., on Wednesday, on their way to Salt Lake City.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— In the House notice has been given of an intention to introduce a bill giving the right of suffrage to citizens of New Hampshire in the service of the United States.

—— A man in Manchester on Saturday evening fell upon a spittoon, cutting a frightful gash under his ear.

—— We see it stated that the well-appointed hotels in Concord maintain the following low rate of charges:—Phenix and Eagle from $1.50 to $2 per day; American $1.50; Columbian and Elm $1.25.

—— Rev. L. B. Baldwin, graduate from Trinity College, and Hartford and Middleton Divinity School, succeeds Rev. D. F. Banks as Rector of St. Luke's Church, in Nashua, having accepted the unanimous call extended to him. He commences his ministrations the first Sunday in July.

☞ The Newburyport Herald says that the canker worms are absolutely devouring the apple trees in that section. Some of the trees look as though they had been blasted by fire; not a single green leaf can be seen on them. The only means we know of reducing their numbers is to increase the birds that eat them. There is no more hope of exterminating them by killing a few than there is of exterminating mosquitoes in that way. But they were troubled with similar worms in the first settlement of the country, before worms had been imported in fruit or otherwise, or the birds had been killed. A century and a quarter ago, the record tells us, worms larger than the common caterpillar—(and in this unlike the present canker worm)—"which no river or pond could stop; that would swim like dogs, and travelled in such uncounted armies that cart and carriage wheels would be dyed green with the numbers they crushed in their progress," appeared in New England, devouring every green thing in their way, and so poluting the air with the myriads of their dead bodies as to produce a malignant and fatal disease, called the throat distemper. It was probably the diptheria; and it is not at all improbable that the canker worms and the virulent throat distemper, or diptheria, go together.

WELL SAID.—The "measure worm" is stripping the foliage from the shade trees in all our principal cities, and substituting its filthy webs. The Philadelphia Ledger rightly says in behalf of the birds, which do more than any other agency, if let alone, to exterminate this vermin: "It ought to be the endeavor of the press to urge farmers to preserve birds and prosecute all trespassers to shoot them. A farm should be as sacred in this respect as a private residence in our city."

PREPARE FOR THE BIRDS.—If you wish to secure the assistance of the nicest little garden help in the world, put up plenty of bird boxes. For the sake of good taste make the boxes like little cottages, have them with doors or holes of different sizes, so that the martins can get in at some, the blue birds at others, and the little wrens at others still; then the big birds will not drive off the little ones. It is a very good way to fix the bird box upon the top of a post, so that it will stand about eight feet high when the post is set in the ground, and teach the children and fools not to disturb the feathered folks in their cottage homes. The boxes for martins should be placed higher and more retired than for the smaller birds. On the top of a barn or carriage-house, or upon a post twenty feet high, are good locations. The martins will keep off the hawks from the chicken yard, and the blue birds and wrens will snap up myriads of pestiferous insects that would prey upon the fruit; and all will cheer you with their grateful music, and repay your pains a thousand fold.—Syracuse Courier.

☞ The Murfreesboro' correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, who had a long and for the most part confidential interview with Vallandigham before he was sent into the rebel lines, says: "When speaking of what he thought would be the practical results of his own teachings in the North, under certain contingencies, he made statements which I am certain would startle even the blindest and most bigoted of his disciples."

☞ The Washington correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce says that government has given out in a quiet way, that should the rebels again enter Maryland for any purpose whatever, all the property destroyed or stolen by them shall be made good to the owners thereof, by selling the property of the secessionists of Maryland, who are, in consequence very anxious to avoid a visit from their rebel friends.

☞ Mr. William Steele, of West Hartford, Conn., on Monday morning murdered his wife and a child six months old, by cutting their throats with a razor, and then committed suicide. The Coroner's Jury returned a verdict of insanity. He had been an inmate of the Insane Retreat different times within the last twenty years. His age was 53. Two children in another room escaped.

☞ The Governor of Ohio has authorized a battalion to be formed of rebel prisoners at camp Chase, who take the oath of allegiance. Forty-five joined in one day.

WHAT THEY HAVE DONE, AND HOW QUICKLY THEY DID IT.—Since the commencement of the present rebellion the facilities afforded by the Portsmouth Navy Yard have been, in a measure, appreciated at Washington, and to a great extent (although, perhaps, not so fully as was possible and may have been desirable) have been taken advantage of by the Department.—Orders for work to be performed here have been executed expeditiously, thoroughly and cheaply. It is difficult to obtain, at the present time, the exact statistics to prove to the satisfaction of those who might be inclined to cavil, that the work has always been done thoroughly and cheaply, yet it is well known by the public at large, who must in such matters judge from general results, that the vessels which have been built here have more than met the demands of the Department, as regards stability, sea-worthiness and speed; and that the amount expended at the Yard, which we can know only in the gross, compares favorably with that expended at any other naval station owned and occupied by the Government.

As regards the expedition, however, which has marked the operations at the Navy Yard, it is more easy to obtain the exact figures; and we show there it appears that our own compares favorably with any other in the United States. The peculiar character of the struggle in which we are engaged has demanded of all the Navy Yards owned by the Government the utmost promptness in the fulfilment of the orders given them, and the employees of the Government have executed these orders promptly and satisfactorily until now we have a Navy that has proved its lasting claims to the love and the gratitude of the American people. In speaking, therefore, of what has been accomplished at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, we would not be understood as ignoring the claims of any other.

Since the war commenced, there have been built here, under the immediate supervision of Constructor Hanscom, whose unceasing labors and entire competency for the task have thus been abundantly rewarded and proved, the following steamers, viz.: the Kearsarge, carrying 7 guns and of 1031 tons burthen, which was constructed in 70 working days; the Ossipee, 9 guns, 1240 tons, built in 138 working days; the Sebago, 6 guns, 832 tons, in 70 days; the Mahaska, 6 guns, 832 tons, in 69 days; the Sacramento, 9 guns, 1387 tons, in 130 days; the Sonoma, 6 guns, 995 tons, in 68 days; the Conemaugh, 8 guns, 955 tons, in 120 days; the Sassacus, 8 guns, 974 tons, in 88 days; and the Patuxet, 8 guns, 974 tons, in 116 days.

It will be noticed that the number of days in which these different vessels have been constructed respectively varies materially. The exigencies of the service have occasioned this, it having been necessary at times to employ an unusually large number of men and push the work to the most speedy completion. But it will be noticed that these nine vessels have been built in 869 working days, or, on an average, in about 96 1-2 days each. And this has been done, when the greatest number of carpenters employed on the Yard at any one time has been 630; oftentimes the number has been much smaller. But in addition to the construction of these steamers, there has been a vast amount of other important work performed in the same time. For example there have been constructed a large number of gun carriages, some of which have been sent to distant parts of the country. There have also been repaired the screw frigates Colorado and Minnesota; the screw steamer R. R. Cuyler; the sailing sloops Constellation, Cumberland, Dale, Macedonian, Marion and Portsmouth; the frigates Sabine and Santee, and the Constitution.

Such is the amount of work done in the time mentioned. We believe that it has been done in a most thorough and workmanlike manner, the interests of the Government and the demands of the service having ever been regarded as of the first importance. The general results have been highly satisfactory to the Department and the public; and prominent New York journals have not hesitated to commend in the highest terms the vessels which have been built here, and the manner in which the trust reposed by the Government in Constructor Hanscom and his subordinates, has been fulfilled. Many of the vessels built by him are now engaged in important duties,—blockading southern ports and pursuing the British rebel pirates. The only one of the nine vessels built here with which any reasonable fault has been found, is the Ossipee, and in regard to this a word of explanation may not be amiss. In regard to the construction of this vessel there has been no cause for complaint. The fault lies entirely in her machinery. And as the department of construction is entirely distinct from the engineering department, the former is in no wise responsible for the failure of the vessel to answer all that was expected of her. Her engines were of a new and untried pattern, and were placed in her by the Department merely as an experiment. The trial seems to have demonstrated that they are a failure. On her first trip they broke down. She was taken to Washington Navy Yard for repairs to her machinery. Whether the engines were taken out and new ones substituted, we do not know. But she again started for sea, and almost immediately after broke down again. The vessel was here a long time after being launched, and much tinkering on her machinery was even then found necessary. If her engines have not been changed we trust they soon will be, that this vessel also may be in a condition fully to perform all that the Government and the people expect of her.

It is to be hoped that the facilities offered by the Portsmouth Navy Yard, for the construction and repairing of U. S. naval vessels, will hereafter be fully taken advantage of by the Department at Washington. The orders which have thus far been received here, have been filled promptly and faithfully. With Constructor Hanscom and his efficient corps of subordinates to model the vessels and to superinend their construction; and the mechanics residing on the banks of the Piscataqua, who are unexcelled in the world, to do the work, the work shall be done quickly, faithfully and cheaply, and the vessels shall compare favorably with those built elsewhere, in point of stability, speed, and general efficiency in any and every respect.

Local.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN, Monday evening, the committee on the cutting down of trees by Mr. George Henderson, near his garden, reported that Mr. H. should pay the sum of ten dollars' damage. Referred to City Solicitor for action.

Petition from J. C. Carr and others, in regard to aid for the new Street Sprinkler, was laid on the table.

Petition for a new highway from Freeman's Point to Rogers' brick yard was referred to Com. on Streets.

Ald. Rider introduced an ordinance providing that the city should pay $300 for every man drafted under the conscription act. Laid on the table till next meeting.

A committee was appointed to go to Concord to lay the subject of the proposed new Railroad from Dover to Portsmouth, before the Legislative Committee.

THE STREET SPRINKLER.—A number of our most enterprising citizens have purchased a Sprinkler by subscription; and concerning the subject of wetting the streets, we have learned a few facts of general interest. The usual plan is for the dwellers on certain streets to club together and have them sprinkled; and towns and city governments, we are told, rarely concern much with the matter. The machine bought for Portsmouth is of the largest size, holding 500 gallons, say two tons of water, and has been drawn by two horses, tandem. Salt water is used exclusively, when procurable, being vastly better. A pump, with horse power, comes with the sprinkler here, to fill it from the river. We can get along without it for a day or two, we judge, since the showers we have had.

☞ We give place with pleasure to the following commendation of the Holman Opera Troupe, which is handed to us by an old subscriber in this city, who is fond of good music, and who has long known the Holmans. We will merely add, that we believe Mr. Holman, who has now lost his singing voice, was formerly the first tenor of the famous Pyne and Harrison Troupe; and his wife was in her day, no common singer, and she is now a pleasing performer on the piano. All who don't hear the troupe, will "miss it," that's all.

PORTSMOUTH, Tuesday, June 9th.

Editor Chronicle:—I observe by a local notice in your Monday's issue, that the celebrated Holman Opera Troupe are again to visit us. With many others, I am really glad of their return, for they are undoubtedly the best, and I believe the only company of the kind, now producing the English opera in the United States.

Having had the pleasure of an acquaintance with the Holman Family for many years, and knowing the high estimation in which they are held in social life,—watching the rapid progress of the rising talent of the children who, as a New York paper just remarks "have hardly one step more to attain their pinnacle of fame," I would most cordially recommend them to our citizens.

Let the Holmans receive from us a liberal patronage, not only for their great artistic merit, but as a family of high character and respectability. Yours,

AN OLD SUBSCRIBER,
And Lover of Moral and Rational Amusements.

SHARP PRACTICE, FOR THE COUNTRY. A few days since the wife of one of our State st. traders left her parasol on her husband's counter, unknown to him or any one else in the store. In a moment after she had gone out, an unknown lad entered and asked for the parasol his mother had just left there—and the clerk, who was then tending, seeing the article lying there, naturally enough gave it to him. But when the lady owner herself presently re-entered and asked for the sunshade, the joke was appreciated, but has not yet been unravelled.

☞ Members of the N. H. House of Representatives, from this city, occupy the following positions on the Standing Committees, which were announced on Friday last: Hon. Horton D. Walker, Chairman of Committee on Incorporations; John H. Bailey, Esq., Chairman of Committee on Railroads; A. L. Jones, Esq., member of Committee on Finances; Wm. O. Sides, Esq.,—of Committee on Military Affairs; Wm. C. Hatch, Esq.,—of Committee on Towns and Parishes; Henry F. Wendell, Esq.,—of Committee on Division of Towns.

☞ Our neighbors, Davis Brothers, have a very large and fine gallery of pictures on free exhibition, at their photograph saloon, opposite the Post Office. We are indebted to them for a capital photograph of the new Custom House building. They are taking a great number of nice pictures, of all sorts.

☞ The Portsmouth Baptist Sabbath School Convention holds its annual session at Seabrook to-day, Wednesday June 10th. We are requested to state that arrangements have been made with the Eastern Railroad Co. by which those attending the Convention are to have free return tickets.

☞ Since Dr. Lewis' visit to Portsmouth, some of the New Gymnastic exercises have been introduced into the Girls' High School, through the public spirit of the teachers; and the Portsmouth Gymnasium has been thrown open to the ladies. The world does move.

The yacht Eclipse made her appearance in Newburyport harbor on Saturday last, in charge of Mr. Augustus Jewett, formerly of this city. She was built by Hall of East Boston, the celebrated shipbuilder, for Mr. Amery, of Portsmouth, who now owns her. She is a splendid craft, of 30 tons, with superb accommodations, and is a most excellent sailer.—Newburyport Herald.

NAVAL.—The Marion has 94 Midshipmen on board, and is ordered to cruise between Portland, Me, and Philadelphia, Penn. The American will accompany the Marion, in charge of Midshipman D. B. Cassell, and a crew of ten Midshipmen will be detailed from day to day, for the purpose of instruction in handling a foro-and-af versel. The vessels are to return to Newport by the last of September, when those Midshipmen who are now absent on leave will have returned.

The Newport Mercury states that between the 20th and 30th of July from 150 to 175 new candidates will be admitted to the Naval Academy, and by the last of September all vacancies are to be filled, so that by the 1st of October all the Midshipmen will be present and the studies begin in all the departments.

☞ The Lawrence, Mass., Journal says, "Vallandigham and Henry Ward Beecher have both left the country."

SINGING SCHOOLS.—We are requested to state that the Juvenile and Adult Singing Classes of Mr. Davis, will commence at Mercantile Hall, on Monday afternoon and evening, June 15th—the juveniles at 5 o'clock, and the evening class at 8. After the first two lessons, the classes will meet on Wednesdays, at 3 and 8 o'clock.

Names may be left at Mr. J. H. Head's Book and Music Store—and the Books used can be procured there in due season.

Terms—for Children $1.50 for the term. Evening School, $1.50 for the term, single admission 15 cents. Tickets at Mr. Head's, and at the Hall.

☞ The first afternoon and evening, admittance free; and all interested, are invited to be present.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

To every barrel of Flour you can make thirty pounds more Bread or Biscuit (and much better) by using Herrick Allen's Gold Medal, than by yeast fermentation or any other Saleratus.—It is perfectly healthy, will not turn your cookery yellow, will strengthen weak stomachs, and cure dyspeptic persons. It is much better to use with cream tartar than soda. Try one paper, and you will be convinced. Most of the Grocers sell it. Depot 112 Liberty Street, New York.

SCHOOLEY'S
NEW IMPROVED
ICEBERG REFRIGERATORS.

This upright REFRIGERATOR combines every improvement. It is the most perfect article of the kind in the market, requiring less ice than any other, and keeping its contents sweet and free from any unpleasant odors.

Daniel T. Curtis, Fruit dealer, Boston says of it, "I have preserved grapes and pears, peaches, and an extensive variety of plums and berries for five or six weeks in Schooley's Refrigerator."

Oren Peck, Boylston Market, Boston, says, "I find, on careful trial, that it will keep meats perfectly fresh and dry for ten or twelve days."

John Hunt, Butter dealer, Cincinnati, says, "I can keep butter sweet and fresh any length of time in reason, say six weeks."

C. E. Carpenter, Ice Dealer, Providence, says, "I have kept a cup of custard in one of Schooley's Refrigerators during the warm weather one week, when I ate it and found it perfectly good."

Thousands of similar testimonials can be shown in its favor.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR. (Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to pro-ure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, and throughout, of the same size, at cheaper prices than ever before sold

THE ALL SUFFICIENT THREE,
The Great "American Remedies,"
Known as "Helmbold's"
Genuine Preparations, Viz.:
HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT "BUCHU,"
" SARSAPARILLA,
" IMPROVED ROSE WASH.

HELMBOLD'S
GENUINE PREPARATION,
"HIGHLY CONCENTRATED"
COMPOUND
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
A Positive and Specific Remedy
For Diseases of the
BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL, AND DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.

This Medicine increases the power of Digestion, and excites the ABSORBENTS into healthy action, by which the Watery or Calcerous depositions, and all Unnatural Enlargements are reduced, as well as pain and inflammation, and is good for Men, Women, or Children.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
FOR WEAKNESSES
Arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion, or Abuse,
ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

Indisposition to Exertion,	Loss of Power,
Loss of Memory	Difficulty of Breathing,
Weak Nerves,	Trembling,
Horror of Disease,	Wakefulness,
Dimness of Vision,	Pain in the Back,
Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System,	Flushing of the Body,
Hot Hands,	Eruptions on the Face,
	Pallid Countenance.
	Dryness of the Skin.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on, which this medicine invariably removes, soon follow IMPOTENCY, FATUITY, EPILEPTIC FITS. In one of which the patient may expire. Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases,"

INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION.

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess. The records of the Insane Asylums and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion.

THE CONSTITUTION, ONCE AFFECTED WITH ORGANIC WEAKNESS, Requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. A trial will convince the most skeptical.

Females, Females, Females,
OLD OR YOUNG, SINGLE, MARRIED, OR CONTEMPLATING MARRIAGE.

In many affections peculiar to Females the Extract Buchu is unequalled for any other remedy, as in Chlorie or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness, or Suppression of the Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrous state of the Uterus, Leucorrhea, or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from Indiscretion, Habits of Dissipation, or in the DECLINE OR CHANGE OF LIFE.

SEE SYMPTOMS ABOVE.

NO FAMILY SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT.

Take no Balsam, Mercury, or Unpleasant Medicine for unpleasant and dangerous diseases.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
CURES
Secret Diseases
In all their stages at little expense; little or no change in diet; no inconvenience,
AND NO EXPOSURE.

It causes frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing obstruction, preventing and curing Strictures of the Urethra, allaying pain and inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling Poisonous, Diseased and Worn-out Matter.

Thousands upon Thousands
WHO HAVE BEEN THE VICTIMS OF QUACKS,

and who have paid heavy Fees to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "Powerful Astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in an aggravated form, and

PERHAPS AFTER MARRIAGE.

USE
HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
For all Affections and Diseases of
The Urinary Organs,

Whether existing in MALE OR FEMALE, from whatever cause originating, and no matter

OF HOW LONG STANDING.

Diseases of the organs require the aid of diuretics.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
IS THE GREAT DIURETIC,

And it is certain to have the desired effect in all diseases for which it is recommended.

BLOOD! BLOOD! BLOOD!
Helmbold's Highly Concentrated Compound
Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla,
SYPHILIS.

This is an affection of the Blood, and attacks the Sexual Organs, Linings of the Nose, Ears, Throat, Windpipe, and other Mucous Surfaces, making its appearance in the form of Ulcers.—Helmbold's Extract Sarsaparilla purifies the Blood, and removes all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, giving to the complexion a clear and healthy Color. It being prepared expressly for this class of complaints, its Blood-Purifying Priuperties are preserved to a greater extent than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla.

Helmbold's Rose Wash.

An excellent Lotion for Diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection in Diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation, when used in connection with Extracts Buchu and Sarsaparilla, in such diseases as recommended.

Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character will accompany the medicines.

Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR

Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

From Henry Eden, a well-known merchant of Oxford, Maine.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As fast as our people try it they agree there has been no medicine like it before in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Rev. Robt. Stratton, Bristol, England.

"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that vast publish of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, had an afflicting humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were almost desperate until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well-known and much-esteemed lady of Dorchester, Cape May Co., N. J.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded her relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Charles P. Gage, Esq., of the widely-known Gage, Murray & Co. manufacturers of enamelled papers in Nashua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features, and became intolerable affliction. I tried almost every thing a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time; but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's, and I am without any symptoms of the disease that I knew of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—General Debility—Purify the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Swain, Houston St., New York.

"Dr. AYER, I seldom fail to remove Erysipelas and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipelas with it. No alterative we possess equals the SARSAPARILLA you have supplied to the profession as well as to the people."

From J. E. Johnston, Esq., Waterman, Ohio.

"For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and took hundreds of dollars worth of medicines. The ulcers were so bad that the surrounding physicians of my district decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA. Took two bottles, and some of your Pills, and became well. It cured me. I am now as well and sound as any body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Benry Moore, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Sickler, Esq., the able editor of the Lancaster Intelligencer, Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which spread over his face, and bound up his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For nearly two years, during our hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face, and bring tried every thing we had, and my hope from, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had finished the second. The child's eyelashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any other. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease

From Dr. Hiram Sheet, of St. Louis, Missouri.

"I prize SARSAPARILLA as more effectual remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis, and for syphilitic disease than any other we possess. The profession are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have."

From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrence, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature of Massachusetts.

"DR. AYER. My dear Sir: I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary type, and effectual in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other remedies. I do not know what we can employ with more certainty of success, where a powerful alterative is required."

Mr. Chas. S. Van Liew, of New Brunswick, N. J., had dreadful ulcers on his legs, caused by the abuse of mercury, or mercurial disease, which grew more and more aggravated, in spite of every remedy or treatment that could be applied, until the persevering use of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA relieved him. Few cases can be more severe or more distressing than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him.

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally produced by internal Scrofulous Ulceration, and we very often see the most astonishing effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require, however, to aid of the SARSAPARILLA, the skilful application of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely-celebrated Dr. Jacob Morrill, of Cincinnati.

"I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in diseases of females. Many cases of Irregularity, Leucorrhœa, Internal Ulceration, and local debility, arising from the scrofulous diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not, when its effect is properly aided by local treatment."

A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes:

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhœa of long standing, by two bottles of your SARSAPARILLA."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia, when caused by Scrofula in the system, are rapidly cured by this EXT. SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

EYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1863. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even walking in affection, at times very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, Ac., but no lasting or permanent relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which entirely cured her. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's for removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many brilliant cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. Jonathan Goodwin."

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1863.

I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness and my stomach in a state of loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. Mrs. ELIZABETH LOVEJOY.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1861.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our town, she had suffered much, and had been confined for a number of months without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named. ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines, shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street.

BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continued in the Patent Office of the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of any new invention—and legal, or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered elsewhere. The Testimonials be ow given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities to obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had occasion to transact business."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, will especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with pesster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the whole ash up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds in families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. In the Magee Furnace, the combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This combustion, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the passing of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to get out of order, and thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without any going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Woodell,	John Sise, and others.

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular, can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a cancer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While it all way is a better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has purchased the sole VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and comfortable, consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and tongue. There are no insertices or open joints to collect food, and consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TRADWELL, Dr. BOARMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention. All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home—our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all:
Exalt the right, though every lam fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest frankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

Communication.

PEACE—ON WHAT TERMS.—At the Peace Meeting in New York City, the other day, Hon. Fernando Wood brought forward "Ten Propositions" on which he said he "demands an armistice." The first of the ten reads as follows, and is a key to the whole.

"The war should cease, because it should have never been begun, inasmuch as there is no coercive military power in the Federal Government as against the States, which are sovereign, and in possession of all power not delegated. If power of coercion exists at all, it is legal and not military.

The Portland Argus criticises the proposition, as follows:

They go for peace, but on what terms, is the question? We are all for peace, we trust—an honorable peace on the basis of a restoration of the Union—but never on the basis of separation. Mr. Wood's meaning, for so it may be called, he being the chief speaker as well as the getter-up of it, does not go into particulars—deals only in generalities, and leaves us in doubt as to the terms of peace that would be accepted. The idea advanced that the Federal Government has, under the Constitution, no power to coerce States by military force, does not deny, and we presume was not intended to deny, its right to coerce individuals to respect the Constitution and obey the laws. If the resolutions are intended to deny that, they not only take away all the backbone of government, but they run counter to the whole practice of the Government, from Washington's and Jackson's administrations to the present time, and violate the fundamental principles of the Democratic party.

The generalities, of which the Argus speaks, were designed to mislead the ignorant who take Mr. Wood for their teacher, and the real meaning undoubtedly is, that the United States have no power or right to coerce the rebels,—that we had no right to resist, but should have suffered Floyd, Davis, Mason, Breckinridge & Co. to rule, in spite of Constitution and votes.

The Argus is not quite prepared to subscribe to all this—neither are the Democratic party generally—but Mr. Wood's propositions go all lengths: and many of his followers in New York City and elsewhere go with them. His peace means our abject submission. But it remains to be seen whether the free States can be so besotted and befooled. U. T.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, JUNE 11, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Adm. Porter reports that since the destruction of the rebel transports on the Yazoo by Com'r Walker, the rebels have no vessels on that river except a few steamers beyond Fort Pemberton. 9 steamers, valued at $700,000, among them the Star of the West, were destroyed.

Gen. Banks in his official report of the attack on Port Hudson, speaks very highly of the conduct of the negroes. He says our loss from May 23d to 30th, in killed, wounded and missing, is nearly 1000, including some of the ablest officers of the corps.

As at Port Hudson, our losses at Vicksburg seem to have been greatly exaggerated.

The Washington Republican says that Gen. Hooker's army is wide awake. Lee has found out within a few days that he can neither advance nor retire without fighting. The N. Y. Herald's dispatch states that 3000 Texans have been mounted and added to Stuart's command, to serve as riflemen, and all the rebel cavalry are collected in the vicinity of Culpepper. Lee has moved up in that neighborhood with a large column of infantry. Gen. Hooker has sent to the vicinity a force of cavalry and artillery equal to that of the rebels, with several thousand of picked infantry. The N. Y. World's dispatch says Stuart has been repulsed in an attempt to cross the Rappahannock. The Post's dispatch states that this fight was a brilliant exploit. It says, however, that it was our troops who crossed and made the attack; the rebels were driven from their intrenchments with a large number killed and wounded. Many prisoners were taken by our troops.

Gen. Carter's forces, which for some weeks have been guarding the north bank of the Cumberland river, crossed the river on Monday and drove Pegram's forces out of Monticello, and at last accounts were pursuing the flying rebels. A number of prisoners, horses, arms, &c., were captured. No loss on our side.

☞ Two rebel spies dressed in full Federal uniforms, went to Franklin, Tenn., and claimed to have authority from Gen. Rosecrans to inspect the fortifications. Our officers being suspicious, telegraphed to Gen. Rosecrans, and they were thus detected. They were tried by court martial, confessed and were hanged. One, Col. Lawrence William Orten, was recently Gen. Bragg's chief of artillery, was a cousin to Gen. Robert Lee, and a brother of a member of Gen. McClellan's late staff. Treasonable and contraband information was found upon them.

☞ Gen. Santa Anna, ex-President of Mexico, and the greatest Stateman and General that country has produced, still resides at St. Thomas, on his plantation just out of the town. He is seldom seen by the people, and his chief amusement is cock-fighting. He takes no part in the war now going on in his native country; but quietly waits a recall from the people.

☞ The reception of the Forty-Fourth Mass. Regiment in Boston on Wednesday was a hearty and enthusiastic affair, though perhaps not carried out quite so much in detail as it would have been if the regiment had not stolen a march upon its friends and arrived home some forty-eight hours before it was expected.

☞ A Washington dispatch states that persons who were in the U. S. service at the time the Conscription Act was passed (March 3) are to be enrolled, but are not to be included in the first class which is subject to the first draft. Those of the second class are not to be called for until those of the first class shall have been exhausted.

☞ A tenement house on Baxter street, New York, was burned on Tuesday night, and several persons perished in the flames for want of means of escape. Others were injured in jumping from chamber windows.

☞ The Richmond Examiner of Saturday ridicules the rebel despatches from the Southwest, especially those which set down the tremendous losses for Gen. Grant. It calls them "blatherskite telegrams."

☞ Several young men were arrested in Baltimore last Friday, charged with treasonable practices in organizing a company to join the rebel army, some of them being sons of prominent citizens.

☞ On the 5th inst. Gen. Connor made a treaty with 5000 Snake Indians at Fort Bridger, Utah, and sent Capt. Lewis after 50 warriors who refused to abide by it.

☞ The Indiana Supreme Court has decided that the officers of the State are escaped from paying interest on the State debt, by the failure of the Legislature to make an appropriation.

☞ A negro boy who was sent to the State Reform School for placing obstructions on the Housatonic railroad track at New Lenox, said he did it to see the "cars bob up and down."

EDITORIAL JOTTINGS.

Rather late, isn't it, to talk much about Election Day? Well, perhaps a few readers may think it better late than not at all. The fact is, that we had so much else to do, to see and enjoy, that we didn't care to do such reporter's work at that time. As everybody knows, all passed off pleasantly, and Governor Gilmore was inaugurated with as much pomp and ceremony, probably, as ever honored any executive of the State. The display on the occasion was pronounced by the old stagers, to be the best of the sort ever seen in Concord. A few incidents which fell under our personal observation, are all we shall refer to.

One thing is sure—that this, the fourth annual parade of the Governor's Horse Guards of New Hampshire, proves beyond question, that the organization is to be permanent, and is not to die out in a few years, as prophesied by the croakers at the outset. Never did the battalion appear to greater advantage. Both men and horses drill steadier and better, year by year—the ranks were nearly as full as ever, and we thought the horses averaged larger and better than ever before, tho' there were not so many specially showy nags "gotten up" for the occasion. Our chief bugler, Nat Head, on his splendid, proud-stepping, music-loving gray, of course "went ahead of all," as usual, it being his place to "lead 'em all." Considering all things,—the times, and the fact that so many of the Guards are off to the wars, &c.,—this grand turnout of the Horse Guards must be regarded as a great success. Lt. Col. Bellows being sick, the command devolved on Maj. Kent, who is fully competent. Ball's Band furnished the music, and did finely, as is their wont. The position of Judge Advocate was filled for the first time—Albert R. Hatch, Esq., of Portsmouth, appearing in a neat and elegant uniform, in that capacity, on the staff. Company C has also gained strength during the past year, and should be filled forthwith, and we believe will be. The officers of the battalion, one and all, spare no exertion to promote the interests of the companies. And especially is it in order to acknowledge the indefatigable attention of Adjutant J. B. Sanborn, of Concord, whose splendid, full voice rings out so satisfactorily in promulgating orders on the field. Long may it be, ere that "full, manly voice turns again into its childish treble." And all—officers and men, continue to show a deep interest in the well being and high standing of the Horse Guards; and so, increase and prosper they must.

One rather ungracious incident occurred at Concord, among the general desire manifested on all hands to make things pass off pleasantly—which we think is worthy of being chronicled rather more at length than we have yet seen it. The firemen of Concord were no doubt desirous of showing off their new steam fire engine; and had placed it directly in front of the State House, on the sidewalk. Here it sat, quietly belching forth, for a long while, its clouds of smoke, to add to the stifling dust, which was the only drawback to the lovely weather on the occasion. No movement was made to play it, until the military escort of the day, the Horse Guards and Veterans, with the attendant throngs of people, had drawn up in line, waiting to receive Gov. Berry in column. Then, just then, of all times, the two hose were filled, and two streams of the dirtiest bilge-water imaginable rose high in air, and descended wherever they might, "on the heads or on the ground." Astonished was everybody, including the horses of the Guards, and their Band, and especially the two couple of rustics from the rural districts, who had been enjoying the scene from their open wagon, on whose devoted heads descended a barrel of unexpected shower-bath! Amid the bolting of horses, and the scrambling of men, women and children in all directions, cries of "stop that, stop that!" "hat's outrageous!" were heard in all directions. But yet for many minutes continued the spouting up of the streams, and the splashing of the descending waters, which were also fast converting the streets into mud. Cries of "cut the hose! cut the hose!" now ran along the lines of the Guards; and any of them were ready to do the deed. And sure enough, two Concord members rode out of the ranks, dismounted, and requested the foreman of the steamer to cease playing.—He refused, when one of the Guards, Mr. Holt, instantly cut both hose close to the tub! Of course the water now squirted from the bottom, instead of the top of the pipes, and Mr. Holt, among others, was quickly drenched; but the fun was up, or rather down—the original fun of playing on a holiday crowd! As for Holt, he calmly remounted his horse, and quietly took his place in line again, amid cries of "good! good!" and "three cheers for Holt!" which were lustily given; and shouts of "a testimonial for Captain Holt!" "yes! yes!" and the like. Everybody approved the act, which was one of the most cool and plucky we ever saw, as the outrage which provoked it was the most impudent we ever witnessed. Mr. H. was just the man for the occasion, being of middle age, high respectability, a man of handsome property, and one of the Assistant Engineers of the Fire Department of Concord. We hope never to see another such outrage on common decency; but if we do, may Mr. Holt, or some other man with his pluck, be there to teach stupid boors good manners and common sense.

Among the places of interest in Concord, we called on Messrs. Benj. B. Davis and J. H. Morey, who have the nicest music rooms we ever saw, in Masonic Temple,—very large and airy, and filled with pictures, and flowers, and birds, and pretty things of all sorts. A class of girls was just practising for a concert, and they sang finely. Davis as teacher of singing, and Morey as pianist and organist, have great success and popularity; and together they are a very strong team. But unless they are wedded irrevocably to their art in which they are so earnest and prosperous, we don't see how they can so long resist the attractions and blandishments, which are constantly but of course involuntarily emanating from the fair creatures with whom they are constantly brought in communion through their profession. Helpho! what a couple of incorrigibles!

We need not, cannot go into general details of the day, at this late hour. Everything passed off well, as everybody already knows. The Guards dined at Phenix Hall, as usual, with the noble battalion of Manchester Veterans as their guests for the third time, we think;—Gov. Gilmore and suite, and Ex-Governors and other dignitaries in number,—including Hon. Onslow Stearns, of the Northern Railroad, who was elected President of the Senate so unexpectedly, and who is a most estimable and capable gentleman anywhere. Both he and the new Governor are members of the Horse Guards; and Mr. Stearns and Ex-Gov. Colby have repeatedly mounted with them.

The dinner was not as luxurious as heretofore, but was good and abundant; and for our part, we prefer a common lunch, with all hands invited, rather than a luxurious, exclusive meal.—It has almost always so happened, that most of the Horse Guards and others from Portsmouth and vicinity, attendant on Governor Elections, have been obliged to hurry away from dinner to take the cars for home. And this time, so late was everything, that all must stay in Concord over another night, or not enter the dinner hall at all. On this being stated to Mr. Gilmore and Mr. Kenrick, arrangements were immediately made for a late extra special accommodation train down, which left Concord at 6, and arrived at Portsmouth at 9 o'clock, bringing also in a freight car attached, the horses which were carried up. Thus ending in good style, the trip—and this little agreeable incident was to us only another evidence of the spirit of accommodation and encouragement which has ever been exhibited by Gov. Gilmore towards the Horse Guards, as well as by all the management of the Concord and C. & P. Railroads towards the citizens and interests of Portsmouth.

Communication.

FREE SPEECH! WHERE?—At the late Fernando Wood peace meeting, in New York, much fault was found with ministers for preaching in favor of sustaining the government by war. The same meeting laid great stress on freedom of speech and the press,—not perceiving probably, that they were attacking free speech in one of its most sacred and important precincts.—Putting their tenets into plain English, they favor free speech on the side of rebellion, in pot houses and mass meetings; but no loyal speech or prayer must be tolerated in a pulpit.

"It is a remarkable fact that nearly all (more than nine-tenths, probably) of the ministers of all denominations in the North, are in favor of defending the country against the war made by the rebel slave power.—And every candid man in New Hampshire who opposes their speaking on such an important question, should ask himself what improper motive would be likely to sway six hundred ministers in the State all one way, and all wrong?

He might well ask himself if, as a class, they are not as well able to give wise counsel on all common subjects, as the class of farmers, mechanics, merchants or lawyers: and finally, whether it would be desirable, if it were possible, to muzzle the pulpit on any subject involving moral obligations and duties.

As to any minister who sees fit, for prudential reasons or for any others, to keep silent on such topics, the freedom for which we plead would allow him to do so, answering to his own conscience whether he does right. And if any one took a South Side View of the rebellion in a sermon, we should leave him to the tender mercies of critics and patriots. But this last kind of ministers, the reader knows to be scarce; and this is the point we ask him to consider, viz.—Why it is, that nearly all the ministers who speak at all on the subject, speak on one side?—and why all support the government and advocate liberal institutions?

It is not the result of accident—not of combination—but of principle and conscience.

☞ In the N. H. House of Representatives on Tuesday, a bill was introduced by Mr. Walker, of this city, authorizing the extension of the Dover and Winnipisseogee Railroad to the line of the State of Maine, in order to connect with the Eastern Railroad. Read twice, and referred to the committee on Railroads. The petitions of Jonathan Dearborn and 531 others, of this city, and of William F. Estes and 801 others, of Dover, were referred to the same committee.

☞ Wood's Minstrels and Miss Fanny Wood gave an excellent Nigger Concert at the Temple, last Tuesday evening; and are to appear there again next Saturday evening, with entire change of programme.—Their singing was good, some of the playing extra, and the jokes and buffooonery much better than common. The patent stump speech was about the best thing of the sort we ever heard; and that tamborinist is "a ringer," sure.

It seemed a little strange to see a pretty white girl among the darkies, as "middle man;" but she "acted well her part," and helped out the performance considerably. She sang her song, "If your foot is pretty, show it," with white slipper illustrations, almost as bewitchingly as do the charming, innocent, every day creatures make similar displays accidentally, if they happen to have pretty little continuations. Honi soi, &c.

MUSIC IN SCHOOLS.—Next to reading, writing and cyphering,—if not before either—we think music ought to be taught in all our schools. But when this cannot be done, or is not by the District, the next thing is for the parents or friends of the children and the cause, to do all they can —encourage the juvenile singing school, or procure the visits of a good teacher in the common school as often as may be. This is done in Concord—where we learn that the teachers, and others interested, raise funds to secure the services of Mr. Davis; and they say the improved condition of the school, as such, well repays all trouble and expense, not to mention the good effect on the children themselves.

And we see in the Brunswick Telegraph mention made of a plan by which they have music in all their schools there—two lessons per week in each school, and the children furnish the means by paying a weekly sum of 3 cents each. Of course we have no arguments to waste on any dolt who doubts the good effect of music in schools, or its great desirability.

☞ The Portsmouth Girls' High School is blessed with a fine melodeon,—thanks to the public spirit of a lady friend of the school, who procured it by subscriptions; they have good singing there daily, some of the young ladies playing. A piano for the Boys' department has for a long time been talked of, but doesn't seem to come yet.—But it ought to—and the teachers and scholars, we know, would appreciate one, and well would improve it if they had it.

☞ Mr. Robert Rand, of Co. K, 18th N. H. Regiment, has been discharged on account of sickness, and has returned to his home in this city.

☞ Lieut. Com'r T. C. Harris has been ordered to the command of screw steamer Chippewa, 6, vice Bryson, detached.

DEATH OF AN AGED FISHERMAN.—The Portland Press states that Samuel Willard, whose sudden death last Thursday we have already announced, was one of the oldest mariners on our coast. In 1812 he helped tow the Enterprise to sea the day before she fought the Boxer near Monhegan island. The Enterprise was towed to sea by small boats. His memory was perfect, his knowledge of the coast unequaled. It is only a few weeks since he piloted the ship Charles Cooper into Portland, an evidence of soundness of body and mind almost unprecedented at the advanced age of 71 years. Mr. Willard opened the first fish market in Portland. During fifty-six seasons, and thirty-eight winters among the number, he has endured the exposure of a fisherman on this coast, having landed more fish probably than any other man in Maine, rarely seeing a sick day, to the day of his death. Last Thursday Mr. Willard went out to the fishing grounds as usual, accompanied by a small boy. The boy having hooked a large halibut weighing over a hundred pounds, the old man took the line. After giving the fish line three times, twice after bringing him up to the boat, Mr. Willard hauled him in, struck him once with the "killer," and fell dead where he stood without speaking or moving.

To every barrel of Flour you can make thirty pounds more Bread or Biscuit (and much better) by using Herrick Allen's Gold Medal, than by yeast fermentation or any other Saleratus.—It is perfectly healthy, will not turn your cookery yellow, will strengthen your stomachs, and cure dyspeptic persons. SCHOOLEY'S
ICEBERG REFRIGERATORS.

This upright REFRIGERATOR combines every improvement. It is the most perfect article of the kind in the market, requiring less ice than any other, and keeping its contents sweet and free from any unpleasant odors.

Daniel T. Curtis, Fruit dealer, Boston, says of it, "I have preserved grapes and pears, peaches, and an extensive variety of plums and berries for five or six weeks in Schooley's Refrigerator."

Oren Peck, Boylston Market, Boston, says, "I find, on careful trial, that it will keep meats perfectly fresh and dry for ten or twelve days."

John Hunt, Butter dealer, Cincinnati, says, "I can keep butter sweet and fresh any length of time in reason, say six weeks."

C. E. Carpenter, Ice Dealer, Providence, says, "I have kept a cup of custard in one of Schooley's Refrigerators during the warm weather one week, when I ate it and found it perfectly good."

Thousands of similar testimonials can be shown in its favor.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR. (Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete combination. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made, lined throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

The various sizes of the above are for sale by the subscriber—also, ICE PITCHERS, ICE AWLS, &c.

THE ALL SUFFICIENT THREE,
The Great "American Remedies,"
Known as "Helmbold's"
Genuine Preparations, Viz.:

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT "BUCHU,"
" " SARSAPARILLA,
" IMPROVED ROSE WASH.

HELMBOLD'S
GENUINE PREPARATION,
"HIGHLY CONCENTRATED"
COMPOUND
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
A Positive and Specific Remedy
For Diseases of the
BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL, AND DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.

This Medicine increases the power of Digestion, and excites the ABSORBENTS into Healthy action, by which the Watery or Calcareous depositions, and all Unnatural Enlargements are reduced, as well as pain and inflammation, and is good for Men, Women, or Children.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
FOR WEAKNESSES
Arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion, or Abuse,
ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

Indisposition to Exertion,	Loss of Power,
Loss of Memory	Difficulty of Breathing,
Weak Nerves,	Trembling,
Horror of Disease,	Wakefulness,
Dimness of Vision,	Pain in the Back,
Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System,	Flushing of the Body,
Hot Hands,	Eruptions on the Face,
	Pallid Countenance.
	Dryness of the Skin.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on, which this medicine invariably removes, soon follow IMPOTENCY, EPILEPTIC FITS, and in one of which the patient may expire. Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those "dreadful diseases."

INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION.

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess. The records of the Insane Asylums and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion.

THE CONSTITUTION, ONCE AFFECTED WITH ORGANIC WEAKNESS,

Requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. A trial will convince the most skeptical.

Females, Females, Females,

OLD OR YOUNG, SINGLE, MARRIED, OR CONTEMPLATING MARRIAGE.

In many affections peculiar to Females the Extract Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy, as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness, or Suppression of the Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrous state of the Uterus, Leucorrhœa, or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from Indiscretion, Habits of Dissipation, or in the

Thousands upon Thousands
WHO HAVE BEEN THE VICTIMS OF QUACKS,

and who have paid heavy Fees to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "Powerful Astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in an aggravated form, and

USE
HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
For all Affections and Diseases of
The Urinary Organs,

Whether existing in MALE OR FEMALE, from whatever cause originating, and no matter

It being prepared expressly for this class of complaints, its Blood-Purifying Properties are preserved to a greater extent than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla.

Morning Chronicle.

THE FIGHTING METHODISTS.—The 24th Iowa regiment, called the Methodist regiment, was in the terrible conflict at Vicksburg on the 22d ult. The colonel and several of the captains are Methodist preachers, and a majority of the soldiers are members of the Methodist church. They did some of the best fighting of the day. They went into the battle full of enthusiasm, and not one of them flinched during the engagement. Their major was wounded late in the day. He walked from the field, and on his way to the hospital, captured a stalwart Confederate, and compelled him to carry him on his back to the provost marshal's headquarters. A correspondent says "it was a laughable sight to see Major Wright riding his captive into camp." The casualty list of the Methodists is very large, and hows that they stood up to their work like true soldiers. On returning from the battle field in the evening, they held a religous meeting at which the exercises were very impressive.

Ayer's SARSAPARILLA,

THE WORLD'S GREAT REMEDY FOR
Scrofula and Scrofulous Diseases.

From Emery Eiles, a well-known merchant of Oxford, Maine.

"I have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, but never yet one bottle which failed of the desired effect and full satisfaction to those who took it. As fast as our people try it, they agree there has been no medicine like it before in our community."

Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Pustules, Ulcers, Sores, and all Diseases of the Skin.

From Mrs. Robt. Stratton, Bedford, England.

"I only do my duty to you and the public, when I add my testimony to that you publish of the medicinal virtues of your SARSAPARILLA. My daughter, aged ten, had an afflicting humor in her ears, eyes, and hair for years, which we were unable to cure until we tried your SARSAPARILLA. She has been well for some months."

From Mrs. Jane E. Rice, a well-known and much-esteemed lady of Dennisville, Cape May Co., N. J.

"My daughter has suffered for a year past with a scrofulous eruption, which was very troublesome. Nothing afforded any relief until we tried your SARSAPARILLA, which soon completely cured her."

From Chester P. Dunham, Esq., of the well-known Cape Murray & Co. manufacturers of enamelled papers in Nashua, N. H.

"I had for several years a very troublesome humor in my face, which grew constantly worse until it disfigured my features and became an intolerable affliction. I tried almost every thing a man could of both advice and medicine, but without any relief whatever, until I took your SARSAPARILLA. It immediately made my face worse, as you told me it might for a time, but in a few weeks the new skin began to form under the blotches, and continued until my face is as smooth as any body's, and I am without any humor upon me, for aught I know of. I enjoy perfect health, and without a doubt owe it to your SARSAPARILLA."

Erysipelas—Impure Blood—Purify the Blood.

From Dr. Robt. Sowden, Houston St., New York.

"DR. AYER. I seldom fail to recommend your Erysipelas and Scrofulous Sores by the persevering use of your SARSAPARILLA, and I have just now cured an attack of Malignant Erysipelas in the worst form with it. No alterative we possess equals the SARSAPARILLA you have supplied to the profession as well as to the people."

From J. E. Johnson, Esq., of Jefferson, Ohio.

"For twelve years, I had the yellow Erysipelas on my right arm, during which time I tried all the celebrated physicians I could reach, and had spent drafts of dollars worth of medicine. The sores were so bad that the cords became visible, and the doctors decided that my arm must be amputated. I began taking your SARSAPARILLA, PILLS, Vegetable Pills, and some of your PILLS. Together they have cured me. I am now as well and sound as any body. Being in a public place, my case is known to every body in this community, and excites the wonder of all."

From Hon. Henry Monro, M. P. P., of Newcastle, C. W., a leading member of the Canadian Parliament.

"I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my family, for general debility, and for purifying the blood, with very beneficial results, and feel confidence in commending it to the afflicted."

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Harvey Stokes, Esq., the able editor of the Tuskaloosa Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was attacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sore, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied nitrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wounds which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any hope from, we began giving your SARSAPARILLA, and applying the lotion of SARSAPARILLA you gave us direct. The sore began to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had finished the second. The child's eyelashes which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any other. The whole neighborhood predicted that the child must die."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease

From Dr. Hewes Stanley, St. Louis, Missouri.

"I find your SARSAPARILLA a more effectual remedy for the secondary symptoms of Syphilis and for syphilitic disease generally, than any preparation we have, and our patients are indebted to you for some of the best medicines we have."

From A. J. Broach, M. D., an eminent physician of Lawrenceburg, Maury County, Tennessee, and member of the Legislature of Massachusetts.

"DR. AYER: My dear Sir: I have found your SARSAPARILLA an invaluable remedy for the disease both of the primary and secondary type, and effectual in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other remedies. I do not know what we can employ with more certainty of success, where a powerful alterative is required."

Mr. Chas. S. Van Liew, of New Brunswick, N. J., had painful sores on his shoulders, which were the result of mercury, or mercurial disease, which grew more and more aggravated for years, in spite of every remedy or treatment that could be applied, until the persevering use of Ayer's SARSAPARILLA relieved him. Few cases can be found more inveterate and distressing than this, and it took several dozen bottles to cure him.

Leucorrhœa, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally produced by internal Scrofulous Ulceration, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of this SARSAPARILLA. Some cases require, however, in aid of the SARSAPARILLA, the skilful application of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely-celebrated Dr. Jacob Morrell, of Cincinnati.

"I have found your SARSAPARILLA an excellent alterative in diseases of females. Many cases of Irregularity, Leucorrhœa, Internal Ulceration, and local debility, arising from the scrofulous diathesis, have yielded to it, and there are few that do not, when its effect is properly aided by local treatment."

A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her name, writes:

"My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhœa of long standing, by two bottles of your SARSAPARILLA."

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia, when caused by Scrofula in the system, are rapidly cured by this EXT. SARSAPARILLA.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS

possess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

ATTENTION, THE WHOLE!

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—it defied all the doctors very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his HUMOR WASH, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since. I have sold as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomiting after meals, and pain in my stomach after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PILLS, which relieved me at once, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. ISRAEL CROSLEY.

From ELDER I. CRESSEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to numerous physicians, but instead of grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health, can rest well, quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CRESSEY.

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of the above medicines, will have pay for them, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may25tf

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street, BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they can safely employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration before the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, and in but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

CELEBRATED AND UNEQUALLED
MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual, the oven plates are covered with tin plate, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats is prevented from mingling in the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness, and general satisfaction in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable,—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given quantity of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed, which is so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 30 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or fire on the top of the coal can be made to consume the gases of the coal; as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and there may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq., Aaron H. Rich, Esq., Charles H. Mendum, Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the plate a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet easy enough, even when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET, }

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon the RUBBER, or other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insertices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the insertion is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth in blocks that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set or Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

☞ ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTING is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Vulcanite and Rubber. In all other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

PIANO-FORTES FOR SALE.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE

A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by Dr. WM. GRACE surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Flesh Wounds.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find this Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined:
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every item fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

FINANCIAL.—It really does sometimes seem as if nobody learnt anything by experience, and history must eternally repeat itself. Especially does the subject of "political economy," in all its ramifications, appear an inextricable jumble. As an example, take the following from the old broker in the Boston Commercial Bulletin of this week:

On March 17, 1837, the failure of Jas. J. & S. Joseph & Co. occurred, and the Banks suspended on May 10th,—a period of fifty-three days having elapsed from the first burst to the last collapse. The Ohio Life & Trust Co. failed on August 24th, 1857, and the Banks suspended on Oct. 13th—a period of fifty days intervening. So that it appears, that in a monetary crisis in this country, it takes about fifty days from first to last to consummate the crash.

At the present time, in 1863, there will occur some similar failure, which will startle the community out of its complacent ease and satisfactory repose. Some great house with unbounded credit, or Bank with undoubted reputation, will suddenly go down; and the public, struck aghast, will wonder who then can be safe, and, after a moment's pause, will hurry each one for himself, to convert his bank bills, deposits, bills receivable and claims into one currency, that of the United States. There will be no shield then of "suspension of specie payments" for the banks to shelter themselves under. The people will demand then that which none can refuse, unless utterly bankrupt—paper. Those who cannot meet their own paper with other paper, will, in their estimation, be poor indeed.

The final result will be, the wiping out of all the rotten institutions in the country, and the filling their places by new, untrammeled banks, free from the accumulated load of many year' debts, organized under the Government supervision and carried on under Government control. We shall have one country, one faith, one currency.

* * * In 1857, Oct. 12th, the officers of the banks of New York city assembled at the Clearing House, and issued a circular composed of resolutions which have never had their parallel for shortsightedness, unparalleled ignorance and unblushing stupidity. When it is considered that the combined wisdom, highest financial skill and most extensive experience of the United States were supposed to be gathered at that meeting—when it is remembered that these resolutions (passed upon the evening of the 12th) were made known to the public upon the morning of the 13th, and that before noon of that same day eighteen of those very banks had gone down, headed by the old Bank of New York, (chartered in 1784) and that upon the same evening, within twenty hours after the passage of these sage resolutions, the entire batch (except the Chemical) had suspended under another set of resolutions signed by the same Chairman—it is not possible to imagine greater stupidity or more remarkable blindness.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, JUNE 12, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

The fight on Tuesday, in which Stuart was defeated, is spoken of as the fiercest and bloodiest cavalry fight of the war.—Stuart's entire force of 12,000 cavalry and 16 pieces of artillery, was engaged for 8 hours, and driven back with heavy loss 3 miles on the right and 5 miles on the left. They were numerically superior to our troops. 200 prisoners and one stand of colors were taken by our troops. We lost several valuable officers, but the enemy's loss far exceeds ours. Our force returned with their dead and wounded to this side of the river, as the rebels were heavily reinforced with infantry and artillery. Papers captured show that Stuart was all ready to start on his proposed raid into Maryland and Pennsylvania.

A Corinth dispatch, 2d, states that heavy reinforcements from Savannah and Charleston, and two entire divisions from Bragg's army, have gone to Johnston, at Vicksburg.

It is stated that sufficient reinforcements had reached Gen. Banks on the 31st of May, to make his force four times as great as that of the rebels.

Gen. Kimball was sent with 3000 men up the Yazoo river to Satana on the 4th, where he encountered 2000 rebels. A brisk fight ensued which lasted 30 minutes, when the enemy gave way and a total rout ensued. Our loss was 1 killed and 17 wounded. We captured 100 prisoners.—The enemy's loss in killed and wounded was considerable. Gen. Johnston was still reported to be on the Big Black, endeavoring to cross below the bridge with an army of 20,000 men. Gen. Osterhaus was watching his movements with a sufficient force to checkmate any demonstration he may make.

The Government has advices from Gen. Grant's army to the 8th, when the siege was steadily and satisfactorily progressing. 500 rebels were repulsed in an attack on our troops at Triune, Tenn., on Wednesday.

☞ The Sanitary Commission has recently fitted up a well ventilated hospital car for the transportation of wounded soldiers from the battle-field. It is set on a bed of India rubber over the springs, to deaden every shock, and the trucks can be made to fit a road of any gauge. It resembles the ordinary sleeping car. The wounded are brought in on the field stretchers, which are suspended by strong India rubber loops, from pegs in the sides of upright stanchions. Thus a badly wounded or very sick man need not be removed from the stretchers. Thirty beds may be suspended in a car of ordinary size. There are also twelve folding chairs for the least feeble. There is also a complete cooking apparatus, and an assortment of everything likely to be needed for the benefit of the sufferers.

☞ The Western river men talk about Vicksburg in this fashion: "You see, they look at their hands, and Grant orders them up.—Then Mr. Pemberton sees he can't make anything, and offers to give him a point. Old U. S. is four already and that would carry him out, but they are playing laps and chases, so he can't see it, but goes in for a march and one on the next game."

☞ The discovery of a tin mine in Missouri is announced by a correspondent of the Scientific American. If the report be true, and the mine workable, no more important discovery has recently been made public. We have heretofore been entirely dependent upon England and the East Indies for our supply of this important metal.

☞ A work has just been issued by a Paris firm which has cost £40,000 for thirty copies. It is the description, with illustrations, of the coronation of the Emperor of Russia, and was ordered by him.

☞ The Nova Scotia gold mines have faded out. Of the thousands who were there in 1862 not more than forty or fifty remain. Cunard, of Halifax, made all the money in shore diggings. The quartz is infected with an oil that prevents separation of the gold from the powdered rock.

☞ Divers have already succeeded in securing over $40,000 of goods, and raised one box containing $32,000 in specie, from the wreck of the Anglo Saxon, off the coast of Nova Scotia. They also brought up 160 dead bodies, and caused them to be buried on shore.

☞ It is reported that a large batch of English thieves recently arrived in this country, and are now prowling about New York.

☞ Pineapples are selling for ten dollars apiece at Mobile, Ala.

☞ A yellow birch tree in the southwest corner of Belchertown, Mass., stands in four townships and two counties.

Some unsophisticated paragraphist heads an account of the marriage of a Virginia damsel with a Yankee artillery man as a "step toward peace." Never wider of the mark in the world, retorts the Providence Bulletin.

Communication.

SOLDIERS VOTING.—The Constitution of New Hampshire, Part 2, Art. 30, says: "Every person qualified as the constitution provides, shall be considered an inhabitant for the purpose of electing and being elected into any office or place within this State, in the town, parish and plantation where he dwelleth and hath his home."

Here is no express allowance or prohibition of a soldier's vote,—for the reason no doubt, that no such occasion as our civil war was provided for, or thought of. But the spirit of the article is, that every man's vote must be located at his home, and not scattered over the State. Why? Because otherwise there would be an open door for frauds of various kinds; votes might come in from abroad, or those here might be colonized ad libitum. Again, the voter who has a home in Portsmouth, though he may be at sea nine tenths of his time, or away on the land, at work, or in the army, may vote here, when he comes home.

It would seem, then, carrying out the idea and spirit of the 30th article, that the volunteer or drafted man now in the service of his country, having his home in Portsmouth ought to be considered an inhabitant for voting purposes;—and as he cannot readily come home, some statute might be framed which would permit his voting in camp, or at home by proxy.

Equity and honor demand that they should vote: the constitution puts no barrier in the way: and the governor recommends a statute regulating the manner of their voting. U. T.

☞ The St. Paul Press furnishes details of the expedition which will soon move against the hostile Indians of the Northwest. It will consist of nineteen infantry companies of Minnesota Volunteers, besides nine companies of Mounted Rangers, and a battery of eight pieces and 130 men.—The train will consist of 300 mule wagons and twenty ambulances. Its supposed destination is Devil's Lake—the place where the Indians are gathering. The expedition will act in concert with that of General Cook, which is to move forward from Sioux City, Iowa. Low water has somewhat delayed the movements. Besides the above force, 1862 men will be left to guard the frontier settlements, and 700 stand of arms have been distributed among the settlers for self defence. Gen. Sibley, in his address to the soldiers forming the expedition, speaks confidently of terminating the war speedily and effectually, and adds that nothing but gross negligence and other misconduct, humanly speaking, can be productive of disaster to the expedition.

☞ The American citizens of Monterey, Mexico, have signed a remonstrance against the appointment of Mr. Kinney, our Consul at that point, who is charged in the petition with having voted in Texas for secession, and who, with his business partner, Mr. Lyne, has been and is furnishing the rebels, by the way of Matamoros, with immense amounts of supplies. Our Consul at Vera Cruz, a Southern man, is also charged with giving the enemy all his sympathies.

☞ The Bath Times says that five of the crew of the schooner Northern Chief, of Gloucester, Mass., while fishing on the Banks, left the vessel in two boats on the first day of June, for the purpose of trawling. A dense fog set in so that they could not find the vessel, and they were two or three days in the boats with scarcely any provisions, and nothing on but their pants. They were picked up by schooner Ianthe.

☞ The Bishop of Rochester, England, has recently made the discovery that agriculture is degrading, he having prohibited a retired clergyman named Davies from officiating in his diocese, because of that gentleman's attachment to agricultural pursuits.

☞ The Halifax Chronicle states that the British Government has issued orders to the military authorities in Halifax to cause certain fortifications to be erected on McNab's Island, in that harbor, and that the work will commence immediately.

☞ Mr. John Palmer, of Bath, Me., on Saturday morning tied his hands together, attached a stone to them, jumped into the river and was drowned. He was 62 years of age, and had been separated, by residence, from his wife, for several years.

☞ Col. William M. Stone, of the 22d Iowa Regiment, is named in connection with the Union nomination for Governor of that State. Adj. Gen. Baker is also mentioned. Gen. Baker was formerly Governor of New Hampshire. The Iowa Republican State Convention will be held on the 17th inst.

☞ Pennsylvania has been asked to furnish 15 regiments of infantry and 3 of cavalry. These regiments, when raised, will be placed to her credit when the draft is made.

☞ A shrewd keeper of a restaurant in Gardiner, Me., hires the Band to play before his establishment, every Thursday evening.

☞ It is said that the iron-clad frigate Galena is being stripped of her coat of mail.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Lt. Paul F. Nason, of Exeter, has bee appointed Act. Adj. General of the Artillery Brigade, 5th corps, of the army of the Potomac.

—— The Democratic members of the Legislature have voted to hold a State Mass Convention in Concord, July 4th.

—— Capt. Charles E. Cross, whose death was announced on Saturday last, was not a brother of Col. Cross of the 5th N. H. regiment, but was a cousin.

—— The Concord Ladies' Soldiers' Aid Society, will give a Strawberry Festival in the Area of the State House on Wednesday, June 17th, commencing at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to raise money for the purposes of the society.

—— Robinson R. Frye, Esq., of Concord, for many years connected with Cheny & White's Express, has accepted the appointment of Mail Route Agent on the Eastern Railroad, and runs between Boston and Portland.

—— The officers and men of the Fifth regiment have raised nearly five hundred dollars, to be expended in the purchase of a sword, and watch, and pair of spurs for presentation to their brave commander, Col. Edward E. Cross. Tiffany & Co., of New York, are manufacturing the articles.

—— The 2d and 14th N. H. Regiments are in Washington in Gen. Heintzelman's Department. The 3d and 4th are near Charleston, under Gen. Hunter; the 7th is in Florida, in the same Department. The 8th, 15th and 16th are with Gen. Banks. The 6th, 9th and 11th are in the Department of the Ohio. The 5th and 12th are with Gen. Hooker, as is also the Cavalry.

—— The following gentlemen have been appointed Aides-de-Camp to His Excellency, Joseph A. Gilmore, Governor, &c., with the rank of Colonel: Nat. Head, Hooksett, Otis Wright, Nashua; Benj. F. Martin, Manchester; Nathaniel Hubbard, Tamworth; John S. Walker, Claremont; Geo. H. Hutchins, Concord; Richard O. Messer, New London; John George, Warner; Charles P. Gage, Nashua; Micajah C. Burleigh, Somersworth.

—— Alonzo, son of John S. Dolloff, of Meredith, aged 13 years and 5 months, on Saturday, took hold of the muzzle of a loaded gun and swung it around his head. The butt striking the ground, it went off, the charge taking effect in the side of the neck severing the jugular vein. He died almost instantly. When will parents and others take warning?

—— Two little girls, each 6 or 7 years old, in Manchester, on Monday afternoon attempted to build a fire in the kitchen stove, and having got a can of fluid fed the flames from it. The fire flashed up, communicating with the fluid in the can, which exploded and enveloped the children in flames. They rushed out of doors, and one of them, who was burned the least, was caught and the fire easily quenched. She was badly burned, her face, arms and chest being entirely blistered. The other died on Tuesday.

—— Lt. Col. Oliver W. Lull of the 8th regiment, who is reported killed at Port Hudson, was a native of Weare, and for several years resided in Manchester, where he read law in the office of Judge Cross. After being admitted to the bar, he opened an office in Milford. He was about 38 yrs. old, and leaves a wife and children.

—— The official account shows that at the Union Fair in Manchester for the benefit of the N. H. soldiers, the total amount of the receipts was $4433.90; and of expenditures, $657.18,—leaving a balance of $3776.72. 146 yards of cotton cloth remain on hand. The following disposition of the proceeds has been determined upon:

$1000 to the N. H. Soldiers' Aid Society at Washington; $500 to the Ladies' Soldiers' Aid Society of Manchester; $500 for the Department of the Gulf; $500 for our regiments on the Southern Atlantic coast; $500 to lie in the bank unappropriated, to be disposed of hereafter; the cloth was given to the Ladies' Soldiers' Aid Society; the balance, $776.72, was appropriated for the sick and wounded at Vicksburg.

—— The Senior Class at Dartmouth College has got on a rampage. It seems the class, in drawing up their order of exercises for Commencement, inserted the names of several members who are serving the country on the battle-field, which may have been all right; but they also inserted the names of others, who had been expelled, which was all wrong. The programme, as usual, was submitted to the inspection of a professor, who erased the names of the absentees, and a thousand copies were printed. This proceeding aroused the ire of the class. They appointed a committee to procure the printing of the programme first prepared, and the printing was done by some members of the class. The faculty having failed to discover the perpetrators of the act, "rusticated" the committee for the summer term. The class petitioned the faculty to recall their disgraced companions, and punish them as a class. This was denied; and now for two days the seniors have cut recitations and been absent at prayers. They have selected three of their number to represent their situation to the trustees of the college, and they have gone on their mission; if it proves fruitless, they threaten to apply to some other college for leave to enter and graduate. "Some other college" will probably give the petitioners leave to withdraw.

THE GREAT ROCHESTER SWINDLE.—Further developments have been made in the Saxton-Champion swindle at Rochester, N. Y., which show that what first came to light was insignificant compared with what has been since revealed. It now appears that Saxton had a perfectly executed power of attorney to control the affairs of Mr. Champion, convey his property, and to do pretty much as he pleased. He had a minute description of all the real estate Champion possessed, and it is by no means certain that he has not—acting under his power of attorney—disposed of considerable portions of it. What he has done under the authority vested in him by the instrument he held remains to be seen.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to retain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point upon which valuable preparation. To present asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities; I would ask confidence which will be secured, in Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness, Sore Throat Bronchial and Asthmatic Complaints, to all Throat and Lung Complaints, which, when neglected, end in Consumption; and to prove the declarations by true results.

A Large Stock of

Spring and Summer DRESS GOODS for sale cheap at T. TREDICK'S.

Local.

☞ The New Hampshire Convention of Universalists will meet at the Universalist Church in Portsmouth, next Wednesday, June 17th. A large attendance may be expected, as an excursion train, with cheap fare, will leave Boston at 10 minutes past 8 Wednesday morning for Portsmouth, and leave this city at 6 o'clock P.M. for Boston.

The Council will be formed at the forenoon session;—the Occasional Sermon will be delivered in the afternoon.

☞ Great improvement has been made on Islington street recently, by filling in with gravel, and rounding up the centre of the street, in various places.

Along the edge of the sidewalk in front of the Athenæum Block, a narrow strip at least could be paved, to good advantage—to prevent horses pounding out holes for the unsightly and dirty mud-puddles.

So many cross-walks in our streets are a nuisance to almost everybody; and the discontinuance of at least one-half of them would really inconvenience nobody. They cause or increase both mud and dust in our streets, each in its season, by obstructing water, and by causing holes on each side of them for deposits of dust for each passing carriage to stir up; and they are lovely to ride over, most of them; besides always being in good order for walking on!

☞ It is expected that Rev. Silas Ilsley, of Boston, will preach at the Middle Street Church next Sunday; and that Rev. Wm. Lamson, D. D., of Brookline, Mass., will preach at the same place on the Sunday after.

☞ The Navy Department have at length advertised for contracts to build the engines for the Steam Frigate Franklin, which has so long rested on the stocks at the Navy Yard.

☞ Maj. Jacob J. Storer, of this city, has been promoted to Lieutenant Colonel of the 15th N. H. regiment.

☞ Charles W. March, Esq., of this city, has recently returned from a protracted visit in Europe.

☞ Col. Paine, of the 2d Louisiana Regiment, killed in the attack on Port Hudson, is a Bostonian, and brother of Capt. Wm. C. Paine who recently had charge of the fortifications in course of construction in our harbor.

Need of Care.—A lady in Portland, whose son is in the naval service, has applied many times for months past for the half pay he had authorized her to draw, as he said, at the the Navy Agency in Boston, but in vain. At last a gentleman familiar with such matters wrote to the Navy Agent in Portsmouth for her, and found that over a hundred dollars remained there awaiting her order, a part of which had been there for nearly a year. Those who have half pay tickets need to have care that the right directions are given.—Portland Argus.

A Desperate Horse.—A "valuable" horse belonging to David Ayers, took flight in Washington street, Boston, Tuesday morning, and notwithstanding the efforts of Mr. Ayers (who had just got out of the carriage and was standing by, holding the reins) to hold him, thrust his head and the shafts of a buggy through the windows of a store owned by J. E. Tilton & Co. Two panes of glass of the value of $100 each were broken, sundry photograph albums were damaged, and the horse so badly damaged that it was believed necessary to kill him. He is reported to have been worth $300, but any horse which can be driven thus crazy simply by a horse car passing "isn't worth having," any how.

☞ The Chattanooga Rebel newspaper of May 29, says of Mr. Vallandigham:—

"We really consider his prospects to be Governor of Ohio very fair. We wish them realized, because he is a peace man—an able and honest one. With such a man as President of the United States, we could always remain at peace. He is our style of a man, and as such we do not wish him consigned to the obscurity and misfortune of an exile where he is powerless for good.

We admire McClellan and we admire Buell also. We admire any man of courage and capacity, who has waged this war upon Christian principles. We admire Mr. Vallandigham more than all, because he was against the war at the start, and has kept he faith untarnished ever since.

☞ The Governor of Illinois on the 10th issued a proclamation proroguing the Legislature until 1865. The Republicans left the halls and thereby broke a quorum in each. The Democrats finding themselves powerless, entered a protest upon the record and informally left their seats.

☞ A deputy provost marshal and a detective were killed in Bush county, Indiana, on Wednesday. Troops have gone to the scene of the murder.

☞ The cost of the British iron-plated ship Black Prince was £373,899; the Resistance, £257,848, and the Defence, £252,897. The whole cost of the Warrior, ready for sea, amounts to £377,374 or $1,886,800. Pretty expensive for such failures as they are said to be.

☞ More than one thousand members have been added to the Masonic Fraternity in Maine during the past year.

☞ The Richmond Dispatch says that "ninety-nine out of every hundred Southern people are making up their minds to accept war as their natural condition for the remainder of their earthly existence."

☞ The family of Gen. Neal Dow have received letters from New Orleans stating that he is doing well, although he received a severe wound in the thigh and another in the side. Two other balls passed through his clothing.

☞ The rebels used miniature explosive shells at the battle of Vicksburg, and the result is a necessity for the amputation of almost every arm and leg hit by these unusual and fearfully destructive missiles, in order to save life. In every instance when the bullet enters near a bone, the bone is shattered.

To every barrel of Flour you can make thirty pounds more Bread or Biscuit (and much better) by using Herrick Allen's Gold Medal, than by yeast fermentation or any other Salaratus.—It is perfectly healthy, will not turn your cookery yellow, will strengthen weak stomachs, and cure dyspeptic persons. SCHOOLEY'S
NEW IMPROVED
ICEBERG REFRIGERATORS.

This upright REFRIGERATOR combines every improvement. It is the most perfect article of the kind in the market, requiring less ice than any other, and keeping its contents sweet and free from any unpleasant odors.

Daniel T. Curtis, Fruit dealer, Boston says of it, "I have preserved grapes and pears, peaches, and an extensive variety of plums and berries for five or six weeks in Schooley's Refrigerator."

Oren Peck, Boylston Market, Boston, says, "I find, on careful trial, that it will keep meats perfectly fresh and dry for ten or twelve days."

John Hunt, Butter dealer, Cincinnati, says, "I can keep butter sweet and fresh any length of time in reason, say six weeks."

C. E. Carpenter, Ice Dealer, Providence, says, "I have kept a cup of custard in one of Schooley's Refrigerators during the warm weather one week, when it was found to be perfectly good."

Thousands of similar testimonials can be shown in its favor.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR. (Patented Jan. 8, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the late improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has not necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made, lined throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

THE ALL SUFFICIENT THREE,

The Great "American Remedies,"

Known as "Helmbold's"

Genuine Preparations, Viz.:

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT "BUCHU,"
" SARSAPARILLA,
" IMPROVED ROSE WASH.

HELMBOLD'S
GENUINE PREPARATION,
"HIGHLY CONCENTRATED"
COMPOUND
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

A Positive and Specific Remedy

For Diseases of the
BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL, AND DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.

This Medicine increases the power of Digestion, and excites the Absorbents into healthy action, by which the Watery or Calcerous depositions, and all Unnatural Enlargements are reduced, as well as pain and inflammation, and is good for Men, Women, or Children.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
FOR WEAKNESSES

Arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion, or Abuse,

ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

Indisposition to Exertion,	Loss of Power,
Loss of Memory,	Difficulty of Breathing,
Weak Nerves,	Trembling,
Horror of Disease,	Wakefulness,
Dimness of Vision,	Pain in the Back,
Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System,	Flushing of the Body,
Hot Hands,	Eruptions on the Face,
	Pallid Countenance,
	Dryness of the Skin.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on, which this medicine invariably removes, soon follow IMPOTENCY, FATUITY, EPILEPTIC FITS, in one of which the victim may expire. We can say that they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases."

INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION.

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess. The records of the Insane Asylums and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion.

THE CONSTITUTION, ONCE AFFECTED WITH ORGANIC WEAKNESS, Requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. A trial will convince the most skeptical.

Females, Females, Females,

OLD OR YOUNG, SINGLE, MARRIED, OR CONTEMPLATING MARRIAGE.

In many affections peculiar to Females the Extract Buchu is unequaled by any other medicine, as in Chlorix or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness, or Suppression of the Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrous state of the Uterus, Leucorrhea, or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from Indiscretion, Habits of Dissipation, or in the DECLINE OR CHANGE OF LIFE.

SEE SYMPTOMS ABOVE.

NO FAMILY SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT.

Take no Balsam, Mercury, or Unpleasant Medicine for unpleasant and dangerous diseases.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
CURES

Secret Diseases

In all their stages at little expense; little or no change in diet; no inconvenience,

AND NO EXPOSURE.

It causes frequent desire, and great strength to Urinate, thereby removing obstructions, preventing and curing Strictures of the Urethra, allaying pain and inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling Poisonous, Diseased and Worn-out Matter.

Thousands upon Thousands
WHO HAVE BEEN THE VICTIMS OF QUACKS,

and who have paid heavy Fees to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "Potion" has, by the use of "Powerful Astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in an aggravated form, and

PERHAPS AFTER MARRIAGE.

USE
HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

For all Affections and Diseases of

The Urinary Organs,

Whether existing in MALE OR FEMALE, from whatever cause originating, and no matter

OF HOW LONG STANDING.

Diseases of the organs require the aid of diuretics.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
IS THE GREAT DIURETIC,

And it is certain to have the desired effect in all diseases for which it is recommended.

BLOOD! BLOOD! BLOOD!

Helmbold's Highly Concentrated Compound
Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla,

SYPHILIS.

This is an affection of the Blood, and attacks the Sexual Organs, Linings of the Nose, Ears, Throat, Windpipe, and other Mucus Surfaces, making its appearance in the form of Ulcers.—Helmbold's Extract Sarsaparilla purifies the Blood, and removes all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, giving to the complexion a clear and healthy Color. It being prepared expressly for this class of complaints, its Blood-Purifying Properties are preserved to a greater extent than any other preparation of Sarsaparilla.

Helmbold's Rose Wash.

An excellent Lotion for Diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection in Diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation, or Kindred Diseases, with Extract Buchu and Sarsaparilla, in such diseases as recommended.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE!

EYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1849. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large portion has expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured a few bottles of your Syrup of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as I have tried it on many occasions for three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have recommended it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up what I had food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, and I have had the best health without any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1851.

Dr. SWETT:—Permit me to inform you, as I feel it duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1849, she had been confined to her room for 10 months without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by day and night. It seems to me your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Also, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent are furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patents policy of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, together with a extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render it a fair inference, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to prosecute claims, may be obviated by remitting the Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLYS MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their inventions in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of receiving the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven more large than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water larger than the warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night between sweetings, together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some having but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible product of coal lighter than the air, goes off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fine or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of fresh air through the grate, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus rendering, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depression—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL,

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work on RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz. It is very light and durable, and comfortably is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insertions or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Besides all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists—so I will warrant a perfect fit and good operator, the best manufacturer in the country. S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my prices for EXTRACTING are 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TRASKWELL, Dr. HOARNMAN, Dr OLIVER and Dr. BOWDITCH, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE,
A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by DR. WM. GRACE, surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Flesh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Frozen Limbs.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scurvy.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Callouses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Salt Rheum.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find this Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

VOL. 22. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. SATURDAY JUNE 13, 1863. NO. 99.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every sun fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

☞ Queer stories of the changes in social position are told in Australia. A gentleman who once kept his cab in London, and belonged to a fashionable club, is serving out liquor at a bar, in the employ of a man who was a waiter at the club of which the gentleman was a member; a former major in the English army is working as a laborer for one dollar and fifty cents; another army man is hawking cabbages about the streets; a lawyer is washing bottles; an Oxford University man is shoeing horses, and the son of a clergyman is working on the highways.

☞ The N. Y. Herald's dispatch states that it has been determined to accede to the request of Admiral Farragut to be relieved from his command. Admiral Dahlgren, it is understood, will take his place as soon as the Vicksburg matter is settled. It is stated, also, that neither Admiral Dahlgren nor Admiral Foote, although assigned to active service, is to abandon his position as head of a bureau in the Navy Department.

☞ The Chattanooga Rebel devotes a leader to advocating in all cases the black flag for black men. The article on Tennessee affairs says:—"On the fate of Vicksburg hangs the fate of Tennessee. If we play eternal smash with Grant, good bye to poor Rosecrans; but if Grant gives Pemberton his quietus, then farewell to the proposed re-occupation of Nashville and Southern Kentucky."

☞ The Hon. Hannibal Hamlin has received a draft on London for a sum which amounts in our currency to over $600, given as an offering to the cause of emancipation by the colored women of the British colony of Victoria, to be applied to the benefit of the freedmen at and about Beaufort, S. C. The donors—who are in good part natives of the United States and graduates of the "peculiar institution"—had previously sent $170 to Philadelphia for a like purpose.

☞ Merchants are shrewd men. A trader in modern Athens being asked the character of one given to poetry, described him as 'one of those men who have soared after the infinite, and dived after the unfathomable, but who never pay cash.'

SATURDAY, JUNE 13, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Grant was in communication with Gen. Banks as late as June 4th, at which time Port Hudson was closely invested.—An unofficial dispatch from the vicinity of Vicksburg, states that the rebels in small force attacked Milliken's Bend and Young's Point, June 6th, but were repulsed at both points. A steamer sent down to Gen. Grant with surgeons, nurses, &c., returned, as they were informed that no supplies or surgical assistance was needed. Our loss in killed and wounded in the late battles is stated at 12,500. The rebels are occasioning some trouble along the river from Lake Providence down to within sight of Vicksburg.

250 rebel cavalry crossed the river near Poolesville, Va., on Thursday morning, burned the camp of a Michigan company, and returned.

The War Department has created two new military districts to provide for the defence of Pennsylvania, under command of Maj. Gen. Brooks, headquarters at Pittsburg; and Maj. Gen. Couch, headquarters at Chambersburg. Each General has full authority to organize an army corps, consisting of infantry, cavalry and artillery.—Harrisburg will be the point for troops to assemble and organize. Gen. Couch has assumed command and calls out the citizens between 16 and 60 to organize an army corps.

Bragg is said to be having much trouble with his Tennessee troops.

Lee is reported to be greatly reinforced, and it is thought he meditates a desperate attack on Gen. Hooker. Another division of the latter's army has crossed the Rappahannock.

The rebels were defeated in a spirited engagement near Monticello, Ky., on the 10th.

☞ Vallandigham was nominated for Governor by the Ohio Democratic Convention, Thursday, receiving 448 out of 461 votes. Ex-Senator Pugh made a fiery speech, denouncing the arrest of Vallandigham, and was nominated for Lieut. Governor by acclamation. The resolutions denounce the arrest, the emancipation proclamation, martial law in loyal States, &c., &c.

☞ Rev. T. Starr King, now in San Francisco, delivering an agricultural address not long since, gave the farmers this very sensible advice—"Subdue the lust for immense riches. If you have fifty acres, and born to have fifty more, annex the fifty that lie beneath those you now own, and gain your title by a subsoil plow. Own deep thus by agriculture, not wide by scratchiculture."

☞ A gentleman who was in St. Louis on Tuesday last, announced before the Union League of Newark, N. J., on Monday evening, that while in the office of General Herron, in the former city, that officer received a dispatch ordering him to report with his entire force at Vicksburg. General Herron said he would be with General Grant within ten days. His force is a large one and with the thousands of troops already arrived at Vicksburg, will constitute a considerable army.

☞ Advices from North Carolina give every indication of an approaching conflict with the rebel government. It is stated that seven thousand refugees from the conscription have been for weeks entrenched in the mountains with artillery, successfully defying the Confederate authority.

☞ The design of the new flag, to be presented to the 1st District of Columbia colored regiment, is a novel one. The Goddess of liberty, stands with her feet on a snake, which is biting itself to death. In one hand she holds the President's Proclamation on freedom; in the other a musket, which she offers a bareheaded dusky freedman.

☞ Another rebel pirate, the Coquette, captured and burned the bark Whistling Wind, June 6, in lat. 33 28, lon. 71 29.—The Coquette is a brig,—formerly the Clarence, which was captured by the Florida, to which vessel she is a tender.

☞ The number of commissions issued from the Adjutant General's office, to officers of Maine regiments, since the commencement of the rebellion, is 2387.

☞ The Rebel Gen. Tilghman was not killed, as reported. He was wounded but is doing well.

☞ Partial returns from the ports of entry show that the custom duties will amount this year probably to $70,000,000. New York's is the largest—nearly four millions.

☞ The Richmond Sentinel considers the movements of Mr. Vallandigham and the Peace Democrats to be on the whole very favorable to the rebel cause, and to their "independent nationality."

☞ The Lewiston, Me., Manufacturing Company have made dividends to the amount of twenty-six per cent within the year.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— What a nice column of "New Hampshire Items" the Manchester American has on Thursday. It looked familiar to us. It's all right, though, for we are often indebted to the American on our side.

—— We are indebted to Hon. Horton D. Walker, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, for a copy of the report of the Trustees of the House of Reformation. The report refers in high times to the success which has attended the schools during the past year under the care of Mr. and Mrs. Shattuck, and recommends some improvements for the future, and an appropriation of $6000 is asked for. The institution now owes $2,154; the amount received during the year was $7,259.87; amount now due the institution $4,309.54. Balance in favor of the institution, $1,154.91. Number in the House during the year was 129 boys, 18 girls; remaining April 30, 96 boys, 16 girls. The Portsmouth Police Court has sent 12 during the year; previously it had sent 38.

—— The barn of Messrs. Joseph and Nathaniel Johnston, in Hampton, was totally consumed by fire on Thursday night.—One valuable horse and four cows, together with ten tons of hay, carts, wagons, &c., were burned. Loss at least $1500; insured in Farmer's Mutual, Exeter, for $800 on the barn, and $150 on hay. Origin of the fire unknown.

—— In the House of Representatives, on Thursday, Mr. Walker, of this city, presented the petition of Ichabod Goodwin and others, for the incorporation of the Portsmouth Insurance Company; and subsequently he introduced a bill providing for the same, which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Incorporations.—Notice was given of a bill to aid the families and dependents of drafted men or their substitutes. A resolution was adopted declaring that Samuel Emerson, of Moultonboro', was not entitled to a seat in the House, that town not being entitled to two members.

—— On Wednesday afternoon, a carriage, containing two ladies and a child, crossing the railroad track in Londonderry, was struck by the engine and dashed into a thousand pieces. The ladies threw the child out, and the next moment were themselves thrown out, but all escaped uninjured.

—— The Mirror states that Lt. Col. Lull was shot with a rifle ball, which entered his thigh and ranged into the abdomen, while leading his regiment on the 27th ult., at Port Hudson. He was shot about 10 o'clock in the forenoon and died about 6 the same day. When informed by the surgeon that he must die, he said, "Thank God, I die for my country."

—— In an altercation, in Manchester, a wife undertook to pour a pot of boiling coffee over her devoted husband's head, but unfortunately hit an unoffending bystander, who was consequently badly scalded.

—— The committee of arrangements for the Union Mass Meeting in Concord on the 17th, report that Hon. Montgomery Blair and Hon. James T. Brady will certainly be present; and that Gens. Marston, Butler and Fremont will be present if possible. The citizens of Concord are making arrangements to give a grand display of fireworks in the evening. It has also been decided to have a procession,—to consist of a cavalcade, military and other organizations, State officers, town delegations and citizens generally.

—— The Manchester American gives a rumor that Col. Walter Harriman, of the 11th regiment, has resigned.

—— Lt. Charles Wilkins of the Regular Army, from Henniker, was wounded in one of the late battles before Vicksburg; it is thought mortally. The ball passed through the right side and came out of the left, probably through both lungs. He was wounded in the shoulder at the first Bull Run battle, being at the time a member of the 2d N. H. Regiment. He was a fine officer and was beloved by all who new him.

☞ The Machias Republican states that on Thursday, 4th inst., Mr. David Farnsworth of Addison, Me., fell from the high bluff on the northern end of Ladle Island, at the mouth of Pleasant River, striking on his head on the rocks some seventy feet below, and killing him instantly.

☞ On Wednesday, an Indian boy of the Penobscot tribe, born within three weeks at the camp in East Salisbury, was baptised at the Catholic church in Newburyport (the Penobscots are Catholics)—by the name of Charles Noel.

☞ Jay Cooke, the banker, is said to have cleared three hundred thousand dollars—minus eight or ten thousand dollars for advertising—by the conversion of Government bonds alone.

☞ Assistant Secretary of the Navy Fox states that the whole number of vessels captured or destroyed by the blockading fleet, up to June 1, is 855.

☞ The Philadelphia Ledger says coal must come down, and predicts a decided decline before the 1st of September.

☞ The U. S. steamer Kearsarge, from Fayal, arrived at Madeira May 29.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated — By Uncle Tony.

Story — Usher — Partridge — Death of Rev. Mr. Moodey, and settlement of Rev. Mr. Rogers in Portsmouth, 1697. Charles Story, having received the appointment of Judge of the Admiralty for this province, embarked at England for this country. On the 19th of January, 1696, not long after his arrival here, he produced his commission before the Council, which was read and approved, and ordered to be recorded. On the same day he was appointed by the Council their Clerk and Secretary of the province. Having taken the necessary oaths, the province records and files were committed to his care. The Council convened again on the first of February, but Mr. Story did not attend. They then ordered a boat to be sent to Newcastle for him immediately. He appeared the next day, and the President reprimanded him for his neglect. Story answered "with lotty indecent carriage towards the Council" and said he had been cautioned against acting in those offices. The late Lieut. Governor, Usher, was suspected of being his adviser; but he declined giving any information, who it was. The Council then demanded of him the books and papers which had been delivered to him; but he peremptorily refused to deliver them. Whereupon the Council ordered the constable to take him into custody; and issued a warrant, directed to the sheriff and to Capt. John Pickering, requiring and empowering them to take with them sufficient assistance, and "to make diligent search in any houses, rooms, closets, chests, trunks, or other places within this province for the above said books and papers, or any other books or papers, or records belonging to this province, and the same when found, to bring to the President and Council." The Sheriff, by virtue of this warrant, in a short time brought in the records and files, belonging to the Council and Assembly, which had been delivered to Mr. Story. He was again brought before the Council, and the President informed him that they had obtained possession of their books and papers, which had been in his custody, notwithstanding his endeavors to prevent them, and since he had so peremptorily refused to serve the King in this province in the office of Secretary and Clerk of the Council, to which he had so lately been admitted, and thereby dismissed himself, the President and Council also dismiss him. But the President also told him "that as to his office of Judge of the Admiralty within this province, the Council would do what was proper for them in countenancing and assisting him in the execution of that office according to his commission." So Mr. Story was dismissed. Henry Penny, who was removed at the time Story was appointed, was re appointed Secretary of the province and Clerk of the Council.

Partridge succeeded in obtaining the office of Lieut. Governor, and was invested with the supreme command in Allen's absence. His command contained a full and entire revocation of Usher's authority as Lieut. Governor, and the President and Council were to administer the government, until the Lieut. Governor should be qualified to act. Hinkes was President of the Council, and a copy of Allen's commission, and instructions were sent to him.

Partridge returned to this country the beginning of the year 1679, but did not immediately publish his commission. His appointment was wholly unexpected to Usher, who endeavored to excite opposition to the government, and made a long address to the people at Hampton one Sunday, in the time of public worship before the sermon, on the state of public affairs; and requested the civil and military officers, and the two companies of militia of the town under arms to meet him the next morning. But failing in his attempt, he left the province. The President and Council issued a proclamation, stating the revocation of Usher's power, and commanding all persons to submit to their authority. They removed Lieut. Col. Packer and Major Smith from their command in the militia, and placed the whole under the command of Major Vaughan. They commanded Vaughan, with as many men as he could get mounted, to march to Hampton and Exeter, and to cause their proclamation to be published at each of those places; and if he met with any persons, who were giving any disturbance to government, to seize and secure them.

On the 8th of June, the President of the Council opened the General Assembly with a speech. Those Counsellors, who had been suspended by Usher, took their seats. Capt. John Pickering was appointed King's Attorney, and Major Wm. Vaughan, Recorder. The Assembly ordered the records and files, which Pickering had taken from Chamberlayne, and which Usher had compelled him to relinquish, to be deposited in the Recorder's office, subject to the control of the General Court.

Usher was indefatigable in whatever he undertook; he resented very highly the treatment he had received in New Hampshire, and sent Story, the late Secretary, to England with complaints to the Lords of Trade, against the President and Council. Mr. Moodey, the minister of this town, was naturally of a robust constitution; but from too close application to his studies, and to the discharge of his parochial duties, he contracted some disorders, which obliged him to repair to Boston for medical aid. He had been there but a short time before he fell a victim to his disease. He died on Sunday, the 4th day of July, 1697, in the sixty-fifth year of his age. Great harmony subsisted between him and his parish, before he was driven away by Cranfield's persecution, and after his return until his death; although many of his parishioners were hurt, that he did not immediately return after the cause of his absence was removed. Mr. Moodey possessed a very benevolent disposition, and was ready to do good to all men, according to his ability and opportunity.

On the 19th day of July, 1697, the town, by their committee, invited Mr. Nathaniel Rogers, son of John Rogers, late President of Harvard College, to settle with them in the work of the ministry, and offered him, besides the use of the globe and parsonage, one hundred pounds, which terms he accepted.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Chimaric causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be sacred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

MUSICAL.—The Holman Opera Troupe gave a truly excellent musical and dramatic entertainment at the Temple, Wednesday evening; and we were glad that they had a good house, which they so richly deserve anywhere. We have already strongly commended their performances; and we will now only add that we never attended any exhibition of the sort, even the best in the Boston Academy, with all their scenery and stage aids, which were more entirely satisfactory. The children are certainly prodigies; and all connected with the Family, including the very agreeable lady pianist, and the gentlemanly agent and manager, are fully up in their parts. The Holman family can call out a house any time, in Portsmouth.

Wood's Minstrels.—This celebrated and admirable troupe, including the beautiful veritable Fanny Wood, are to give one more of their pleasing and popular Minstrel entertainments at the Temple, this (Saturday) evening. The programme is an entire change, and much of it original. The performances are all excellent; and ye who appreciate the violin, can hear there some of the finest fiddling you ever heard in your life.

Wood's Minstrels also announce a concert of sacred music, for Sunday evening—when, of course, they will appear as whites; and we have no doubt they will give a most acceptable and creditable entertainment, as their chorus of voices and instruments is well adapted for sacred music.

The Old Folks' Choir, after a long silence of several years, are invited by the original projector of the organization, to meet on Sunday evening at the nice little Mercantile Hall, once more "to sing the songs our fathers sang."

The Singing Schools gotten up for Mr. Davis of Concord, are announced by the committee to commence on Monday afternoon and evening next, at Mercantile Hall. The first lesson of each is free, and all who feel an interest in the matter, are invited to be present, at 5 and 8 o'clock. It is but fair to state that Mr. Davis, who has numerous engagements in Concord and vicinity, comes to Portsmouth solely at the request of parents and others who love music, and who think singing has been neglected here. That committee have charge of all arrangements, and they have decided that $1.50 is as low as any singing school can be sustained.

—We are also pleased to hear that Mr. Pearson has been engaged by the South Parish (Stone Church) Sunday School, to give instruction in singing to the scholars of that School, each week. The more music the better; and social singing is the best of all music.

☞ Rev. I. F. Waterhouse, of this city, who has recently returned from the Army of the Potomac, where he has been laboring as a delegate of the U. S. Christian Commission for several weeks past, will address the citizens of Portsmouth to-morrow (Sunday) evening in the North Church, relating something of his experience while in the army, and presenting to the people here the claims of the Commission upon their benevolence. O. Demond, Esq., of Boston, a member of the Executive Committee, will also be present and enlighten the citizens concerning the plans and operations of the Commission. There will be a collection taken to aid the ladies who are engaged in work for the soldiers, to supply them with materials for their work. Services to commence at 7 1-2 o'clock. It is hoped that the members of all the different religious societies in this city will feel an interest in this matter, and that there will be a large attendance.

☞ A Marine at the Navy Yard, who had been indulging in the intoxicating bowl, on Friday attempted to run by the guard at the bridge, and being prevented, jumped into the river. A crowd of men collected, ropes were thrown to him, and other means used to rescue him. At length he was reached by means of a boat, a rope was tied under his arms, and he was hauled out, probably having a poorer opinion of cold water than ever.

APPLEDORE HOUSE.—It will be seen that our friend Laighton has decided to remain at home and receive company the coming season. The motto of his announcement is capital. Scott must have cast a prophetic eye on the Shoals when he wrote it.—Journal.

The motto alluded to is the following:—

"Come one—come all—this rock shall fly
From its firm base as soon as I."—Scott.

The epithet capital may give rise to a false impression in the minds of those not acquainted with the subject referred to,—(We beg pardon; he is not a subject, but is the King of the Appledore Island.) The motto alluded to by our facetious neighbor of the Journal undoubtedly was intended to refer to the base rather than the capital.—"To what base uses may we come at last."

☞ Senator Clark, of this state, and other gentlemen, visited the Portsmouth Navy Yard on Friday, and were received with the customary salute.

☞ Whatever you may think of our new "copperhead" cotemporary, "The States and Union" newspaper, as to its sentiments or politics—it must be confessed that it is edited with considerable ability, and is outspoken in its views, at any rate; and it is one of the neatest and best printed papers in the State—thanks to the skill and good taste of Mr. Geo. W. Guppy, the foreman of the establishment, who is an excellent printer. A first-class mechanic, in almost any branch, is one of the most valuable men in any community; and we are always glad to meet and acknowledge such anywhere.

☞ The Richmond Enquirer of the 4th inst, has the following:—

"In Difficulty.—Francis P. Blair, a son of the Yankee Postmaster General, who deserted to our troops in Virginia sometime ago, and joined the Maryland line, has gotten himself into sundry scandalous scrapes while hanging around the city. He was yesterday put into Castle Thunder until further orders."

It happens that Montgomery Blair, "the Yankee Postmaster General," has no "son" older than about 10 years. Hon. F. P. Blair we believe has a son somewhere from 15 to 17 years of age.

☞ It has been ascertained that the Col. Paine who was killed in the attack on Port Hudson, was from Indiana, and not the gentleman from Boston, the brother of Capt. William C. Paine of this city.

☞ It is rumored on the street that a company of contrabands are coming from Fortress Monroe to garrison Fort Sullivan in Portsmouth harbor. We can throw no light on this naturally dark subject.

☞ Rev. Dr. Eliot, of St. Louis, of the Western Sanitary Commission, in a letter dates June 5d, to a Boston agent of the commission, says:—

"Your box, 'No. 68,' is to day received in perfect order, as usual. The boxes which you forwarded from Portsmouth, N. H., and from 'the Church of the Unity,' were received in good order, and very valuable—all used.

☞ Mr. Perham has made arrangements for an excursion party from this city to Boston on Friday next, for the purpose of visiting the Seven Mile Mirror.

☞ One J. Martin of Lewiston, Me., recently put a scolding woman over a fence, and being prosecuted for assault and battery, was honorably acquitted. That's what the Journal says.

☞ The sub-marine cable between the Crimea and Turkey has been cut by order of the Russian Government. The Ottoman Cabinet sent a protest to St. Petersburg against the act.

To every barrel of Flour you can make thirty pounds more Bread or Biscuit (and much better) by using Herrick Allen's Gold Medal, than by yeast fermentation or any other Saleratus.—It is perfectly healthy, will not turn your cookery yellow, will strengthen weak stomachs, and cure dyspeptic persons. It is much better to use with cream tartar than soda. Try one paper, and you will be convinced. Most of the Grocers sell it. Depot 112 Liberty Street, New York.

SCHOOLEY'S
NEW IMPROVED
ICEBERG REFRIGERATORS.

This upright REFRIGERATOR combines every improvement. It is the most perfect article of the kind in the market, requiring less ice than any other, and keeping its contents sweet and free from any unpleasant odors.

Daniel T. Curtis, Fruit dealer, Boston, says of it, "I have preserved grapes and pears, peaches, and an extensive variety of plums and berries for five or six weeks in Schooley's Refrigerator."

Oren Peck, Boylston Market, Boston, says, "I find, on careful trial, that it will keep meats perfectly fresh and dry for ten or twelve days."

John Hunt, Butter dealer, Cincinnati, says, "I can keep butter sweet and fresh any length of time in reason, say six weeks."

C. E. Carpenter, Ice Dealer, Providence, says, "I have kept a cup of custard in one of Schooley's Refrigerators during the warm weather one week, which I tried it and found it perfectly good."

Thousands of similar testimonials can be shown in its favor.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR. (Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cloth Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent "ICE KING," we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made, lined throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

FREE SPEECH AND UNION.—"The Union cannot be restored without freedom of speech," said one of the speakers at a late Vallandigham meeting in New York; and we were glad to read that his hearers applauded him. He spoke a profound truth; and he might have added with equal truth, that the Union could never have been endangered by such a rebellion as now troubles us, had the right of free speech been faithfully and thoroughly maintained everywhere within our limits.

It was because all discussion of certain subjects was forbidden and punished with violence in the Cotton States, that the conspirators against the Union were able there to seize the reins of government and to subvert the Constitution. It was by prohibiting all teaching at variance with their own doctrines, that they succeeded in deceiving the people of those States to their ruin. It was only by crushing out all freedom of discussion, that they were able to palm off upon the poor whites of the South such tales of "the Yankees" as upheld one part of the Union to the other as a monster.—Granite State News.

The editor of the Portland Advertiser says, in a letter from New York, that "the striking feature of the resolutions adopted by the recent Peace Convention of Fernando Wood, 'is the denial of power to the Federal Government, to conduct a war upon any State, under any circumstances?' Then the Federal Government has no power to maintain its own authority, the present war is unauthorized by the Constitution and is therefore no better than a gigantic mob, and every soldier who has caused the death of a rebel is no better than a murderer. What do the friends of the soldiers say to such a proposition?—Press.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜
RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even walking. It affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c. &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have recommended it to many acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of the Medicine." JOSIAH JENNESS.
PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1852.
"I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomiting up of all but one article of food I eat; and medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S SARSAPARILLA, which I will confess, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. ISRAEL CHESLEY
From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.
DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker and weaker. She commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly, and labor by day, I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY
☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not perform what is claimed, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (see law the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions, and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of Specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessary of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable as a successful practitioners with whom I have had offi al inter. course."
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot more safely secure more competent and more reliable, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which Patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him for securing their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and earthen bottom combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin water pail attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, which is agreeable—that is none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the great est amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 50 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be healthy, because some of the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and they may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert E. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.
1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.
3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.
5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.
6th. While in all ways it is better, easy in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.
DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,
Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.
No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.
DR. GOODALL
Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.
The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insertices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.
Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.
Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same for Rubber, as for other bases of GOLD and SILVER, as formerly, if preferred.
In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and finish from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.
ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTING is 25 cents.
I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BERRY, for particulars in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired on the Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.
☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE
A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.
This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by Dr. WM. GRACE, surgeon in King James's army. Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.
And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find this Salve their best friend.
It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

VOL. 22. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. MONDAY JUNE 15, 1863. NO. 99.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined:
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

A ☞ citizen of Mayseville, Cal., was arrested for riding through the town waving a Confederate flag and cheering for Jeff. Davis, taken to Sacramento and tried by Court Martial, and sentenced to ten years hard labor on the fortifications in San Francisco bay. In less than three days from the time of committing the crime he was at work.

☞ The Governor of Maine has received a letter from the Selectmen of Minot calling the attention of the Executive to the fact that a new and strange "cattle disease" has broken out in that town and requesting that a suitable man be sent at once to investigate the matter.

☞ It is believed among the friends of the Divinity School connected with Harvard College, that Rev Rufus P. Stebbins, D. D. of Woburn, has been selected by the corporation to fill the professorship in that school made vacant by the death of the late Rev. Dr. Francis.

☞ Artemus Ward is about as unique in his titles as Dickens. His lectures, "The Babes in the Wood," and "Sixty Minutes in Africa," are familiar to the public, and the New York Courier says he is at work on two new ones, to be called "Robinson Crusoe, who was born of Poor but Respectable Parents," and "Brigham Young's Mother-in-Law: Showing how many there is of Her."

THE SICILIAN HONEYMOON.—The Sicilians even to this day have a singular marriage custom. As soon as the ceremony is over, two of the attendants are ready to cram a spoonfull of honey into the mouths of the bride and bridegroom, pronouncing it emblematical of their love and union.

☞ At the sacking of Miechow, the Russian soldiers, in their frenzy for liquor, attacked an apothecary's shop and drank every thing liquid they could lay their hands on. Twenty died next day.

☞ The question of the annexation of Roxbury to Boston, sometime dormant because of National affairs, is about to be revived and made a prominent one the coming autumn. Very many persons, formerly opposed, are now in favor of this union.

☞ Mrs. Brown of Baltimore has just signified to the trustees of the Theological Seminary in Princeton, N. J., that she wishes to give them thirty thousand dollars, to erect a building for the use of the Seminary, to be called "Brown Hall."

MONDAY, JUNE 15, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

The probability of an attack by Johnston on Gen. Grant's rear, is now beginning to be generally admitted. The rebels very nearly defeated our forces at Milliken's Bend on the 6th; they drove them and nearly surrounded them, but a gunboat came to their assistance and saved them.—The rebel dispatches say Kirby Smith is in possession of Milliken's Bend. It is about 20 miles above Vicksburg. Our own accounts disprove the statement.

A Washington dispatch states that Lee's force is now nearly double what it was at the battle of Chancellorsville, and that a large portion of his reinforcements are new troops.

Gen. Lee, it is rumored, is moving up the Rappahannock with his whole force. Gen. Hooker has issued a congratulatory order to his troops on the repulse of Stuart's cavalry.

The rebel papers admit that Gen. Fitzhugh Lee was severely wounded in the recent cavalry fight; that they lost some prisoners; and that the Federal troops gained so much ground as to capture Stuart's headquarters.

400 rebel cavalry were drawn into an ambuscade near Middletown, Va., on the 12th, and escaped with considerable loss.

Forrest, with 5000 rebel cavalry and two batteries, was defeated at Triune, Tenn., Thursday, and driven six miles, when the pursuit was abandoned.

The rebels have revived their false report that Kirby Smith has defeated Gen. Banks.

By Telegraph, Sunday, to Messrs. Hutchings, Haley, and others.

The delegation of Unionists from Louisiana had an interview with the President on Saturday, relative to the return of that State to the Union.

The rebel pickets give a rumor that there was a big fight at Vicksburg on the 8th.—12 regiments from Memphis have gone to Gen. Grant.

Moseby's guerrillas have disbanded and gone to the mountains, being closely pursued.

The pirate Coquette captured 6 vessels, between the 5th and 12th, burning 4 and bonding 2. These were, barks Whistling Wind, of New York, and Tacony, of Philadelphia; brig Mary Alvina, of Boston; schooners Kate Stuart, of Philadelphia, M. A Shingles, and another, name unknown. All these captures were made within 40 miles of Cape Charles. The pirate hailed the Tacony, said he was 55 days out and short of coal; and when the captain of the bark was exerting himself to supply their pretended need, the pirates drew their pistols and declared his vessel their prize.—Then, transferring their arms, &c., to the bark, they turned her into a pirate, burning their own vessel.

100 rebel cavalry entered Elizabethtown, Ky., on Saturday, capturing horses, and burning a train of cars. They broke open Adams' Express office, and stole $1700 in gold.

☞ A German movement of high pretensions was some time ago started in Missouri, having in view the reconstruction of the Cabinet, the deposition of General Halleck, the restoration to important commands of Generals Fremont, Butler and Sigel, and the enlightenment of the President on Missouri politics. A committee was dispatched to the President, and has reported the result. The Cabinet was not responsible for anything except departmental business. General Halleck was guilty of nothing, and would not be removed. The generals above mentioned had placed themselves where they are by their own acts, and the President would be glad to have them again in appropriate spheres of action, but at present he "had more pegs than holes to put them into." With regard to the factions in Missouri, they "ought to have their heads knocked together," but of the two he preferred the gradual emancipationists.

☞ Ninety rebel officers seized the steamer Maple Leaf, in which they were being taken from Fortress Monroe to Fort Delaware, sent her captain and crew below, and landed on the Virginia shore in the boats. Twenty-six refused to go with the others. Among those who escaped was Captain Semmes, a son of the captain of the pirate Alabama.

☞ The murderers of the Provost Marshal in Indiana have been arrested. A man in Indianapolis, on Friday, was hung by a crowd until he was almost lifeless, for traitorous language.

☞ Cincinnati papers contain a statement that the sheriff of Knox county, Ohio, refused to allow the jail to be used for the confinement of deserters. Provost Marshal Sennett reports that the enrolling officer is not allowed to continue his labors in Harrison township; the people threatened to shoot him and then took him out of the township.

N. H. UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION.

Pursuant to the call which has already been published in this paper, the Convention assembled at the Unitarian Church in Concord, Wednesday morning, June 10th, and opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. Thomas, of New Bedford, formerly pastor of the Society at Concord for several years.

BUSINESS MEETING.

The first matter before the convention was to know the number of the delegates and the societies they represented. It was found there were over eighty, and some societies had appointed delegates who were not able to come. The following places were represented:—Amherst, Candia, Concord, Dover, Exeter, Franklin, Hampton Falls, Kensington, Keene, Lancaster, London Ridge, Manchester, Nashua, Peterborough, Portsmouth, Walpole, in New Hampshire, and Bolton, Tyngsboro' and New Bedford in Massachusetts, and Meadville, Pa. Others present from our own, and also two or three from Universalist Societies, were invited to take seats in the convention. The report of the Treasurer was made; the officers who had been elected temporarily, were re-elected for the ensuing year; remarks were made by Rev. Mr. Stevens, Hon. John P. Hale, and Rev. Mr. White, upon the objects of the Association; when the convention adjourned to meet at 2 o'clock.

MEETING FOR DISCUSSION.

In the afternoon, the meeting began with hearing reports upon the condition of the several societies throughout the State; after which the following question, "What is the true relation between pastor and people?" was taken up for discussion. A debate of unusual interest followed, which was opened by interesting remarks from Hon. H. A. Bellows, and participated in by Ex-Gov. Goodwin, of Portsmouth, Rev. Messrs. White of Keene, Barber of Tyngsboro', Thomas of New Bedford, Bowles of Manchester, Bridge of Hampton Falls and Morse of Franklin.

In the evening the convention and society assembled to hear a sermon by Rev. A. W. Stevens of Manchester, from the text 2d Cor. III. 6: "The letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life." The writer took the general Unitarian ground of liberal interpretation of, and freedom from bondage to the letter of Scripture, in the first part of his sermon, and in the second gave an earnest and feeling expression of the power of the spirit.

After the services in the church, there was a very large and pleasant social gathering at the house of Hon. H. A. Bellows, where the delegates of the convention were cordially received.

MEETINGS ON THURSDAY.

In the morning at 9 o'clock, a conference of deep interest was held until 1-2 past 9. Remarks were made by Messrs. White, Stevens, Osgood, Thomas, Barber, Judge Bellows and Mr. Morse; and the following letters read from Mr. Muzzey, Mr. Farrington, Mr. Woodbury, Ex-Gov. Williams, and Mr. Tilden.

NEWBURYPORT, June 9, 1863.

Hon. H. A. Bellows, My Dear Sir:—I am greatly obliged for your kind invitation to the convention to-morrow, and I had made arrangements to be with you; but a death has just occurred which will keep me at home.

I regret the loss of this opportunity to see you and other friends at Concord, and at the same time enjoy all I am sure is before you at the meeting of your Association. Hoping you will have full success in your noble cause, and with kind regards to your family and all my Concord friends,

I am yours very truly,

A. B. MUZZEY.

EAST BRIDGEWATER, June 7, 1863.

Hon. H. A. Bellows, My Dear Sir:—Your cordial note of invitation to the convention of June 10th is received. While it will be impracticable for me to be present, let me express my gratification at the movement which New Hampshire inaugurates. Motion is the sign of life; motion among such laymen as those who are apparently at the starting point of your organization is prophetic of life in the religious world of an unusually inspiring degree. The time is auspicious. Just now, by a wonderful concurrence of slowly maturing causes, the whole world of thought begins to move in one direction;—toward the breadth, and freedom, and large tolerance of a liberal Christian faith. Were it not for the near shadow of this war, we all should be full of enthusiasm at the list of earnest and devout men who are hastening from different lands to build up the kingdom of God and the Church of Christ, not upon tradition, and dogmas, and subtle metaphysics, but upon the simple spirit and eternal truth which was manifested by Jesus. With their tempers elevated by that spirit, and their lives conformed to that truth; they fear not to investigate with boldness the myths of far distant times, to find in them but the germs of religious truth;—and as little are they terrified by the grand conclusions of science, for let them affect tradition as they may, they cannot touch that which is not built upon conceptions handed down from times of ignorance, such as Paul says "God winked at;" but rather upon the faith which makes a man faithful to the light of to-day, true to his loftier sentiments, unfaltering in the way of his convictions, and loyal to principles which are not of days and hours, but like God, and because of Him, from everlasting to everlasting.

Prosperity attend your new organization. Fear not to pursue the truth;—it is the sublime way to God.

Very truly your friend, S. FARRINGTON.

PROVIDENCE, June 8, 1863.

Hon. H. A. Bellows, My Dear Sir:—I exceedingly regret that previous engagements of an imperative nature will prevent my attendance at the proposed meeting of the "New Hampshire Unitarian Association," on the 10th inst., at Concord. The subject of forming such an association was occasionally discussed during my residence in Concord, several years ago, but no definite conclusion was reached. I am sincerely glad to know that the growing interest in our faith within the borders of your State has at last justified a movement of this kind. The truths which we believe and preach are so dear and precious, have such intimate and sacred associations with noble and saintly lives, and bear upon themselves such marks of Divine authority, as to make no labor too severe and no sacrifice too great, in illustrating and enforcing them. The Unitarians of New Hampshire have stood in a somewhat isolated position, both from each other and from the main body. But they have done manful and efficient service, in supporting the cause of a liberal Christianity, amid many discouragements and trials, and I trust that the time is at hand when they will be drawn more closely together and be enabled to do a larger and more effective work for Christ and the truth. Again I express my regrets that I am not able to meet and take counsel with you upon the important subjects which will occupy your thoughts and be the burden of your prayers. I can only wish you God-speed in your enterprise, and invoke upon you and the association which you represent, the choicest blessings of the Divine love.

Believe me, with many friendly greetings to the brethren, your sincere friend

A. WOODBURY.

LANCASTER, June 9, 1863.

Hon. H. Bellows, Dear Sir:—Feeling a deep interest in the objects of the convention to be holden at Concord to-morrow, I hoped to be able to participate in its proceedings. A call therefore in another direction which denies me that opportunity I very much regret. With assurances of a cordial co-operation in such measures as I trust you will adopt to promote the cause of liberal Christianity,

I am very respectfully yours,

JARED W. WILLIAMS.

BOSTON, June 9th, 1863.

My Dear Mr. Bellows:—I thank you for your kind note inviting me to be present with you to-morrow. It would be pleasant indeed to take your brotherly hand, and look into the faces of old friends, and listen to the good words that I have no doubt will be spoken on the occasion; but I am engaged to participate in the services of an Ordination at Mendon, at just your hour, and cannot be with you in person.

But I send you my hearty God speed in your efforts "to promote the growth of pure and liberal Christianity."

It is plain that the theology of the future must be liberal, in the sense that all science is liberal, by being open to the freest investigation. There is more fight yet to break from God's true and living word. Let the fresh breezes of free and reverend thought scatter as far and as fast as may be the mists of old error, and the clouds of new, as well as old unbelief, that the light of God's truth may shine unobstructed. But while we hold fast to the liberal, we must take care that we do not emphasize it too strongly. Here, I think, has been our error. We have printed our "liberal" in capitals, making it the central word of our pet phrase, "Pure and LIBERAL christianity," leaving the "pure—christianity" in common type. We must reverse this, and put our "pure christianity" in capitals, before we can do our true work as a branch of the Church of Christ. The times in which we live, the spirit, the literature, the best thoughts of the age, all tend to the utmost freedom on investigation. Liberalism is now fairly of his own legs, and though he topples a little now and then in rough places, he doesn't need our leading strings to help him walk. But the rugged and promising boy does need all the leading strings and spiritual inducements that "pure christianity" can hold out to him to keep him from running into dark and tangled paths, and to guide him into the "glorious liberty of the children of God. Those who fancy that "liberalism" is going to save the world are doomed to disappointment. Liberalism itself needs to be saved, and no small part of our Providential mission, as I view it, is to do what we can through God's grace and Christ's truth, to help turn the free thoughts of this age into Christian channels, to aid in baptizing it with the spirit of Christ, and in consecrating it to the Father's service in the upbuilding of His Kingdom within and around. If I were present with you, I should want to say a word in this direction, for I long to see the full strength of our body given to the high and sacred work of Christian redemption.

In prayer that the Father's blessing may rest upon you all, and His Holy Spirit guide you in all your deliberations, I am yours in the bonds of the Gospel,

W. P. TILDEN.

At the business meeting which followed, measures were taken to provide funds for the association; and the directory authorized to enquire into the condition of our societies throughout the State and to take measures to support Missionary and other works, to extend aid to feeble churches, and to aid in prosecuting the cause of liberal Christianity.

A discussion then ensued upon the question "What are the comparative advantages of the Unitarian faith over others in the promotion of true piety?"

An essay was read by the Secretary, written by a lady of the South Parish, Portsmouth. The question was briefly and thoughtfully examined by the essayist, under the three divisions of the Fatherhood of God, the office of Christ, and the nature of man. Remarks were made by the following gentlemen: Mr. Hackett of Portsmouth, and Rev. Messrs. Bridge, White, Ferry, Learned, Nightingale, Morse and DeNormandie.

At the close of the discussion two gentlemen became life members of the Association, and a large number annual members; after which the Convention adjourned.

There was a degree of enthusiasm manifested by the delegates from various parts of the State, and an earnest Christian spirit pervading all the remarks, which far more than satisfied the expectations of the early friends of the movement. The statements in regard to the condition of the different societies showed them to be far more prosperous than is generally supposed, and the remarks of gentlemen of influence, well acquainted with their own sections of the State, proved to us that the real influence of our churches was far greater than their numbers might suggest; that slowly a deep interest has been gaining in our own views; and that there is a dissatisfaction with the current ideas of theology and religion, and a yearning for something higher and more liberal, more humane, more Christian, which our duty to others forces us to meet and satisfy.

The Society at Concord received the delegates and members of the convention with the warmest hospitality, opened to them their houses, and altogether made the occasion a pleasant meeting of Christian friends, such as we trust will frequently be renewed in the various towns throughout our State.

We give in conclusion the list of officers for the current year.

President—Hon. H. A. Bellows.

Vice Presidents—Hon. W. H. Y. Hackett, Portsmouth; George Tilden, Keene.

Secretary—James DeNormandie, Portsmouth.

Treasurer—Charles L. Richardson, Manchester.

Board of Directors.—Edmund L. Cushing, Charlestown; Samuel Hale, Dover; John H. White, Lancaster; A. W. Stevens, Manchester; Onslow Stearns, Concord; Charles Burley, Exeter.

☞ Monday night, the 8th inst., as Jailor Camp entered the jail at Montpelier, Vt., to ascertain if the prisoners were all safe in their cells, the Calif Brothers, one of whom escaped from the Chelsea jail recently, knocked Mr. Camp down with a broom stick, and after an exciting tussle with the wife and daughters, who bravely attempted to stop the runaways, succeeded in escaping.

NAVAL.—U. S. gunboat Tuhoma was at Tampa Bay May 15. She had just captured a little blockade runner—a schooner fitted out of one of Francis's Metallic lifeboats, laden with cotton and turpentine. She was quite a curiosity in her way. The rebels had found that ordinary sized vessels could not escape the vigilance of the blockaders, and hence the resort to this small craft.

☞ The London Court Journal says the "Confederate Envoy" declares that as soon as the war is over—over with success to the Confederate cause—a nobility, consisting of Duke, Marquis, Earl, Viscount, and Lord, with Baronet and Knight complete, is to be formed.

☞ Bradbury Gilpatrick brought a suit against the city of Biddeford, Me., to recover damages for injuries sustained by him by reason of an alleged defect in one of the public streets, but the jury failed to bring in a verdict in his favor. Such cases are rare.

DOUBLE LAUNCH.—The two U. S. steamers Shawmut and Nipsic are to be launched this (Monday) forenoon, about half past 11 o'clock, at Portsmouth Navy Yard. It will doubtless be a rare sight, and a good time is expected if the weather is favorable.

☞ The Washington Correspondent of the Concord Statesman writes as follows, We presume he refers to Mr. Charles. D. Hanscom, of this city: "There is an excellent soldier at the St. Aloysius hospital, by the name of Hanscom, from Portsmouth. He belongs to the 2d Mass. Regt., and is wounded in the thigh with a rifle ball and buckshot flesh wounds. His given name I do not remember. He is in the hands of the Sisters of Charity. I saw him to-day, and on inquiry found him to be a New-Hampshire young man. He was wounded in the late battles."

☞ The Memphis Bulletin of June 4th contains the following in relation to a gentlemen well known in this city:

George N. Carleton, Esq., has been appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Board of Trade for this district (comprising the counti s of Shelby, Tipton and Fayette, Tenn.) Mr. Carleton has been for several years a resident in this city, and has always been respected for his suavity of manner, polite attention, and the possession of those courteous and honorable characteristics that constitute the gentleman. He will make an excellent and popular officer, and his appointment is a just return for his consistent adherence to the "old flag."

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The bill incorporating the Portsmouth Insurance Company, was reported back from the Committee in the House of Representatives on Friday, and was passed.

—— A man in Farmington, who recently applied to the town for assistance and support, was found to keep nine dogs at his home.

—— Mr. S. G. Fogg, of Manchester, of whom a horse was hired on the 14th of May, to go to East Concord, but which was not returned, recovered his property in Freedom, Carroll Co.; horse, wagon harness, blanket, surcingle, halter and mat. The thief sold the establishment to a traveller for $150, and has not been captured.

—— Henry N. Cooledge, of Keene, freight conductor on the Cheshire Railroad, was killed near North Ashburnham Station on the afternoon of June 3d.

—— The Lebanon News states that the Senior Class at Dartmouth College have notified the Band that their services will not be wanted at commencement, and are disposed to let the occasion go by as quietly as possible.

—— A young man named Samuel Conner, employed in one of the Manchester Mills, on Thursday had his left arm drawn into a wool picker; the sharp teeth caught his hand and drew it in, cutting and crushing the hand and arm into fine fragments until the elbow was reached, when his shoulder struck the woodwork of the machine and the arm was unjointed at the elbow. The overseer, Mr. Ward, with great presence of mind, placed his finger on the artery and prevented him from bleeding to death, until a gentleman came and corded the arm with a handkerchief.

—— The Claremont Eagle says the growing corn in many fields in that section has been seriously injured by worms.

—— The Pastor of the Congregational church in Newmarket pronounces a man who calls himself Dr. John Baley, of Newmarket, and who has for weeks been imposing upon the public by claiming to be an agent sent out by that church to solicit funds to clear their meeting house from incumbrances, an imposter.

—— The Treasurer's statement shows that the County of Merrimack during the past year received $32,146.23, and expended $19,928.62. The county owes $34,000.

☞ We devote considerable space this morning to the official report of the first annual convention of the N. H. Unitarian Association, which has been furnished us by the Secretary. We do so the more readily, as we do not think the interest in the success of the movement, which has been so well inaugurated, is confined to the members of that denomination.

☞ The Prince of Wales has a natural child, two years and a half old, son of the daughter of a gate-keeper of Windsor Castle, upon which he has settled a pension of $1000 a year for life.

☞ George C. Yeaton is enrolling officer in North and South Berwick, Me.; George G. Frost, in Kittery and Eliot; John G. Thompson, in York, and Geo. Goodwin, jr., in Wells.

☞ It is stated from Vicksburg that the rebels have been firing old nails and pieces of chain—a fact which indicates either a refinement of cruelty or exhaustion of ammunition.

☞ It is estimated that the wool clip of the country during the present year will reach 100,000,000 pounds.

☞ All civilians not connected with the army of the Potomac are to be sent away forthwith.

☞ At the Chicago Canal Convention, a characteristic speech was made by Col. Jennison of Kansas. Alluding to a remark of an opponent of the contemplated improvements, that the government needed all its money to carry on the war, he said:

I can say, had honest Old Abe Lincoln been obliged to commence this war without a dollar, I should have liked it better. Then we would have put the war upon the proper basis of a self-sustaining institution. [Immense applause, and three cheers for Jennison.]

As I was going through Missouri, the other day, I was stopped by an officer of the Provost Marshal. Says he, "Young man, what is your name?" Said I, "My name is Jennison." Said he, "have you a pass to prove your loyalty?" [Laughter.] Said I, "Not any: but I respectfully submit my case to the citizens of Missouri." [Roars of laughter.] I would not say one word against old honest Abe's patriotism, or against his manner of conducting the war: but I claim that Kansas has been fighting this damnable rebellion since 1855. [Laughter.] We feel it. We are sensitive. I myself have eight bullets in my person, which I have received at the hands of these men. I speak as a practical Union man. [Laughter.]

SONGS UPON THE BATTLE FIELD.—A brave and Godly captain in one of our western regiments told us his story as we were removing him to the hospital. He was shot through both thighs with a rifle bullet—a wound from which he could not recover. While lying on the field he suffered intense agony from thirst. He supported his head upon his hand, and the rain from heaven was falling around him. In a little while a little pool of water formed under his elbow, and he thought if he could only get to that puddle he might quench his thirst. He tried to get into a position to suck up a mouthful of the muddy water, but he was unable to reach within a foot of it. Said he, "I never felt so much the loss of any earthly blessing. By-and-by night fell, and the stars shone out clear and beautiful above the dark field. I could not help singing that beautiful hymn,

When I can read my title clear
To mansions in the skies,
I'll bid farewell to every fear,
And wipe my weeping eyes.

"And," said he, "there was a christian brother in the brush near me. I could not see him but I could hear him. He took up the strain, and beyond him another and another caught it up all over the terrible battle field of Shiloh. That night the echo was resounding, and we made the field of battle ring with hymns of praise to God!"

☞ The Greek question seems at length to be settled. Prince William of Denmark had accepted the throne. The protecting Powers had signed a protocol declaring the throne vacant, and a second protocol expressing their adhesion to the election of Prince William was to be signed within a few days.

The Singing Schools gotten up for Mr. Davis of Concord, are announced by the committee to commence this (Monday) afternoon and evening,— at Mercantile Hall. The first lesson of each is free, and all who feel an interest in the matter, are invited to be present, at 5 and 8 o'clock. It is but fair to state that Mr. Davis, who has numerous engagements in Concord and vicinity, comes to Portsmouth solely at the request of parents and others who love music, and who think singing has been neglected here. That committee have charge of all arrangements, and they have decided that $1.50 is as low as any singing school can be sustained.

☞ The New Hampshire Convention of Universalists will meet at the Universalist Church in Portsmouth, next Wednesday, June 17th. A large attendance may be expected, as an excursion train, with cheap fare, will leave Boston at 10 minutes past 8 Wednesday morning for Portsmouth, and leave this city at 6 o'clock P. M. for Boston.

The Council will be formed at the forenoon session;—the Occasional Sermon will be delivered in the afternoon.

EXCURSION TO BOSTON.

☞ Mr. Perham has made arrangements foa an excursion party from this city to Boston on Friday next, for the purpose of visiting the Seven Mile Mirror.

Fare to Boston and returning, including admission to the Seven Mile Mirror, $1.50. The train will leave this city at 8 o'clock A. M. Returning, leave Boston at 5:45 P. M. Tickets for sale at the railroad stations.

☞ See yon fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Spear's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preferepce to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

To every barrel of Flour you can make thirty pounds more Bread or Biscuit (and much better) by using Herrick Allen's Gold Medal, than by yeast fermentation or any other Saleratus. It is perfectly healthy, will not turn your cookery yellow, will strengthen weak stomachs, and cure dyspeptic persons. It is much better to use with cream tartar than soda. Try one paper, and you will be convinced. Most of the Grocers sell it. Depot 174 Liberty Street, New York.

SCHOOLEY'S
NEW IMPROVED
ICEBERG REFRIGERATORS.

This upright REFRIGERATOR combines every improvement. It is the most perfect article of the kind in the market, requiring less ice than any other, and keeping its contents sweet and free from any unpleasant odor.

Daniel T. Curtis, Fruit dealer, Boston, says of it, "I have preserved grapes and pears, peaches, and an extensive variety of plums and berries for five or six weeks in Schooley's Refrigerator."

Oren Peck, Boylston Market, Boston, says, "I find, on careful trial, that it will keep meats perfectly fresh and dry for ten or twelve days."

John Hunt, Butter dealer, Cincinnati, says, "I can keep butter sweet and fresh any length of time in reason, say six weeks."

C. E. Carpenter, Ice Dealer, Providence, says, "I have kept a cup of custard in one of Schooley's Refrigerators during the warm weather one week; when I ate it and found it perfectly good."

Thousands of similar testimonials can be shown in its favor.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR. (Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made, lined throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

☞ We don't think we could get up anything better than the following, and therefore we copy it from the Kennebec Journal:—

The Summer has come with its voiceless lips of flowers, each cup a pulpit and each leaf a book. On every hand are green fields, and the leafy month has full clothed every tree and shrub. A new life appears in the soil; new hopes cheer in every department and every floral bell that tolls its perfume helps make a Sabbath in the fields. The leaves are tremulous in ecstasy, and the dewdrops on the earth reflect the light of the sun in the heavens. Filled with beauty is June, the youth of Summer, blushing in its sinless works. The promise of early and abundant harvests never was greater; the hill-sides and valleys smile in their generous activities, and the very hill-tops seem to clap their hands in delight.—Summer is pleasant everywhere. It is the picture of the period of youth, when the mind is receptive of the multitude of truths offered to its acceptance. The gentle rains have come, bathing tenderly every leaf and limb, and removing every dust-speck, until there is such an expression on the whole face of nature as to make it seem most fitting that a heart-anthem should be sung in harmonious accord. Summer is the poetic period of the year, with its lessons of highest truth and good to every attentive eye, and reflecting mind, and loving heart. How much we might learn, even of the unseen and the eternal, were we faithful students, unselfish and sinless.

☞ The Toronto Leader says that it has authority for stating that the Atlantic Telegraph will be commenced at once. Over $1,500,000—the amount required—has been subscribed in England and America.

☞ The Gas Light Journal of June 1st states that there are in the United States four hundred and thirty-three gas companies whose aggregate capital exceeds sixty millions of dollars.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE!
RYE, N.H., Feb. 20, 1862. "I hereby certify that my daughter has received the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum has been expended by the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. Swayne's Hamburg, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were affected, and they witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.
PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.
"I have for several years been afflicted with dizziness at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicines failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least return of any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.
From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.
DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous tumor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her mother's rest, day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA AND HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicines one of the greatest blessings for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY
☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N.H., promptly attended to. may26o

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Also, Reissues, Extensions, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by return mail. Assignments recorded at Washington.
The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.
He also has the extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render ing him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable as I successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse"
CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their explications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such a remarkable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.
During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE,
The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the
MAGEE COOK STOVE,
as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.
There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the exception of top there is no large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.
The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.
For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.
We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.
The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable article before purchasing.
For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.
The objection raised by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.
To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The immediate object of the heat, after the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the
MAGEE FURNACE.
The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.
No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large portion of the best generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.
This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.
These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.
For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.
They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:
Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,
SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.
1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.
2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.
3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.
4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.
5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents the high gloss of porcelain. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.
DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,
Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.
No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Oct. 1st, 1863.
DR. GOODALL
Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.
The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no interstices or open joints to collect food, &c., consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.
Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.
Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set for Gold.
In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.
ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.
I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TRASKWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do on the usual rates.
☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

...bond to no party—to no sect confined;
...world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
...truth, do good, be just and fair with all:
...the right, though every lam fall."

Let me warn you in this most solemn manner ...ainst the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, ...nerally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—...common and continual mischief is sufficient to ...s the interest and duty of a wise people to ...courage and restrain it. In governments of ...popular form, it is seen in its greatest rank... ...and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

"IDLE HANDS."—The Chaplain of the ...e Hampshire State Prison, in his recent ...nual report, says:—

"It is not too much to say that idleness is, ...at least is fast growing to be, the greatest ...e of our age. To what other vice can ...trace so many serious misfortunes to ...dividuals and society at large? The ...atistics of our prisons tell us how many of ...r inmates were born of intemperate pa...nts; how many of themselves were intem...rate; how many cannot read and write. ...ey tell us how many are of foreign birth, ...d how many are home born; but do the ...atistics of any prison tell us how many of ...r inmates were born of idle parents, and ...re reared in idleness until their passions ...d their wants urged them to penal indul...nces and to crime?

Man is naturally a lazy animal, but while ...e dislikes labor he loves excitement and ...ey money, and if he cannot find it in ...est and industrious avocations, he is ...ne to seek it in dishonest practices and ...me. The man who has no work to do, ...d he has work, knows not how to do it, ...d will not do it—is deprived of the best of ...stimulants, the stimulant of industry—...d is thereby induced to seek excitement ...the gaming saloon, in the dram shop, or ...gross crime. And thus it is easy to see ...at idleness is a stepping-stone to many if ...t most of those sensual evile which so ex...sively abound among us.

If then, idleness is the prolific parent of ...ne, how should it be regarded by an en...ntened public? Shall an offender, urged ...the commission of crime through idleness ...d its attendant vices, live in prison as he ...d all his life lived before? or shall he not ...ther have an opportunity and be obliged ...work, and to acquire such a knowledge ...d habit of industry as will not only ena...e him, but induce him to lead an honest ...d useful life after he is released from his ...m of confinement? The Roman adage ...s, The father that brings up his son with...t some useful trade, brings him up for the ...ves. The foundation of all crime is ...erally laid at an early period of life."

The following anecdote of the late Gen. ...n Stark was related to the writer by the ...General John McNeil:—General McNeil, U. S. A., was, in 1812, a Captain in the ...S. Army. A political Democratic meeting was called at Amherst. Isaac Hill, ...n editor of the New Hampshire Patriot, ...e with him Capt. McNeil to attend the ...eting. On their return, next day, Capt. McNeil proposed to Mr. Hill to call at the ...se of Gen. Stark, whom he never had ...n, although distantly related. The visitors were cordially received and a good ...ner ordered. When taking leave of the ...neral, McNeil remarked, "General, you ...e an old soldier and I am a young one.—...m just ordered to the frontiers; perhaps ...u could give me some advice that might ...e of service to me." The veteran (then ...years old) answered, "I never knew much, ...d what I did know once I have mostly ...otten; but one thing I will tell you. ...ver be ashamed or afraid to live or to die. ...I knows I never was." Gen. McNeil stated that those words inspired him to exertion ...the perils and dangers he encountered in ...e campaigns of 1812, 1813 and 1814.—Boston Post.

TUESDAY, JUNE 16, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

The Chicago Tribune's dispatch states that Gen. Joe Johnston took possession of Yazoo city on the 30th. Gen. Grant sent a large force to dislodge him, who had a skirmish with the rebel cavalry, and took 30 or 40 prisoners. The rebels fired one volley and then fled, our cavalry pursuing them. A small body of our troops at Satartia, on the Yazoo, were met and attacked on the 5th by a portion of Johnston's forces, when we retired without loss to Haines' Bluff. It was anticipated that the rebels would attack that position, and ample preparations have been made to repel them.

Gen. Sherman is reported to have succeeded in entering one of the rebel works at Vicksburg, on the 7th.

A small body of our cavalry, reconnoitering near Clinton, La., came upon 1200 rebel cavalry. 30 men, including Capt. Davis, were killed, and 40 taken prisoners.

New Orleans letters of the 6th state that our lines at Port Hudson are within speaking distance of the rebels. Our gunboats and mortars keep up a continuous fire into the place night and day.

Lee's army, 90,000 strong, crossed the Rappahannock by ford above Fredericksburg, before the close of last week, apparently intending an invading movement up the valley of the Shenandoah. By Friday Gen. Hooker's whole army also was in motion, and there can be little doubt that the two armies are now moving on such a route and so close together that they can hardly avoid an immediate collision. Negroes report that Gen. Milroy, at Winchester, is contesting the advance of the rebels, and that Gen. Reynold at Perrysville has been driven by a large force to Bunker Hill.—The President has called for 10,000 militia from Maryland, 10,000 from Western Virginia, 30,000 from Ohio, and 50,000 from Pennsylvania, to serve for six months unless sooner discharged. And Gov. Curtin, of Pennsylvania, has appealed to the citizens to rally to the defence of the State.

Rumors, of course, abound. Among them are, that Gen. Tyler has retreated from Martinsburg; that our force at Winchester has probably been captured; that the rebels, 10,000 strong, occupy Hagerstown, Md.; that they have appeared near Chambersburg, Penn.; and that there has been no fighting at or near Culpepper, Va. During the next few days it may be safe to half-credit one-half of what you read. 'Government communicates nothing.

Rebel guerillas sacked and burned Shawneetown, in Southern Illinois, on the night of the 6th. Four citizens were killed and 6 wounded. Troops have gone in pursuit of the rebels.

☞ The new pirate Georgia, which was first known as the Virginia, and then as the Japan, captured and burned, April 25, in lat. 25, N., lon. 21 40, W., the ship Dictator, from Liverpool for Hong Kong, with coal. The Georgia is a common iron vessel, 220 feet long, 30 feet beam, brig rigged, full poop, has a very large smoke stack, and is said to be able to steam fourteen miles an hour, but this is doubted. Most of her crew were mere boys. She is commanded by Capt. Maury. The captain and crew of the Dictator were landed at Bahia. The Alabama arrived at that port, May 12, and landed over 80 captured seamen and officers. She had captured and burned the ships Sea Lark and Dorcas Prince. The pirate Florida, May 12th, was at Pernambuco. Upon receiving intelligence of the piratical transactions on the coast, the Navy Department despatched vessels in pursuit of the pirate. Four vessels left New York on Saturday night, three sailed from Hampton Roads, and these were to be followed on Sunday by others.

Dry Goods Falling.—The editor of the Washington Chronicle, (Col. Forney,) writes from New York:—"It is now said that Stewart will lose at least two millions of dollars by the purchase he made in goods last winter. Cottons, shirtings and sheetings, were marked down upon his counter in one day from forty cents per yard to twenty-eight! I took advantage of the decline and purchased one piece of shirting. Stewart can afford the loss of two millions and not suffer. It is said that he has made millions upon millions out of the war. I saw fine calico prints selling on Saturday for 12 1-2 cents per yard. It seemed like old times in Yankeedom, when raw cotton was plenty and calicoes went begging."

☞ Mr. Amass Goodwin, of Alfred, Me., who completed his one hundredth birth-day on the 16th of Febuary last, will visit Bunker Hill on the 17th of June. He was in the war of the Revolution, and was doing guard duty at West Point when Andre was conveyed across the river; and took charge of the boat till the return of the officers and soldiers who had charge of that officer.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Mr. Marcus Marx, of Dover, has been appointed by the State Agricultural Society, Commissioner to the Hamburg Agricultural International Exhibition, which takes place in July next. Samples of the Agricultural products of the State, particulary of wool; and all articles fowarded to him in Dover free of expense, previous to the 18th inst., will be thankfully received and duly forwarded. The samples should be properly packed, with the name of the sender placed on the same.

—— The N. H. Medical Society, which has usually met in Concord, will hold its annual meeting in Dover on the 23d and 24th inst.

—— The editor of the Dover Gazette now admits that those string beans which he saw the other day were raised last year, and kept through the winter in salt and water.

—— The Union Powder Mills in New Durham turn out two tons of powder per day for the Government. These works, with three other larger establishments, furnish a large portion of the powder used in this war. The others are—the Dupont Works, Wilmington, Del.; Hazard, in Conn.; Oriental, in Maine.

—— Col. Chas. H. Abbott, of the 30th Iowa Regiment, who was killed at Vicksburg on the 22d ult., was a son of the late Capt. Joshua Abbott of Concord.

—— The Annual Camp Meeting of the Methodists, formerly held at Newmarket, will be at Epping this year, at what is known as the "Barber place," two and a half miles from the village. It occurs in August, commencing on the 24th.

—— A young woman residing in Tuftonborough, whose husband is off in the army, being informed by the surveyor that her husband's tax on the highway must be worked out, shouldered the hoe and marched to the scene of labor.

—— Mr. William Parker drove a fox to earth week before last in Holderness. The hole was sounded eleven feet and a shaft sunk. Baiting a pickerel hook with a meadow mole, six wee young foxes successively seized the tempting morsel with vice-like grip and were secured uninjured, except one who swallowed the hook and soon breathed his last when disengaged. An exchange, in announcing the capture, speaks of the foxes as "four-footed quadrupeds," which is putting it about as strong as need be.

—— A Concord dispatch states that Gens. Butler, Hamilton and Fremont, Hon. Montgomery Blair, James T. Brady, Gen. Gilman Marston, and Hon. Henry Wilson have positively engaged to be present at the great Union demonstration in that city on the 17th of June.

☞ The captain of the schooner Mary Harris at New York from Nassau, reports the loss of Anglo-rebel steamer Margaret and Jessie, from Charleston, with a cargo of cotton, &c. She was chased by the gunboat Rhode Island, and was run ashore near Eleutheracon the 2d inst. The Rhode Island fired two shots into and through her. She was abandoned by the crew, and wreckers subsequently got her off and took her into Nassau. The Nassau paper is almost frantic over this outrage, as it terms it.

☞ Mr. Roebuck, in a speech before a public meeting in Sheffield, England, demanded that "England should enforce this great principle of mankind—that when a people are determined to throw off a yoke, whatever that yoke may be, they have the right to do so." The New York Evening Post pertinently asks—"Why did he not speak thus when Nena Sahib and his people threw off the English yoke?"

☞ The newspaper editors in Maine have got hold of an item concerning an old English sailor who recently died in North Wales. He was at the battle of the Nile, and other engagements, and while on board the Victory helped to carry Nelson below, after he was mortally wounded. But our neighbors all state that he died at North Wales, in Maine.

☞ Curious contradictions are often seen in the newspapers. In one column of a paper before us, is an item from Chicago, speaking of the great danger of a riot there about the Times newspaper;—and in the next column, almost touching the first, is another item, ridiculing the idea of danger there,—as "the ——— are the true friends of law and order,"—altho' they were the very men that threatened.

☞ Iron-clad steamer Galena, now at the Philadelphia yard, has been entirely stripped of her coat of mail, and presents the appearance at present of an old hulk. This vessel is regarded as a failure. The whole of her upper deck is being taken off, and she will be converted into a second or third rate gunboat. Her machinery is in good order.

☞ The friends of C. L. Vallandigham in Newburyport fired a hundred guns in honor of his nomination as candidate for Governor of Ohio, on Saturday evening.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

From our Regular Correspondent.

New York, June 8, 1863.

Dear Chronicle:—We gave a grand reception to two regiments returning yesterday, at the expiration of their term of enlistment.

A whole brigade of our State militia, comprising the 7th, 8th, 37th, 55th, 69th and 71st regiments, with two battalions of cavalry and a battery of artillery, was on parade. It was the most extensive military display which has enlivened our streets this season.

The returning regiments have distinguished themselves during the last two and short years by the most constant courage and intrepidity, and have been foremost in some of the most sanguinary conflicts of the war, under Kearney and Sickles.

The procession line was formed about noon, and with the usual success attending celebration programmes, the column moved up Broadway at precisely some hours after the time appointed.

The condition of the roads was peculiarly favorable to the comfort and convenience of the troops, neither the natural nor artificial watering machines having been in operation during the day. The appearance of the military I have never seen excelled, and the ovation all along the route was very demonstrative.

From the Metropolitan Hotel the troops were reviewed and addressed by Gen. Sickles, in whose command they have more recently been included. At the conclusion of his remarks, keeping time to the cheers amid which he closed, the column moved up Broadway, flanked on either side by the multitude of faces which lined the pave, and beamed from all the windows, illuminating the imposing fronts with a sparkling radiance.

The next incident of the march was at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. Here McClellan was to review the soldiers. Here were thousands who had pressed in from all directions—men, women and children—eager, excited and enthusiastic. The squadron of horse at the head of the column had to cleave their way through the crowd. At this moment McClellan appeared on the balcony. As the whirlwind meets the forest, the cheers first rustled along the edge of the crowd, then crept into the centre, and went thrashing and crashing through its whole extent, echoed and re-echoed from every side. I have witnessed cable celebrations—I have seen the crowds which followed the Japanese Embassy, and women and children crushed to insensibility in the throngs which assembled to do honor to the Prince of Wales,—but neither equalled the enthusiasm which swept up against the marble front of that massive edifice—a resonant eulogy on the "Little Napoleon." The soldiers placed their hats on their bayonets and held them aloft; some threw them into the air to the height of thirty feet, and it seemed almost impossible to restrain their impulse to rush in and hug their general.—Amid all this McClellan stood calm and self possessed, saluting deferentially each regiment and flag. And one word more about McClellan. The pictures of him throughout the country are not good. His moustache is not black—nor his hair. He has none of that disappointed oyster-boy scow!—no assumed expression of fierceness—dresses plainly, as a civilian—is modest, graceful, naturally prepossessing, and keeps his mouth shut.

A Brooklyn music house published a very pretty melody and ballad recently, which is having a great run. The title is, "When this cruel war is over," and everyone who has a voice, piano, or whistle is entirely devoted to its performance.

A horrible catastrophe took place last night in Baxter street. A lodging house took fire and four persons were consumed. The victims—three of them women, were too much intoxicated to save themselves, and several others escaped only by jumping from the fourth story windows. It was appaling to witness the poor wretches stand on the open windows till the flames, licking their very flesh, forced them, with demoniac screams, to plunge into the midnight air to be caught by the crowd below, or fatally crushed on the stones.

Our old friends Allen & Paine have removed to more elegant and commodious quarters, and are now occupying the double five-story marble store — 384 and 386, Broadway. Their three spacious salesrooms, each measuring sixty by one hundred and seventy-five feet, are furnished with massive black walnut cases for the exhibition of samples, and all the appointments of their establishment are in the most finished style. Their friends will be pleased to learn of their continued and increasing prosperity.

Mr. R. D. Allen has lately Metropolitanized himself and establishment, and exercises on the "Bloomingdale" occasionally his fast trotter, who has such a peculiarly rapid way of pulling a buggy after her that she is not much out of place in the company of the Ledger and Vanderbilt teams. But you can't blame the pony for making a half mile in 1:16 1-2, when her owner and friends have the faculty of getting ahead so fast.

NEWINGTON.

☞ When it is remembered that the 54th Mass. is a negro regiment, and that it went away in a steamer, the following from the Boston Post seems really too bad,—it's horrible:—

We regret to hear that that terrible disease black vomit prevailed to an alarming extent among the 54th Mass. shortly after they left this city.

☞ In the Boston Police Court on Saturday, a man charged with being an idle and disorderly person, offered evidence in defence that he had been tending bar in a saloon, but Judge Wright decided that bar tending is not a lawful employment.

☞ A jury in France has recently decided that every respectable man has a natural right to lie for his own good. Some folks enjoy such natural rights with impunity in other places as well as France.

Hunnewell's Eclectic Pills.—The true Type of Cathartic.—By the application of true Pharmaceutical Laws, both Character and Economy are combined in this valuable Pill. To prevent putting such quantities of indigestible drugs into the stomach, the griping pains so erroneously judged to be the evidence of thorough action, and to require from 4 to 6 Pills, to get a decent cathartic, was the study in this development. The dose seldom exceeding One, and never more than Two Pills, settles the question of economy, and character can be best known by confidence to test them in Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Billiousness, Liver Complaint, all derangements of the stomach and Bowels, and as a Family Pill. spoo

Hunnewell's Universal Cough Remedy.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the natural freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be secured, in Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Bronchial and Asthmatic Complaints, to all Throat and Lung Complaints, which, when neglected, end in Consumption, and to prove the declarations by true results.

THE DOUBLE LAUNCH.—The launch of the two screw steamers Nipsic and Shawmut, at the Portsmouth Navy Yard, on Monday, was eminently successful. At half past eleven the Nipsic glided slowly and gracefully into the deep blue waters of the Piscataqua; and about ten minutes after, the Shawmut followed. A large crowd of spectators, from this city and vicinity, and including many from Concord, Boston, and other places, were present, and the pleasant faces, hearty cheers and waving handkerchiefs attested the pleasure derived from the scene. For launches never seem to grow distasteful or wearisome. They do not follow each other in such quick succession as to cause the spectators to become distatisfied with the sameness which must ever mark them. And yet the "poetry of motion" is never better illustrated than in the slowly-beginning, constantly increasing momentum with which a large and beautiful vessel at first glides, then springs into its native element, settling down gracefully as the waters recede to receive it, and then rising high on their victorious crests, till at length it rests quietly and proudly on the rippling waters.

And on Monday, the two vessels, as they lay there after the launch, in the quiet river, freighted with their precious cargoes, seemed only too beautiful for the terrible work which is before them. Two fair daughters of the Granite State pronounced the vessels' names, as they met the waters, and the cheering notes of the band came floating over the river; yet mingled with the enjoyment there would arise in some minds a feeling of regret that traitors' hands had rendered it necessary that these should be built to thwart the evil plans of traitorous men. There was pain in all this—that the nation was in peril from its own children, and was struggling for its very existence; yet stronger, and deeper felt, and more permanent even than the pain was the prayer that vessels and money, and men might not be wanting to relieve the nation from that peril.

Of the hospitality extended to the invited guests by the officers of the yard; of the pleasant social meetings and cordial greetings: and of the giddy dance in the loft, where the cooling breezes crept through the windows and fanned the glowing cheeks of the happy dancers, we need not speak. Are they not all remembered by those who participated? and is it not enough that the echoes of the pleasant words still linger in the hearts of those who listened to them? Why seek to express here what written words could never half reveal?

THE STREET SPRINKLER is all ready to start when the showers hold up long enough to require it. The matter is in charge of a couple of our live, public-spirited business men—one of whom will see that the Carr does not run off the track, and the other that the wheels are kept Emery bright.—Two horses have been purchased for the work—and as one is from a South End wood-sawing machine, and well used to circular work, and the other from long service in one of the expresses has learned to forget nobody who wishes him to call,—it is to be hoped the team may getround in season, and give general satisfaction.

P. S.—We learn that the machine is not quite ready yet, owing to the delay of some little repairs needed; but it will be started in a day or two.

"HOLD YOUR HORSES."—A few days since, as a Mr. Bartlett of Eliot, was driving a horse of Mr. Geo. Pierce, a clerk at the Navy Yard, into this city, over Portsmouth bridge, the brute became frightened by a dirt train, and ran away, throwing Mr. B. out and severely bruising him—then cleared the front axle from the carriage, and jumped over the rail of Noble's Island bridge, inside—a fall of perhaps fifteen feet, into the water. He was considerably hurt, but swam to shore and was fished out of the dock.

A morning or two after, a sober old gray, who daily and yearly goes the rounds for one of our market gardeners, came slowly trotting down Market street toward the Square, without a driver. He would probably have held up well enough, by-and-bye, had not an awkward attempt to stop him started him out of his usual jog, and sent him slap against an ice cart which was standing at the corner—by which collision the gray was stretched at full length upon the pavement, and captured ere he could recover, a wheel of the ice-cart was turned under the axle, and the ice shattered to atoms and thrown in showers in all directions. The ice-horse was secured ere he could run far, and the old grey was 'hazed' at once—(Hayes-ed) The Ballot is requested to copy this goak!

THAT SINGING SCHOOL.—On account of very sudden and severe sickness, Mr. Davis was unable to visit Portsmouth on Monday, to commence his singing classes—to the disappointment of many, but none more than himself. If possible, he now designs to open his schools on Thursday next, as announced in the advertisement.

NEWCASTLE, June 15.

Editor of the Chronicle, Dear Sir:—On Sunday, June 14th, the body of a man supposed to be one of the crew of the Br. schooner Rouser, lately wrecked near Whale's Back, was picked up between Wood Island and Fort Constitution by John S. Safford and Theodore Keen of Kittery. The clothes remaining on him consisted of a pair of black pants and two shirts, one of which was of red with dark stripes, and the other of common grey. In his pocket was a comb with the letters "H. S." marked upon it. He was brought to Newcastle and his body being in a very bad condition was buried as soon as possible in the town burying-ground, by the proper authorities.

T. B. F.

PERHAM'S name is getting to be as great among the people as Barnum's, and with this difference in Perham's favor—that he never humbugs his patrons, but gives them all he agrees to, and more. His cheap Railroad Excursions are getting to be a regular institution, and those from all the regions within fifty miles of Boston, which are now carrying their thousands to see the city and Perham's long-famous seven-mile mirror, are immensely popular. Hear what the Herald says concerning his excursion from Newburyport last week—it sounds like the thronged excursions from Portsmouth to the Lake, last year.

"Perham's Excursion train to Boston was the great go on Thursday. Long before the hour to start, there was a 'drive' of people, as to a fire, and the agent was forced to discontinue the sale of tickets for want of cars to take the passengers. They left Newburyport with eight cars crowded to suffocation."

The Excursion from Portsmouth takes place on Friday, and the tickets are considerably less than half regular fares. See advertisement.

☞ Paymaster W. H. Thompson, U. S. N., of this city, the Boston Journal states has received orders to report immediately to Acting Rear Admiral Lee on board the U. S. storeship Brandywine.

☞ Among the killed at Port Hudson on Monday, May 25th, was Mr. Joseph J. Locke, of this city, a member of Co. K, 12th Maine regiment. He was about 20 years of age.

☞ An officer of the regular army, recently arrived from the Indian nation, says that the battery of four guns captured by Gen. Blunt at Maysville, Ark., and now in charge of Col. Phillips, of the 1st Cherokee regiment, is the identical battery used by Bragg at Buena Vista, at the time of "a little-more-grape" speech of Gen. Taylor.

Mr Horace Greeley says you cannot make a man with a musket and bayonet over his shoulder contemptible. For decency's sake, then, "shoulder arms," Horace.—Ex.

☞ Side-wheel steamer Sonoma, Com'r T. H. Stevens, from Key West 6th, arrived at New York on Saturday morning.

GOOD MANNERS should begin at home. Politeness is not an article to be worn in full dress only, to be put on when we pay or receive a complimentary visit.

☞ A boy, eight years old, has been arrested in Brooklyn, N. Y, for burglary.

☞ Petitions to the President to recall Vallandigham are in circulation in Boston.

☞ The New Hampshire Convention of Universalists will meet at the Universalist Church in Portsmouth, next Wednesday, June 17th. A large attendance may be expected, as an excursion train, with cheap fare, will leave Boston at 10 minutes past 8 Wednesday morning for Portsmouth, and leave this city at 6 o'clock P. M. for Boston.

The Council will be formed at the forenoon session;—the Occasional Sermon will be delivered in the afternoon.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Samburi Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

To every barrel of Flour you can make thirty pounds more Bread or Biscuit (and much better) by using Herrick Allen's Gold Medal, than by yeast fermentation or any other Saleratus.—It is perfectly healthy, will not turn your cookery yellow, will strengthen weak stomachs, and cure dyspeptic persons. It is much better to use with cream tartar than soda. Try one paper, and you will be convinced. Most of the Grocers sell it. Depot 112 Liberty Street, New York.

SCHOOLEY'S
NEW IMPROVED
ICEBERG REFRIGERATORS.

This upright REFRIGERATOR combines every improvement. It is the most perfect article of the kind in the market, requiring less ice than any other, and keeping its contents sweet and free from any unpleasant odors.

Daniel T. Curtis, Fruit dealer, Boston, says of it, "I have preserved grapes and pears, peaches, and an extensive variety of plums and berries for five or six weeks in Schooley's Refrigerator."

Oren Peck, Boylston Market, Boston, says, "I find, on careful trial, that it will keep meats perfectly fresh and dry for ten or twelve days."

John Hunt, Butter dealer, Cincinnati, says, "I can keep butter sweet and fresh any length of time in reason, say six weeks."

C. E. Carpenter, Ice Dealer, Providence, says, "I have kept a cup of custard in one of Schooley's Refrigerators during the warm weather one week, when I ate it and found it perfectly good."

Thousands of similar testimonials can be shown in its favor.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR. (Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the one plus ultra! of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made, lined throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before.

The various sizes of the above are for sale by the subscriber—also, ICE PITCHERS, ICE AWLS, &c.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since the art introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Stricture, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Bubo, Diseased Groins, Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D., devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the leading and most lamentably effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The mind becomes affected, fatal errors may be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, irritability, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving a description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capsules, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important!

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases peculiar to the female sex, such as Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted may be restored to perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having the unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain his aid.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated Dr. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

RYE, N.H., Feb. 20, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. I had tried everything I was told to be the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured two bottles of your Bottle of DR. SWEET'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Sweet's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were affected, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and I tried everything I could hear of relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWEET'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have had the best health without any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1861.

DR. SWEET: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, what your daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1860, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Sweet's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWEET, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (as do the Act of 1837.)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,

BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers for Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense facilities of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners, with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the ware larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and cast iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodeling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air of uniform and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on top of the coal can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This difficulty is met with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Menihum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction for adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished it has no porous surface.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,

No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

Portsmouth, Jan. 1, 1863.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no interstices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept sweet and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

"I never," says Quip, "bear any malice towards the man who, without malice, says a ill thing of me, with no intention that I should hear of it. I do the same thing to others—perhaps to him. Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 17, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

The enrolled militia in Missouri have been ordered to drill daily until further orders.

Our troops at Milliken's Bend have been reinforced.

The Richmond Sentinel reports an advance by our troops on the Virginia peninsula, and the appearance of our gunboats in the James river and the Chickahominy.

A Suffolk correspondent states that Gen. Corcoran, with 12,000 men had left there on the 12th in the direction of the Blackwater. Gen. Jenkins is at Franklin with quite a force, and it is surmised that our troops are destined there.

Gen. Milroy was surrounded at Winchester by 18,000 rebels, but was not captured; he cut his way through them and united with our forces at Harper's Ferry, to which place our forces at Martinsburg also fell back. The rebels entered Chambersburg, Pa., at 9 o'clock Monday night The N. Y. 7th regiment have offered their services to aid in resisting the invasion, and it is understood that all the New York City militia regiments have been ordered to the seat of war. Gov. Andrew has tendered to the Government the services of all the available Massachusetts militia, including the recently returned 44th, 3d and 6th regiments.

Gen. Hooker's headquarters left the station near Falmouth on the morning of the 14th, and proceeded towards Fairfax station, where they probably arrived on Monday night. Belle Plain and Aquia Creek were evacuated, and all public property had been shipped or otherwise secured.—Up to Monday morning our army held the line of the Rappahannock from Banks' Ford to Kelley's Ford. Lee was supposed to be at or near Throughfare Gap. Communication with Chambersburg, Pa., was broken on Monday night. Dispatches state that Lee is marching six heavy columns into Pennsylvania, destroying every thing in their way. Greencastle has been sacked and burned, Chambersburg and Waynboro' are reported burned. Gov. Curtin telegraphs that the rebels are approaching Carlisle. He is collecting troops and will defend it to the last.

Gov. Smith, of Rhode Island, has issued a proclamation convening the General Assembly on Thursday, to provide for raising troops for the emergency. Gov. Curtin has asked for 9 months' New Jersey men about to be mustered out of the service.

A Philadelphia dispatch says that the rebels have 5000 men in the Cumberland Valley, and there are no forces to check them. At noon, Tuesday, they were within nine miles of Carlisle, which is 18 miles from Harrisburg. The attempt will be made to stop them and drive them back when they reach the Susquehanna river. With prompt and vigorous action all will be well. Lee has staked his all on this final struggle.—Hooker's army is moving rapidly, and seems now to be in a position effectually to prevent Lee's safe return. If the men of the North rally promptly and prevent their further advance, and the army of the Potomac falls upon their rear, we may hope to see the most happy results. The government has been forewarned, and is taking energetic measures to thwart the plans of the traitors. Although the reports are, probably, exaggerated and the danger not really as great as the dispatches indicate, the situation is somewhat critical; still there seems to be good reason to hope that the second invasion of the free states will prove more disastrous to the rebels than was the first.

A Cotton Seizure Story.—Some time last fall, Gen. G. E. Hovey, of the Federal army, made a raid into Mississippi, and fell upon three hundred bales of cotton which were stored in sheds, and marked, "C. S. A.," and were guarded over by a rebel Lieutenant. He was captured, and he explained that the cotton was the assessed offering of the planters in the neighborhood to the demands of Jeff. Davis. It was rebel property entirely.

Gen. Hovey seized this cotton at once, and passed it into the hands of some army speculators. They sent it to Memphis, consigned to private hands and when it arrived there Gen. Sherman seized upon it, and sent it on to the U. S. A. Agent at St. Louis. He sold it out by auction for $60,000, and the proceeds were made subject to the decisions of the courts. Three libels were filed by three different claimants of the money, or of a portion of it, but Judge Treat declared that upon a law of Congress of 1861, the cotton belonged to the United States alone, free from the claim of any officer or inferior. This decision is subject to the revision of the Circuit and Supreme Courts of the United States, but as it is based upon a positive law, it is not likely to be reversed.—Trans.

☞ Letters have been received from Gen. Dow, dated Port Hudson, June 3d. He is still in the field and his wounds are healing as rapidly as might be expected.

☞ Rev. Geo. L. Walker of Portland has declined the unanimous call of the Pearl Street Church Society in Hartford, Conn., to become their Pastor.

[Communication.]

SCRAPS OF POLITICAL HISTORY.

The Boston Courier does not fall in with the whole of Fernando Wood's peace meeting. It says:—

"Much as we disapprove of the course in which the Administration still obstinately persists, we must say that we do not concur in such 'peace meetings' as that held in New York on Wednesday afternoon. We do not think peace likely to be hastened by the promulgation of such sentiments as Mr. Wootten, of Delaware, is reported to have expressed, and in which Mr. Fernando Wood seems to sympathize."

No: peace will not be hastened, but the war more likely prolonged, and rendered more costly in blood and treasure, by any and all such movements.

The Courier looks upon Mr. Wood as endeavoring 'to make the democratic party his instrument to work out his own miserable ends!'—and adds:—

"We are happy to believe, however, that Mr. Wood cannot accomplish this purpose:—we are sure that the Democracy cannot be false to its great national principles and interests, to follow the lead and be the tool of Mr. Wood. Nor will the party to which he claims to belong hold itself responsible for his willingness to yield to the rebels the great majority principle, upon which the resistance to the rebellion was founded and only can be justified."

This is plain talk,—and to the purpose. The South Carolina Aristocracy always despised majorities and working men alike.—Because the majority of Douglas Democrats in the Charleston Convention would not lie down and let the minority walk over them, and trample Douglas into the mud as a rebel against the slave power,—therefore this Aristocratic Minority seceded, and nominated Breckinridge and Lane. Because the same Aristocracy saw a steadily increasing majority in the Free States against their pretensions and in favor of some degree of liberty,—therefore this aristocratic majority drove and cheated the now rebel States into secession and armed rebellion.

And, on the contrary, as the Courier suggests, obedience to the will of the Majority, expressed in the Constitutional way, made it the duty of the President and Congress to "resist the rebellion"—by meeting force with force, and war with war. To have done less would have been cowardice, treason and suicide.

The Courier continues:—

"It is to make the Administration adhere to this single aim, that public opinion and popular pressure should be evoked, for upon it only can a lasting peace be erected.—We would encourage all "peace-meetings" to influence the administration to conduct the war on true military principles, and not as partizans."

It is very well known that the New York Democratic State Committee have adopted a very different peace programme from Mr Wood's, in which they say:—

"As the inauguration of affirmative peace movements at this time by those who have no power to give effect to their views, might afford the dominant party a pretext, in conspiracy with the Southern Confederacy, to make a peace by a separation of the States—and whereas the Democratic and Conservative masses of our people, who are opposed to any terms of peace, which fail to restore the Union and save the Constitution, hesitate to trust that measure to the hands of those who are hostile to both—we deem this a fit occasion to protest against the negotiation of a peace by the Administration, except upon the basis of a preservation of the Union and of the Government established by the Constitution."

The Boston Post and Portland Argus have approved this programme; but Ben. Wood's paper, the N. Y. News, denounces it and the Albany Regency, and says:

"The War Democracy is in common with the Republican party and its branches, a portion of the War party, any distinction being without a difference; and the Democracy pure is the Peace Party."

Since his peace meeting, Fernando Wood has been at Washington, and is said to have been favored with an audience by the President. On this the Portland Argus asks:—

"Has Mr. Wood been taken into the confidence of the Administration? Have the abolition leaders become satisfied that they cannot destroy slavery by the subjugation of the rebels on the abolition policy, and therefore now favor the organization of a peace party, in order to get an excuse for recognizing the Confederacy and agreeing to a separation? Democrats who have always been Union men should not now become the tools of abolitionists to produce, even indirectly, a dismemberment of the Union. They favor peace, but only on the basis of restoration—not on the basis of disunion."

The reader may amuse himself, if he pleases, with the idea of abolitionists joining Fernando Wood's peace party, on the programme of the News, Caucasian and Copperhead, all which papers are afflicted with Negrophobia.

He may also find amusement in the motive suggested by a writer in the Argus, for both kinds of Democrats, and all kinds of opposition, to "Stand Together." He says:

"If the sober second thought obtains among them, there can be no doubt that although divisions of the Democracy brought Mr. Lincoln into the Presidency, (and thus began "the Iliad of our woes") it will not be suffered to occur again. Not denying the existence of differences in opinion among the Democracy on the mode of dealing with the insurgent States, or the manner of re-establishing peace within our borders, * * * let us cultivate and stimulate union and harmony, for the patriotic purpose of opposition, accepting every man as friend and co-worker who will join hands with us in the patriotic work of repudiating the Lincoln administration. In other words, by voting with us at the elections, and thus showing that it has lost the confidence of the nation. Opposition to the administration is obedience to the Constitution.

Here we have a platform upon which all can stand."

As the year rolls round, the people will see how steadily they stand there. The above extracts do not exhibit perfect harmony:—but the Tribune says Fernando Wood will sell out to the Regency next fall.

The great scrambling of noted politicians indicates their confidence that the Union will continue long enough to have a new president; and their endeavors to convict loyal men of contriving dissolution also indicate a similar confidence. U. T.

☞ On Monday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, as a party of four men from Salisbury, Mass., were attempting to beat a sloop boat up the river, the boat was upset above the Newburyport bridge, and one of the party—Patrick Moran, a hatter, belonging to Salisbury—was drowned, while attempting to swim to the shore; the others clung to the boat and were rescued. The boat passed under the bridge, and was towed into the Ferry ways on the opposite side of the river. The wind was very squally, and the sloop had full sail set at the time of the disaster.

☞ Justice is very blind in Chicago.—The other day Louisa Shepard threw her friend Emma Whitney headlong down a flight of stairs. John Hahn seeing her unelegant position helped her to a sitting posture, and while sympathizing with her a policeman came along and arrested all the parties. After a patient hearing of the case, the police justice discharged Louisa, fined Hahn for his display of gallantry, and sent Emma to the Bridewell for 30 days.

☞ The bark Taconey, which was captured on the 12th inst. and converted into a privateer, made prize on the same day of the brig Arabella, from Aspinwall to New York. The prize was released on giving bonds in $40,000, and has arrived at New York. The Navy Department are preparing to send out more vessels to search for the Taconey and other rebel privateers.—The barks Young Turk, Amy, Tidal Wave, and Trinity were chartered at Boston on Monday, and will be fitted for sea with dispatch.

☞ There is trouble brewing between Japan and England and France. The English Admiral has demanded of the Japanese Government a large indemnity and the surrender of the murderers of Mr. Richardson; and private letters assert that the English and French fleets are determined to commence hostilities unless the Japanese Government accede to the demand before the 25th of May. The American Minister was endeavoring to reconcile matters.

☞ Those soldiers sometimes write queer letters. We saw a private letter the other day, written from Washington, to a friend, in which occurred the following:

"Washington is constantly enveloped in a cloud of dust: close the windows and the heat suffocates; open them, and dust suffocates. I wish,——, you would take a trip to Washington."

The invitation was most respectfully declined. Suffocation was thought to be not desirable at present.

☞ Four boys in Portland on Saturday beset John Sullivan, who had about $25 tied up in a handkerchief in his hat, commenced jostling him and finally knocked off his hat, seized the handkerchief containing the money and made their escape. They were arrested on Sunday evening, and $10 were recovered.

☞ A correspondent of the Portland Press, writing from Waterville, states that on Friday evening about 7 o'clock, Mrs. Moses King and her daughter, about 12 years old, and Mrs. James Mayo and a son about ten years old, were carried over Ticonic Falls in a pleasure boat, and all lost.

☞ Messrs. J. B. Lippincott & Co., of Philedalphia, have issued part 14 of their Book of Days, of which we have often spoken so favorably. This begins the second and last volume. It is a valuable work, finely illustrated and beautifully printed.

☞ The Portland Press states that the death of the rebel General Tighman is placed beyond doubt by the receipt of a letter from his wife to her relatives in Portland, dated June 5th, stating that "the news is too true," and that her husband is dead.

☞ John C. Young, of Phillips, Me., a well-to-do farmer, burned his buildings to the ground the other day in a drunken row.

☞ Fitz John Porter, under advice of his counsel, will soon present his reply to ex-Secretary Holt's statement upon which the President's final action, cashiering Gen. Porter, was based.

A gentleman meeting the excellent Bishop Beveridge, asked him how he was. Beveridge replied: "If I answer in Latin, I am sic sic; if in English, so so."

Western Loyalty.—A correspondent of a New York paper which has not approved the recent course of Gen. Burnside, says in a letter from Chicago:

If Western Copperheads are the most malignant of the species (vide Vallandigham and Mahoney), the Unionists are the most terribly in earnest of any in the country. I believe that to-day Burnside is supported by nineteen-twentieths of the loyalists of the West. They see in his messures an indication of earnestness that has hitherto been wanting. And with armies before Vicksburg and Chattanooga, to whom Copperheads are a hissing and a by word, in whose nostrils home traitors are a worse stench than Southern rebels, Burnside is to day, next to Grant and Rosecrans, their greatest hero.

☞ The following steam gunboats left New York on Monday:—Seminole, Dachony, Virginia, Tuscarora, Kittating and Adela. Four others were to follow on Tuesday. Several other steamers have also been chartered by Admiral Paulding.—There is also great activity at the Charlestown Yard, in fitting out vessels to pursue the rebel pirates.

TROUTING.—This region is not generally regarded as very good for trouting; but it is rare to see anywhere a handsomer basket of the speckled beauties, than that hooked somewhere within easy half day's drive of this city, on Tuesday, by Messrs. Marcellus Eldredge and John S. Sides—to whose courteous remembrance we are indebted for a liberal mess. Their catch comprised fifty-one fish, and a solid basketfull; they made—we should judge, thirty pounds or so. Because Foss couldn't find out where they were caught, he insinuated that "they came from the Lake;" but it isn't strange that such enthusiastic and devoted sportsmen as Eldredge and Sides should find out the most secret and well-stocked haunts of the salmon-colored luxuries.

STRAWBERRIES.—A few boxes, brought from Boston, and probably from New Jersey, have been sold in Portsmouth, from 37 to 60 cents per box—some, of a large dark color, sold by Mr. Avery, being equal in flavor to any we ever ate. The first "native" strawberries we have heard of,—that is, those raised about home here, were picked, a couple of boxes, by Capt. Wm. White, on his farm in Stratham, June 15th, and exhibited at Mr. Avery's store. Wild strawberries, ripe, were picked from a pasture in the suburbs, as early as June 3d.

☞ Hon. W. H. Y. Hackett, Esq., of this city, was elected President of the N. H. Historical Society, at the annual meeting in Concord on Wednesday last.

☞ Mr. John G. Tompson, formerly of this city, but who has for several years had charge of the extensive lithographic engraving, and plate printing business at F. F. Oakley's, 204 Washington street, Boston—has become joint partner in that old and well-known establishment; and the business will be conducted as heretofore, at the old stand, under the style of Oakley & Tompson. They do all sorts of engraving, in the best manner, and make a specialty of business and marriage cards, &c. The new firm will be glad to see any old Portsmouth friends at their place of business; or any orders left at the Chronicle Counting Room will be promptly forwarded and attended to.

☞ The Bank of New Hampshire, of this city, has declared a dividend of 3 1-2 per cent. and the Government tax, payable July 1st to holders of stock on June 25th.

☞ Notice has been given in the N. H. Legislature of intention to introduce a bill establishing the Portsmouth and New York Steamboat Company.

☞ N. H. Universalist Convention, at the Church in this city, to-day, at usual church service hours. Council in morning, sermon in afternoon.

☞ Mr. Davis' Singing Schools, at Mercantile Hall, Thursday afternoon and evening, if his health will permit.

☞ Perham's grand cheap excursion to Boston, Friday, June 19th.

☞ See advertisement of rare chance to procure nice piano for the price of a common one.

The Old Eastern Railroad depot which has so long disgraced the city of Portsmouth, has recently been taken down, and the Company now have the largest depot in the world, literally "as big as all out doors." They have not yet been able to make the roof water tight.—Portland Press.

☞ Letters from Vicksburg say that in the forts where the artillerists are at work, men sleep beside the guns that fairly shake the hills with their reports, and sleep as soundly and sweetly as though peace still spread her kindly mantle and silence reigned supreme.

A LOYAL BATTALION OF REBEL PRISONERS.—The Governor of Ohio has authorized a battalion to be formed of rebel prisoners at Camp Chase, in that State, who take the oath of allegiance. Forty-five joined on Thursday last.

HUNNEWELL'S ECLECTIC PILLS—The true Type of Cathartic.—By the application of true Pharmaceutical Laws, both Character and Economy are combined in this valuable Pill. To prevent putting such quantities of indigestible drugs into the stomach, the griping pains so frequently judged to be the evidence of thorough action, and to require from 4 to 6 Pills, to get a decent cathartic, was the study in this development. The dose seldom exceeding One, and never more than Two Pills, settles the question of economy, and character can be best known by confidence to test them in DYSPEPSIA, COSTIVENESS, BILIOUSNESS, LIVER COMPLAINT, all derangements of the stomach and Bowels, and as a Family Pill. spno

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent taking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be sacred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—The Manchester Mirror gives an interesting account of the Amoskeag Gun Manufactory. It states that the Shop sent off the first lot of the Springfield rifled muskets last week. They are now making them at the rate of about 2000 a month. At the end of two months they will be able to make 100 a day. They now employ on this work about 250 men, and will increase the number to about 350. In addition to those of the Springfield pattern of 1861, they have a contract for making Lindner's Breech-Loading Carbines, and have other contracts in prospect.

—It is estimated that Lyndeboro' realizes annually about one thousand dollars from her blueberry crop—nearly all of the berries being gathered by woman and children. One family in this town made and sold the past year in the Nashua market, seven barrels of pickles; another family made and sold in the Boston market, over seven barrels of apple sauce and between seven and eight hundred weight of dried sliced apples.

—The Newport Argus announces the death of Frederick Claggett, Esq., of that town, aged 57. He was a native of Merrimack, from which town his father removed to Newport many years ago. The Argus says:

Mr. Claggett was a grand-son of Hon. Wyseman Claggett, of Litchfield, who came to this country from England before the Revolution, took an active part in that great struggle, and was Attorney General under our Provincial and State governments.

—The 8th N. H. regiment up to the 6th had lost at Port Hudson, 44 wounded, —Lieut. Col. O. W. Lull killed, Capt. Geo. A. Flanders and Adjutant E. B. Bell wounded.

—The Great Falls Manufacturing Company pay a dividend of 5 per cent. on demand.

☞ See yon fair maiden in another column, picking Sambucl Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

To every barrel of Flour you can make thirty pounds more Bread or Biscuit (and much better) by using Herrick Allen's Gold Medal, than by yeast fermentation or any other Saleratus.—It is perfectly healthy, will not turn your cookery yellow, will strengthen weak stomachs, and relieve dyspeptic persons. It is much better to use with cream tartar than soda. Try one paper, and you will be convinced. Most of the Grocers sell it. Depot 112 Liberty Street, New York.

RYE, N. H., Feb. 28, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have noted as agent for the sale of it." JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give a relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

NEW IMPROVED

ICEBERG REFRIGERATORS.

This upright REFRIGERATOR combines every improvement. It is the most perfect article of the kind in the market, requiring less ice than any other, and keeping its contents sweet and free from any unpleasant odors.

Daniel T. Curtis, Fruit dealer, Boston says of it, "I have preserved grapes and pears, peaches, and an extensive variety of plums and berries for five or six weeks in Schooley's Refrigerator."

Oren Peck, Boylston Market, Boston, says, "I find, on careful trial, that it will keep meats perfectly fresh and dry for ten or twelve days."

John Hunt, Butter dealer, Cincinnati, says, "I can keep butter sweet and fresh any length of time in reason, say six weeks."

C. E. Carpenter, Ice Dealer, Providence, says, "I have kept a cup of custard in one of Schooley's Refrigerators during the warm weather one week, when I ate it and found it perfectly good."

Thousands of similar testimonials can be shown in its favor.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR. (Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been so necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made, lined throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

The various sizes of the above are for sale by the subscriber—also, ICE PITCHERS, ICE AWLS, &c.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a

PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of stating to the afflicted that those diseases that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of

GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.

Beneath his treatment, all the symptoms of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS.

Dr D., devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the limbs and back, Pains in the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The mind also becomes weak and can be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, love of solitude, &c., are some the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.

Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.

Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your case. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotins, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

Highly Important!

To Females in Delicate Health.

DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases peculiar to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all cured by a course new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted female soon rejoices in perfect health.

Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in this country.

Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.

Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.

Office Hours from 7 A. M. to 9 P. M.

CERTAIN CURE

in all cases, or No Charges Made.

Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and private diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwerried attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.

Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated Dr. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (as der the Act of 1837.)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,

BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure patents in the United States, also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions, and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office do the fees or charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of legal decisions and official decisions relative to patents.

Hence, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, he has full access to the Patent Laws in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessary Patents, or Journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, in all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twelve rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven and flues are so applied that which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"

VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING

FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given quantity of fuel and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive zigzag arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases, and at the same time give off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the reduction of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without done going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world.

and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction for adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as is complained of in the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as new, and at a much less cost than for silver presents one whole piece.

6th While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,

Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon this BASE, as well as upon gold or GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no interstices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept sweet and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth while I am confined, can be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of Gold. The best dentists by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White's.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BURNETT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain, and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Success and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, at the usual rates.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every inn fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

REMINISCENCE OF THE HANCOCK HOUSE, BOSTON.—Mr. J. T. Buckingham in his "Reminiscences" relates that in 1792, Gov. Hancock, who was a zealous advocate for the popular doctrine of Liberty and Equality, made himself a subject of raillery by giving a ball to the colored people of Boston at his mansion house. The poetical newsboys' Addresses of that year made it a subject of wit, and the Hartford Courant satirized it in a manner which, out of Copperhead circles, would hardly be considered decent at the present day.—Trans.

LAZY BOYS.—A lazy boy makes a lazy man, just as sure as a crooked sapling makes a crooked tree. Who ever yet saw a boy grow up in idleness, that did not make a shiftless vagabond when he became a man, unless he had a fortune left him to keep up appearances? The great mass of thieves, paupers, and criminals have come to what they are by being brought up in idleness. Those who constitute the business part of the community—those who make our great and useful men—were taught to be industrious.

True happiness is of a retired nature, and an enemy to pomp and noise: it arises, in the first place, from the enjoyment of one's self; and in the next, from the friendship and conversation of a few select companions.

Concerning the sweetening required in rhubarb pies, a Pittsfield lady give the following infallible rule; "throw in sugar as long as your conscience will let you; then shut your eyes and throw in one handful more"

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, JUNE 18, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

At a meeting in Harrisburg, Monday evening, Gen. Cameron, the late Sec. of War, blamed the Government for not sending men to aid in the defence of the capital, when Pennsylvania had so liberally contributed men and money for carrying on the war. He said that while he had every confidence in the present commander of the Department, such men as McClellan and Franklin, whose leadership the people had every confidence in, would rally to their standard every loyal man. He called upon the Government to send for McClellan to take charge of the militia of the State.

On Tuesday Gen. McC. was in Albany for the purpose of aiding Gov. Seymour in organizing and sending forward troops for the defence of Pennsylvania. About 14,000 men are already secured, and they are beginning to go forward.

A Harrisburg, Penn., dispatch at 11 o'clock Tuesday night, says the telegraph offices at Carlisle and Shippensburg are still open and business is transacted with them as usual. As Shippensburg is 20 miles beyond Carlisle, it is evident the rebels are not advancing with much rapidity, and there is to night a fair prospect of securing the capital against attack, if the rebels advance so far.

A special Harrisburg dispatch to the N. Y. World says Hooker is threatened at Warrenton by the main rebel army, supposed to be 60,000 strong, under Lee in person. The force in Maryland and Pennsylvania is estimated by Gen. Schenck at 40,000.

A letter in the Knoxville Register of the 9th inst., from Meridan says: "The proclamation of Gov. Pettes and Gen. Johnston, urging the people of Mississippi to rise en masse to take up arms, will add but little strength to the Southern armies. A few counties will respond coibly to the call for volunteers, but from all indications, it will be found impossible to arouse the population generally. The Mississippians, in many instances, deem Vicksburg already lost."

A telegram was received at New Orleans on the morning of the 7th, announcing the commencement of the bombardment of Port Hudson at 2 o'clock that morning. Gen. Sherman was in a critical condition, his leg having been amputated. The hospital at Baton Rouge was filled to overflowing with sick and wounded soldiers from Port Hudson, and it is feared the extreme heat may prove fatal to many. All the troops except three regiments have been withdraw from the Teche country and sent to Port Hudson. The river is falling fast, and some of our heavy draft vessels would be obliged to come down.

Thirteen rebel deserters arrived at Fortress Monroe, June 15, from Gen. Jenkins' command on the Blackwater. They report that the rebel force at that place comprises but one brigade.

A daily Union paper is about to be started in Norfolk, called the Virginia.

From a column or two of dispatches in Wednesday evening's papers, we gather the facts that Lee has a very large army in Virginia, with which he intended to invade not only Pennsylvania, but Maryland and other states;—that the traitors in Baltimore and New York City have been looking for this invasion with great hopes of its success, for some time past; but that the sudden and strong uprising of the people to resist it, have rather dashed these hopes for the moment.

Pennsylvania is alive with men in motion — and intrenchments are thrown up at various points. It is said by some who watch matters closely, that the next battle will be fought in Maryland, and perhaps on the old field of Antietam.

Gen. Lee is moving on a longer line than Gen. Hooker, but he has not succeeded in outmarching him very far. Gen. Hooker was in Fairfax Courthouse Tuesday morning. On Tuesday evening the rebels were still in and around Chambersburg, Penn., waiting for reinforcements.

A Harrisburg dispatch of Wednesday, 17, says: The panic is over here. The rebel Gen. Elwell is at Westminster, Md., and another corps at Hagerstown.

☞ There are organizing in New York State no less than 25 new regiments. As a liberal bounty is offered for enlistment, there can be very little doubt that they will soon be all filled up. Many of the returned soldiers, men who have served two years or nine months, will join them.—These new regiments will be ready to meet the conscription, should it be called for, by placing 25,000 men in the field at once.

☞ The Wheeling Intelligencer has a letter from Winchester which says that everything indicates a tremendous concentration of the rebel forces against Hooker. Lee is about to assume the aggresive, and it appears he has determined to stake the issue of the war upon the next battle, which will take place soon.

IT MUST BE DONE BY FIGHTING.—Speaking of the rebel invasion of Pennsylvania, the Boston Post says:—

"The People have not been found wanting at any of the stages of this terrible war; and they are now rushing to arms to defend all that is dear to men. They will do their duty. All over the country will they continue to do it. But while they are arming, the destroyer is desolating. Nothing will stop the terrible work but the dispersion of the rebel armies. Let us hope now that nothing will stand in the way of this."

Right: let nobody hinder the raising of men, obstruct the draft, or discourage enlistments. The rebel armies are to be dispersed by stronger United States armies, if dispersed at all. Peace meetings, where people cheer for Jeff. Davis and Vallandigham, don't disperse rebel armies, but encourage them. On the other hand, able bodied men of all nations and all colors, should be welcomed to our ranks,—and the rebellion crushed by the dispersion of its armies, as the Post suggests. U. T.

NEW YORK CITY now numbers a resident population of 900,000 souls and a floating of 50,000. Her prisons, penitentiaries, and poor houses, swarm with criminals and vagrants, of whom not one-fourth can claim to be Americans. Of the 6,686 persons of this class now under the charge of the Commissioners of Charities and Corrections, three-fourths are foreigners and Catholics. During the year 1862 there were received into the several institutions under the supervision of the Commisioners 57,934 persons, of whom not less than 40,000 were born in foreign lands. During the same period there were committed to prison in the city, for 90 specified offences, 41,299 persons, 30,152 (or nearly three-fourths) of whom were foreigners; 25,371 being natives of Ireland. Of the 6000 liquor sellers, about the same proportion are also natives of foreign countries.

The most fruitful cause of crime of course is intemperance. There are 6,000 places were liquor may be obtained within the police limits of the city; and only a little over 1,000 have a license. This business is protected by a powerful organization numbering over 5,000 persons, many of them men of wealth and standing in the community, who furnish bail and procure legal aid to shield any of its members that are prosecuted for illegal liquor selling or for keeping their houses open on Sunday. Of 92,832 arrests by the police in 1862, three fourths were for intoxication or for misdemeanors arising therefrom. The agent of the Prison Association states as the result of years of experience, that he knows of no habits, vices, or indulgencies, so detrimental to the body, mind, and soul, and producing so large an amount of physical, mental and moral ruin, to the masses, as the use of alcoholic drinks.

The licentious literature which is sold clandestinely in the streets, along the wharves, and in some bookstores, is shown to be a fearful agency in the ruin of thousands of the youth of both sexes. Brought into contact, by these books, with impure minds, the flames of lust and passion are fed and fanned into furious activity.

NORTH CAROLINA—SECESSION.—The following is from The Raleigh State Journal, a secession paper:—

"We fear that the same conflict between the State authorities and the Confederate Government which was witnessed in this State at the session of the last Legislature, is to be renewed. The Governor has assumed the position of an avowed advocate of the supremacy of the State Judges, and has in advance decided all cases against the claims of the Confederate Government.—We have observed with regret a recent order of the Governor, by which he commands the officers of the State to resist by force the arrest of any person claimed as a conscript, who has once been discharged by the decision of a State Judge. We look with alarm upon these unsettled and conflicting claims. The only honest course for a State of the Confederacy is to give her all to the contest now raging, or to quit the field at once. There can be no divided service compatible either with honor or safety."

The above extract is a singular illustration of the foolish and anti-constitutional doctrine of absolute State Sovereignty, on which many of the rebels based their speeches and actions in Congress, for years past. The reader may see now, how this theory works among the rebels. The same theory, acted on here, in the United States, would crumble the Nation into fragments. Yet it has its advocates. U. T.

☞ During the late raid of Stoneman's cavalry they were joined in Louisa County, Virginia, by a Union refugee who had been lurking in the woods to escape the Confederate authority an entire year lacking one day. He says there are numbers of Unionists all through the South hiding themselves in caves and mountain fastnesses.

There are one hundred and fifty persons in New York, who are known to have made fortunes, varying from one hundred thousand to a million and a half of dollars during the past eighteen months, some by stocks, some by contracts, some by shoddy, some by selling bad vessels to the government, some by crackers and cheese for the army, and some by disposing of good offices. These shoddy aristocrats have added about two hundred brilliant new equipages to the Ring at the Central Park, and will soon figure largely at the watering places.

OUR COUNTRY, OUR WHOLE COUNTRY, AND NOTHING BUT OUR COUNTRY. From one of the very interesting series of articles now publishing in the New York Ledger, on the Roman Emperors, from the pen of J. S. C. Abbott, we take the following significant paragraphs:—

The Roman empire at this time (350) consisted of a belt of one thousand miles in width, encircling the Mediterranean sea as a central lake. Poetry can hardly conceive of a location for an empire more beautiful, or better adapted for the accumulation of wealth and power. And now commenced with terrific vigor, the locust irruption of barbarians from all directions upon the Roman empire. And still the intatuated Romans, instead of combining to drive back these savage foes, were wasting their energies in civil war.

Our own land is menaced with treason and rebellion more potent than Vandal hordes. The very existence of our Republic is endangered, and we are threatened with the same disgrace and ruin that overwhelmed Rome. Unless we lay aside all party bickering, and with one heart and one voice rally for the defence of our imperiled country, this rebellion, insolent and triumphant, will make the very name of democracy a bye-word and a mockery among all nations.

* * * It is thus that God chastens guilty nations, by leaving them to destroy themselves. Crime is its own punishment. Those persons in our country now, who are trying to palsy the arm of the government, and to overthrow our constitution, founded on the corner stone that all men are free and equal, that they may rear upon its ruins another constitution, based on the corner stone of slavery, are doing every thing in their power to introduce the anarchy, barbarism and bloodshed of the ancient Roman empire, into the republic of the United States. Though they may not mean this, if there be any truth taught in history, this is the inevitable tendency of their efforts. Unless this infamous rebellion is quelled, and our national integrity and our free constitution are maintained, we shall inevitably follow in the anarchial footsteps of Rome.

UNION.—The Newburyport Herald says "there can be no restoration of the old Union but by conservative men and conservative measures."

The old World was restored (says Uncle Toby) after Noah came out of the Ark, by a new vegetation and a new population; yet many traces of the deluge remained; new kings and new kingdoms arose; new laws and customs prevailed; and the new civilization differed from the old in many points of interest, great and small. In all the wars of the Jews and Greeks, the Barbarians and Scythians, the bond and the free, from Nimrod to Napoleon, it has rarely if ever happened that any nation has come out of a great war exactly in the same condition as when it went in. It would be a most remarkable event, if our country should be an exception to the general rule. This is not indicated by present appearances.

The facts that Western Virginia is a State in the Union, that Missouri State's emancipation is conceded by the most bitter opponents of the policy, and many other facts of the same class, show that the Revolution, started by the rebels, is going outside their control, and moulding the future Union into a different shape from the past. Conservative men and measures have their places and their uses; but they have no more power to roll backward the events, than they have to restore the ages that have gone by. U. T.

HORSE THIEF BROUGHT UP ON A SHORT TURN.—A man hired a horse and wagon at Hadley's stable, Lowell, last Friday morning, to go to Lawrence. He had had a team the day before and paid for it, and the team was let without hesitation.—He drove to Manchester and put up at James' & Dodge's stable, and wanted to trade off his horse. He seemed to be in a great hurry, and after dinner started for Concord. James saw Hadley's name on the whip and became suspicious that the property was stolen, and telegraphed to Hadley that such a team had been there.—Hadley sent an answer for him to arrest him, which was done, and in the evening Mr. Hadley got the team. The thief plead respectability, first offence, and so on, and got off by paying all the money he had with him, $28, and two cheap watches.

The Mirror well says the stable keepers of New England ought to have an Association for catching horse thieves, so that the moment it is known a horse is stolen, hundreds of men will be on the look-out for him.

Chambersburg, said to have been burnt by the rebels, is a flourishing town, the capital of Franclin county, Penn., situated on the Conecogheague Creek, at the junction of the Cumberland Valley Railroad with the Franklin Railroad, 45 miles southwest of Harrisburg, and 150 miles west of Philadelphia. It is connected by good turnpike roads with Baltimore, Pittsburg and Philadelphia, and by railroad with Philadelphia, Harrisburg, &c. It is surrounded by a highly cultivated and populous country, forming a part of the great limestone valley which extends along the southeast base of the Blue Mountains. Population about 7,000.

NARROWING THE LIMITS.—The Chicago Times says that "the professed democrat who has his senses about him, and is deliberately for the war, is not a democrat, but in fact, an abolitionist of the most radical, violent and destructive kind." There are a great many such abolitionists about these times.—New York Post.

HOOKER'S HORSE AND SADDLE.—From the Washington correspondence of the Sacramento Union, we copy:

Gen. Hooker has lately been presented with a fine horse by George Wilkes, formerly of California, and he rode him at some of the reviews. Then General prefers to ride his old war-horse, a light gray, which has been with him during all of his fights; but the gift of Wilkes is a splendid animal, a dark chestnut in color, of great power and graceful action, costing a fabulous price.

The President to-day used that saddle which has lately been received by General Hooker from Main & Winchester, saddlers in San Francisco, as a present from that firm. It is a very handsome affair, and, as Hooker said, could only have been made in California, as its style and thoroughness of workmanship is just what a military Californian can best appreciate. The donors will, perhaps, be gratified to learn that so excellent a horseman as the President was the first man to sit astride their magnificent gift.

☞ The New Hampshire Convention of Universalists met in this city on Wednesday morning, which was devoted to the organization and business of the Council. The occasional sermon was delivered in the afternoon by Rev. Lemuel Willis, formerly the pastor here, from Matthews 5: 16. The evening was occupied with services connected with the Sunday Schools. The meetings were well attended, and they will be continued and closed to day, (Thursday.)

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Mr. Samuel Harris, of South Hampton, was surprised one evening last week by seeing a strange looking animal chasing a calf into his barn. He closed the door upon the animal, and succeeded in capturing what is said to be a wolf.

—— Dr. Isaac Butterfield, a well known veterinary surgeon died on Monday in Derry, after a sickness of about six weeks. He was one of the most successful veterinary surgeons in New England. He was about 66 years of age.

——The Winnipesaukee Gazette says the popular little steamer "Lady of the Lake" is in good condition, and bids fair to do a prosperous business the present season, under the management of Capt. Sanborn, "who has had much experience on the Lake, and is sure to give satisfaction to all who may entrust to his care."

☞ The Manchester American understands from the most reliable authority, that on Sabbath last as Rev. Mr. Jones of Canaan was about to baptize several candidates for admission to his church, he found that one candidate had not been so thoroughly converted as to believe slavery to be a sin. The Elder asked him as he stepped into the water if he believed slavery to be a sin. "No!" he replied, "I think it a divine institution." "Then" said the Elder, "you cannot receive the ordinance of baptism at my hands," and refused to administer the rite.

☞ The New York Daily News reports, that at the late democratic meeting in Brooklyn, "three cheers for Lincoln seemed to be proposed by some one in the body of the hall, and a few voices gave it, but almost instantly a storm of hisses, groans, cat-calls and cries of "put him out," arose, creating for several minutes great confusion, and it was only allayed by a gentleman on the stage announcing that a mistake had been made—the cheers were intended for Vallandigham, and with this fresh understanding they were given with a will. In the excitement some one proposed three cheers for Jeff. Davis, and these too were given."

☞ It is a remarkable fact that the regiment of Wilson Zouaves, which returned to New York a few days ago from the war, came back almost as strong as they went out. Considering the length of service, the numerous actions they were in, and the climate of the extreme south of Louisiana, there numbers were very slightly diminished.

☞ The enrollment in New York is progressing as rapidly as possible, 3000 enrolling officers being employed, but a month must elapse before it can be completed. Up to Saturday last, it was roughly estimated that 125,000 names had been taken. Thus far, it has been ascertained that the first class exceeds the second by three to one.

☞ When Jefferson was President, Aaron Burr was made the subject of an arbitrary arrest by General Wilkinson. The enemies of the administration who were favorable to Burr, like the copperheads of the present day, tried to get up an excitement on the subject, and made strong accusations against President Jefferson and General Wilkinson.

A TRIP POSTPONED.—On Saturday the President, General Meigs, and one or two others, started on a special steamboat for Aquia Creek, to visit General Hooker's army. When near Alexandria a small tug put out and overtook them with a dispatch from the Secretary of War, recalling them. They at once turned their boat and returned to Washinton.

RIDICULOUS.—A report has gained currency among a certain class in this vicinity, that five hundred hand-cuffs had been received at the Provost Marshal's office. It is perhaps necessary, to quiet the minds of a few, to say no such articles have been received, but 500 haversacks have, which may have given rise to this absurd rumor.—Laurence Journal.

☞ The oldest newspaper in the world is published in Pekin. It is printed on a large sheet of silk, and it is said has made a weekly appearance for over a thousand years.

☞ The Ohio Democratic Convention which nominated Vallandigham passed resolutions against the administration, against its emancipation policy, against Gov. Tod, and against pretty nearly everything except the rebellion and traitors. Not a word was "resolved" against these.

☞ The body of P. McCabe, who had been missing since Monday, was found in the river at Lawrence on Saturday. He is supposed to have fallen into the river while intoxicated.

☞ The Superintendent of Freedmen at St. Louis gives notice through the Democrat that the demand for colored laborers is beyond his ability to supply.

☞ Gold, at New-York on Wednesday morning at half past 9, was 149 ;—at noon it was 145 1-2.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837,)

75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON,

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Reissues, Extensions, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large vial had been expended by the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintance, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1863.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT. Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26G

NEW IMPROVED

ICEBERG REFRIGERATORS.

This upright REFRIGERATOR combines every improvement. It is the most perfect article of the kind in the market, requiring less ice than any other, and keeping its contents sweet and free from any unpleasant odors.

Daniel T. Curtis, Fruit dealer, Boston says of it, "I have preserved grapes and pears, peaches, and an extensive variety of plums and berries for five or six weeks in Schooley's Refrigerator."

Oren Peck, Boylston Market, Boston, says, "I find, on careful trial, that it will keep meats perfectly fresh and dry for ten or twelve days."

John Hunt, Butter dealer, Cincinnati, says, "I can keep butter sweet and fresh any length of time in reason, say six weeks."

C. E. Carpenter, Ice Dealer, Providence, says, "I have kept a cup of custard in one of Schooley's Refrigerators during the warm weather one week, when I ate it and found it perfectly good."

Thousands of similar testimonials can be shown in its favor.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR. (Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Ice Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated refrigerator, well made, lined throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

The various sizes of the above are for sale by the subscriber—also, ICE PITCHERS, ICE AWLS, &c.

Morning Chronicle.

☞ An item has gone round among the papers, stating that A. T. Stewart & Co., of New York, had been trying to monopolize the sale of cotton goods, and had lost very largely by it; also that they had speculated in butter. Both statements are contradicted, on the best authority. They have never bought butter, except for their own families' use,—and have not had as many domestic cottons at any one time since February, as they sell in one month. Somebody made the lie, (as people used to say,) out of the whole cloth,—or rather made the lie without the cloth.

THE peculiar taint or infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. The ills it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to someone who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it contains many ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,
The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

This has been so long used and so universally known, that we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with bright, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large soap stone attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it can not be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacturers and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which passes through the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason, for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This defection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 50 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass, with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are usually made to fill every part of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the ashes of coal are entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without coming to the coal.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber.

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the mouth is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, or when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th White in all respects it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL:

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, that he had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he has prepared himself for VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and tongue. There are no interstices or open joints to collect food and decay, consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Besides all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TEWKSBURY, Dr. HARDING, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

SLEEPING IN RIFLE PITS.—A letter from Vicksburg says that many men stay in the rifle pits day and night. There is one that extends nearly half a mile, which is only three feet wide, but about ten feet deep. In the side of the they have cut bunks, like those in a ship. A man measures himself and makes a recess about his size, spreads his india-rubber blanket in it, and sleeps as quiet as at home. In the forts where the artillerists are at work, I have seen men sleep beside the guns that fairly shook the hills, as soundly and sweetly as though peace still spread her kindly mantle o'er us and silence reigned supreme.

EMANCIPATION IN MISSOURI.—Prof. E. D. Sanborn, in a letter to the Lebanon Free Press, dated St. Louis, May 30, says: "A strong party is daily increasing who advocate the immediate abolition of slavery without compensation and without regard to the State constitution. They will succeed, unless sudden disasters to our arms in the South prevent the execution of their measures."

Amasa Walker, late member of Congress from the Worcester district, in a public speech the other day, said—"after the war shall have passed away, with a large public debt and heavy taxes, the people will see the absurdity of the war principle, and the falsity upon which it is founded." Such a remark from Fernando Wood, would be deemed disloyal. It is very "coppery" for anybody.—Newburyport Herald.

☞ A famous negro preacher died in St. Louis a few days ago, and was buried with distinguished honors. The deceased was an emancipated slave of Edward Bates, and possessed more than ordinary talent for preaching. He had been a pastor of a colored church for many years.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, JUNE 19, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

The ram Switzerland, Col. John Ellet, on the 3d discovered a battery of six field pieces and a regiment of infantry holding the shore at Simonsport, on the Atchafalaya. The Switzerland engaged them and was struck seven times, one shot severing the steam pipe. The damage was repaired, and Capt. Walker, with the Lafayette and Pittsburg, silenced the battery and burned the town and commissary stores. The river is now clear between Port Hudson and Vicksburg.

It is now stated that Loring is at Jackson, Miss., with 5000 rebels, Walker at Yazoo City with 50,000 and Johnston at Canton with 15,000. These will be massed to attack Gen. Grant's rear, but Grant holds all the fords of the Black River, which must be crossed by Johnston and Loring. Rebel cavalry are continually scouting outside of Gen. Grant's lines.

Port Royal advices say that Col. Montgomery had made a raid into Georgia, destroying Darien and the bridge of the Brunswick and Savannah Railroad, and had shelled Brunswick. Col. Montgomery had made his base at St. Simonds Island. Brig. Gen. Gilmore had arrived at Port Royal and taken command. Gen. Hunter and staff arrived at New York on Wednesday.

The rebels seem to have left Chambersburg, Pa., on Wednesday afternoon, having first set fire to a warehouse. Jenkins retreated, it is thought, towards Hagers town. It is believed that there are now no rebel troops in the State, and it is doubtful if there has been any infantry there at all. The rebels cleaned out every drug store in Chambersburg, paying for the drugs in Confederate scrip. They carried away a number of farmers.

It is doubtful if any movement has been made by our troops up the peninsula so as to threaten Richmond.

Harper's Ferry was evacuated by our troops on the 16th, and occupied by the rebels. The former, after resisting an attack, retired to Maryland Heights, from which they shelled the rebels and compelled them to evacuate the Ferry. The rebels retreated to Williamsport, and our forces re-crossed and occupied their former position. The rebels tore up some of the tracks of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, and did some damage to the canal. Travel between Harper's Ferry and Baltimore is resumed.

☞ Steamship Norwegian, from Liverpool June 4, for Quebec, was wrecked on St. Paul's Island, on Sunday morning, 14th inst., in a thick fog. She had on board 58 cabin and 271 steerage passengers—all of whom, together with the crew and mails, were saved; a portion of the baggage has also been landed. The steamer was all but on her beam ends, well on the rocks.—Her forepeak and forward compartments have several feet of water in them, but the main and after ones are quite dry. Capt. McMaster was not certain whether she could be got off or not.

☞ The Bangor Times says there are suspicions of foul play in the case of the man who was drowned at Oldtown, Me., a week or ten days since, and whose body was discovered at Veazie on Monday. The deceased was named Harrington, and had some $700 in money in his pocket; he was seen to be followed by two men across the R. R. bridge, after which he was drowned. The two men have not since been seen or heard of.

☞ Ship Crown Point, from New York April 9th for San Francisco, was burnt by the pirate Florida May 19th, in lat. 7 south, long. 34. She was a fine ship of 1100 tons, built at Newburyport in 1856. She had just been newly refitted at a large expense.

☞ The pirate Florida left Pernambuco, May 18th. The gunboat Mohican arrived at Pernambuco on the 20th, coaled and sailed the same day in chase of the pirate. The Alabama and Virginia were at Bahia, and the pirate Lapwing was cruising off the coast.

☞ The N. Y. Herald calls for contributions from rich speculators and merchants to make up $150 bounty for the returned volunteers to induce them to go again to the front, and Bennett expresses himself ready to plank $1000 towards it.

☞ A dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune states that Col. Wm. M. Stone, of the 22d Iowa regiment, has been nominated for Governor of Iowa, by an immense Union convention at Des Moines.

☞ John Brough was unanimously nominated for Governor of Ohio, by the Union Convention at Columbus, on Wednesday. He is a Douglas Democrat.

☞ One of the captured 46th writes from Richmond: "Sergeant——was offered forty dollars for his boots. They would give us all the way from two to five dollars of their money for one dollar of our greenbacks."

THE UNION MEETING.

The Union Convention at Concord on Wednesday was a noble gathering of the people of the Granite State. The hotels overflowed, and the streets were crowded with vast throngs, the number in the city during the day being variously estimated from 15,000 to 25,000. The procession was very lengthy, and was composed of military organizations, delegations from towns and cities, many men on horseback, and carriages of all kinds, containing men and women. All the neighboring towns were represented by full delegations, and many distant places served to swell the number present. A large portion of the students of Dartmouth College appeared in the procession, bearing a beautiful blue silk flag, studded with stars and bearing the name of that Institution in golden letters. Various flags, banners, etc., were borne in the procession, each town, almost, having some distinguishing mark or badge to denote its presence. There was an unusual abundance of fine music, there being some fifteen military bands in the procession. The Portsmouth Cornet Band headed the delegation from this city, and appeared, of course, to fine advantage. Prominent in the procession rode Gov. Gilmore and Aids, finely mounted, and dressed in their new and beautiful uniforms. The Artillery Company at Fort Constitution was represented by about 30 men, with two guns.—This company fired the salutes during the day, and performed their part creditably and satisfactorily. We regretted to learn that one of their number was severely injured in the leg by being run over. No bones, however, were fractured. The public buildings and many private residences on the route of the procession were finely decorated. The organization and moving of the procession occupied the greater portion of the forenoon. The procession moved quite rapidly, and was about twenty minutes in passing a given point.

The day was beautiful, although it opened with overshadowing clouds and a cold wind. At about ten o'clock the sun shone forth and the remainder of the day was all that could be desired. The people, therefore, were all on the street, and apparently remained there till late at night, although the crowded tables at the hotels and the eating houses attested the truth of the contrary at least twice during the day.

After going over the prescribed route, the procession entered the State House yard, where the speaking took place. The Convention was organized by the choice of Hon. Ira Perley, of Concord, as President, with a long list of Vice Presidents,—among the latter, Ex-Gov. Goodwin of this city.

The speakers were Hon. Montgomery Blair, Postmaster General; Maj. Gen. Ben. F. Butler, who was evidently the favorite of the large crowd present, and was repeatedly and heartily cheered; E. B. Turner, Esq., a refugee from Texas, where he was law partner of Gen. Hamilton, he made an earnest, vigorous and moving speech; Hon. James W. Patterson, of Dartmouth College, Representative in Congress from the 3d District; Lt. Col. Barker of the N. H. 14th regiment; Mr. W. L. Flagg, a member of the Senior Class at Dartmouth College, who delivered a neat speech in an easy and graceful manner; and other gentlemen. The speaking was continued throughout the afternoon; the speeches were all earnest and patriotic, suggested for the most part by the peculiar dangers which at present surround us.

Resolutions were passed affirming that the rebellion is unjustifiable; that it is the duty of every man to support the constituted authorities; that party ties should be obliterated; that all who discourage enlistments are traitors; that the Administration is entitled to hearty support; that no doubt should be entertained of the success of our arms; that the Convention express their sense of the national obligations to the army and navy. A committee was appointed to organize a State Union League.

The critical condition of military affairs prevented the attendance of Gen. Fremont, although up to Tuesday afternoon he expected confidently to be present. His absence was a source of great disappointment to a large number.

During the day the ladies of the city gave a Strawberry Festival in the State House, for the benefit of the soldiers, and probably realized quite a large sum for that praiseworthy object.

In the evening, there was a military parade, and the streets were still thronged with the multitude. Strolling by Gov. Gilmore's residence, we found the Portsmouth Cornet Band giving him a complimentary serenade, which was pleasantly acknowledged by him in a few hearty words.

Soon after 8 o'clock a dense throng filled Railroad Square, to witness the fireworks, which were exhibited in rapid succession, and enjoyed hugely by the spectators. Afterwards Gov. Gilmore's residence was thrown open, and large numbers availed themselves of the opportunity to visit him.

After the fireworks there was a grand rush into the depot. Men and women and children, desiring to go North, South, East, and West, were mixed together in inextricable confusion. One grand division was finally made, about 11 o'clock, by getting them on board two trains, one going in one direction and the other in the opposite. Further than this human ingenuity could accomplish nothing. A long train, of an unknown number of cars, took one party to Manchester, and here another grand rush took place,—at this time one of the cars. After a while the party was subdivided into three, and once more safely packed away in the trains. The utmost good nature and the most entire ignorance as to "where this car was to go," prevailed throughout. The only person in our car who seemed to know any thing decidedly, was a lady who made up her mind that that particular car should go just when and where she wished it.

Once again the whistle sounded; the iron wheels rolled along the track—and to the accompaniment of song and laughter, pleasant words and occasional sounds which the deep sleeper (human) made in his half accomplished effort to snatch a brief moment of sleep, we sped onward, until at last, about half past three, A. M., we neared the depot in this city.

The occasion had been one long to be remembered by those who joined in the exercises of the day. May its influence prove not slight in enabling the people of our State resolutely to do their whole duty in the present crisis of our national affairs.

☞ William Lynch, the ringleader in the mutiny that occurred at the recruiting station of the 2d Mass., Cavalry in Boston, several weeks since, suffered the death penalty on Tuesday at Fort Independence. The condemned man bore himself with remarkable firmness, smiling to all around as he walked to the spot for execution, and touching his cap as he passed Col. Quincy, who was president. His last words were "Shoot me in the breast. Don't mark my face." He was hit by seven balls, two of which passed through his heart, killing him instantly.

☞ At a public meeting in Montgomery County, Ind., on Saturday, a resolution was passed declaring that no enrolment of the militia in that county should take place. A committee was appointed, who waited on the commissioner and read the resolutions, and notified him that an attempt to enroll would be at his peril.

FORCE OF HABIT.—Mr. Montgomery of the Vicksburg Whig, in the course of his narrative the other evening, told a good story of the landlord of a hotel at Holly Springs, Miss. It was a large fashionable hotel, and the landlord was a pompous man with a huge corporosity and ruffled shirt bosom. Printed bills of fare were provided, yet the landlord stood at the head of the table, at dinner, and in a loud voice read off the list of articles in a rhyming way: "Here's boiled ham and raspberry jam; baked potatoes and cooked tomatoes; turnips smashed and squashes squashed, so on. Mr. M. asked him afterwards, why he read it aloud, when printed copies were on the table. "Force of habit," replied the landlord: "got so used to it can't help it. You see I commenced business down here at Jackson, (the capital of Mississippi) and most all the legislature boarded with me. There was'nt a man of 'em who could read, so I had to read it for 'em."

☞ The Hallowell House, Augusta, Me., was sold at auction on Wednesday last with all the furniture for $4,200. The House originally cost $40,000. Seven shares of the Hallowell and Chelsea Bridge were sold at the same time for $5,50 per share. The par value is $100.

HUNNEWELL'S ECLECTIC PILLS.—The true Type of Cathartic.—By the application of true Pharmaceutical Laws, both Character and Economy are combined in this valuable Pill. To prevent putting such quantities of indigestible drugs into the stomach, the griping pains so erroneously judged to be the evidence of thorough action, and to require from 4 to 6 Pills, to get a decent cathartic, was the study in this development. The dose seldom exceeding One, and never more than Two Pills, settles the question of economy, and character can be best known by confidence to test them in DYSPEPSIA, COSTIVENESS, BILIOUSNESS, LIVER COMPLAINT, all derangements of the stomach and bowels, and as a Family Pill.

☞ On Thursday, being the second day of the session, the New Hampshire Convention of Universalists, with a good audience present, held a morning conference, in the Universalist Church in this city; and at 10 o'clock attended the regular forenoon service, which was opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. DeNormandie, of the Unitarian church. The sermon was by Rev. Mr. Gorman, of Nashua, from James 4:14.—"What is your life?"

The sermon in the afternoon was by Rev. Mr. Emerson, one of the editors of the Trumpet & Freeman, and the exercises were closed by the celebration of the Lord's supper.

There was also a sermon in the evening, by Rev. Mr. Tillotson of Manchester.

It was very pleasant to witness the presence of ministers and members of various churches and denominations in this city, and elsewhere, at all the public services.

☞ In the N. H. House of Representatives, on Tuesday, the bill introduced by Mr. Walker, of this city, to incorporate the New York & Portsmouth Steamboat Company, was reported back from the committee, without amendment, and was ordered to a third reading.

Mr. Bailey, of Portsmouth, from the committee on Railroads, to whom was referred the bill to extend the Dover and Portsmouth Railroad, and the petition of 1619 citizens of Dover and Portsmouth, for the passage of the same, reported the bill with an amendment, providing that it shall be distinctly understood that no claim be hereafter made in behalf of the said road for the right or privilege of extending it beyond Alton, its present terminus. The motion was adopted.

Mr. Christie, of Dover, said the bill involved not only important interests but important principles, and that he desired at some convenient time an opportunity to state to the House the reasons why he thought the bill should not pass. As it was necessary that he should attend the law term of the Supreme Court now in session in Rockingham and Strafford District, he moved that the bill be assigned for 11 o'clock on Friday, for a hearing, and the motion was agreed to.

☞ "Perhaps those trout weren't good," but we thought they were, and that's all the same thing. Foss went "trouting" next day, and caught a handsome basket of pickerel; but we believe Eldredge and Sides lead 'em all on trouting in these parts, so far. "Squid" wants to know how that pond "preserve" is—and where they took dinner, that day? But what o' that?

☞ Perham's cheap excursion train to Boston, leaves Portsmouth this (Friday) morning at 8 o'clock,—returning this evening in good season. Fare less than half the regular rates, and free tickets to the 7 mile mirror besides.

☞ Mr. Davis opened his Singing School at Mercantile Hall, last evening, though still suffering from his recent severe illness—he being unwilling to disappoint his pupils again. The next lesson will be given on Monday evening next—for particulars of which, see the committee's advertisement.

☞ Mr. Henri Denier, who last year gave interesting and thrilling exhibitions of rope walking in this city, proposes to walk a rope extended across Market Square on the Fourth of July. Many new and difficult feats will be introduced, and the attraction offered will, probably, in itself prove sufficient to draw quite a number to this city. Particulars hereafter.

☞ All ye who want those out-door Band Concerts, just step into Mr. Preston's, and put down your mite.

☞ It will be seen that Mr. D. L. Randall advertises the very commodious and convenient yacht 'Florence,' to accommodate pleasure parties, this season. She will be found "just the thing" for the purpose.

☞ The Newburyport Herald states that Rev. William L. Gage has prepared a little collection of the national and patriotic airs best known in Germany,—tunes full of fire and feeling, and which have been tried and proved to be good and stirring. To these he has adapted words in part by himself, in part by well known American poets, among whom are the names of Mrs. Stowe, Miss Larcom, Mr. Caldwell, Mr. Winsor, Whittier and Dr. Holmes. All the songs are national, patriotic or martial, and are intended for our soldiers and our people. It is proposed to publish them in a thin and light pamphlet and to distribute them gratis through our army. For this purpose the editor requests the co-operation of those who may wish to help so worthy a cause. It is hoped that every dollar given will put into circulation a hundred copies.

☞ The famous New York 7th regiment left for Harrisburg on Wednesday.

A CHILD'S LIBERAL FAITH.—A little girl, some half a dozen years old, brought home from school a prettily engraved card, on one side of which was a certificate of her merit as a scholar, and on the other, the text, "Knock, and it shall be opened." This fell into the hands of Willie, a younger brother, who gravely inspected it, and then plied his mother with inquiries as to its meaning. The explanation of the testimonial of his sister's merit, was easy; but the text taxed the mother's patience and time. She told the inquisitive little fellow its meaning; described the beauty of heaven, as the revelator saw it, with its golden pavements, its rivers of pure crystal, its fadeless light and splendor, and its unmixed pleasures. She explained to him the easy condition of gaining admission, simply to knock at the gate. Willie thought a moment and then exclaimed, "But, mamma, if it is such a beautiful place, why not leave the gate open."

☞ Anthony Trollope was offered two thousand pounds sterling a year, for five years, if he would lend his name as editor to a magazine, without having the labor of being the acting editor, but declined.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introduction of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, is the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent askin attention to long stories of great cures, and to long recommendations, I would ask confidence which will be sacred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT BRONCHITIS and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all INCIPIENT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1857.)
75 State Street, opposite Kilby Street.
BOSTON.

After an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of patents or inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The Testimonials below given prove what once is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional service so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable an l successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which Patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be assured having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."

JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

EPPING, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years, most of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it, and have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health." M. LOW.

From ELDER I CRESSEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CRESSEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

NEW IMPROVED
ICEBERG REFRIGERATORS.

This upright REFRIGERATOR combines every improvement. It is the most perfect article of the kind in the market, requiring less ice than any other, and keeping its contents sweet and free from any unpleasant odors.

Daniel T. Curtis, Fruit dealer, Boston, says of it, "I have preserved grapes and pears, peaches, and an extensive variety of plums and berries for five or six weeks in Schooley's Refrigerator."

Otis Peck, Boylston Market, Boston, says, "I find, on careful trial, that it will keep meat perfectly fresh and dry for ten or twelve days."

John Hunt, Butter dealer, Cincinnati, says, "I can keep butter sweet and fresh any length of time in reason, say six weeks."

C. E. Carpenter, Ice Dealer, Providence, says, "I have kept a cup of custard from one of Schooley's Refrigerators during the warm weather one week; when I ate it and found it perfectly good."

Thousands of similar testimonials can be shown in its favor.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR. (Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Ventilators, the great desideratum of complete ventilation has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made, lined throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

The various sizes of the above are for sale by the subscriber—also, ICE PITCHERS, ICE AWLS, &c.

HOW CAPT. TIGER GOT MARRIED.—Capt. Tiger says: "I courted her under singular circumstances. I won her through a rash vow. Thus: I saw her—loved her—I proposed—she refused."

"You love another," said I

"Spare my blushes," said she.

"I know him," said I.

"You do," said she.

"Very good," I exclaimed; "If he remain here, I'll skin him."

"I wrote him a note. I said it was a painful thing—and so it was. I said I had pledged my word as a gentleman, to skin him—my character was at stake—I had no alternative. As an officer in her Majesty's service, I was bound to do it. I regretted the necessity, but it must be done. He was open to conviction. He saw that the rules of the service were imperative. He fled—I married her."

The peculiar taint or infection which we call SCROFULA lurks in the constitutions of multitudes of men. It either produces or is produced by an enfeebled, vitiated state of the blood, wherein that fluid becomes incompetent to sustain the vital forces in their vigorous action, and leaves the system to fall into premature decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems so be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These, all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz., purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. The it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon the class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has effected in the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its curse. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under no circumstances, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.

AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,
The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

This has been so long used and so universally known, that we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about removing or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headaches so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of healthy dwellings are, first, to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The comfortable gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of pure air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the best generated, making the chimney hot instead of the room warm.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber.

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. It from two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the deposed parts—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the directions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as long as desired, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in using this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

Portsmouth, Jan. 1, 1863.

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public that he has the right to use the Patent Rights for inserting Teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, on the same terms as those of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz. It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the tissues of the mouth and cheeks. There are no interstices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Besides all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will I am confident be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth in blocks (that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber has almost driven the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and satisfaction to the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do on the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. WEBSTER, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Reputation of Adults and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All white and partial sets of Teeth repaired with Nentucca and Plastic Rubber. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

VOL. 22. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. SATURDAY JUNE 20, 1863. NO. 104.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every lion fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a
PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.
By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of ascertaining the unusual extent of remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of
GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
Relieved by treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the childish ailings of a child.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.
Dr D.. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.
Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.
Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for their use on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotiles, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.
Highly Important!
To Females in Delicate Health.
DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system, Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person can rejoice in perfect health.
Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of Diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.
Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.
Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.
N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.
Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.
Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic disease of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to his advice.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.
P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, JUNE 20, 1863.

☞ The speech of Mr. Blair, P. M. G., delivered at Concord on Wednesday, is published in the Traveller and Boston Journal. Mr. B. takes the ground that "Emancipation is a fixed fact,"—and that the rebellion and civil war have virtually destroyed slavery and shown the Calhoun scheme of government to be a failure. He says, "Calhoun's school would destroy every free principle, because repugnant to the perpetuity and propagation of slavery universally as the only safe foundation of good government."

While Mr. Blair condemns this scheme, he also condemns an opposite policy which he calls the Wendell Phillips policy, viz. the equality of races. But he advocates a middle policy, which he styles the policy of "Jefferson and Lincoln," viz. "the gradual segregation of the two races and assigning to each regions on this continent and adjacent isles congenial to their natures."—He says:—

"The old Roman policy of spreading their institutions and influence abroad in the world, by providing homes for new people drawn into their service, and whom it was not politic and safe to settle in Italy, should be adopted in favor of the unhomogeneous dependent people of African descent whom this war will throw upon the hands of the Government as freed-men. Many of them will enlist in the army—multitudes will be employed on the waste lands of the government in providing for their own subsistence. All should be drawn together in military camps on the Roman plan—put under the control of public officers, instructed in the business of self-government, self-defence and self-support, and when employed in the public service amply compensated. Thus they will be in a state of probation while the government would have opportunity to provide for their settlement in the suitable regions to which they are invited as colonists. By such means the process of liberating four millions of bondmen and then preparing them to assume the attitude of a self-governing nation, might be made to secure to the United States forever their Union, their domestic peace, and immunity from foreign invasion!"

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Orderly Sergeant Joseph Everett, Company F, 8th N. H. regiment, and son of George Everett of Chester, was killed at the battle of Port Hudson, May 27. He was leading the Company and was hit with a solid shot in the bowels, killing him instantly. He had been wounded twice before, but still he led on the charge. He was 22 years of age, and had been in his country's service nearly two years. His loss is deeply felt by parents, brothers, and sisters, and a large circle of friends.

—— The Ballot learns that Mr. Jacob Carlisle, while engaged in laying a cellar wall at Beech Hill a few days since, received a bad wound from a splinter of rock, by which the loss of one of his eyes is apprehended.

ASSERTION—AND FACT.—First, let us look at the assertion. Monsieur De-Tocqueville, in his famous book, called Democracy in America, makes the following assertions, which are now going the rounds.

"Wherever the whites and blacks have lived together in the same State, history has opened but two accounts with them, viz:—When the whites, by reason of their intellectual superiority, were stronger than the blacks, they reduced them to slavery; and when by reason of their vast numerical superiority, the blacks became stronger than the whites, the blacks rose and murdered the whites. There is no other historical account between the two races."

Now for facts. De Tocqueville published his book in 1835; and in the intervening 27 years, much history has been made, and some history has been written, especially these items: 1. In the British West Indies, in the year 1838, eight hundred thousand people were freed by act of parliament; and tho' there had been such risings and murders as De T. speaks of, while slavery reigned there, no such events have happened since! The aristocracy there is lowered a peg; no princely revenues come in to great planters; but the laboring people live well and work moderately; and the colonies are safe and quiet, as the soldiers and policemen are of both colors, but a majority of very dark complexion. 2. In 1843, Great Britain emancipated more than 12,000,000 dark people in the East Indies. 3. France, Denmark, and Holland have done the same thing on a smaller scale:—and yet the world stands.

There was also ANOTHER historical account BEFORE that time. In half of the original Thirteen United States of America "the whites were stronger than the blacks, by reason of their intellectual superiority!" But in these northern States, instead of reducing them to slavery, we REDUCED them to FREEDOM, so that 150,000 of their descendants are free in these States to-day. In Maryland, though a slave State, there are near 80,000 free blacks, and the whites neither drive them out nor enslave them.

In view of these plain facts and figures, the assertions noticed are too loose to be of any great value at the present time; and ACTUAL EVENTS DISPROVE THEM. U. T.

THE REBELLION.

Vicksburg dates to the 13th are still encouraging. We have more guns in position, and the bombardment is kept up with continuous vigor. Gen. Blair's reconnoissance between the Yazoo and Big Black revealed no signs of the enemy within 30 miles. Every useful thing has been destroyed for 50 miles around. Breckinridge is said to be at Jackson. The rebels are believed to be erecting an interior line of works and falling back. The programme the newspapers make for Gen. Grant is to take Vicksburg, then flank Jackson from below, capture Port Hudson and strike at Montgomery and Mobile at the same time.

It is stated that our approaches from Gen. Sherman's corps were pushed up to the rebel rifle-pits at Vicksburg, and to within 20 yards of one of the rebel bastions, on Saturday morning. The rebels fought hard, but were driven back. Some of our gunboats destroyed the town of Eunice on Saturday.

The rebel cavalry which made the raid upon Marysville, Ky., were cut off, many killed and wounded, and 100 taken prisoners. All the stolen property was recovered.

Bragg has been reinforced; his force is now stated at 40,000. There are indications that in co-operation with Buckner at Knoxville, he is about to assume the offensive and invade Kentucky, striking at about Monticello or Carthage, in East Tennessee. Buckner has a large force and is speedily organizing for offensive operations.

The Yorktown Cavalier of the 16th says: "Our most important local news is for the present contraband." Great activity prevails in that department. Maj. Gen. Keyes is in front to conduct aggressive movements in person, and Gen. King is in command of Yorktown.

Brig. Gen. Gilmore, now commanding Gen. Hunter's late department, has been appointed a Maj. General.

A small cavalry skirmish occurred near Aldie, Va., on Wednesday. The rebels were forced to retire, with the loss of 9 officers and 74 men taken prisoners. Many rebels were killed. They were driven five miles.

Our troops seem to have advanced up the peninsula, after all. Gen. Wise and his whole force fled across the Chickahominy. Gen. Gordon's division entered New Kent Court House on the 15th.

At the request of Gov. Parker, of New Jersey, Com. Stockton, who was appointed a Major General last winter, has consented to take the command of the division of State soldiers, which is being raised to assist in the defence of Pennsylvania.

The rebels in their raid into Pennsylvania apparently did very little damage. It is stated that beyond the destruction of a bridge at Scotland, no property of any kind was destroyed, and that the citizens of Chambersburg were not interfered with or molested in any way. The number of horses captured is stated at 200. Volunteers are still flocking into Harrisburg.—1700 of the 2000 of Gen. Milroy's troops, who were cut off from the main body at the battle of Winchester, arrived at Bedford, Pa., on Thursday. They crossed the Potomac at Hancock and worked their way safely through.

The report of the burning of Chambersburg arose from the accidentally burning of a large portion of Emmetsburg on Monday night.

Lee's present position remains in much obscurity. One dispatch says he is believed to be still in Virginia, with the main body of his army. The N. Y. Times' correspondent, dating 18th, gives the following as the best information he could acquire:—

Longstreet and Ewell in the valley near Winchester, Hill on the march between Culpepper and Chester Gap, but he has hardly had time to get on the other side of the Blue Ridge. Lee may make, it is thought, one of these two movements—cross the Potomac up toward Hagerstown, defending the passes of South Mountain on his right flank, or make a sudden concentration in the London Valley, and make the passage of the Potomac at Nolan's Ford, just where he crossed it last year.

The rebels have captured a train of 23 empty cars at Point of Rocks. It is rumored that the rebels are in large force at the old South Mountain battleground. Regiments of mounted infantry are crossing at Williamsport. Gen. Rhodes' rebel headquarters are at Hagerstown.

☞ Gen. Cameron denies that he proposed taking the command of the Pennsylvania State troops from Gen. Couch and giving it to Gen. Franklin or Gen. McClellan. The New York Common Council on Thursday passed a resolution requesting the President "to place Gen. McClellan at once in the place which the crisis demands for the safety of the Republic."

☞ The California Union State Convention, at San Francisco, on Wednesday nominated F. F. Low for Governor of that State for a term of four years, dating from Jan. 1.

☞ Admiral Foote has been seriously ill at the Astor House, New York. His physicians and friends expect his early recovery.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated—By UNCLE TOBY.

Richard, Earl of Bellomont, 1697.—Gov. Allen.—Peace with France 1698.—Rev. Nathaniel Rogers ordained, 1699.

Richard, Earl of Bellomont, had been appointed Governor of New-York, Massachusetts, and New Hampshire, but remained still in England. The Lords of Trade in answer to Usher's complaint, directed him to continue in the exercise of his office of Lieutenant Governor of New-Hampshire, until Partridge should qualify himself, or the Earl should arrive. At the same time they sent him the treaty which had been agreed on by the commissioners at Ryswick, whereby a general peace had been established in Europe. He received these communications on the 10th of December, 1697, and as soon as possible visited the province for the purpose of reassuming the reins of government, after nearly one year's absence. On the 13th of December he published the orders he had received from the Lords of Trade, and caused proclamation to be made of the peace with the usual solemnities. The next morning Partridge, by advice of his friends, published his commission in due from, took the oaths prescribed by law, and immediately entered on the duties of this office. Usher was disappointed, chagrined, and mortified, and returned to Boston without delay.

An assembly was summoned which met on the 3d of January, 1698. The Representatives from Portsmouth were John Pickering, Samuel Penhallow, and Samuel Keais. They voted an address to the Lords of Trade, in which, among other things, they expressed their grateful acknowledgments to the King for his goodness in appointing one of their own inhabitants to the command of the province. Being informed that the Earl of Bellomont had arrived at New-York, they appointed Ichabod Plaisted, Esq., their agent, with orders to wait upon the Earl, and present him their congratulations on his appointment as Governor of this province, and on his safe arrival in this country, and to ascertian when he might be expected here.

In consequence of the general peace which had taken place between England, France, and the other belligerent powers in Europe, Count Frontenac, the Governor of Canada, informed the Indians, that he could no longer assist them in carrying on the war against the English settlements in this country, but recommended to them to return their captives and make peace.

Lord Bellomont delayed his visit to this province a long time. In the interim, Governor Allen arrived here on the 15th of September, and concluded that his commission would continue in force until the Earl should arrive here and take upon himself the administration. He took the necessary oaths, and entered upon the duties of the office. On the 29th of November Usher took his seat in Council, which he claimed as Lieutenant Governor. This produced great altercation in the Council; and several of the members refused to sit with him because his commission was superseded by the appointment of Partridge. The Governor decided in favour of Usher, and refused to admit those Counsellors, whom Usher had formerly suspended; upon which Elliot withdrew himself from the board, and was afterwards suspended by Allen.

A new assembly met on the 5th of January, 1699. Joseph Smith of Hampton, and Kinsley Hall of Exeter, having been appointed Counsellors, appeared and took their seats. The Representatives from this town were the same as at the last election. Mr. Pickering was chosen speaker, and approved by the Governor. A violent contention took place in the Council as to Usher's right to a seat there, which was decided by a majority in his favour. The old Counsellors, except Fryer, refused to sit with him.

The Counsellors were appointed by a writ of mandamus from the King, but the Governor was authorized by his commission to suspend any of the members of the Council, whenever he should find just cause for so doing. If by any means the number should be reduced below seven, the Governor had a right to appoint out of the principal freeholders, inhabitants of the province, as many as will make up the number of the Council to be seven. And the persons so appointed, were to be Counsellors to all intents and purposes, until the King's pleasure respecting them should be known. The Governor appointed Sampson Sheafe of New-Castle, and Peter Weare of Hampton to make a quorum. Sheafe was appointed Secretary, Smith Treasurer, and William Ardell Sheriff. The Assembly voted to continue the import and excise until November, but they ordered the money collected to be kept in the Treasury, until the arrival of the Earl of Bellomont. This irritated the Governor so much, that he immediately dissolved them. Allen was said to be of a mild disposition but greatly under the influence of Usher, who, it is supposed, excited him to these violent measures, to retaliate upon those who had opposed him.

On the 7th of January 1699 the Indians came into Casco and entered into a treaty of peace. They delivered up those captives, who were able to travel in this inclement season and promised to restore the others in the spring.

On the third of May the Rev. Nathaniel Rogers was ordained to the work of the ministry and the charge of the church and congregation in this town.

The Earl of Bellomont arrived in New-Hampshire on the 31st of July; and published his commission. The people were greatly elated with this change; they now saw at the head of the government, a nobleman distinguished for his polite accomplishments and talents, and who had no interest in oppressing them.

Partridge had withdrawn from the Council during the contest under Allen's administration, but as soon as this change took place he resumed his office of Lieutenant Governor. The suspended Counsellors were likewise admitted to their seats at the Council board.

The Governor issued his proclamation commanding all Justices of the Peace and Constables to continue in the exercise of their respective offices. Richard Jose was appointed Sheriff instead of Ardell, and Charles Story Secretary, instead of Sheafe.

The Earl of Bellomont remained here about eighteen days, and upon his departure the administration devolved upon Partridge. Laws having been enacted for the new arrangement of the Courts of Law, the Lieutenant Governor and Council appointed John Hinkes Chief Justice of the Superior Court, and Peter Coffin, John Gerrish, and John Plaisted, Assistants. Richard Partridge, son of the Lieutenant Governor, was appointed Clerk.

☞ A Washington dispatch says that an officer with Gen. Banks' army relates, in a private letter, an incident which occurred during a temporary truce at Port Hudson, on the 27th ult. He availed himself of the opportunity to ride up to the rebel works as close as he could, when he saw a regiment of the enemy throw down their arms, and heard them give three cheers, and exclaim, "We surrender!" The rebel officers at once approached them, and with drawn swords and pistols, overpowered and controlled them, and compelled them to take up their arms and resume their position.

AN INCIDENT.—Being at Concord recently, we forgot our umbrella at the Phenix Hotel. But our name was on it, and on visiting that well-ordered hostlery again, some weeks afterwards, lo, that umbrella was quietly produced from a closet where the clerk had placed it for safe keeping, when he found it had been forgotten! A very small matter, but "straws show which way the wind blows," you know. And if a cotton umbrella is thus cared for, how much more the comfort of the visitor himself.—We certainly thought it a marvel, ever to see that shed rain again.

☞ The barque Hebron which was lying at Victoria wharf, Portland, had on board 8,000 barrels of petroleum oil, which sprung a leak, owing to the immense weight, and the oil was pumped out into the harbor destroying several beds of oysters valued at $7,000. A suit for damages has been commenced by Mr. Freeman, the owner of the oysters, against the owners of the barque.

☞ Daniel Henderson, of Long Island, Bluehill Bay, Me., drowned himself on Monday morning last. He was married the previous evening. No cause is known for the deed.

☞ The Mary Powell recently made the trip from New York to Poughkeepsie, a distance of 75 miles, in three hours and two minutes—the greatest speed on the records of steamboating.

☞ The cargo of the ship Crown Point, destroyed by the pirate Florida, was valued at $200,000 and is mostly insured in New York with war risks.

☞ A "captain in the army" writes to the Boston Transcript that Major Winthrop, killed at Great Bethel, was shot by a negro.

Hail! ye small, sweet courtesies of life for smooth do ye make the road of it, like grace and beauty which beget inclination to love at first sight; 'tis ye who open the door and let the stranger in.

Local.

☞ That little sailing party down river, Thursday afternoon, was pretty well ordered. There were not many of those who participated—and what there were, went in, as well as on, the "Piscataqua,"—with skipper Leach, he formerly of the Florence, for captain. Let us see—there were the two young ladies who together are "Mischievous" enough, three others of "a grist," a couple of those people "with a P," and a lady Mc,—not so inefficient as the General with that affix, by a long line—and all, or almost all, were hookers. Not that we shout for "any other man" either, till he does something. The tide wasn't arranged exactly to suit us, so we did the next best thing—arranged ourselves to suit the tide of events.

After sailing about the harbor for an hour or two, we dropped anchor, or "down killick," and like St. Paul, who "cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for day" —we wished and fished for cunners. Or rather "we" didn't, but the rest did—for we got the skipper to set us ashore at Kittery Point; in that cove where the cunners do so love to congregate, near that old wharf where are such good conveniencies for cooking and eating them, "when caught", as Mrs. Glass says. We don't believe we were made for a fisherman, or if we were, education, or habit, or circumstances, call it what you will, have changed our tastes.—We have no "principle" in the matter, however, and are entirely willing, that anybody who chooses, should fish perpetually. "Every man to his own notion." But for our part, we prefer to eat 'em.

So we lay down on the honeysuckle bank, "whereon the wild time grew" afterward: the lawn carpeted with nature's loveliest pattern; and drank in the charming picture [with a swig of pop beer occasionally, by way of variety, from the stores deposited on the wharf in preparation for dinner.] As we lay on the soft greensward, amid clover and buttercups and field daisies, the view was indeed delightful, and we could but repeat,—"In such a frame as this our willing soul would stay."

Willis says, and we believe him, that the best use for a farm is to lie down upon; and we could but think, as we luxuriously lounged amid the grass and sunshine—what fools men make of themselves when they fail to enjoy the beauties of nature and of art, and the wonders of science and philosophy, and fret and toil for the things that tend not to real comfort and satisfaction.—And especially is all quarrelling, wrangling, fighting,—pitiable indeed. But yet, everything fights,—all animals, and birds, and fishes—and man most of all. A lady of this very party was telling how two of her three canaries had killed the other little favorite—"tore her all to pieces," within a short time; and one of them ate her own young. And the fishes which were swimming the blue deep at our own feet—they eat one another up in most canibalistic style. And on every hand, the picture present to us was marred by evidences of "man's inhumanity to man." At the left was Fort McClary, with its staunch new cob wharf, and a large gang of mechanics and laborers getting ready for what?—why to "kill somebody," if need be. In front, over the sparkling river, at Fort Constitution, ditto; at the right, the contrabands' Fort Sullivan, and "the late" Fort Washington; and over all, and above all, the beautiful and busy Navy Yard—all, all designed for blood and thunder. And the world's talent and attention is to-day all turned in this same direction. Alas! alas!

But there were beauties in the landscape, and we enjoyed them; yea and will rejoice in them, so long as we can. [But we met only two others besides our party, of that mind—one, a young man who has always "paddled his own canoe," and who had on this occasion landed beneath Fort Washington's bluff, on whose emerald ramparts he lay basking in the sun and enjoying the lovely scene; the other, a gentleman who would doubtless be "off to the wars," but for the misfortune (?) of losing a eyesight, and who, with his boatman, was drifting about in the cove, trolling for fish,—surrounded by happy little children,, who alone can know real thorough enjoyment.] Then our own boat lay cozily near, at anchor,—all hands employed in fishing for cunners and sculpins, especially sculpins. For an hour or more, a single "gropie" was the whole haul—thankful were we that we were not of the crew. Then the cunners or perch began to come—and soon a good mess of two or three dozen were lying on shore all ready skinned for the fry-pan.—Meantime the furnace and charcoal had been taken ashore, a fire built, and the spider filled with pork for the fry. [And this reminded us of a housekeeper who formerly lived near this very spot—who used to prepare for a fish dinner, and then go out in her boat a few rods from shore and catch the fish! She had faith that a fish would come to her hooks, and they never failed her. "O, ye of little faith!"]

Supper being ate, and the beauty of the spot well admired—off for home. On the high point next below the Gerrish House, somebody has set out scores of small oak trees at regular distances along shore—and whoever lives twenty years shall see one of the prettiest headlands imaginable. And nobody with half an eye, would ever tire of the rural and aquatic beauty of Kittery Point.

By good management skipper Leach landed us on the wharf at the right time, without the hard rowing which often spoils a good sail; and we have only pleasant memories of that cunner party.

☞ In the N. H. House of Representatives, on Friday, the bill relating to the proposed railroad to connect Dover and Portsmouth was considered, and Mr. Christie, of Dover, who is a Director of the Boston & Maine Railroad Company, spoke at length against the passage of the same. The bill was made the special order for Tuesday next at 7 o'clock.

☞ Capt. George W. Towle, Co. G, 10th N. H. Regiment, has arrived in town on a brief furlough. We are pleased to see him looking finely.

Capt. George Frank Towle, Co. B, 4th regiment, started for New York Wednesday morning, on his return to his regiment at Port Royal.

☞ A couple of hundred carpenters, laborers, &c., were discharged from Portsmouth Navy Yard, on Wednesday.

☞ Col. J. W. Macomb, U.S. Engineers, relieves Capt. Paine, U. S. Engineers, in charge of the fortifications of Portsmouth harbor, and has already arrived in this city.

☞ The horse-power, for raising water for the street sprinkler is a little out of order, so that the machine cannot be used for a day or two, until it can be repaired.

☞ Perham's excursion to Boston on Friday carried away a very large crowd from this city,—probably more than have gone from here on an excursion for several years.

☞ The great Union Combination Circus, with the educated dogs and monkeys, will exhibit in this city on Tuesday, June 30th.

—— The Legislature on Thursday, elected David H. Buffum Railroad Commissioner. He was candidate of the Union party at the last election.

ATTENTION, THE WHOLE!

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26u

NEW IMPROVED
ICEBERG REFRIGERATORS.

This upright REFRIGERATOR combines every improvement. It is the most perfect article of the kind in the market, requiring less ice than any other, and keeping its contents sweet and free from any unpleasant odors.

Daniel T. Curtis, Fruit dealer, Boston, says of it, "I have preserved grapes and pears, peaches, and an extensive variety of plums and berries for five or six weeks in Schooley's Refrigerator."

Oren Peck, Boylston Market, Boston, says, "I find, on careful trial, that it will keep meats perfectly fresh and dry for ten or twelve days."

John Hunt, Butter dealer, Cincinnati, says, "I can keep butter sweet and fresh any length of time in reason, say six weeks."

C. E. Carpenter, Ice Dealer, Providence, says, "I have kept a cup of custard in one of Schooley's Refrigerators during the warm weather one week, when I ate it and found it perfectly good."

Thousands of similar testimonials can be shown in its favor.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR. (Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made, lined throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

The various sizes of the above are for sale by the subscriber—also, ICE PITCHERS, ICE AWLS, &c.

"OUT IN THE COLD."

BY LUCY LARCOM.

What is the threat! "Leave her out in the cold!"
Lovely New England, too loyally bold!
Hater of treason!—ah, that is her crime;—
Lover of freedom—too true for her time.

Out in the cold! oh, she chooses the place,
Rather than share in a sheltered disgrace,
Rather than sit at a carnival feast,
Rather than mingle with the blood-reeking beast.

Leave out New England! and what will she do,
Stormy-browed sisters, forsaken by you?
Sit on her Rock, her desertion to weep;
Or, like a Sappho, plunge thence in the deep?

No: our New England can put on no sire;
Nothing will change the calm look that she wears:
Life's a rough lesson she learned from the first,
Up into wisdom through poverty nursed.

Not more distinct on his tablet of stone
Was the grand writing to Belshazzar made known,
Than is engraven in letters of light
On her foundations the One Law of Right.

She is a Christian; she smothers her fire,
Trims up the candle, and stirs the home fire,
Thinking, and working, and waiting the day
When her will others shall leave their mad play.

Out in the cold, where the free winds are blowing,
Out in the cold, where the strong oaks are growing,
Guards she all growths that are living and great;
Growths to rebuild every tottering State.

"Notions" worth heeding to shape she has wrought,
Lifted and fixed on the granite of thought;
What she has done may the wide world behold;
What she is doing, too, out in the cold.

Out in the cold! she is glad to be there,
Breathing the northwind, the clear, healthful air,
Saved from the hurricane passions that rend
Hearts that once trusted her a sister and friend.

There she will stay while they bluster and foam,
Flaunting their comfort when they shall come home;
Building the Union an adamant wall,
Freedom-enamelled, impregnable, all.
Freedom, dear-bought with the blood of her sons:
See the red current! right boldly it runs!
Life of her life is not too much to give
For the dear nation she taught how to live.

Vainly they shout to you, sturdy Northwest;
'Tis her own heart that beats warm in your breast;
Sisters in nature as well as in name;
Sisters in loyalty, true to that claim.

Freedom—your breath is, oh broad-shouldered North!
Turn from the rabble miasma gone forth
Out of the South land, from Slavery's fen,
Fattening demons, but poisoning men.
Still on your Rock, my New England, sit sure,
Keeping the air for the great country pure.
There you the "wayward" once yet shall enfold;
There they will come to you out in the cold.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this Stove, believing it to be superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The improvements made at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The conductors of heat are lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are forced up by the pressure of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the best in the Fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off without ignition, if the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the sense is irregular, we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While it always is better, there are a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL,

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has purchased the last VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no interstices or open crevices to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do as the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth plugged with their natural substance without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

GRACE'S CELEBRATED SALVE
A SURE RELIEF FOR THE SUFFERER.

This Salve is a vegetable preparation, invented in the 17th century, by DR. WM. GRACE, surgeon in King James's army. Through its agency he cured thousands of most serious sores and wounds that baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of his day, and was regarded by all who knew him as a public benefactor.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Burns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Scalds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Fresh Wounds.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Corns.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Felons.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Frozen Limbs.

Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Salt Rheum.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chilblains.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Breast.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Sore Lips.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Erysipelas Sores
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Abscesses.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ulcers.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Chapped Hands.
Grace's Celebrated Salve cures Ringworms.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external diseases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find the Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, and heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined:
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all:
Exalt the right, though every tam fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a
PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.
By a long course of study and practical experience at unlimited extent, Dr. D. has so long gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of GONORRHEA AND SYPHILIS.
Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhea, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attendant on the Secret Disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest sittings of a child.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.
Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and unfitting the unfortunate individual to business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil foreboding, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.
Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.
Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr Dow has also for sale the French Capoles, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.
Highly Important!
To Females in Delicate Health.
DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 Endicott Street, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to it, viz. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression of the menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.
Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of Cases of Secret Disease and Children, than any other physician in Boston.
Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.
L. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.
N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.
Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.
Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in his profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.
P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, JUNE 22, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Pleasanton's command, two days after their late cavalry fight, made a requisition for twenty grindstones, with which to sharpen their sabres.

The forts about Baltimore are now in excellent order, and it is thought will be equal to any emergency. The authorities seem to anticipate an attack on the city.

The Secretary of War has given orders that the regiments now leaving New York for Pennsylvania are to be sworn in for one month only.

Gen. Hooker's army is moving rapidly toward the supposed position of the enemy. Everything is reduced to the very lightest marching order.

Some of Jenkins' cavalry entered McConnelsburg, Pa., on Friday, and carried away horses, cattle, clothing, provisions, etc., to a large amount.

4000 rebel infantry, it is said, were at Hagerstown on Friday; the force at Williamsport was much greater. On the same day the enemy brought his stores and baggage to this side of the Potomac, intending, apparently, to make that his base of operations for raids into Pennsylvania. There are no rebels near Harper's Ferry.

There is a doubtful report that a three-masted rebel schooner, carrying 3 guns, overhauled a schooner off Nantucket on the 17th and took from her a quantity of pork and molasses.

A small body of rebel cavalry crossed the Ohio river into Harrison County, Ind., on Friday, and repulsed the Home Guards at Orleans. They are moving towards the Ohio and Mississippi R. R., and the militia have started in pursuit. The State authorities have called for 20,000 volunteers for six months.

By Telegraph, Sunday, to Messrs Hutchings, Haley, and others.

The N. Y. Tribune has the following special dispatch dated Washington, 19th:—"Your special messenger, direct from Gen. Hooker's headquarters, brings the important intelligence that the enemy has moved upon Centreville and in an encounter with our forces at that point had defeated them. Gens. Lee and Ewell took possession of Thoroughfare Gap. Longstreet is in the neighborhood of Leesburg, and is constantly threatening Gen. Slocum, who is, however, carefully on his guard against surprise. Gen. A. P. Hill is known to have reached Dumfries on Thursday night, but nothing has been ascertained of his movements beyond that time." The N. Y. Express editorially states that Baltimore is threatened, and the streets are barricaded with hogsheads of tobacco, &c., to repel the advance of cavalry and artillery; and that 8000 rebels are in Gettysburg, which, with their appearance elsewhere, indicates a serious invasion and occupation of Maryland. Alexandria, Washington and Baltimore are now in 'a state of fortification,' all three of those cities being apprehensive of a rebel attack. Undoubtedly Hooker and Lee are maneuvering for a field or a position in which one can attack the other to the best advantage. The N. Y. World has the following special Washington dispatch:—"Two highly important rumors have reached here, either of which is likely to prove true. The first is that Lee attacked Hooker on the Bull Run battle-field; after a desperate fight he drove our army back towards Alexandria, and Lee pressing Hooker again, the latter again retreated. The second report is that Lee was discovered crossing into Maryland at Nolan's Ford and Harper's Ferry, and that Hooker immediately marched his main body, or a good portion of it, to protect the railroad between the Capital and Annapolis Junction." The N. Y. Express has a special Washington dispatch corroborating all their former ones. Government says nothing on the subject.—The troops in Pennsylvania are assuming the offensive and Chambersburg is now held by Federal forces, although the rebels number 8000 at Hagerstown. The rebels hold the south bank of the Potomac from Cumberland to Harper's Ferry. They have already done an immense amount of damage in Pennsylvania.

The famous blockade runner, the steamer Calypso, has been captured and taken into Philadelphia. She was owned in Charleston, and was loaded with liquors, dry goods, and assorted merchandise. Her captain attempted to blow her up, with all on board, but was foiled in his design. Another celebrated blockade runner, the steamer Herald, was sunk by broadsides from our blockading fleet off Charleston on the 11th.

Official news from Gen. Grant's army, to the 15th, says everything was going on well. The siege was being pressed with vigor on all sides. The defences in our rear are being daily strengthened at Walnut Hills and Big Black river, so that there is no fear of an attack by Johnston before the mines shall have been exploded and the city taken.

A COINCIDENCE.—About 20 days ago, at an indignation peace meeting in New-York, a noted party leader told his followers that within 20 days Gen. McClellan would be at the head of the army. Within this month, the rebels have crossed in Pennsylvania, and great accounts of their doings went over the whole country. At the same time, three false reports were published by disloyal papers in New-York, of disaster to our arms, viz. 1, at Vicksburg; 2, that Bragg had reinforced Lee; and 3, that Lee had defeated Hooker, cutting off and probably capturing a whole corps, (25,000 men.) At the same time, a crowd of people in N. Y. city call for Gen. Mc C. as their chosen leader:—and also at the same time a lying telegram went over the wires, asserting that Mr. Cameron called loudly for McClellan or Franklin! The coincidence is remarkable; but whether the result of accident or crafty plot, we cannot say. U. T.

THREE RESULTS.—The New York Evening Post gives the following as the effects of the new rebel movements:—

Thus far, in his march northward, Lee has done little more than puzzle the military wiseacres who are ready, in the clubs and elsewhere away from the field, to explain to you, at five minutes' notice, any manœuvre or operation on the theatre of war. A second result for which we have to blame the rebel General is the sudden increase in our streets and in our society of the intolerable bore who asks you with solemn face: "What is your opinion of the condition of the country to-day?" We notice, as a third result, the reappearance of several specimens of the "reliable gentleman"—an animal which at the beginning of the war infested telegraph stations and newspaper offices in immense numbers, but which had latterly become somewhat rare.

FRENCH ELECTIONS.—All the nine government candidates in Paris have been defeated. This is a significant result, and is rendered all the more so by a review of the change which has been wrought during the last six years. In 1857 the voters for the government candidates in the different sections numbered 110,584, while those for the opposition were 97,678. In 1863 the goverment musters only 82,107, and the votes for the nine opposition candidates are upwards of 150,000.

The inferences drawn from this result, as well as from the individual success of M. Thiers, who bore the whole brunt of official opposition, are not very flattering to that Emperor. In the provinces, however, as was expected, the government generally had its own way. It is supposed that twenty four opposition candidates in all have been chosen.

☞ It appears by a letter from Halifax, N. S., to the New York Post, that the steamer Gen. Banks, which was recently captured and subsequently sold by parties in Portland to others in Halifax, is preparing to run the blockade again. Her name has been changed to the Scotia. The writer further says, "Halifax is now destined to be a nest of blockade runners like Nassau. If the Scotia should succeed, two or three more fast steamers will be put on the route."

☞ The railroad bridge across the Royal's River at Yarmouth, Me., on the line of the Grand Trunk, was entirely destroyed by fire on Wednesday afternoon—supposed from a spark from the engine. It was a wooden truss bridge, of a single span of about 120 feet, built three years ago at an expense of about $4,000.

☞ The disease under which Rear-Admiral Foote is suffering is an affection of the kidneys, and a large quantity of water has settled on one of his lungs. But slight hopes of his recovery are entertained by his physicians.

A fellow down in Maine, whose tailor didn't come to time, wrote to him that "it was no serious disappointment, only he should have been married if he had received the goods."

☞ Theophilus P. Chandler, of Boston, has been appointed Sub-Treasurer, as successor of Col. Ezra Lincoln, deceased. He is a lawyer.

☞ The woolen mills in Woonsocket continue to run full time, and the cotton mills half time.

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY, for July, is crammed with good things. Longfellow, Hawthorne, Holmes, Gail Hamilton, and other noted writers contribute to this number, which commences a new volume.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE, for July, contains four illustrated articles and stories,—scenes in the war of 1812 being particularly interesting. This magazine furnishes a vast amount of interesting miscellany at a very low price. For sale by J. H. Foster.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, for July, contains eighteen full page cuts, one hundred pages of reading matter, and sixty-three engravings.

Charles T. Evans, of New York, sends us No. 1, of Papers of the Day, containing an account, by Charles Nordhoff, of the Freedmen of South Carolina,—their appearance, character, condition and peculiar customs. These Papers are to be collected and arranged by Frank Moore, editor of Putnam's Rebellion Record.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Pickpockets were comparatively busy in Concord at the Union Convention. While the crowd was in the depot at 11 o'clock in the evening, a fellow got up a sham appearance of drunkenness and threw himself upon the floor. Some of his "friends" tried to carry him off, and in his struggle he struck a bystander in the nose, starting the blood freely. While the said bystander was attending to his nose some one attended to his pocket, and he shortly after found his money missing. The intoxicated individual and his friends had disappeared.

—— The Statesman ascertains that the number who passed over the various railroads to Concord on Wednesday, to the Union Convention, was 9,250, exclusive of bands and military companies, who went free. Besides these, many went on Tuesday, at full fares, and multitudes went in carriages. It does not venture to estimate the number in the city on that day, but does not hesitate to state that there were, exclusive of the resident population, from 3000 to 5000 more people than on any previous occasion.

—— The Manchester City Council has given to the County of Hillsborough three and three-eighths acres of land, costing the city $3000, for the erection of a jail and house of correction.

—— The Staff of Gov. Gilmore presented to him, at the Phenix Hotel, in Concord, on Tuesday evening, an elegant uniform, similar to those worn by themselves. Nat Head, of Hooksett, made the presentation speech. Gov. Gilmore, in the course of his response, said: "Though I command the army, and even the navy of New Hampshire, my experience in military affairs has been very limited. I have dim recollections of having once appeared, duly armed and equipped, at a militia training; but then was ignominiously dismissed from the ranks for throwing stones at the Captain."

—— A man by the name of Montgomery, in the latter part of the winter, victimized many farmers in the Northern part of Hillsborough county, by selling them orders for "Van Allen's Common Sense Churns," which were to be delivered in April. From some he received cash and from others notes. He discounted the notes at a bank, ordered a few churns of inferior quality to be made, and left for parts unknown.

—— A man stole a horse from a pasture in North Littleton, on the night of the 13th, went on his way toward Canada, and stole from a shed in Dalton a minister's buggy, harness and buffalo robe. He was not caught.

—— Lancaster was first settled in 1763, and it is proposed to celebrate the centennial anniversary on the 4th of July.

—— The house of Representatives on Thursday, passed the bill incorporating the Portsmouth & New York Steamboat Company; and the bill authorizing the Eastern companies in Massachusetts and New Hampshire to unite and from one corporation. A joint resolution was passed, appropriating $3000, for the purpose of moving the westerly line of the wall of the State Prison forty feet west of its present location, and rebuilding it, and for extending the other walls to meet the same, and for rebuilding the watch-houses and vault. A resolution was adopted that the committee on Military Affairs be instructed to inquire if it be not necessary that the militia laws be so revised that the entire militia or some portion of the same be placed on a war footing.

The Senate on Friday, passed the resolution relating to the removal of the walls of the State Prison.

☞ The Eastern Railroad Company has declared a dividend of $3 a share free from Government tax, payable on the first of July. Stockholders residing out of the State will receive the same amount as those residing in the State, the Company ignoring the foolish and injurious law passed by the last Massachusetts Legislature, putting an extra tax upon stockholders residing out of the State.

The Fitchburg Railroad Company has declared a semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent. Non-resident stockholders will be subject, under the State law, to a deduction of 20 cents per share.

The Taunton Mass., Tack Company has just declared a dividend of 30 per cent on the earnings of last year.

☞ The people of Pittsburg, Pa., enjoy the luxury of a frog market, at which a considerable business is done. The frogs are brought from all parts of the adjacent country, and disposed of to restaurant keepers and others, at prices ranging from eight dollars a hundred upwards.

☞ The Charleston Coriercu recommends the people to "develop their resources" by catching sharks, porpoises and alligators for the sake of the oil, which is worth $8 or $10 a gallon. Shark steaks, it says, would find a ready sale.

☞ At the battle of Black River Bridge, Miss., a skirmisher of the Fourth Iowa, an excellent shot, drove a cow before him, and using her as a screen, not only escaped being hit, but succeeded in keeping a troublesome gun silent until one of our batteries was planted to command the position.

☞ In the cargo of one of the prize steamers lately captured and brought into New York, large quantities of tomahawks have been discovered, manufactured by British neutral traders, and sent to the Rebels for arming the Indians to aid in the prosecution of this accursed Rebellion. Also, large quantities of a nondescript savage weapon, something between a tomahawk and a butcher's cleaver, evidently intended for arming Indians.

☞ We see by a Western exchange that Mr. Albert H. Fernald, Professor of Music and Composer, for many years one of the first among his profession in Boston, has accepted a position as Principal of Music in a ladies' seminary in Illinois. Mr. Fernald is a rising young artist, and we mistake if Boston will not lose one of her best resident teachers. W.

☞ Artemas Ward will make a lecturing tour in Maine, his native State, in the course of a few weeks, previous to going to California.

The husband who devoured his wife with kisses, found afterwards that she disagreed with him.

THE RAILROAD EXTENSION.—In the N. H. Legislature, on Friday morning, on motion of Mr. Burr of Dover, the bill to extend the Dover and Winnipiseogee Railroad from Dover to Portsmouth, with a pending amendment, was taken up and considered,—the question being on the third reading.

Mr. Burr moved an amendment substituting a new section for the first section of the bill, and adding a third section.

Mr. Bailey, of Portsmouth, said in reference to the first amendment that the petitioners from Dover were anxious to have the bill definitely understood as far as referred to the route from Dover to Portsmouth. The direct line would probably be the one chosen, being across what was called Mike's Ferry; but they wished it distinctly understood that one of the two routes should be chosen. As the bill was returned from the committee, it granted to the proprietors the right to carry their road from Dover to the main line in Eliot, and there connect with their railroad, but by this amendment they could not. Mr. Bailey moved that the amendment reported by the Railroad committee be added to the amendments proposed. The amendment to the amendment was accepted. Mr. Bailey said that the Boston, Concord & Montreal Road seemed to have a little feeling in the matter, thinking that if this road was extended to Portsmouth, the people on that line would set up a claim at some time to have the road extended so as to intersect the Boston & Montreal. As he understood the bill, however, the friends of this road had no such desire.

Mr. Christie, of Dover, in accordance with previous notice, took up the consideration of the bill, and argued at length in opposition to it, having moved that the same be indefinitely postponed, the amendments proposed by Mr. Burr, of Dover, having been severally adopted. Mr. Christie sketched the history of different roads from the first, and the different complaints arising between the several companies, and wherein were involved the interests of the sections through which the different roads passed; also the claims of different parties who had invested in the stock of the several corporations and lost by means of representations which had been realized; and arguing in favor of the interests of the Boston and Maine Road as having sufficient accommodations for transportation between the eastern part of the State and Boston.

Pending the argument of Mr. Christie, the House adjourned, at half past twelve o'clock, on motion of Mr. Beckford, of Salem.

In the afternoon, when the consideration of the unfinished business of the morning was resumed, Mr. Christie continued his argument, and having yielded the floor, at 3 o'clock the subject was made, on motion of Mr. Burr, of Dover, a special order for Tuesday next at 11 o'clock, A. M.

GOOD PLUCK.—A gentleman tells us he saw a pony kick up and throw a lady rider from his back twice, a few days ago; but the horse being caught she mounted yet the third time, and drove away. She deserves a better saddle-beast than that, sure.

We also saw a little boy riding a pony up Congress street, Friday,—and a nasty little cur running out and "yaping" at his heels, pony was kicking up in great style, to the imminent danger of the boy rider.—Pony was stopped, and the dog driven off. Valuable creatures—most of the dogs round town.

☞ Strawberries were quite plenty in this city on Saturday, and began to work down to living prices too—25 cents and even lower. Probably they will be a little higher again, this the first of the week—but the strawberry season has fairly begun.—We think it is the most valuable and delicious of all our fruits. Among the dealers, Mr. Harding keeps his usual full supply of these, as of all other articles in his line, at his Cornucopia Saloon, on Congress street.

☞ Mr. Lear, in Daniel Street, advertises to sell his nice and new stock of the best family and ship groceries, at the lowest prices for poorer articles usually, for cash, for ninety days—to make a change in business. So now 's your chance to get 'bargains' and good articles at the same time. At any rate, it won't take long to step in at his nice place and 'price him.'

☞ Mr. Bodge also offers you all, and the rest of mankind, and especially the ladies—rare chances to procure fine jewelry and all his rich stock of goods selected carefully for his own retail trade, at the usual prices of auction goods. Don't fail to read his advertisement, and look in at his neat store, corner of High st.

☞ It is stated that the ship John Haven, 1038 tons, built in this city in 1849, has recently been sold in London for £4800 cash. She was owned by J. M. Tredick, Esq., and others.

☞ Sunday was much more chilly than seemed desirable on the longest day in the year.

☞ The Singing Schools, both for children and adults, are to commence at Mercantile Hall, this (Monday) afternoon and evening. For particulars see the Committee's advertisement—and every parent and friend of children, should endeavor to send all whom they can; while young ladies and gentlemen, whether beginners or somewhat acquainted with music, will find the evening school both valuable practice and agreeable recreation. Mr. Davis is a teacher of fine abilities and large experience, and all who really wish for more and better vocal music in our city, should be sure and not allow to-day to pass without improving this rare opportunity.

☞ An old gentleman, 76 years of age, named Walter Kating, arrived in this city last week from Boston, having walked the entire distance. He stated that on the first day of May he left Northampton, Mass, for Washington, to see two of his sons who are in the army. After seeing them, he was provided with a pass which took him thro' to Boston, where he arrived on Sunday, 14th. Having walked to this city, he was passed through to Portland by Conductor Towle. There he was provided with a pass to Vassalboro', where he has a daughter married, in whose family he expects to spend the remainder of his days.

☞ A gentleman from this city who attended the Mass Union Convention in Concord on Wednesday, detected a light fingered young man in the act of taking his pocket-book from his pocket. The thief, finding he was discovered, ran. The gentleman pursued him, raising the cry "Stop thief!" when another young man, evidently an accomplice, jumped in front of him, and, very anxiously inquired what was the matter and what he had lost. By this means he screened the thief, and enabled him to escape in the crowd.

☞ The American ship Kate Dyer, from Callao, arrived at Antwerp, was overhauled by a Confederate privateer, and compelled to give bonds for $50,000. It is supposed the privateer was the Lapwing, which was originally captured by the Florida.

☞ In Boone Co., Ind., men held the enrolling officer, on Monday, while women pelted him with eggs. Another, in Sullivan County, was shot dead on Friday, while riding along a country road.

☞ In Milo, Me., at midnight on the 16th, the house and barn of Waterman Harris were distroyed by fire, and a girl aged 15 years was burned to death.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for 'Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. ly.

A preliminary meeting and rehearsal was held on Thursday evening, and the prospects indicate large and interesting schools.

TICKETS for the Juvenile School, $1.50, may be had at MR HEAD'S Book and Music Store, and at the Hall. Also the Book used, "The Nightingale," price 35 cents. Parents and others interested, are invited to visit the Juvenile class at any time.

N. B.—Mr. DAVIS is a very judicious and successful teacher of singing, and the disinterested lovers of music who have induced him to open a school here, would urge upon parents and others the importance of countenancing and encouraging these classes, for the dissemination of a knowledge and love of singing among the rising generation. Per order Committee ARR.

ATTENTION, THE WHOLE!

RYE, N.H., Feb. 20, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—so bad at the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which has fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOW.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, and continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26

NEW IMPROVED
ICEBERG REFRIGERATORS.

This upright REFRIGERATOR combines every improvement. It is the most perfect article of the kind in the market, requiring less ice than any other, and keeping its contents sweet and free from any unpleasant odors.

Daniel T. Currie, Fruit dealer, Boston, says of it, "I have preserved grapes and pears, peaches, and an extensive variety of plums and berries for five or six weeks in Schooley's Refrigerator."

Oliver Beck, Boylston Market, Boston, says, "I find, on careful trial, that it will keep meats perfectly fresh and dry for ten or twelve days."

John Hunt, Butter dealer, Cincinnati, says, "I can keep butter sweet and fresh any length of time in reason; say six weeks."

C. E. Carpenter, Ice Dealer, Providence, says, "I have kept a cup of custard in one of Schooley's Refrigerators during the warm weather one week, when I ate it and found it perfectly good."

Thousands of similar testimonials can be shown in its favor.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR. (Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million;" the consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated refrigerator, well made, lined throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

The various sizes of the above are for sale by the subscriber—also, ICE PITCHERS, ICE AWLS, &c.

Morning Chronicle.

☞ The Portland papers say that Mr. H. N. Joss, who has leased the works of the Portland Kerosene Oil Co., is going into the manufacture of copperas very largely. The scraps of iron which accumulate about the works, and the sulphuric acid used in the manufacture of Kerosene oil, which formerly went to waste, are now to be preserved. The iron and acid, properly treated, crystalize into copperas of the most beautiful quality, which is said, in New York, to be the best in the market, commanding the highest price.

The Fall River News relates that a Swansey farmer was told by a fortune teller that a flock of missing geese had been stolen by a neighbor, who also meditated poisoning his horse. Farmer got a warrant and searched the neighbor's premises, but no geese were there. Also got a watch dog to guard his horse. No one came to poison him. Meantime the lost geese voluntarily returned. The dog became weary of watching, gnawed off the rope that held him, and killed all the geese. Moral, don't believe fortune tellers.

☞ According to the correspondent of the London Times, the stories of the ill health of Jeff. Davis are true. "His excellency" is suffering under a severe bronchial affection, his cough is "exhaustive and distressing," and although it is his practice to ride twenty miles on horseback daily, his condition is such as to inspire "considerable uneasiness."

☞ By the upsetting of a stove at the house of Enos Joseph, in Fairhaven, Mass., a few days since, his youngest son, Frank, 18 months old, was scalded so severely that he died in a few hours. The accident was caused by a leg of the stove dropping out, when the contents of the washboiler and tea-kettle were precipitated over the child.

☞ The Empress of the French has set the fashion of having the heads of her carriage horses decorated with artificial flowers. At last accounts the horses of the Imperial lady wore wreaths of lilac. The effect is described as being very pretty.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet introduced, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it superior to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and oven heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension, there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for filling the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the hinges of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and will continue day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, and hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the frequency of produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some producing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the best generated heat, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and there will save from 20 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Meadum,

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular, it can be built up, so as to give the teeth more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. While in all ways it is better, even in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,

No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has purchased the sole right of VULCANIZE in the Portsmouth and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, which is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no interstices or open joints to collect food, &c., consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for the permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60 00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York, Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my prices are for CASH or its equivalent.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. HOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. PERKINS, for specimens of my operations in inserting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

Daily Morning Chronicle

VOL. 22. PORTSMOUTH, N. H. TUESDAY JUNE 23, 1863. NO. 106.

The Chronicle.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined!
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all:
Exalt the right, though every sim fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it.—In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

☞ The Richmond Enquirer of May 13, in an article on Vallandigham gives the following comforting assurance to the Northern traitors:

Our sympathies are all confined at home; yet it is just possible that we may help those devoted 'copperheads' in the only way we know how—also, that they, on their side, are now about ripe to aid us in the only way we could accept their aid. If our troops should this summer appear within their borders anywhere between Cairo and Philadelphia, they would be hailed as friends by a population pretty well cured now of Pluribus Unum. Their cry would be, not Union but deliverance. Wait, then, and watch, and keep you lights burning, ye Knights of the Golden Circle.

☞ The Newburyport Herald states that the clam banks in the Merrimack and Plum Island rivers produce, without any outlay for the land and without any cost in renewing more value acre for acre, than do the ordinary farms; and to persons employed in digging them they pay double what ordinary farm hands earn. The clams sell readily at $6.50 per barrel, when salted and packed for the market. The smartest men will make two dollars a day; and the average about $1.50 when they work.

☞ The Rhode Island General Assembly has adjourned after a two days' session. A bounty of $300 was offered for each man volunteering for three years' service in either of the old regiments, and a bounty of $100 to each volunteer in the new six months' regiments. Recruiting is expected to begin at once for infantry, cavalry and artillery.

☞ Late English advices state that the steamer Southerner had made a trial trip. There is no doubt that she is intended for a pirate, but a search ordered by Earl Russell resulted in nothing to justify suspicion, and she remains unseized. It was stated that she is intended to trade between Liverpool and Charleston.

☞ Prof. Henry W. Longfellow, the poet, has been in Washington several days watching over the sick bed of his son, who several months ago left home to enlist in a Western cavalry regiment, and who is now suffering from chills and fever contracted on the Rappahannock.

☞ There were heavy frosts in the vicinity of Skowhegan Me., on Tuesday and Wednesday nights last, which did considerable damage to beans, pumpkins, &c.

☞ Every printing press in Washington not appropriated to private purposes is now used by the Government in printing Provost Marshal's blanks.

TUESDAY, JUNE 23, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Richmond papers of the 20th say that the city of Darien, Ga., was burned by the Federals on the 11th inst., and is now one plain of ashes. Seven Federal iron-clads were at Brunswick, Ga., on the 12th, and large forces had landed from the transports.

Gen. Milroy's defeat at Winchester on the 15th seems to have been terribly disastrous. We lost many men, and three full batteries of field artillery, all the siege guns in the Star fort and the main fort; the Quartermaster's and Commissary's stores, besides 5000 muskets, &c. Many of the officers' wives were abandoned to the tender mercies of the rebels, and our dead and wounded were left where they fell, the latter without surgical assistance.

The report of a battle at Centreville, between the Federal army and the rebels, is declared to be without foundation in truth. The N. Y. Times' special dispatch, dated headquarters army of the Potomac, 21st, says there has been no engagement up to that date involving any portion of Gen. Hooker's army, except cavalry. Cavalry skirmishes, fights and reconnoissances are taking place daily with the advantage uniformly in favor of our forces. 250 prisoners have arrived at headquarters, being taken within the past three days. The alarm at the North is utterly without cause. No enemy is on or near the old Bull Run battle field, and the report that the rebel Gen. Hills' force is near Dumfries is equally false.

The whereabouts of Lee's army have not yet been ascertained. Several corps of Gen. Hooker's army took up the march on Saturday. There was another heavy cavalry fight near Aldie on Sunday:—no particulars.

We hold Chambersburg and the citizens are arming and fortifying their city. Gen. Couch has ordered that this place be held. The fortifications opposite Harrisburg are finished and considered impregnable.

The report that 20,000 six months men have been called for in Indiana, on account of a rebel raid in that State, is declared to be absolutely groundless.

Our whole loss at Vicksburg for the week previous to the 16th inst. was not more than 12 killed and 40 wounded.

Adm. Porter reports that the rebel steamer Lady Walton came down from Little Rock, Ark., a few days since, and gave herself up to the commanding officer at White river.

Some newspaper discussion has taken place in regard to the use of the word 'like' in such a formation as this: "I felt like I should do so and so." The expression may be Anglo-African. It is indubitably Southern, and may be found in all Southern conversation, speeches, papers, &c. It is a singular fact that the expression, faulty as it is, is very frequently met with in the novels of Mrs. Henry Wood.—Boston Trans.

It is an ungrammatical expression, betraying the ignorance or bad training of those who use it. It is by such persons put instead of the word as, or the phrase as if. It can be corrected only by that same comprehensive rule of grammar which enables good writers to choose the best adjectives for their purpose, viz.—Say exactly what you mean.—The person who uses the above expression, really means that he "felt like doing so and so." But he does not know how to write such a plain, straightforward sentence, and therefore he makes use of this clumsy collocation of words.

The writer of a novel, in bringing out an ignorant character, may suffer him to talk after his own fashion. But if Mrs. Wood uses the phrase in her own diction, she only shows that her early converse was with people whose language was ignorant and erroneous. U. T.

☞ The Nashville press reports the rumored death of the guerrilla Forrest, who is said to have been shot and killed by a Lieutenant in his command, at Spring Hill, on Friday evening, the 12th inst. It was reported that Forrest had accused the Lieutenant of cowardice on some occasion, to which the latter replied very tartly, when Forrest ordered him out of the room, and at the same time gave him a kick to help him out, whereupon the Lieutenant drew his pistol and fired at Forrest.

☞ During the panic at Pittsburg to prevent capture by the rebels, the bankers and others of that city transferred to Cleveland, Ohio, $15,000,000 in gold, and on the succeeding day $650,000.

☞ Richmond papers state that Vallandigham has run the blockade from Wilmington, N. C. He is going to Nassau, thence to Canada.

☞ Naylor, the winner of the last Derby Stakes, built a church in his native town with a part of his money, and also gave $5000 in charity.

☞ Adm. Foote was better on Monday and hopes of his recovery were entertained.

☞ Sunday news is getting to be "like white folks—mighty onsartin."

☞ Mr. M. D. Conway, in a letter from London to the Boston Commonwealth, gives the names of some inns which have in the lapse of time undergone strange transformations. "Over the door of one of these," he says, "we see a large bull carved, and below it a large mouth stretching from ear to ear. This is the sign of the "Bull and Mouth" tavern: who would divine that under that is hidden, almost lost, its original name of the "Boulogne Mouth?" Another has the sign of a large bag of nails—which is a corruption of the Bacchanals—who in their day doubtless, were as corrupt as the present version of their title. And here is the picture of a goat with a pair of compasses underneath. This is the "Goat and Compasses—which originally was a religious tavern, known by the phrase 'God Encompasses us.'"

☞ The Boston Journal states that thirty-eight years since two boys—one six years of age and the other ten—were at school together at a place nearly four thousand miles from Boston, and during the long intervening period neither of them had heard of or seen the other. On Thanksgiving day last year the younger of the parties in question visited the house of a friend in Boston who happened to have company. Finding this to be the case the visitor was about leaving, when a voice from the adjoining room struck his ear as being somewhat familiar and he asked his friend who the party was. He was a stranger whose name the host could not at the instant recollect. An introduction to the company was effected, when the owner of the voice was instantly recognized and named; and what was almost as singular, the recognition was made mutual through the smile on the countenance of the discoverer. So the voice on the one hand, and the peculiarity of certain facial muscles on the other, had fixed themselves on young memory, and lain dormant for thirty-eight years, to be awakened by a simple sound and by a glance into all the vividity of their original impressions.

☞ A Newbern dispatch states that "the aristocracy and extensive slaveholders in North Carolina are strongly opposing the course of Governor Vance, the Supreme Court, the Whig Legislature, W. W. Holden of the Raleigh Standard, and other opposition papers in this State, who represent the poor white masses in their desire to separate from the rebel Confederacy.

From the Standard it appears that Jeff. Davis has given North Carolina to understand that if the attempt is made to carry her movement of separation into effect, the Confederate army in its retreat from Virginia into the cotton States, will devastate and lay waste the entire State of North Carolina; hence it is concluded that no move to this end can be made by North Carolina until there is a force of at least 70,000 Union troops in her borders to sustain it. It is the desire of North Carolina to withdraw from the contest and assume a neutral position."

PSALM TUNES.—An English mathematician has made a computation of the number of tunes that can possibly be made from the notes of only one octave. He finds that from the major-scale alone, when used only in one key, 40,320 different tunes may be constructed, without any repetition. Of course the same number can be made from the minor-scale; so that in the natural key there can be 80,640 different tunes. Singing six of these each Sabbath in the year, it would take nearly two hundred and sixty years to sing them. Now when we consider that there are twelve major and twelve minor keys, and that the rhythmical combinations are still greater than those arising from the notes, we can see that we cannot begin to know the endless variety yet to come. Go on, then, tune makers. There is rooms enough for you all to spread yourselves. You can't possibly use up all the ground before the war is over.

☞ The freighting business along the Atlantic coast this season is remarkably good, for small vessels. It is stated that two or three hundred schooners of a hundred tons each will be required to take ice from Maine to Southern ports for the army. The coal freights continue very high; and all descriptions of small vessels find enough to do.

☞ A gentleman, who lately recovered from a severe attack of fever, found his memory restored with all the stories, songs and nursery rhymes he was taught when a mere child, and with all the names of his boyhood's companions, most of them forgotten for at least forty-five years.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE, for July, contains thirty articles, with seventy-five embellishments. The price of Peterson is only $2 per year.

☞ Com. George H. Cooper has been detached from the steamer Connecticut, and ordered to the command of the gunboat Sonoma.

☞ The Emperor of China has ordered that temples be erected to Gen. Ward's memory at Ningpo and Sangkiang.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The report of Hon. Peter Sanborn, State Treasurer, for the fiscal year ending June 1, 1863, shows the receipts and disbursements connected with the military operations of the State, and those connected with the ordinary civil operations—the latter including sums paid in aid of the families of volunteers, and the amount paid those appointed to look after the interests of our soldiers in the field. The amount reimbursed to towns in aid of the families of volunteers is $181,965.90. The disbursements in the civil lists have been $376,647.36; the receipts, including $239,300 of loans for the temporary use of the State, and balance in the Treasury June 1, 1862, $17,964.27, having been $394,349.88—leaving cash in the Treasury, June 1, $17,502.52. The report of the receipts and disbursements connected with the military operations of the State shows a balance of $28,259.19 in Treasury, June 1, 1862, and receipts to June 1863, of $700,715.17, making a total of $728,974.36. The payments have been $697,512.85, and there is cash in the Treasury, $31,461.51.

—— Mr. Bailey Sergeant, seventy-seven years old, of Orford, sowed and harrowed this spring fifty-three bushels of oats on ten acres of land, which he also plowed without assistance, beside doing much other out-door farming work.

—— The 6th, 9th, and 11th N. H. regiments are in the 2d Division of the 9th Army Corps, which has gone to Vicksburg.

—— Arrangements are being made for heating the Passenger Depot in Manchester by steam, instead of by coal fires as heretofore. The steam will be taken from the engine to the railroad woodshed. The small engine formerly used there has been removed and a larger one introduced.

—— A woman in East Concord on Friday struck her husband on the head with a pair of tongs, and nearly killed him. She has been arrested.

—— One of the Manchester Corporations has paid $15,000 a month, revenue tax, for several successive months.

REMARKABLE ECHO.—Mountain echoes are often very grand. "The voices of subterranean demons calling from the bottom of the world," is what the Arabs call them. One of the very grandest exists on the Kening see, a picturesque lake in the Bavarian Highlands, at a spot where the naked cliff rises on one side to the height of five thousand feet while the other side is clothed with forest. The report of a pocket pistol fired here is first returned, faint and low, from the wooded side, and dies away. In a second more it is heard gathering along the cliffs on the other side, like a gradual roll of thunder, increasing in volume until it breaks over your head in deafening crash, louder than the broadside of a ship of the line.

A LAUGHABLE INCIDENT is related by the Lewiston Journal, of a jealous woman. Mrs. B had her anger aroused by what appeared to her to be the suspicious familiarity of her husband toward Miss C., whose reputation was somewhat dubious. Looking into the auction-room one day while a sale was progressing, and consequently quite a crowd present, who should Mrs. B. discover but the dubious Miss C. seated on a settee with her face turned in the opposite direction, and seated at her side a gentleman whom she supposed ought to be her liege lord and husband. The sight was more than she could bear, and rushing up behind the twain before they discovered the danger, she took the head of one in the right hand, and the head of the other in the left hand, and brought them in violent contact a half dozen times, greatly to the astonishment of the crowd as well as of the unsuspicious twain. As soon as the gentleman supposed to be Mr. B. could clear himself from the wrath of Mrs. B. he rose and turned round. What was Mrs. B.'s surprise to find that the gentleman's head which she had been rapping against Miss C.'s cranium, was not that of Mr. B., but that of Mr. A., a much respected citizen who had seated himself on the settee without being aware of his proximity to danger. Mrs. B. apologized—thought it was her husband—and passed on.

A CONSPICUOUS POSITION.—The little flag that waves from the lightning rod over the top of the Bunker Hill Monument was placed there last Tuesday afternoon by Mr. Joseph H. Till. The daring feat was accomplished by Mr. Till by placing the foot of a ladder against the flag-staff, with the other end reaching to the apex of the Monument; he then ascended the ladder, reached the lightning rod, steadied himself by it and stood on the very tip top of the Monument and adjusted the flag. This is the second time Mr. Till has planted the flag of his country at this airy height.

☞ Another ineffectual attempt has been made to sound Niagara river at the Suspension Bridge, by letting a ten pound weight fall from a height of two hundred and twenty-five feet; but the plummet made its appearance in a second after striking the water, skipping on the surface one hundred feet down the stream.

☞ The Richmond Dispatch of the 20th states that the Federal blockading fleet off Savannah had captured the iron-clad steamer Atlanta, formerly the English steamer Fingal. The Atlanta steamed out of the harbor, and was attacked and captured after an action of 30 minutes, by two Federal iron-clads. Adm. DuPont reports that a steamer which tried to run the blockade at Charleston, on the night of the 5th, was sunk by our fleet. On the night of the 10th, another, supposed to be the Havelock, was set on fire, and reduced to a total wreck.

Federal accounts say that the Monitors Weehawken and Patapsco captured the rebel ram Fingal in Warsaw Sound on the 16th, after firing five guns. There was no loss on our side.

☞ The ship Isaac Webb, Hutchinson, from Liverpool May 17, has arrived at New York and reports that on the 20th inst., in lat. 40 35, long. 68 45, she was captured by the rebel barque Tacony, and released on giving bonds for $40,000. The Isaac Webb has on board the captain, crew and two passengers of the brig Umpire, Perry, from Sagua for Boston, which vessel was captured and destroyed by the Tacony on the 15th, in lat. 87, long. 69 57 1-2.

TWO HIGH STREETS.—Though it may be desirable sometimes, to give new names to old streets, yet the practice leads to inconvenience, sometimes to great confusion. In Portsmouth, as yet only in its third century, some streets have had three names; most of them have had two. And in one case, two streets intersecting each other, have been called by one name. At this time, 1863, High street is the one leading from the North Church and Market Square to Deer street: but 110 years ago, High street was what is now the eastern part of Hanover street.

This appears from an old deed of the lot now occupied as a house lot by J. H. Ferguson and others, on the S. W. corner of High and Hanover streets. In 1753, Samuel Tobey and Mary, his wife, conveyed the lot to George Massey, in a deed which described it as "fronting on the street that leads from Deer street to the Meeting House one hundred foot; Southerly eighty foot on said Massey's land; [now the Haven or Ladd estate]: Westerly one hundred foot by land of John Tufton Mason, Esq., now in possession of Edward Quincy, Merchant; [afterwards the Col. Brewster and Goodrich house]: and Northerly fronting to and joining upon High street, so called, eighty feet."

In 1793 the former High street was called Cross street: for several years past, Hanover street. And the street leading from Deer street to the meeting house has been named High street for more than half a century.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—As the down train from Concord, on the C. & P. Railroad, Monday morning, neared the Raymond station, the Engineer discovered a woman prostrated upon the track just round a sharp curve. Every effort was made to stop the train, in vain. The woman was instantly killed, being crushed by the wheels and dragged along the track. She is thought to be the wife of George Stearns of Manchester, a member of the 10th regiment. A bottle was found by her side; and she doubtless fell down under the influence of its contents. She was supposed to be about 35 years of age.

S. J. COURT, Law Term.—The June Term of this Court commenced in Exeter on the 16th inst.

Associate Justices Sargent, Bellows, Doe and Nesmith were present, with the Clerks of Rockingham, Strafford and Carroll counties.

Prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Learned.

Actions on the Rockingham Docket were disposed of as follows:—

6—Osgood Richards & al v Matthew Harvey and als. Not to be brought forward.

17—Derry Bank v John G. Webster & al. Decree for plf.

26—Phebe A. Trafton v Timothy J. Trafton. Divorce decreed.

28—Ellison & Dearborn v Gardner Towle & als. Dismissed without costs to either party.

29—Clarrisa Hanson, Adm'x v Alva Wood. Dismissed.

36—James W. Baker v Mary A. Baker. Divorce decreed.

37—Thomas H. Grenville v Daniel R. Rogers. Judgment on verdict for deft.

39—John S. Harvey v. Nathaniel J. Coffin. Demurrer overruled.

41—Alonzo M. Shute & al, v Alva Wood & als. Neither party.

43—Petition of Charles H. Bell for discharge as Assignee of Exeter Bank. Petition granted. Stephen W. Dearborn appointed Assignee.

45—Hendrick D. Batchelder v Jeremiah Batchelder. Partition decreed. Charles G. Conner, Jonathan P. Robinson and Levi G. Towle, Committee to make partition.

48—Charles Hodgdon v Pierce P. Penhallow & als. Neither party.

50—Moses G. Steele v. George W. Barker. Judgment on verdict for plf.

53—Derry Bank v Edward W. Davis & Trustee. Trustee charged.

54—John S. Brown v N. F. Emerson & al. Amendment allowed.

59—George A. Hill v Eliza Hill. Divorce decreed.

The court adjourned on the 17th inst.

The Eastern Railroad managers are awake to the wants of the times and are making good use of the money which a very profitable year has placed in their hands. The improvements about to be made at this station are not the only evidence of thrift and enterprise which the road exhibits. The well appointed cars, the smothly laid track and the gentlemanly conductors, make a ride to Boston as comfortable as any railroad ride can be, and neat and convenient depots come swiftly along throughout the trip; while at the Boston terminus we enter the new and commodious depot on Causeway street which is just receiving its finishing touches, and will be excellent in its adaptedness to the wants of passengers, and the requirements of merchandise, no less than in the display of good taste in its conveniences and adornments.—Journal.

☞ Acting Master Edwin March, U. S. N., who has been spending a sick furlough in this city with his relative, Hon. Clement March,—has been ordered to report at Cairo forthwith.

☞ The performance of "Our American Cousin at the Temple, this (Tuesday) evening, by Miss Laura Keene and her entire New York Company, should be sufficient to draw a crowded house. The company is large and talented, and is provided with all the accessories possible to use there, in bringing out this ever-popular comedy, which has had such a successful run wherever presented. The name of Miss Keene, who, by her career as an actress and manageress in New York City has won an enviable reputation among the friends of the drama,—is sufficient to ensure success. Probably never before was such an opportunity offered in Portsmouth.

☞ Large quantities of gunpowder are being sent from Portsmouth Navy Yard to Cairo,—the same freight cars going clear through by railroad. It is brought by packet to the new C. & P. R. R. wharf, and loaded in battened box cars. Both vessels and cars mount the warning red flag all the while. Several hundred tons are said to have been sent within a few days.

☞ A staunch little schooner, called the Mary Willey, was launched from the Raynes shipyard, in this city, on Monday afternoon. She is a fine vessel of about 130 tons burthen, was built by Mr. William Fernald, and is designed for the coasting trade.

☞ We learn that Lieut. Thomas M. Jackson, of this city, Co. D, 3d N. H. Regiment, has recently been promoted to a Captaincy in the same regiment.

☞ Charles O. Emerson, Esq., of York, died quite suddenly of paralysis on Monday, at his residence. Mr. Emerson was a member of the York County Bar, and a man respected for his numerous virtues by a large circle of acquaintances. E.

☞ The end of the first half of the year 1863 is at hand; 1st of July is a good time to settle all accounts. Many of our traders now present their bills twice a year, and it would be better if all did so. We shall be pleased to settle all charges against us "about that time;" and equally gratified to receive our dues.

CATASTROPHES TO COME OFF.—They are making extensive preparations for the celebration of the fourth of July, in Hartford, Conn. Among other diversions two balloons are to be sent up—one to contain a cat, which is to be thrown out with the stars and stripes tied to its tail, when a mile or two up. In the evening there are to be "brilliant fire-works in the Park," at which the cat is expected to be present. This expectation, we suppose, is predicated on the theory that cats have nine lives.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOW'D.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

NEW IMPROVED

ICEBERG REFRIGERATORS.

This upright REFRIGERATOR combines every improvement. It is the most perfect article of the kind in the market, requiring less ice than any other, and keeping its contents sweet and free from any unpleasant odors.

Daniel T. Curtis, Fruit dealer, Boston, says of it, "I have preserved grapes and pears, peaches, and an extensive variety of plums and berries for five or six weeks in Schooley's Refrigerator."

Oren Peck, Boylston Market, Boston, says, "I find, on careful trial, that it will keep meats perfectly fresh and dry for ten or twelve days."

John Hunt, Butter dealer, Cincinnati, says, "I can keep butter sweet and fresh any length of time in reason, say six weeks."

C. E. Carpenter, Ice Dealer, Providence, says, "I have kept a cup of custard in one of Schooley's Refrigerators during the warm weather one week, when I ate it and found it perfectly good."

Thousands of similar testimonials can be shown in its favor.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR. (Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The complaint has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made, lined throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

The various sizes of the above are for sale by the subscriber—also, ICE PITCHERS, ICE AWLS, &c.

Morning Chronicle.

☞ A sad occurence took place last week near South Warren, in Wyoming county, New York. Three children at play with a cat had hidden in a cupboard, when the animal closed the door, which fastened by a spring catch. Their mother was absent from home, washing; and before they were rescued two of them were suffocated.

☞ A party of New York guests, invited to a wedding, found, on their arrival, that the trunk containing their beautiful new dresses, got up especially for the occasion, had been ticketed on another route, and were of course, not available! How the dear creatures lived through it, is more than we know.

☞ Gen. McClellan, is a letter declining an invitation to attend the banquet to Gen. Meagher, in New York, on Thursday evening, ventured to say that we cannot abandon the war until we have accomplished the object for which it was originally undertaken.

☞ An important order has been issued by Gov. Seymour of New York for the formation of a Guard of the State. Each Assembly district is to raise a regiment or battalion of infantry. New York and Brooklyn are alone unaffected by his order.

☞ A company of Worcester fishermen took 180 pounds of pickerel from Lake Chaubunagungamug, one day last week. Not one of them was as long as the name of the lake.

INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION.

Many instances of which are unfortunately seen, but none will confess. The records of the Insane Asylums and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion.

THE MAGEE
COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Fire-wood, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water, also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity have found by using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

We would refer to the following purchasers:

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable;—and none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pots is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the firepot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the best generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling to be consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The fire-pot is entirely surrounded by the air, which, as it passes through the firepot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, makes no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world,—and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by disease, as the pores of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean, and sweet as can a saucer, as when finished the work presents one white surface.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, that he had of late many calls to insert teeth on the VULCANIZED RUBBER, that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or any other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently comfortable; easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no interstices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easy; kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident, be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in block) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set on Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists too. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTING is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr. OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting teeth. I will extract without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

☞ Please call and examine specimens of Artificial Teeth upon Vulcanized Rubber, Gold and Silver.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair withall;
Fear the right, though every law fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a
PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.
By a long course of study and practical experience, and unlimited exhibit, Dr. D. has met the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of
GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, painful and distressing diseases of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Tumors, frightful Swellings and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.
Dr. D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil foreboding, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.
Persons who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.
Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your case. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.
Highly Important!
To Females in Delicate Health.
DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No. 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invaluable has been the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.
Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.
Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.
Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.
N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.
Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.
Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated Dr. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.
P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Pleasanton reports that in the cavalry fight at Aldie on Sunday, he steadily drove Stuart all day, inflicting heavy loss at every step. We took a large number of carbines, pistols and sabres, two pieces of artillery, one being a Blakely gun, together with three caissons, besides blowing one up. We also captured upwards of 60 prisoners. In fact, it was a most disastrous day to the rebel cavalry, who left their dead and wounded on the field. Our loss was very small both in men and horses. The rebels retreated to Ashby's Gap, and Gen. Pleasanton having learned that it was protected by a large rebel force of infantry and artillery, abandoned the pursuit.

The Richmond papers report a desperate fight at Port Hudson on the 12th, and assert that the Federal troops were driven from their fortifications.

The siege of Port Hudson was continued at our last accounts—June 15th. The rebels tell the most stupendous stories about their achievements there.

Gen. Carter, with 2000 mounted infantry, has made another raid into East Tennessee, destroying factories and public buildings, and tearing up a great breadth of railroad track, much to the disgust of the rebels.

Several camps of the rebels, who were collecting cattle in Tennessee for Bragg, have been scattered by our cavalry. The enemy are moving along our whole line from Memphis to Corinth, cutting telegraph wires and damaging railroads.

A report from near Vicksburg says Col. Hatch, of the 2d Iowa cavalry, destroyed the railroads and bridges from Lagrange to Grenada.

Dispatches from Memphis state that a detachment of Col. Hodges' cavalry had captured two boats on which two rebel regiments and a battery were trying to cross the Tennessee river, and that Col. Corwin had broken up a rebel regiment and destroyed a large quantity of salt.

Rebels have again crossed into Indiana, their purpose being, it is said, to burn the bridges of the Ohio & Mississippi Railroad. Troops are moving to intercept them.

A letter from Fortress Monroe, 20th, says:—"During the past week there has been an advance of troops from Suffolk, under Gen. Corcoran, who penetrated with them to the Blackwater, where their further progress was resisted and quite a lively skirmish ensued. Our loss, however, was slight."

Gen. Corcoran returned to Suffolk on the 18th, having searched the whole country from Carysville to the Blackwater.

The rebel iron-clad ram at Apalachicola was accidentally blown up, killing 12 persons, and badly scalding others. She filled with water and sank.

The negro brigade at Port Royal has recently been on two expeditions, in one of which they destroyed a railroad bridge above Brunswick, Ga. They also captured a schooner laden with 40 bales of cotton, and brought her away.

The N. Y. Herald's Washington dispatch says Gen. Hooker has ordered that nothing shall be said by correspondents in front until the grand battle comes off.

The rebels were driven out of Frederick, Md., on Monday afternoon. The Richmond Dispatch of the 20th confirms the statement that it was Ewell's corps which advanced up the Shenandoah Valley, captured Winchester, and crossed into Maryland. It also contains a dispatch from Gen. Lee, dated Culpepper, 18th, announcing the capture of Martinsburg by Gen. Rhodes.

The rebels have again advanced in force, and occupied Chambersburg on Tuesday morning. Our forces there fell back to the main body.

The Times' Headquarters Army of the Potomac dispatch of the 22d says it is put beyond a doubt that the enemy's main infantry force, including the corps of A. P. Hill, is on the immediate western slope of the Blue Ridge, between Snicker's Gap and Winchester.

☞ On Friday last the new State of Western Virginia took her place beside the other States of the Union, the sixty days having expired since the President issued a proclamation announcing that the act of Congress admitting the new State should have full force and effect at the expiration of that time. On the fourth of July next, in accordance with the requirement of a law of Congress, the national flag will have thirty five stars emblazoned upon it.

☞ The daughters of one of the most respected citizens of Brooklyn has tendered her services to supply, gratuitously, the place of any clerk who is called upon to go to the war, and who has relatives dependent upon him for support. She says: "I will take his place, and he shall have all monies due him from the office forwarded to him for six months he is to be gone."

☞ The Portland City Council has appropriated $500 for the celebration of the 4th of July.

APPEAL TO WORKING MEN.—Not many days ago, we read an appeal in behalf of "Working men—what they ask, and why they ask."—It was in a New York paper, and had reference to some working men of that city, who are, as we infer from the appeal, organizing for higher wages. The appeal says:—

"We counsel the workingmen to proceed in their plan of organization with the thoroughness, self-reliance, and determination requisite to a complete compliance with their just demands. It is unnatural and preposterous that they, the bone and sinew of the land, who feed its prosperity with the sweat of their brows, and give their lives of continuous toil to the enriching of the life-blood of its progress, should remain at the mercy of their wealthier fellow citizens for the very scant enjoyment of life that their vocations admit of.—At the present rates of remuneration for labor, it is barely possible for the laborer to live; and heaven knows, he, of all others, deserves and requires somewhat beyond the bare necessities, to make existence a boon worth caring for. * * * The workingmen have the matter substantially in their own hands; let them see to it that their Association be of a nature to insure their object. Let no lack of harmony or unanimity, let no jealousies, timidity or luke-warmness, overbalance their own estimate of their own value, or disturb the wholesome action of their organization. If true to themselves, they cannot well be false to their obligations to society. Let them ascend to their proper position as necessary members of the community, and be faithful to their attributes as men."

Setting aside so much of the above extract as may be the mere cant of the demagogue let us apply the solid argument to the workingmen of the South. It is unnatural and preposterous that they, the bone and sinew of the land, who give their lives of continuous toil to enrich it and give it progress, should remain at the Mercy of their wealthier fellow citizens! [owners,] for the very scant enjoyment of life.—And again, Heaven knows that the laborer, of all others, deserves and requires somewhat beyond the bare necessities, to make existence a boon worth caring for! "Let them (the laborers) ascend to their proper position as members of the community, and be faithful to their attributes as men."

Amen, says every friend of the workingmen, North and South, of any nation, clime or race. There should be fair wages and honest pay for the laborer everywhere—no one should labor without it. All should ascend to their proper station as necessary members: and therefore we rejoice that thousands of Workingmen at the South are this year getting their first wages:—and that thousands more are fast learning to be faithful to their attributes as men.

U. T.

☞ Judge Taney has just given an opinion (which the full bench will probably reverse) in a very important case. A bale of dry goods was seized in Maryland, and confiscated in the U. S. District Court, because it was apparently going to the rebels, and because the shippers had lied about its destination, to get it through the Custom-House. This latter offence was a breach of custom-house regulations, which were made to carry out Acts of Congress passed since the war began, on purpose to prevent trade with the rebels.—The owners of the goods carried their case up to the Circuit Court, and here Judge Taney's opinion is filed, that the Regulations are illegal and void, for various reasons, the chief of which appears to be, that Trade has been carried on for many years between the States, without ANY SUCH RESTRICTION. On this remarkable opinion, the Circuit Court reversed the decree of the court below.—The U. S. District Attorney appealed to the Supreme Court, to which the case will go up.

If Judge Taney's opinion were law, it would virtually open free trade with the rebels. But it is neither law nor gospel; but is repugnant to good sense and common prudence.

U. T.

☞ The Portland Press states that Mr. H., residing in Westbrook, Me., owned a fine watch dog—a cross between the Newfoundland and the St. Bernard breed, which, an evening or two since he placed in the yard to keep watch. The next morning Mr. H. and his boy went into the yard, but the dog had no notion of having his premises invaded by any one. He first attacked the the boy and then the master, "chawing up" the hand of the latter so that he was unable to pull the trigger of a gun, and was obliged to get one of his neighbors to shoot the animal. Mr. H. don't believe in faithful watch dogs.

☞ The Portland Advertiser states that the mother of William L. Yancey was a Troy woman,—and a terrible termagant, such as they used to put iron bridles on some century or more ago. Among other pleasantries she used to heat the knife and fork for her husband, so that he would burn his mouth when he came to breakfast. He was not so much of a fire-eater as his wonderful son.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Commercial says if the raid into Pennsylvania was a cover to some advance toward the old Bull Run battle ground, or to the fords on the Potomac a few miles above Washington, for an invasion of Maryland in great force, the enemy is too late.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— The house and outbuildings of Geo. K. Richards of Goffstown, were burned on Sunday forenoon. Most of the furniture was destroyed. Loss about $1500, and no insurance. It was situated about a mile from the Centre.

—— The Democrats are making great preparations for their Mass Convention at Concord on the 4th of July. Ex-President Pierce, it is stated, will be present.

—— Daniel W. Riddle, son of Gen. Wm. P. Riddle of Manchester, has been appointed Acting Assistant Paymaster in the Navy, and ordered to report at Portsmouth.

—— The New Hampshire Cavalry Companies were undoubtedly engaged in the fight at Aldie. Among the names of the missing—who may be prisoners or possibly strayed away from the regiment, are Lt. Col. Thompson, Capt. Arnold Wyman and Lt. Prentiss. They were lost in the march through Hope Gap. Adjutant Parker of Claremont, a graduate of Dartmouth, and Capt. Allen of Nashua, are also included among the missing.

—— It is again reported that several regiments at Port Royal, including the 4th and 7th N. H., are coming North, principally as a sanitary matter, they having spent some two years in a Southern climate. Whether they are to join the Potomac army, or that of the Peninsula is not known.

—— Mrs. Bell, wife of Chief Justice Bell, died in Manchester on Saturday afternoon. She was a woman of rare virtues and many friends.

—— Amaziah Goodwin, of Lyman, Me., who completed his one hundredth birthday on the 16th of February last, and who was intending to visit Bunker Hill on the 17th, died at Dover on Monday, which place he had reached when illness overtook him, while on his way to Boston.

—— David Parker, of the Canterbury Shakers, who is well known, was very seriously injured two or three weeks since in the State of New York, by being thrown from a carriage. He was very badly bruised in several places, his forehead was cut, and one of his shoulders injured. He arrived in Concord on Saturday evening last and went to his home on Sunday morning. He has recovered very fast from his injuries and is now doing well.

—— Numerous petitions praying for the passage of a bill giving the right of suffrage to N. H. soldiers in the field, were presented in the House of Representatives on Monday.

THE EMPEROR ON SEPARATION.—The N. Y. Times' Paris correspondent writes the following:

In a recent conversation held with the Emperor (no matter by whom) his majesty let fall the following Napoleonic remarks on the American question: "An amicable separation between the North and South would have been the grandest triumph ever achieved by republicanism; it would have compelled the admiration of the world. As it is, republicanism has never been so dead in Europe as now. The people see that republics or the men who administer their Governments have the same pride, passions, and lust of empire that influence sovereigns; while being always unstable in their position, they have not the responsibilities that we have, who seek to consolidate dynasties by pacificating the masses. The monarchies of Europe do not find your American war an unmixed evil. We can afford to suffer much in our material interests, while this revolutionary dream of the Republicans is 'dissolving in blood.'"

If these are the Emperor's notions of a grand triumph of republicanism, they are grand nonsense. He has never proposed to achieve "a grand triumph of Imperialism" by splitting off a portion of the territory of France; on the contrary, he added Piedmont to it.

☞ The New Bedford Mercury mentions the following incident: A lad recently applied to his father for seventy-five cents with which to go on a pic-nic. Obtaining this sum he procured from his mother an additional amount of twenty-five cents for the same innocent purpose. Thus in funds the little fellow hired two jobbing wagons, proceeded to the Orphans' Home, and treated the little inmates to a ride. This was his pic-nic.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the New York Commercial Advertiser says that among the on dits flying on Friday were two which give Gen. McClellan an active position, and send Gen. Fremont to take Hunter's late place in the Department of the South.

☞ The Baptists of Maine held their Anniversaries at South Berwick last week. There are 13 associations, 276 churches, and over 20,000 members in that State. They expend three or four thousand dollars for domestic missions. The season was one of unusual interest.

☞ American Organs are coming up. There is now building in Brooklyn, N. Y., by Mr. R. Midmer, an organ for parties in Old England,—the first American organ ever sent to England.

☞ The State enrollment of the Massachusetts militia shows 30,112 men subject to the draft.

☞ All the gamblers in Cincinnati have been ordered to leave within 15 days.

PEACE.

No war nor battle's sound
Was heard the world around;
No hostile chiefs to furious combat ran,
But peaceful was the night
Wherein the Prince of Light
His reign of peace upon the earth began.

No conqueror's sword he bore,
Nor warlike armor wore;
Nor haughty passions roused to contest wild,—
In peace and love he came,
And gentle was the reign
Which o'er the earth he spread by influence mild.

Unwilling Kings obeyed,
And sheathed the battle-blade,
And called their bloody legions from the field.
In silent awe they wait,
And close the warrior's gate,
Nor know to whom their homage thus they yield.

The peaceful conqueror goes,
Led triumphs o'er his foes,
His weapons drawn from armories above.
Behold the vanquished sit
Submissive at his feet,
And strife and hate are changed to peace and love.

☞ The slaughter of the negro troops in the battle of Milliken's Bend has induced Gen. Grant to issue an order declaring that hereafter, should any soldier, whether white or black, wearing the uniform of a United States soldier, be captured and executed, retaliatory measures will be adopted by him, and Confederate soldiers in his hands will be treated in a similar manner.

☞ The capture of the rebel iron-clad Atlanta, better known as the Fingal, not only weakens the rebel defences of Georgia in particular, but will relieve quite a number of our blockaders, who for many months have been watching for her advent into active service.

☞ Wyndham, Me., has voted to give each man drafted $300, wherewith to pay his "commutation fees," or take it as a bounty and go to war.

☞ It is not anticipated that any considerable portion of the drafted soldiers will be ready to take the field before the 1st of August.

☞ They call a hearse a funeral car down in Portland in these latter days.

One of Hunnewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, is the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be sacred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

GOODIES.—Portsmouth was never before half so well supplied with fruit stores as now, and among the best of them is Mr. Carter's new Confectionery and Restaurant, corner of Chesnut st. and Congress.—He now displays there among his best of good things a lot of the largest and best pine apples "you ever saw"—with bananas, rosy strawberries, oranges, lemons, dates, and so forth and so on to the end of the chapter—and a very long chapter it would be, too, to enumerat half the luxuries and delicacies there always temptingly displayed in such profusion.

And besides all this, and everything in the pastry and confectionery line, including ice creams, soda, beer and mineral water, if you want a heartier lunch or meal, of meat or oysters, you can have it served up there in the best manner. Despite any objections which may be urged against some of the "refreshment saloons," we regard Carter's new Restaurant as a great public convenience, and worthy of the liberal patronage it receives. See his advertisement.

☞ A visit to Mr. Rogers' nursery and gardens, is very pleasant, about now—and you can call at the Navy Yard, going one way, and ruralize or "sequestre" through Love Lane, the other. Mr. Rogers is planning great improvements about his fine premises, for another winter. Among the present attractions he has in one greenhouse a rare display of fuschias, &c., and in another, the most fragrant and most prolific running white roses we ever saw. A private cemetery has been laid out, across the road from his grounds, and a large number of lots taken by families residing near.—These will be ornamented and shaded with trees, of course, and the whole vicinity must be greatly improved thereby.

☞ The locust trees, it seems to us, never bloomed so thickly, or emitted such fragrance, in this section of the country, as the present year. Take a drive to Greenland or Kittery, before they fade, and enjoy their graceful beauty and delicious perfume. On the estate of Hon. Clement March, at Greenland, is the largest and finest row of locusts we ever saw.

☞ John Russell, Jr., Esq., has resigned the office of Superintendent of the P. S. & P. Railroad—a situation he has held for upwards of fourteen years to the acceptance of the public. His successor has not yet been appointed.

☞ The new counterfeit fifty cent postage currency notes are very well executed and calculated to deceive. They can be detected, however, by the oval engraving on the back of the note which encloses the words printed there. In the counterfeit, the oval enclosure is longer than in the genuine by the width of the border.

If we had had a reserve force at command no alarm whatever would have been occasioned by the rebels' raid. The Convention of Loyal Governors which met at Altoona last September, and which was so outrageously abused by papers and politicians of the copperhead stripe, adopted, at the suggestion of Gov. Andrew of Massachusetts, strongly endorsed by Gov. Tod of Obio, a resolution recommending that an army of reserve be established, after the quotas then called for were filled, "of not less than one hundred thousand men, to be drilled and disciplined at home, and to be called out in cases of sudden emergency, at such points where there may be need of their services, and to be mustered into service for twelve months, unless sooner discharged." The wisdom of this advice is now palpable to all, and had it been acted upon we should have been saved much mortification and embarrassment if not actual disaster and detriment.—Salem Reg.

☞ "Nor'wester," the lively New York correspondent of the Boston Post, thus tells a story:—

Sec. Seward is at the present time a wealthy man; but when he returned to his home after serving out his gubernatorial term it is said he had only eleven dollars in cash and was in debt twenty thousand dollars. His father was a rich but penurious old gentleman, and refused to assist the rising son in this his time of necessity. A story is told that on one occasion a resident of Seneca Falls hearing of Governor Seward's financial straits, borrowed of Dr. Seward (the father) ten thousand dollars, by mortgaging his property, and when the papers were executed and the check handed to him, the borrower, in the presence of Dr. Seward, passed the check to Governor Seward, with the remark,—"There, William, take that and give me your due bill for the amount; I can help you if your father will not." From another source came aid in the form of ten thousand dollars advanced fees for counsel in patent suits; and thus Mr. Seward squared off with the world and began to extort from it by degrees a living, a competence, and finally abundant wealth, along with honors which the Presidency itself would now scarcely overtop or outweigh.

A writer beautifully remarks that a man's mother is the representative of his maker. Misfortune and crime set no barriers between her and her son. While his mother lives, a man has one friend on earth who will not desert him when he is needy. Her affection flows from a pure fountain, and ceases only at the ocean of eternity.

☞ Dates from the City of Mexico via Acapulco are to the 24th of May. All the French residents have been compelled to leave the city. Gen. Juarez had taken command of the Mexican troops. The Mexican fortifications were being strengthened, and it was believed that the government would flood the valley on the approach of the French, and make a desperate resistance in every possible manner. All the available Mexican troops are being drawn toward the capital. Gen. Comonfort is much censured for not relieving Puebla, and in consequence has resigned. The French advance has arrived at San Martin les Mulieau. Gen. Forey had ordered the captured Mexican Generals to be sent to France, and the officers to Martinique.—Gen. Forey had put 3000 Mexican prisoners to work on the railroad leading toward Vera Cruz, and 200 be employed in destroying the intrenchments around Puebla.

GENERAL BURNSIDE.—It is so little the fashion of late to commend Gen. Burnside, especially for the political management of his department, that the following from the Louisville Journal deserves especial notice:

"Burnside looks and acts like a great man; and the manner in which he has managed the affairs of this department shows him to be a statesman as well as a general. The more we see of Burnside the more we like him. He has done much for Kentucky. His order No. 38 has worked like a charm, and given peace, quiet and security to many portions of the State which have been invested by rebel sympathizers and marauders. Previous to its publication, many parts of the State were invested by Morgan's men and other rebels whose presence brought fear and terror, but since its enforcement there are none to be found in our lines, except a few desperate characters who come and go to act the spy—and those are caught whenever found, and executed.

☞ See you fair maiden in another column, picking Sambuci Grapes for Speer's Wine. It is an admirable article, used in hospitals, and by the first class families in Paris, London and New York, in preference to old Port wine. It is worth a trial, as it gives great satisfaction. 1y.

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

RYE, N. H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWEETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may29

EVERY KIND OF

KITCHEN FURNISHING GOODS.

SCHOOLEY'S

NEW IMPROVED

ICEBERG REFRIGERATORS.

This upright REFRIGERATOR combines every improvement. It is the most perfect article of the kind in the market, requiring less ice than any other, and keeping its contents sweet and free from any unpleasant odors.

Daniel T. Curtis, Fruit dealer, Boston, says of it, "I have preserved grapes and pears, peaches, and an extensive variety of plums and berries for five or six weeks in Schooley's Refrigerator."

Oren Peck, Boylston Market, Boston, says, "I find, on careful trial, that it will keep meats perfectly fresh and dry for ten or twelve days."

John Hunt, Butter dealer, Cincinnati, says, "I can keep butter sweet and fresh any length of time in reason, say six weeks."

C. E. Carpenter, Ice Dealer, Providence, says, "I have kept a cup of custard in one of Schooley's Refrigerators during the warm weather one week, when I ate it and found it perfectly good."

Thousands of similar testimonials can be shown in its favor.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR. (Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete preservation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made, lined throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

The various sizes of the above are for sale by the subscriber—also, ICE PITCHERS, ICE AWLS, &c.

Morning Chronicle.

An enthusiastic believer was relating to a sceptic certain spiritual performances to which he could testify, and, among other things, he said that, on one occasion, the spirit of his wife, who had been dead several years, returned to him, and, seating herself upon his knee, put her arms around him, and kissed him, much to his gratification, as she used to do when living. "You do not mean to say," remarked the sceptic, "that the spirit of your wife really embraced you, and kissed you?" "No, not exactly that," replied the believer, "but her spirit took possession of the female medium—the future Mrs. H.—that is to be, you know and, through her embraced and kissed me."

They serenaded General Lane at St. Louis the other night. In Rhode Island the Providence Bulletin says they take him at a premium.

For Diseases arising from Indiscretion,
BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL, AND DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.

This Medicine increases the power of Digestion, and excites the absorbents into healthy action, by which the Watery or Cancerous depositions and all Unnatural Enlargements are reduced, as well as pain and inflammation, and is good for Men, Women, or Children.

INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION.

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will confess. The records of the fur-ease Asylums and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion.

"Bound to no party—to no sect confined;
The world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
Love truth, do good, be just and fair with all;
Exalt the right, though every ism fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party, generally. It is a spirit not to be encouraged.—Its common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of the popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a
PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.
By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of
GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, Irritation, Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of disease, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.
Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of cases arising from the secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by such habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.
Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.
Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your case. N. B. Dow takes for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.

It is invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.
Dr. Dow has no doubt that his treatment is unrivalled in the cure of Diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.
Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.
Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, JUNE 25, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Our troops have burned Richmond, La. Official advices from Gen. Grant, to the 19th, at noon, report that some advantages were gained by our troops on the 18th.

A letter in the St. Louis Republican says ammunition and provision are got across the Mississippi into Vicksburg at night.

The citizens are fortifying Pittsburg, Pa., extensively, digging entrenchments on the surrounding hills for many miles out, encircling the city. Gen. Halleck, on Tuesday, inspected the new fortifications at Baltimore.

The President had a long consultation on Tuesday with Gens. Hooker and Halleck and the Sec. of War.

Our troops hold the whole line of the Potomac, up to and beyond Leesburg; a large force occupies that town.

It seems to be pretty well established that the main body of Lee's army is in the Shenandoah Valley. A considerable force again threatens Frederick, Md. The rebels, at 12 o'clock Wednesday, were one mile from Shippensburg, which is 11 miles this side of Chambersburg, and were advancing.

The N. Y. Times dispatch says Admiral Dahlgren has been ordered to Charleston, to take the command that is substantially vacant by Admiral Foote's illness. Gen. Milroy, it is understood, has been relieved of his command.

The Richmond Enquirer of Saturday mentions a rumor that Extra Billy Smith, just elected Governor of Virgina, was killed in the battle at Winchester.

Daniel Sargent, U. S. Consular Agent at Mathewstown, Bahamas, under date of 6th of June, writes:—"We hear that Semmes and three of his officers have been transferred at St. Thomas on board a 16 gun frigate from England. His first Lieutenant left the Alabama. The Georgia, for that is the name of the new craft, has, it is said, two heavier guns than any on board the Alabama."

The pirates Alabama and Virginia were at Bahia May 14, the latter without armament.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Capt. A. H. Bixby, of the cavalry, in a letter to his wife states that at the fight at Middleburg, Va., on the 17th, the regiment was surrounded by three brigades of the enemy's Cavalry, with six pieces of artillery, and lost very heavily. A few fought their way out, but he states that only four officers and 27 men escaped. All of the rest of the regiment were either killed, wounded or missing. It is possible that many others, however, will yet be heard from.

—— Dr. Geo. F. French of Dover, for the past year Surgeon of one of the hospitals at Alexandria, Va., has been promoted and ordered to report to Gen. Grant at Vicksburg, where he will be attached to the Medical staff of "the Grand Army of the Southwest." Dr. French is a graduate of Harvard, where he received the highest honors.

—— The people of Pittsfield, Barnstead, and towns in that direction, and Chichester, Epsom, Allenstown and Pembroke, are before the Legislature for a Branch Railroad from Pittsfield to Suncook, along the Suncook Valley.

—— On Sunday night the safe in the counting room of Hon. A. H. Tilton's Woolen Mills at Sanbornton Bridge was broken into and $200 in money and several notes of small value stolen.

—— The 7th N. H. regiment has gone to Folly Island.

☞ Baltimore papers of Monday say that Saturday and Sunday were two days of unprecedented excitement in and around that city. The military authorities there, in view of what may become necessary, rather than from any immediate pending danger, have taken measures for the fortification of the city. To expedite the work 3000 laborers have been called into service, and the able-bodied colored men have been freely impressed. The negroes at first were considerably alarmed, but on understanding the nature of the service required, they went cheerfully to work, and numbers afterwards came forward voluntarily; and the work of barricading progressed so rapidly that on Sunday morning the entire circle of the city was completed, and ready for military occupation at any moment that the scouts and pickets shall announce the approach of the enemy. The city councils appropriated $100,000 to pay those laboring in the defences, and also passed an ordinance providing that any person in the employment of the city who may enlist in the army of the United States—under the recent call of the President for troops—shall be reinstated in his office on his honorable discharge from the army.

☞ A later arrival from Newbern, N. C., brings no confirmation of the rebellion against rebellion in that State. We hope the story was not bogus.

N. H. Legislature.—Among the bills introduced in the House, on Tuesday, was one incorporating the Salmon Bay Company, Stephen Kendrick and others—capital $50,000, for the general purpose of catching and selling fish caught down east and elsewhere,—so the Manchester Union says.

The Committee on the State Treasurer's accounts reported that the State debt now stands one million, three hundred and twenty thousand dollars. Amount of vouchers suspended by the U. S. Government four hundred and forty-one thousand, seven hundred and sixty-one dollars. The committee recommended that the treasurer's salary be increased to $800, and that he be allowed a clerk at $500. The treasurer has performed his duty faithfully.

The House resumed the consideration of the Dover & Portsmouth Railroad bill. Mr. Christie closed his speech after cautioning members against a printed map which he said was defective. Mr. Burr of Dover, presented resolutions of Dover City government in favor of the road.

The bill was pretty well discussed, and under a suspension of the rules was passed. The bill was before the Senate Committee on Wednesday afternoon, and it is thought probable that it will pass that body also.

☞ A few days since, an officer from Belfast, Me., pursued two men, named Grant and Knowles, who had been on an extensive horse-stealing expedition, and caught them at Troy, Me. Grant, who boasted of being a deserter from the army, and said he could not be taken alive, broke away, when the officer fired at him with a revolver, and Grant returned the fire, being armed to the teeth. One of the shots took effect, and the officer fell, but Grant fired twice afterwards, both shots taking effect. Grant and Knowles then made for the woods. On Tuesday the citizens turned out to arrest them. The fellows were found, and while attempting to secure them, another officer was killed. Finding escape impossible, and determined not to be taken alive, the two desperadoes deliberately shot and killed themselves.

☞ Considerable surprise was manifested on Monday in naval circles in New York, at the announcement that the iron-clad frigate Roanoke, which has been for months preparing to take her position as the guard ship of the harbor of New York, is under orders to proceed to sea as soon as she can take on board her powder, provisions and stores. Her destination is a mystery, as she draws too much water, by several feet, to enter Charleston, and having no masts or sails to help her in the ocean. Her engines were always auxiliary ones, and calculated to be assisted by canvass.—It is said that she may bear the flag of the South Atlantic blockading squadron.

Dividends.—The Salmon Falls Manufacturing Company pass their regular dividend, but pay back to their stockholders 20 per cent. of their capital and reduce the par value of their shares to $400.

The Boston and Maine Railroad pay a dividend of 4 per cent. July 1.

The Old Colony and Fall River Railroad pay a semi annual dividend of 3 per cent. on July 1, free of Government tax.

☞ The Fernandina, Fla., correspondent of the New York Post says Florida is now the greatest resource of the rebel army for beef, and since the communications with Texas were partly stopped by the operations on the Mississippi, thousands of head have been weekly gathered and transported to the West and North. If we had held St. John's river and Jacksonville, we would have prevented this in a great measure.

☞ Nearly fourteen million dollars worth of exports were sent from New York to foreign ports during the month of May. This will not only help towards paying for the large quantities of foreign goods which have been brought in, but will also show to the world that the North is not so seriously affected by the war as the English wish it might be.

☞ The Traveller says the flour trade in Boston has become so important that five thousand barrels will be required this year for every business day, or one million five hundred thousand barrels this year.

☞ Ex-Governor Thomas H. Hicks of Maryland is now raising a company of volunteers to serve under himself as captain, under the recent call for ten thousand men from his State.

☞ U. S. bark Ethan Allen sailed from Boston on Tuesday in search of the rebel pirate vessels operating on our coast. She is armed with six guns.

☞ The millmen at Orono, Me., have struck for the twelve hour system, they now being required to work from 4 o'clock in the morning until 8 at night.

☞ The rebel army is to be uniformed in clothes of very pale blue color, now manufacturing in the South. There are a number of factories at Richmond making this cloth. The principal one was recently burned down.

☞ No hopes of Adm. Foote's recovery are now entertained.

No Retaliation.—The Pacific Mills Corporation, as well as the Eastern Railroad Company, has voted to pay stockholders in New Hampshire the full amount of their dividends, not reserving the amount of the required tax imposed by the Legislature. In other words, the corporation pays the tax for the stockholders, regarding the law as unjust to those holding stock out of the States.

Acts like these will do much to conciliate New Hampshire. They show that the law does not express the sentiments of the people, nor of the corporate institutions of the State of Massachusetts.

New Orleans, June 11.

The City of Bath arrived here on Tuesday morning, bringing Capt. Walker and the crew of the towboat Fox, whose daring seizure by a boat's crew from Mobile and their successful passage of the blockading fleet at that port rather woke up the people at the mouth of the Mississippi, where she was captured.

And now, on the evening of the very day on which the prisoners made in that raid are returned, via Richmond and City Point, the public is startled to hear of a similar exploit in the same locality. On Tuesday night, at about half-past 9 o'clock, the towboat Boston, Capt. Tibbetts, was surrounded and captured by about fifteen or twenty men, while towing the bark Jenny Lind into Pass a l'Outre, when about a mile below the Pilot Station. Capt. Tibbetts was on board the bark at the time the captors boarded and cut loose the towboat. He at once conveyed intelligence to the sloop-of-war Portsmouth, lying at the Head of the Passes, and the gunboat Holyoke is reported to have gone in pursuit. The fugitives will probably run for Mobile, whence it is most likely they came. Ion.

☞ The iron-clad Atlanta (lately called the Fingal) was regarded by the rebels as the most efficient of their iron-clads, and she came down from Savannah confident of capturing our Monitors easily. She had a ram, a saw and a torpedo on her bow.—Two wooden steamers came down with her, filled with spectators; they were prepared to tow the Monitors back. The Atlanta, when captured, was very slightly injured, and is now at Port Royal, under the American flag. She will soon be ready for service. Her armament was two 7-inch and two 6-inch guns.

☞ Correspondents with the Army of the Potomac are very careful to give no intimation of the positions or movements of the troops. On Monday, Mr. N. G. Shepherd, a correspondent of the Tribune, was arrested and ordered out of the lines, for simply giving some details of the recent march of the army.

☞ Some of Gen. Dodge's men, who were with Col. Streight, have reached Corinth. They report that Streight destroyed and abandoned his artillery before it was captured by Forrest, after inflicting greater damage than the Rebels acknowledge.

An exchange, describing the new counterfeit tens on the Kingston (New York) bank, says the vignette is "a female seated on each side of a shield." Another exchange thinks her situation must be very uncomfortable and embarrassing.

☞ The announcement of the capture of Puebla was received with satisfaction on 'Change in London, and Mexican bonds advanced 2 1-2 to 3 1-2 per cent under the news.

When Sheridan, found drunk in a cellar hole, and questioned as to his name, replied that his name was "Wilberforce," he did a sufficiently impudent thing; but it wasn't a touch to the effrontery of Senator C. (or some other man) who, being picked out of a street ditch by a watchman, and told to give his name, replied, in a gutter-al voice, "Don't you see I am Sewer'd?"

☞ A Washington letter writer says that the prize money now standing to the credit of Admiral Dupont, at the Navy Department, is not less than two hundred thousand dollars. These are his perquisites for about one year and a half.

☞ The pirate Tacony, on Tuesday, captured and burned six schooners belonging to Gloucester, Mass., ransomed another, on which she placed 150 persons to be taken to New York; she also burned three ships, the Saratoga, Pangoney, the other name unknown, in lat. 41 03, lon. 69 15.

A single woman has generally but a single purpose—and we all know what that is.

☞ It is stated that the Treasury Department has been placed in possession of information that the builders in New York of six revenue cutters were using iron bolts with copper heads, instead of copper bolts entirely, according to contract. To the uninitiated this was a small matter, but to the builders and their friends it counted up at least $100,000.

☞ The New York papers say that counterfeit gold coin remarkably well executed is abundant there. None but experts can detect it. No danger here.

☞ Efforts are making to induce Congress to pay some tribute to the memory of the late Capt. James H. Ward, the first naval officer who fell in this rebellion.

☞ The Ballot recently had a long editorial article, strongly denouncing "Concord dictation" by Republican leaders at headquarters, and likening the present management to the old Democratic "Sheriff clique", which used to be so much talked about. It is of no use to kick, Thomas; so long as there are parties, there must and will be party machinery, and the capital of the State will control all its workings.

☞ The "fashionable" women in Western New York are to have a convention in Rochester next Wednesday. The subject discussed will be the reform of the dress of woman, with a view to health, principally, and "no other will be entertained,"—the call says. Just as if the dear creatures could confine themselves to the single subject at issue!

☞ The Boston correspondent of the New Bedford Standard learns that "one of the two young men belonging to the Dane Law School, who were arrested at the Roxbury May Day Fair, on suspicion of being pickpockets, has resolved to prosecute ex-Mayor Otis, of Roxbury, on a libel suit, claiming heavy damages. He has retained, as his counsel, ex-Judge Thomas. The other decides not to carry the matter before any tribunal."

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy thorough for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cure, was the point made in this valuable preparation. Local.

☞ Laura Keene's talented dramatic company from New York gave us "Our American Cousin" at the Temple, Tuesday night, in extra style for this ilk, though without an orchestra of a note of music of any sort. Perhaps the ever-charming Laura knew that music is little valued here by some folks—but then she ought also to know that people of that sort haven't snap enough in them to go to a theatre, any how. But no matter, the performances were of course fine, with that troupe, and the audience large. Everybody enjoyed the play, with all its absurdities and extravagancies, and exaggerations; for it is full of fun—and "it is better to laugh than be sighing," even in these terrible times. Nobody appreciated it better than that little six-year-old fellow, whose musical laugh repeatedly rang thro' the house, at some telling hit, like the carol of a joyous bird. Verily there is nothing sweeter than "the laugh of a child."

"The Temple"—our Portsmouth Temple of the muses, is poorly adapted for graduating prices of seats—as showmen discover after they see it; and our people don't like the plan, there, of classifying an audience, however much they may classify themselves elsewhere. More money we think would have been taken at 50 cents a ticket, and the audience better accommodated. But we don't wish to complain at all, of an entertainment so enjoyable, and so rare here.

☞ It will be seen that Mr. Davis' Singing Schools are to be held on Wednesday afternoon and evening, henceforth; and we can hardly conceive of sensible and appreciative parents wilfully or carelessly neglecting to improve this rare opportunity for their children, to secure what will be a lifelong source of pleasure and benefit;—or of young people who really wish to have more and better singing here, failing to attend the evening school. Mr. Davis has two fine classes, but the hall will well accommodate a larger number, and such tuition has long been a public need here.—The hall is a beautiful place for the purpose, and the teacher one with whom parents may safely trust their children, and to whom they will get attached.

☞ The Manchester Mirror comes out strongly for the new Portsmouth & Dover Railroad, which it calls the people's project; and denounces the Boston & Maine Railroad "dictation" for opposing it.

☞ Capt. Charles W. Pickering, U. S. N., of this city, has been ordered to relieve Capt. W. R. Taylor, commanding steam sloop-of-war Housatonic.

A REBEL CONFESSION.—A correspondent of the Richmond Inquirer, of the 13th, howls tremendously over Yankee raids into the Peninsula counties. He says:—This is the seventh county in the last four weeks that they have pillaged, and if this thing continues the people will be left to starve. These counties have furnished large supplies to the government, and will the government now leave us dependent and defenceless?

☞ The Controller of the Currency has issued certificates with authority to commence banking at once to institutions incorporated under the Uniform National Currency law in the following cities: Philadelphia, Chicago, New-Haven, Syracuse, New-York, Fort Wayne, Indiana, and Cleveland and Dayton, Ohio.

☞ An order has been received at the Charlestown Navy Yard from Washington to increase the pay of the carpenters and caulkers to $3 per day; the order to go into effect from and after June 1. The pay to these workmen heretofore has been $2 50.

☞ All the invalid soldiers in Washington who, in the opinion of the Surgeons in charge, will not be ready for duty within thirty days, are to be sent to Northern hospitals.

☞ The Herald of progress, a Spiritualist paper, says Stonewall Jackson has become an Abolitionist since his death, and has joined John Brown's phalanx of philanthropists.

☞ It is stated that Collector Barney, of New York, now realizes $83,600 per annum, Surveyor Andrews $81,430, and Naval Officer Dennison $81,930.

☞ They are afraid of failure in the hay and grain crops in Iowa on account of drought and the destructive effect of the church bug.

☞ The wheat harvest in Illinois has commenced,—grain heavy and of good quality,—labor very scarce.

☞ A hippopotamus that was exhibited at Detroit, escaped from the steamer while on the passage from that city to Buffalo, and is now luxuriating in the waters of Lake Erie.

☞ Chief Marshal Kane has escaped into Dixie, and has been made a Major General in the rebel army.

☞ The report that Maj. Winthrop, of Great Bethel notoriety, was killed by a negro, is denied.

Vanity Fair says that the Pomp of War is the "irrepressible nigger."

A SINGULAR SPECTACLE IN BATTLE.—At the battle of Stone River, while the men were lying behind a crest waiting, a brace of frantic wild turkeys, so paralyzed with fright that they were incapable of flying, ran between the lines and endeavored to hide among the men.

But the frenzy among the turkeys was not so touching as the exquisite fright of the birds and rabbits. When the roar of battle rushed through the cedar thickets, flocks of little birds fluttered and circled above the field in a state of utter bewilderment, and scores of rabbits fled for protection to our men lying down in line on the left, nestling under their coats and creeping under their legs in a state of utter distraction. They hopped over the field like toads, and as perfectly tamed by fright as household pets. Many officers witnessed it, remarking it as one of the most curious spectacles ever seen upon a battle-field.

☞ A weekly paper has been started on board Porter's fleet at Vicksburg, called the Black hawk Chronicle, devoted exclusively to naval and military affairs on the Mississippi. The terms are two thousand dollars per annum in Confederate money, or an equal weight of cord wood.

☞ On Sunday a black man in the Orange County (N. Y.) jail at Newburg, on suspicion of rape, was forcibly taken from his prison by a mob of Irishmen, who pounded him almost to death and then hung him to a tree until he was dead.

☞ The enlargement of Fort Hatteras, the key to the island waters of North Carolina, is completed.

A NEW WINE.—In this age of bad whiskey and extended liquor, it is pleasant to know that there is one article of pure wine in the market. We have reference to Speer's Sambuca Wine, which was on exhibition at the Fair, and a glass was given to each visitor who claimed it. One was proffered to me. I touched it to my lips somewhat unwillingly, but was agreeably disappointed in finding it one of the most delicious nectars I had ever tasted. I doubt whether there is a vineyard in the Old or New World that can yield a wine at all comparable to this in richness and delicacy of flavor. Mr. Speer prepares it by a new process peculiar to himself, without the addition of spirits, and each bottle he sells is guaranteed to be four years old. It has found its way to London and Paris.—[Boston Transcript.

THE SLAVES OF PREJUDICE.—Death Robbed of his Prey.—There are queer people in the world; people with the most absurd, unreasonable, and indefensible prejudices. For example, we have met with individuals who had a morbid antipathy to anything that was extensively advertised, no matter what might be its actual claims to the confidence of the public. These eccentrics looked with especial disfavor on advertised medicines. They could not see, for example, in Dr. HOLLOWAY'S magnificent system of advertising, covering, as it does, all the mediums of publicity which the world affords, anything but a gigantic scheme of mere speculation. True, they could not gainsay the testimony pouring in spontaneously from the highest sources, in favor of his incomparable Pills and Ointment, but still they shook their heads and muttered "humbug!" Of course there is no use of arguing with men who won't reason. The best way is to let them alone. Fortunately, such specimens of stupidity are "few and far between" in this enlightened era. The general feeling is, that if a thing is in itself excellent, its virtues should be proclaimed to the four winds of heaven, for the benefit of mankind. Hence, the proclamations made by Dr. HOLLOWAY, through the entire newspaper press of the world, of the properties and operations of his remedies, meet with the cordial approval of thinking men. The value of the preparations as specifics for the various internal and external complaints peculiar to different climates, or common to the world at large, is conceded not only by the masses, but by governments, men of science, and candid observers in every walk of life. Can such remedies be too widely known? Impossible!—Cin. "Dollar Columbian."

☞ ATTENTION, THE WHOLE! ☜

RYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of DR. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintance, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JENNESS.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. M. LOWD.

From ELDER I CHESLEY, Lee, May 21, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to move quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named. ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

SCHOOLEY'S

NEW IMPROVED

ICEBERG REFRIGERATORS.

This upright REFRIGERATOR combines every improvement. It is the most perfect article of the kind in the market, requiring less ice than any other, and keeping its contents sweet and free from any unpleasant odors.

Daniel T. Curtis, Fruit dealer, Boston says of it, "I have preserved grapes and pears, peaches, and an extensive variety of plums and berries for five or six weeks in Schooley's Refrigerator."

Oren Cook, Boylston Market, Boston, says, "I find, on careful trial, that it will keep meats perfectly fresh and dry for ten or twelve days."

John Hunt, Butter dealer, Cincinnati, says, "I can keep butter sweet and fresh any length of time in reason, say six weeks."

C. E. Carpenter, Ice Dealer, Providence, says, "I have kept a cup of custard in one of Schooley's Refrigerators during the warm weather one week, when I ate it and found it perfectly good."

Thousands of similar testimonials can be shown in its favor.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR. (Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "star plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made, lined throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

The various sizes of the above are for sale by the subscriber—also, ICE PITCHERS, ICE AWLS, &c.

HELMBOLD'S GENUINE PREPARATION, "HIGHLY CONCENTRATED" COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

A Positive and Specific Remedy
For Diseases of the
BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL, AND DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.

This Medicine increases the power of Digestion, and excites the ABSORBENTS into healthy action, by which the Watery or Calcerous depositions, and all Unnatural Enlargements are reduced, as well as pain and inflammation, and is good for Men, Women, or Children.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU, FOR THE WEAKNESSES

Arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion, or Abuse,

ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power,
Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing,
Weak Nerves, Trembling,
Horror of Disease, Wakefulness,
Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back,
Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Flushing of the Body,
Hot Hands, Eruptions on the Face,
Pallid Countenance,
Dryness of the Skin.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on, which this medicine prevents, generally terminate in IMPOTENCY, FATUITY, EPILEPTIC FITS, In one of which the patient may expire. Who can say where the first fatal shaft was sped, those "direful diseases."

INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION.

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, but none will acknowledge it. The record of the Insane Asylums and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion.

THE CONSTITUTION, ONCE AFFECTED WITH ORGANIC WEAKNESS,

Requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU invariably does. A trial will convince the most skeptical.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the casting being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for economy in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and air-tight heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper boilerover for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shovelling up of the ashes and cinders from the ash pan, is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night without interfering with fire, thus saving the expense or re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about rebuilding or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, moist and agreeable, as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration; the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other Furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from the smallest amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the flue or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other Furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass from the fire-pot, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the best in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 60 per cent. of fuel over common furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire can be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used. We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those about to take the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq.,	Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill,	Charles H. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell,	John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction obtained by the Vulcanizer can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth moulded upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when filled the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET,
PORTSMOUTH, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER,) that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases of GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no interstices or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Any one who is waiting for their permanent teeth will I am confident be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a temporary, the expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set of Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of other bases, and by the best Dentists in the country. I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

☞ OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTION is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. THOMAS L. DR. DARRIMAN, Dr. DANIEL DR. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting Teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with every care, by using Nitrous Oxide, which leaves their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial sets of Teeth warranted to give Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has AW the gratification of presenting the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of
GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrofula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pains and distresses in the region of procreation, inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms indicating the chief of diseases, are made so to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.
Dr D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unfortunate individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by this baleful habit of youth, are Weakness of the Back and limbs, Dizziness of the head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, symptoms of Consumption, &c. The certain effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, timidity, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.
Patients who wish to remain under Dr Dow's treatment a few days or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.
Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Three for $1 and a red stamp.
Highly Important!
To Females in Delicate Health.
DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 8 BENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female system. Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated upon new pathological principles, and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is this method of treatment, that most obstinate complaints yield under it, and the afflicted person soon rejoices in perfect health.
Dr. Dow has no doubt had more experience in the cure of Diseases of Women and children, than any other physician in Boston.
Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.
Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to the practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.
N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.
Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.
Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country to obtain advice.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Bendicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.
P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

FRIDAY, JUNE 26, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Gen. Grant under date of June 18th telegraphs from Vicksburg:—"Everything progresses well here. Johnston's forces are at Yazoo City, Brownsville and Clinton.—Deserters come out daily. They all report rations short. We scarcely ever lose a man now. The health and condition of the troops are most excellent." The rebels report that the Federal forces are cutting the railroads by which Johnston receives all his supplies; they also report a heavy engagement between Jackson's cavalry and the Federals at Big Black Bridge. The musketry and cannonading were awful and terrific; the result is not stated. Johnston wants more men, and has issued orders granting a full pardon to all deserters in his department who will rejoin their commands immediately.

Gen. Banks officially reports that on the 14th, having established his batteries within 350 yards of the rebel works at Port Hudson, after a vigorous cannonade he summoned Gen. Gardner to surrender. On his refusal an assault was made and our forces gained positions within 50 to 100 yards of the enemy's works, which they held. Gen. Banks expressed himself confident of success.

Four wagons containing ammunition, &c., were captured and destroyed by some of Moseby's partisans on Tuesday near Cub Run, on the Chantilly road. They were pursued and several of them have been captured.

Despatches from Somerset, Ky., say there are indications that the rebels are concentrating in the vicinity of the Cumberland Mountains with the intention of invading Kentucky, or holding our forces in check should they attempt to enter Tennessee.

Gov. Yates of Illinois has offered the Sec. of War 10,000 men to repel invasion.

The official report of the recent Federal expedition into East Tennessee shows that our troops destroyed several railroad bridges and a large amount of salt, flour, saltpetre, etc., and captured 3 pieces of artillery, 200 boxes artillery ammunition, over 500 prisoners and 1000 stand of arms.

A Fredericksburg dispatch, 24th, states that there is no longer any doubt that the rebels are in strong force on this side of the Potomac, and are marching into Pennsylvania. Ewell's corps (late Stonewall Jackson's) is marching on Chambersburg; he has 16 pieces of artillery, two regiments of cavalry and 12 of infantry,—in all about 8000 men. They have immense wagon trains to hold their plunder, and are seizing horses and cattle and sending them to the rear. It is reported that the entire rebel army is crossing into Maryland.

Carlisle, Pa., has been evacuated and the rebels are advancing upon it. People are flocking to Harrisburg for safety, and in that city many have their goods packed ready for shipment. Business is partially suspended in Philadelphia.

Our troops had a severe skirmish with the rebels near McConnellsburg on Wednesday evening, and were compelled to fall back.

Bragg is reported to be in Richmond with 20,000 men.

☞ A despatch was received in Boston on Wednesday afternoon from the Navy Department, authorizing private co-operation in a search for the pirate on our coast. This opportunity will probably be embraced by many of the fishermen of Cape Ann and Cape Cod, whose legitimate calling is broken up. The Advertiser understands that the insurance companies in Boston are disposed to offer a very liberal reward for her capture, which with the prize-money and rewards likely to be bestowed by the general government, would make the enterprise, if successful, a most profitable one to the fortunate captors.

☞ A New Orleans journal says that General Sherman was improving, and would probably recover. His right leg had been amputated, and he was daily gaining strength. It was thought that in five or six weeks he would be able to move about on crutches.

☞ Wilkes' Spirit claims that it has reason to believe that there is a secret secession Convention now sitting in New York city, in which there are delegates representing every Southern as well as every Northern State.

☞ The Mass. 5th regiment, which has been expected home for several days, from North Carolina, arrived at Fortress Monroe on Tuesday, and volunteered to enter the service again, under Gen. Dix.

☞ The bill before the Connecticut Legislature for a new military law exempts "persons of African descent and students of Yale College."

☞ The Bowman House at Jackson, Miss., the only hotel which escaped destruction while our troops held the place, was destroyed by fire on the 11th. Loss estimated at $250,000.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— Dr. Levi W. Leonard, who has edited the Exeter News Letter for the past 8 years, retires now from the position. In his announcement of the fact he does not mention his successor.

—— John Webster, 3d, a member of the present N. H. Legislature, died at his residence in Kingston, on Friday last. He was a member of the Legislature last year.

—— The Dover Enquirer states that the New Hampshire House, in that city, has been sold to Mr. Ansel Tucker, the well known Railroad Conductor, who takes possession on the 1st of July.

—— $500 have been appropriated for the celebration of the 4th of July in Manchester. Gen. Richard Busteed, of New York, will deliver an oration. Other eminent speakers will be present. Hall's Band, of Boston, will furnish the music for the occasion, and it is intended to occupy the evening with a brilliant display of fireworks.

—— Maj. Oscar A. Mann, of the U. S. artillery, has been appointed Acting Assistant Provost Marshal General of New Hampshire.

N. H. LEGISLATURE.—In the House of Representatives, on Tuesday, Mr. Sanborn of Concord, from the committee on Military Affairs, to whom was referred so much of the Governor's message as referred to the appointment of a resident commissioner at Washington, reported a resolution authorizing the Governor to appoint such resident commissioner, with a compensation not to exceed one thousand dollars, whose duty should be to visit the hospitals of the N. H. Regiments, and to attend to the wants of the sick and wounded, and, as far as practicable, to co operate with the N. H. Soldiers' Aid Association.

☞ The correspondent of the Providence Journal who reported the terrible disaster to the First Rhode Island Cavalry, which includes the companies from New Hampshire, says, under date June 20, that he believes the report furnished to him was more unfavorable than the facts warrant.—He says that six entire companies are reported in, and others may be safe. According to the first account only thirty out of four hundred escaped death or capture at the battle of Aldie.

AN OCEAN REGATTA.—The New York Yacht Club have resolved to have an ocean regatta. The yachts will rendezvous at Sandy Hook for five or six days, commencing on the 25th inst. This meeting is anticipated with great eagerness by those yachtsmen that desire something more than a mere river regatta. They will have a grand race at sea, where dashing spray and the keen excitement of the scene will keep them wide awake; where the points of their beautifully modeled yachts will tell on the time tables, and where they can register their 240s on the great ocean course.

A FAIR OFFSET.—A good story is told of a showman who carried about on exhibition an enormous bear. In a certain town in Vermont, where Bruin was attracting crowds, dwelt a farmer and his wife, and an interesting and multitudinous family of twenty children. The pater-familias was very desirous of gratifying the commendable curiosity of his offspring; but the price of admission to the show was one shilling, and that multiplied by the number of his olive plants was too much for his exchequer. He therefore approached the showman, and after some parley, concluded a bargain, by which the latter agreed to drive into the farmer's backyard with Bruin's cage, and give a private exhibition to the entire family for one dollar. This was done, to the great delight of the old folks and the children, when the farmer proffered the compensatory dollar to the obliging showman. "Oh, no!" said the latter, "I can't take anything; it is no more of a sight for your family to see my bear, than for my bear to see your family."

☞ July 4th is to be celebrated in Portland by ringing the bells and firing national salutes at sunrise, noon and sunset, by an out-door concert by the Portland Band in the evening, and by a public meeting in the City Hall, from ten to twelve o'clock, A. M., short patriotic addresses to be made by clergymen and others, and music by the Band. The city of Bath has declined making any appropriation for the purpose of celebrating the day.

☞ The U. S. revenue cutter Morris, Capt. Knapp, left Boston on Thursday morning in search of the pirate Tacony.—She is well armed. The revenue cutter Caleb Cushing is to leave Portland immediately. In the meanwhile the Tacony is making sad havoc among our fishing and merchant fleet along the coast. On Sunday she burnt the ship Byzantium, with coal, from London for New York, where she belonged. The Tacony has burnt 17 vessels since the 12th.

☞ In Washington, recently, a young lady, while returning from the Post Office at an early hour in the morning, was accosted by a military looking personage, who seized her and held a sponge to her nose for a time, after which she remembered nothing, but discovered after reviving that she had been robbed of about $30.

☞ A letter from Vicksburg of the 11th says: "Yesterday Judge Lowe, of Keokuk, Iowa, had an interview with Gen. Grant, and in reply to a question when Vicksburg would be taken, the General replied:—'I can take it at any hour, but in making an immediate attack I would sacrifice the lives of many valuable men, whereas there is not, in my estimation, any occasion for such sacrifice. The enemy are completely surrounded, and are short of both provisions and ammunition. They are losing from 80 to 100 every day by desertion, and I am not at all apprehensive of the results consequent upon an attack in my rear. My force is adequate either to whip the rebels by force of arms or by starvation. I prefer the latter course, inasmuch as it demoralizes their army and does not decimate mine.'"

☞ Capt. Hunt, of the U. S. Engineers, on Friday took the submarine battery What Is It from the Brooklyn Navy Yard, to try further experiments in the harbor. Some officers of the Army and Navy went with him. Shots were fired from under water to an astonishing height, and evolutions performed which demonstrated the entire success of the battery. The Government is about to construct a very large vessel on Capt. Hunt's plan, which is designed to remove obstructions in harbors.

SOUTHERN RAILROADS.—A Charleston letter in the London Morning Herald, written in May, says:—"Trains on all the railways of the South now move slowly. The tracks are very much worn and unsafe for travelling at high speed. The locomotives, passenger cars, freight trucks, are all more or less dilapidated. This fact constitutes a grave disadvantage to the Confederacy, not only in its bearing on the concentration of masses of men at a given point with rapidity, but also in reference to transportation for their necessary supplies."

☞ A rebel report states that all the contrabands of Jeff. and Joe Davis's plantation have been carried off by the Yankees; also that the implements of husbandry and furniture have been destroyed.

☞ Rumors had reached Havana on the 20th that the pirate Alabama was in Santa Cruz, and that the Vanderbilt got up steam and went to attack her. Heavy firing was heard in the direction of Santa Cruz, but nothing was known about it.

☞ The pirate Tacony is reported to have destroyed upwards of a dozen vessels on Tuesday, and Wednesday morning—all fishermen, which she fell in with back of Martha's Vineyard, first taking from them everything of value, and then setting them on fire.

☞ The rebel report of the capture of the gunboat Essex had its origin in the capture by the enemy, of an officer of a naval battery connected with the Essex.—The Essex was safe and in good condition up to the 13th inst.

☞ The U. S. gunboat Sumter was run into off Cape Henry, on Tuesday night, and sunk. Her crew have arrived at Fortress Monroe.

☞ In consequence of the news of the destruction of a number of the Gloucester fishing vessels by the pirate Tacony, the holders of mackerel in Boston advanced the price two dollars per barrel, and codfish in proportion.

☞ John C. Fremont, President of the Union Pacific Railroad, eastern division, calls for proposals for 4000 tons of railroad iron, or any part thereof, for the track of the first section of said railway—the iron to be American, and delivered either at Leavenworth or Kansas City.

☞ The London Times confesses that General Grant's operations on the Mississippi, so far as reported in Europe, were "substantial" victories, and that he had been "remarkably successful." Even if repulsed at Vicksburg in the end it would be a "disastrous but not inglorious" termination of the campaign.

☞ The fleet at Charleston, it is said, will hereafter fire broadside after broadside into the blockade runners, until they sink or surrender, and will not wait to capture.

☞ In Norristown, Pa., Sunday night, a deserter shot an officer who was endeavoring to arrest him, and was immediately killed by the provost guard.

☞ At the suggestion of Commodore Stribling, the United States sloop-of-war, Saratoga (twenty guns) will hereafter cruise off the Delaware capes, and defend the mouth of the river.

☞ It turns out that the source of the Nile was discovered 116 years ago, and a map made of the country, Victoria Lake being put down as Lake Zambre.

☞ Secretary Stanton telegraphs that no authority will be given to raise colored regiments for a less period than three years or during the war.

☞ The New York Times believes that Richmond is being looked after. Our army near there, it says, is not idle; and if there be any means of reducing rapidly the rebel works, or breaching them, it will doubtless be tried before Gen. Lee has a chance to try his skill against Washington.

☞ Pierre Soule, it is said, is again within the limits of the Southern Confederacy. He received Nassau about a week ago, and left on the steamer Cuba for Charleston, which is reported to have arrived in safety. At the commencement of the rebellion Mr. Soule was one of those Southern Union men who were to appear when the federal army should reach them, and re-organize the States now in rebellion.

☞ The Washington Star states that on Monday night a small band or party of rebels surreptitiously burned the Quartermaster's buildings and wharf at Aquia Creek, left standing by our troops on the recent evacuation of that place.

The only work there said not to have been burned was a small portion of the wharf. The valuable wharf and the buildings at the point near by, known as Urba Switch, were not harmed by them, probably being too near our gunboats.

☞ The house in which Goethe was born is now being restored, so as to make it as nearly as possible what it was when he was a child. It is hoped this will be effected by the 28th of August, the poet's birthday. He died in 1832, at the age of eighty.

THE RAILROAD EXTENSION.—During the discussion, in the House of Representatives on Tuesday, of the bill to extend the Dover & Winnipiseogee railroad to this city, the question being on Mr. Christie's motion to indefinitely postpone the bill as amended, Mr. Burr, of Dover, stated that the petition for the road was signed by most of the prominent business men of Dover,—and that nineteen-twentieths of the citizens were in favor of the extension of the road. The Cocheco road had been built with the express understanding that the Boston & Maine Railroad would lease it for ten years, which had not been done, and the bondholders of that road, who had been presented to the House in no very enviable light, have lost thousands and thousands of dollars in the enterprise.

Mr. Bailey, of Portsmouth, alluded to the high rates of tariff which the Cocheco road was compelled to pay to the Boston & Maine, in consequence of the dependence of the former road on the latter.

Mr. Walker, of Portsmouth, spoke in favor of the bill, stating that the interests of Dover and Portsmouth demanded that the road should be extended. It had been said that Portsmouth was a small place, fast dwindling away. There was, however, never so much business done in Portsmouth as to-day, and never so many inhabitants, and a large business was being done in the Navy Yard. It had been said that there was no business done between that city and Dover; but he had found that some 12,000 tons of freight passed annually from Dover to Portsmouth, a great part of which was coal. Connections between Dover and Portsmouth and the Boston and Maine road were not reliable, over the present route of travel. There was indeed a water communication for transportation of freight, but the necessity of that being closed during four months in the year, was a matter of great inconvenience.

Mr Parker, of Farmington, also spoke in favor of the bill, stating that all the business men of Carroll County favored the extension. No petitions had been put in, except from Dover and Portsmouth, because it was thought it would be unnecessary. By completing this road, a million dollars of business would go to Portsmouth as at Boston. He had noticed that a great deal of ship timber was being taken down the upper roads to be carried to Portsmouth and that which arrived at Dover had to be taken from the cars to the river, at an expense much greater than would be required to carry the same timber clear to Portsmouth if there was a road through.

Mr. Eaton, of Ipswich, spoke against the bill, and Mr. Blood, of Hillsborough, in its favor. Mr. Christie again spoke against the bill, denying that there had been any formal agreement between the Boston & Maine railroad and the Cocheco. He withdrew his motion to postpone the bill indefinitely, and moved to postpone its consideration until the next session of the legislature. Mr. Walker opposed this last motion; nothing was wanted of the Boston & Maine Railroad, or of the Boston, Concord & Montreal Road, but the interest of the citizens of the two cities. This was no new question.—The application asked for had been granted several times before, but it had been impracticable to build heretofore. The motion of Mr. Christie was lost, and the bill was read a third time, under suspension of rules, on motion of Mr. Walker, and passed.

NEW RAILROAD MOVEMENT. — The Eastern road, with due regard for its great amount of pleasure travel at this season of the year, will commence, after the 4th of July to run a noon train, leaving Boston at 12 1-4 P. M, for Portsmouth, Great Falls, Rochester and Alton Bay. The cars to go through over the Great Falls & Conway Road to Rochester, thence over the Cocheco Road to the Lake, connecting with the steamer Dover for Wolfboro' & Centre Harbor. This will be the favorite route to the Lake, passing over the cool sea side route, and accommodating travellers visiting the Beaches and watering places on the line of the Eastern Road, from Nahant to Boston. A morning train is to leave Great Falls for Boston, via Portsmouth, at 6.20, A. M. to connect with the first morning train from this city.

A HIGH TIME.—Among the novel feats to be performed by Mons. Denier in his Rope Ascensions on the coming Fourth, is the amusing feat entitled The Monk's Feast, or The High Old Dinner, in which he carries a cooking stove upon his back to the centre of the rope, and with his provisions, wood, water and utensils, cooks his dinner, sets his table, and will of course invite his friends up to dine. Mr. Denier has extended us a pressing invitation. We have not yet accepted; however we shall be on hand to see and to pick up the crumbs that fall from the monk's table.

☞ Epicurus himself,—even if he had indulged in such luxuries—couldn't have desired fresher strawberries, pine apples more fragrant, or richer bananas, than those to be obtained at Carter's Restaurant—judging from our samples.

THE STREET SPRINKLER is a great institution; and we are glad it has got to running so nicely. It is no small job to run that whole machine—but the result pays well for all trouble and expense. We regret to hear that a few people, storekeepers, too, actually refused to pay a cent for the object! Well, our office is not on the street floor, (the more's the pity) and Mike's travelling shower don't pass "our house"—but if any live man about town won't down with a little of his dust, to help settle the dust in the streets, why he'll be missed the less when he turns to dust himself, that's all.

☞ We are glad to learn that the friends of the late Captain John Murray, of this city,—who fell while gallantly leading his Company in a charge in defence of his flag, are to erect a suitable monument to his memory at Newcastle. Mr. Robert Roberts receives subscriptions for this object.

☞ In the list of deaths in this day's paper, we record the decease of a little daughter of Rev. George Beebe of Gosport.—This is the third child of that family which has fallen asleep within a single month, at the beginning of which the family circle was unbroken.

☞ The Boston Commercial Bulletin gives a communication from a retail dry-goods dealer in that city, in which he animadverts on the practice, too much in vogue there, he thinks, of fashionable ladies sending or going to New York to purchase goods, insted of buying them at home. He gives a curious anecdote of his own experience, by way of illustration. "A lady," says he, "in purchasing an elegant article of me for a wedding gift, wished to procure a label from the Adams Express Co., and paste it upon the box, that her friend might suppose it came from New York. Another party recently apologized for buying her goods in Boston, saying her health would not admit of visiting New York."

☞ Among the incidents of the late fight at Milliken's Bend was the capture of a rebel soldier by a negro who was his slave three months ago. The Texan surrendered unconditionally, but after identifying his captor vainly protested against being held as a prisoner by his own slave. The dusky warrior kept a sharp eye upon the prisoner, but refused to hold any conversation with him, or answer any of his questions as to when he enlisted, or how he dared to level a gun at his master.

☞ One of the pieces of fireworks to be exhibited in Boston on the evening of the fourth of July, is dedicated to the press. It typifies the days of Faust, of Franklin, of Hoe and Adams, in three entablatures, encircled by the names of the daily journals of the city.

☞ Owing to inadequate support, The Brooklyn Star has been suspended, after an existence of fifty-four years.

☞ It is stated that the aggregate sales of five-twenties up to Saturday last reached $162,670,000.

ATTENTION, THE WHOLE!

EYE, N.H., Feb. 26, 1846. "I hereby certify that my daughter has had the salt rheum for a number of years—some of the time so badly as to prevent her labor, or even rest—as it affected her hands very much. A large sum had been expended to the most celebrated physicians, for Sarsaparilla Syrup, &c., &c., but she obtained no relief until I procured some ten or twelve bottles of Dr. SWETT'S PANACEA, and several bottles of his Humor Wash, which have effected a cure. There can be no mistake, as this cure was effected more than three years ago. No other medicines can equal Dr. Swett's in removing the various kinds of humors. I have sold it to a number of my acquaintances, who were afflicted, and witnessed many full cures effected by it since I have acted as agent for the sale of it. JOSIAH JEWETT.

PORTSMOUTH, April 21st, 1862.

I have for several years been afflicted with distress at my stomach, loss of appetite, and often vomited up all of my food immediately after eating it, and all medicine failed to give any relief until about a year ago, when I took one bottle of DR. S. SWETT'S PANACEA, which fully cured me, so that I have not had the least trouble from any of these complaints since, and I enjoy good health. R. LOWD.

From ELDER I. CHESLEY, Lee, May 31, 1841.

DR. SWETT: Permit me to testify, as I feel in duty bound to do, that my daughter was afflicted with scrofulous humor, and that previous to your visiting our house in the spring of 1840, she had been confined for a number of months, without her natural rest by day or night. She had applied to a number of physicians, but continued to grow weaker till she commenced using your PANACEA and HUMOR WASH. Since then, she has recovered her health so far as to rest quietly by night, and labor by day. I esteem your medicine one of the best that can be found for the disease above named." ISRAEL CHESLEY

☞ Any one returning the remainder of a bottle or box of Dr. Swett's medicines shall have pay for it, if it do not agree with his case, or if not worth the price. All orders directed to DR. S. SWETT, Portsmouth, N. H., promptly attended to. may26o

NEW IMPROVED

ICEBERG REFRIGERATORS.

This spright REFRIGERATOR combines every improvement. It is the most perfect article of the kind in the market, requiring less ice than any other, and keeping its contents sweet and free from any unpleasant odors.

Daniel T. Curtis, Fruit dealer, Boston, says of it, "I have preserved grapes and pears, peaches, and an extensive variety of plums and berries for five or six weeks in Schooley's Refrigerator."

Oren Peck, Boylston Market, Boston, says, "I find, on careful trial, that it will keep meats perfectly fresh and dry for ten or twelve days."

John Hunt, Butter dealer, Cincinnati, says, "I can keep butter sweet and fresh any length of time in reason, say six weeks."

C. E. Carpenter, Ice Dealer, Providence, says, "I have kept a cup of custard in one of Schooley's Refrigerators during the warm weather one week, when I ate it and found it perfectly good."

Thousands of similar testimonials can be shown in its favor.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR. (Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." The consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, well made, lined throughout with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

The various sizes of the above are for sale by the subscriber—also, ICE PITCHERS, ICE AWLS, &c.

THE MAGEE COOKING STOVE.

The subscribers, having received their Fall stock of Stoves, would especially call the attention of the public to the

MAGEE COOK STOVE,

as the very best Stove yet made, and would invite those about purchasing or exchanging Stoves, to examine this, believing it to be far superior to any other Stove yet invented, the castings being heavier, and the oven larger than usual. The oven plates are covered with plaster, which renders it equal to the old-fashioned brick oven for perfection in baking.

There is a new style and very superior broiler and sad-iron heater combined, by which the odor of broiling meats are prevented from escaping into the room. With the extension top there is a large copper Reservoir for hot water; also a large tin warming-closet attached, in which any article can be kept warm, while the other parts of the Stove are occupied for other purposes.

The arrangements for sifting the coal and cleaning the grate are far superior to those of any other Stove now in use, as no dust can possibly escape into the room, and the shoveling out of the ashes is entirely dispensed with. The fire is regulated in the same manner as in the MAGEE PARLOR STOVE, and can be continued day and night for weeks together, thus saving the expense of re-kindling every day.

For economy, durability, ease of management, cleanliness and perfection in cooking, it cannot be surpassed by any other Stove, as hundreds of families in this city and vicinity, who are now using them, are willing to testify, and speak of them in the highest terms of praise.

"MAGEE'S PATENT"
VENTILATING & AIR-WARMING
FURNACES.

The subscribers, being the Sole Agents in this vicinity for the manufacture and sale of this valuable Furnace, would ask those about remodelling or erecting buildings to examine this truly valuable invention.

For economy, purity of air and ease of management it has no equal, producing a current of warm air, smoke and gas free—and as none of the air which comes in contact with the fire-pot is used for respiration, the tendency to produce headache so much complained of in other furnaces, is entirely obviated.

The objects aimed at by the constructors of heating apparatus have been to obtain the greatest amount of heat from a given amount of fuel, and to prevent the escape of heat to the smoke pipe or chimney.

To accomplish this many complicated and expensive heating arrangements have been constructed, some possessing but little improvement over former methods, while many have proved a total failure. The reason for this is obvious. The combustible gases being lighter than the air, pass off into the pipe or chimney without being consumed. This objection, so common in other furnaces, is obviated in the

MAGEE FURNACE.

The flue or pipe in this Furnace being below the fire-pot, the gases, from their specific gravity, cannot descend, and are burned up by the admission of cold air through the fire-pot, which ignites them as they pass off from the coal, thus saving at least 20 per cent. of the properties of the heat in the fuel.

No heating apparatus with the smoke-pipe or flue on the top of the cone can be made to consume the gases of the coal, as they pass off with a large amount of the heat generated, making the chimney the hottest part of your dwelling.

This Furnace does away with the great number of pipes and angles for the radiation of heat, which are so liable to fill up and get out of order, thus simplifying, while it increases the surface of radiation.

These Furnaces consume all the coal, make no clinkers, the sifting of coal is entirely dispensed with, and they will save from 30 to 50 per cent. of fuel over common Furnaces.

For ease of management, economy and purity of air, these Furnaces have no equal. They can be regulated so as to give any amount of heat required, and the fire may be kept the entire season without once going out.

They give entire satisfaction wherever used.

We have in store the different sizes, Brick and Portable, to which we invite the attention of those in want of the best Furnace in the world, and would refer them to the following named gentlemen, who have them now in use:

Samuel Cleaves, Esq., Albert R. Hatch, Esq.,
Aaron H. Hill, Esq., Charles E. Mendum,
Henry F. Wendell, John Sise, and others.

Teeth on Vulcanized Rubber,

SOME OF ITS ADVANTAGES.

1st. It is stronger and lighter than any known material.

2d. From two to six times the amount of suction or adhesion can be obtained by it.

3d. When the arch is irregular we can by building out the depressions—which can be done to any extent—give the mouth a more natural appearance.

4th. No bad taste arises in the mouth by its use, as the secretions of the stomach and mouth do not affect it in the least.

5th. Teeth mounted upon this base can be kept clean and sweet as easy as a saucer, as when finished the work presents one whole piece.

6th. While in all ways it is better, save in a few peculiar cases, it is much cheaper than Gold.

DR. A. P. STEVENS, Surgeon Dentist,
No. 5 Daniel St., Portsmouth,

Has had four years of practical experience in making this material, and will guarantee satisfaction in all cases entrusted to his care.

DENTISTRY.

No. 60 CONGRESS STREET.
Portsmouth, Jan. 1st, 1863.

DR. GOODALL

Would respectfully inform his patrons and the public, (having had of late many calls to insert teeth upon VULCANIZED RUBBER) that he has purchased the best VULCANIZER in the market, and is now prepared to do all work upon RUBBER, or the other bases as GOLD and SILVER as formerly, if preferred.

The Rubber has several important advantages, viz.: It is very light and elastic, and consequently is perfectly easy to the muscles of the mouth and cheeks. There are no insertions or open joints to collect food, &c.; consequently they can be worn night and day, and are very easily kept neat and clean.

Beside all this, the most accurate fit is obtained, as the Rubber is Vulcanized directly upon the plaster model, and the suction is of course much stronger than in plates of Gold or Silver.

Anyone who is waiting for their permanent teeth will, I am confident be perfectly satisfied with the Rubber, as a base. The expense is but a little more than for Silver, and you get the same teeth (in blocks) that you would pay $60.00 for an upper or lower set in Gold.

In New York and Boston, and throughout the West, Vulcanized Rubber is used almost to the exclusion of the other bases, and by the best Dentists 100 I will warrant a perfect fit and teeth from the best manufacturer in the country, S. S. White.

ALL OTHER OPERATIONS IN DENTISTRY I will do at the usual rates. I will here mention that my price for EXTRACTING is 25 cents.

I take pleasure in referring the public to Dr. TREADWELL, Dr. BOARDMAN, Dr OLIVER and Dr. BENNETT, for particular success in extracting teeth. Teeth extracted without pain and with perfect safety, with Ether. Teeth polished to their natural whiteness without pain or injury to the Enamel. Regulation of Adults' and Children's Teeth will receive particular attention.—All whole and partial Sets of Teeth repaired with Neatness and Dispatch. All other operations in Dentistry, I will do at the usual rates.

And from Sores and Wounds of the most serious nature down to a common Pimple. It eradicates Pimples from the face, and beautifies the skin. There is no preparation before the public that can equal this Salve in prompt and energetic action for the speedy cure of external cases, as those who have tried its virtues testify. Soldiers, Sailors, and Fishermen, will find Salve their best friend.

It has none of the irritating, heating properties of other remedies, but cools, cleanses, heals the most serious Sores and Wounds. Every family, and especially those containing children, should keep a box on hand in case of accident, for it will save them much trouble, suffering, and money. All it wants is a fair trial to cure old and inveterate Sores.

"Send to no party—to no sect confined;
To world our home; our brethren, all mankind.
To truth, do good, be just and fair with all!
Suit the right, though every lion fall."

"Let me warn you in the most solemn manner against the baneful effects of the spirit of Party. Party, I fear, is a spirit not to be encouraged. It is common and continual mischief is sufficient to make it the interest and duty of a wise people to discourage and restrain it. In governments of a popular form, it is seen in its greatest rankness, and is truly their worst enemy."—Washington's Farewell Address.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.
DR. DOW continues to be consulted at his office, Nos. 7 and 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, on all diseases of a
PRIVATE OR DELICATE NATURE.
By a long course of study and practical experience of unlimited extent, Dr. D. has now the gratification of announcing the unfortunate with remedies that have never, since he first introduced them, failed to cure the most alarming cases of
GONORRHŒA AND SYPHILIS.
Beneath his treatment, all the horrors of venereal and impure blood, Impotency, Scrotula, Gonorrhœa, Ulcers, pain and distress in the regions of procreation, Inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, Hydrocele, Abscesses, Humors, frightful Swellings, and the long train of horrible symptoms attending this class of diseases, are made to become as harmless as the simplest ailings of a child.
SEMINAL WEAKNESS.
Dr. D. devotes a great part of his time to the treatment of those cases caused by a secret and solitary habit, which ruins the body and mind, unfitting the unhappy individual for business or society. Some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, are Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Dizziness of the Head, Dimness of sight, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Derangement of the digestive functions, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion of society, self-distrust, gloomy fears, &c., are among the evils produced. Such persons should, before contemplating matrimony, consult a physician of experience, and be at once restored to health and happiness.
Patients who wish to remain under Dr. Dow's treatment a few day, or weeks, will be furnished with pleasant rooms, and charges for board moderate.
Medicines sent to all parts of the country, with full directions for use, on receiving description of your cases. Dr. Dow has also for sale the French Capotes, warranted the best preventive. Order by mail. Price for $1 and a red stamp.
Highly Important!
To Females in Delicate Health.
DR. DOW, Physician and Surgeon, No 7 & 9 ENDICOTT STREET, Boston, is consulted daily for all diseases incident to the female sex: Prolapsus Uteri, or falling of the Womb, Fluor Albus, Suppression, and other menstrual derangements, are all treated on new and entirely philosophic principles and speedy relief guaranteed in a few days. So invariably certain is the new mode of treatment, that most obstinate cases are relieved in less time than the afflicted person can express in perfect health.
Dr. Dow has no doubt had greater experience in the cure of diseases of women and children, than any other physician in Boston.
Boarding accommodations for patients who may wish to stay in Boston a few days under his treatment.
Dr. Dow, since 1845, having confined his whole attention to an office practice, for the cure of Private Diseases and Female Complaints, acknowledges no superior in the United States.
N. B.—All letters must contain four red stamps, or they will not be answered.
Office Hours from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M.
CERTAIN CURE
in all cases, or No Charges Made.
Dr. Dow is consulted daily, from 8 A. M. to 9 P. M. as above, upon all difficult and chronic diseases of every name and nature, having by his unwearied attention and extraordinary success gained a reputation which calls patients from all parts of the country for personal or certain advice.
Among the physicians in Boston, none stands higher in the profession than the celebrated DR. DOW, No. 7 Endicott street, Boston. Those who need the services of an experienced physician and surgeon should give him a call.
P. S.—Dr. Dow imports and has for sale a new article, called the FRENCH SECRET. Order by mail. Two for $1 and a red stamp.

SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 1863.

THE REBELLION.

Newbern advices of the 22d say there are no rebel troops in North Carolina, except cavalry. We again get reports of disaffection in North Carolina. They state that the rebel Secretary of War has ordered all the North Carolina troops into the other States for immediate service on account of the growing disaffection among them. Georgia and South Carolina troops are to take their place in North Carolina. Gen. Foster has tendered to Gen. Dix and the authorities at Washington, the services of all the nine months' men in his department, who are ready to move at a moment's notice.

A Port Royal letter says Gen. Gilmore, the new commander of that Department, has already ordered up to Folly Island a new supply of one hundred pound Parrotts, and there seems to be a general belief that a season of unusual activity is about to commence in that region. Adm. Dahlgren sails for Port Royal on Monday.

The whole, or the greater portion of Lee's force seems to be following Ewell's advance into Maryland and Pennsylvania. Extra Billy Smith, reported killed at Winchester, is in command of a brigade in Ewell's corps. The rebels have driven our troops, under Gen. Milroy, out of McConnelsburg, Pa., after a severe skirmish.

The Governor of Pennsylvania will to-day call for 50,000 militia to serve for three months. Gen. Dana has been assigned to the command of the defences of Philadelphia. Nearly 10,000 men are building the ortifications around Pittsburg.

☞ The Navy Department having authorized private action in the pursuit of the pirate Tacony, a meeting of merchants and underwriters was held in Boston on Thursday, and a committee appointed with full powers. A committee of Gloucester citizens has gone to Washington to lay the matter more forcibly before Secretary Welles, and suggest specific measures to protect the fishing interests of Massachusetts, with which the prosperity of the State is proverbially identified. Several U. S. steamers have already sailed, and others are nearly ready.

The pirate is far from being a formidable vessel. On the water she appears to be of about 400 tons, although her register is less. Her only armament is a single brass 12-pounder, smooth gun, conspicuously mounted on the poop. Her commander's name, as before reported, is Wm. Reed, formerly of the U. S. Navy. He informed one of the captains in his custody that his vessel had once been spoken in the night by a U. S. gunboat, and that he knew at the time who was hailing him. His answer to the hail was, that he was a merchantman bound from New York to Portland. The Tacony has only 18 men on board. They are not uniformed.

THE DISPOSITION OF PRIZES.—It is stated that by a recent law the proceeds of all prizes captured after a contest, as the Atlanta, go entire to the captors,—the government taking no share of them.

If our government could see its way clear to commission Letters of Marque on these conditions, or if it could not only make temporary ships of war out of private vessels, but navy officers and seamen pro tem. out of masters and crews of our fishermen and coasters, who know the coast and understand their own vessels,—the ocean would soon be cleared of the English and Rebel Mongrel Pirates, including the blockade runners.

Robt. B. Forbes recommended something like this when the rebellion broke out.—Red tape, routine, and aristocracy opposed it: and we now reap the consequences, in the aggressions of pirates only half armed.

There should be, at all events, no further delay, but an arming of every fast vessel we have, with as many others as choose to do it, with liberal but safe commissions, empowering all such vessels to take prizes while pursuing their regular voyages. U. T.

THE REBEL INVASION OF MARYLAND AND PENNSYLVANIA.—One thing is notable, in this matter, says the Traveller, the rebels in the ravages upon the frontier, strike at their best friends in the North. If it had not been for the vote of the Southern border counties of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, the Republicans would have carried the election in the Fremont campaign of 1856, and the revolution would have broken out four years sooner.

☞ There was some mistake in the telegraphic dispatch from Fortress Monroe, announcing that the Massachusetts 5th regiment had consented to remain there. The regiment arrived at Boston on Thursday.

☞ The Nashville Union hopes to see a hundred thousand German emigrants settle in Tennessee in the next two years. It adds: "We are tired of effete aristocracy; give us honest working men in their place."

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— An exchange says New Hampshire has always been noted for her production of great men and things—she has now produced the greatest scoundrel in the person of the fellow who, on the 8th inst., was picked up by the side of the road in Hancock, lying at the foot of a bank of some 10 or 15 feet. His wagon was overturned, the horse having been loosed therefrom and gone. He was carried to the hotel and a physician called, who thought him badly hurt. He declared himself the son of a lawyer named Gove, and threatened the town with a suit for damages, which lead the selectmen to settle with him on the 10th by paying his doctor's bill and $40 in cash. The same day he played the same game in Stoddard, and gave his name as Geo. Bell, son of a Lawrence, Ms., lawyer. The Stoddard selectmen settled with him on the 12th, by paying him $25 in money, with his hotel and physician's bill, and before night he was found lying at the bottom of an embankment beside the road in Marlow, near Gilsum line, pretending to be badly hurt. His horse was in one place and his wagon in another. He was carried to a house and a doctor called, who pronounced him much injured and wanted to bleed him, but this he would not allow. While he lay there groaning with pain, a gentleman from S. came along, and hearing of the case called in to see him. He at once saw that he was the same man who had "played it" in Hancock and Stoddard, and went for an officer to arrest him, but the hurt man "smelt a mice" and left for Keene. He was followed and arrested, when he sent for his father, who proved to be neither Gove nor Bell, but a Mr. Nichols of Warner.

—— Hon. B. F. Whidden, U. S. Commissioner to Hayti, a resident of Lancaster, arrived home on Friday of last week. He remains here during the summer months with the hope of recruiting his health which has become somewhat impaired by his residence in a tropical climate.

WILL SALTPETRE EXPLODE? — This was a question a dozen years ago in the newspapers. We then answered "Yes," without any hesitation, for we had seen the experiment tried more than two dozen years before that time, by laying some saltpetre on the hearth, before the fire. In a very short time, when hot enough, it exploded exactly as grains of powder would have done instantaneously.

The balance of evidence, at some fires in Boston, several years since was on the side of explosion.

Now we have a new and conclusive proof of the same position, in the New York Tribune of last Wednesday.

In New York, on Tuesday morning, about 10 o'clock, the community in the lower part of the city were alarmed by a series of explosions which occurred in John street. Mr. William H. Peckham, a gold and silver refiner, occupying the third floor of No. 25 John street, was engaged in some chemical operations connected with his business, when the first explosion occurred.—The following is Mr. Peckham's own account:—

"A few minutes previous to the explosion I went into the shop and attended to some metal which was on the furnace. I then returned to the office and commenced pulverizing about five pounds of nitre. I had only struck six or seven blows with the pestle in the mortar, when the explosion took place, and burned my face, neck and arms, and set fire to my clothing. I ran into the hallway, and while there a second explosion occurred, which I suppose must have originated from about fifteen pounds of pulverized nitre, which was in a paper on a table. On a previous occasion, when I was engaged in pulverizing about four pounds of nitre, it exploded in the mortar. I can only account for this explosion in two ways—it either originated from my apron having caught fire at the furnace, thus setting fire to the nitre, or it was caused from friction in the use of the pestle and mortar."

Immediately after the explosion a number of persons ran up stairs, found the building completely shattered, and the air dense with mortar dust. Mr. Hawthorne, ex-Foreman of Hook & Ladder Company No. 4, made his way to the roof, where he found Mr. Peckham lying in an unconscious condition, severely burned and mutilated. He was at once taken down through the scuttle of No. 27, and removed to the City Hospital. His hair was burned almost completely off his head, the scalp being severely scorched. His recovery is doubtful. Albert Larch, a young man employed in the jewelry establishment of S. Landsberg, either jumped, or was blown out of a window, and sustained severe injuries. He struck on an awning, which broke his fall, and undoubtedly saved his life.

The windows in the building were all blown out, the mortar was torn from the walls, and the stairs were all sprung; the front of the building was shattered, and a large hole was made through the ceiling directly under the place where the explosion occurred. The fourth floor was broken up, and a large hole crushed through the rear side of the building. A hole as large as a man's hand was made in the side of an iron safe in Mr. Peckham's office, and the same concussion broke the lock of a safe in Mr. Landsberg's office.

NOTES OF FORMER DAYS.

Collected and Collated — By UNCLE TOBY.

Death of James II., William III., and the Earl of Bellomont.—Allen's Law suit in New-Hampshire.—Governor Dudley, of Massachusetts and New-Hampshire, 1702.—King James II., of England, after years of exile and misfortune, died in France, Sept. 16, 1700.—Samuel Penhallow was appointed Collector of the Port of Portsmouth. The first Superior Court after the new appointment of Judges, was held on the 13th of February, 1700, at the house of John Pickering, jun.

Allen had as little prospect of success in the newly established courts, as the people had, when Mason's suits were carried on under Cranfield's government. On examining the records of the superior court, it was found that twenty-four leaves were missing, in which, it was supposed, the Judgments recovered by Mason were recorded. No evidence appeared of his having obtained possession. The work was to begin anew; and Waldron, being one of the principal landholders and most strenuous opposers of the claim, was singled out to stand foremost in the controversy with Allen, as his father had with Mason. The cause went through the courts, and was invariably given in favor of the defendant with costs. Allen's only refuge was in an appeal to the king, which the court, following the example of their brethren in the Massachusetts, refused to admit. He then petitioned the king; who, by an order in council, granted him an appeal, allowing him eight months to prepare for its prosecution.

The refusal of an appeal here could not fail of being resented in England. It was severely animadverted on by the lords of trade, who, in a letter of the Earl of Bellomont upon this occasion, say: "This delelining to admit appeal to his Majesty in council is a matter which you ought very carefully to watch against in all your governments. It is an humor that prevails so much in proprieties and charter colonies, and the Independency they thirst after is now so notorious, that it has been thought fit those considerations, together with other objections against those colonies, should be laid before the parliament; and a bill has thereupon been brought into the house of lords for re-uniting the right of government in their colonies to the crown."

Before this letter was written, the earl died at New York, Mar. 5, 1701 to the regret of the people in his several governments, among whom he had made himself very popular. A copy of the letter was sent to New-York; but the bill mentioned in it was not passed into an act of parliament. For some reasons of state, it was rejected by the house of lords.

At February term, 1701, Theodore Atkinson was appointed Clerk of the Superior Court of New Hampshire.

Although the Earl of Bellomont had remained but a short time in the province on his visit here, his easy manners, courteous deportment, and other pleasing accomplishments, had so much endeared him to the people, that his death was greatly lamented. It was likewise a subject of deep regret to the inhabitants of the other provinces under his command.

Allen employed Usher to take care of his appeal before the King in Council, and as security for what he already owed him, and to indemnify him for his expenses on this occasion, he mortgaged to him one half the province for fifteen hundred pounds.

The Assembly met on the 29th of May, and appointed Major Vaughan agent for the province, and gave him direction to defend the causes for the appellees, which were then pending before the King in Council upon Allen's appeal. They consulere the public interested in these decisions, and made provision for defraying the expense. Funds were provided for the purpose, and their agent authorized to draw in case of emergency.

Whilst these suits were pending, King William died, and was succeeded by Queen Anne. [Being misled by an error in an abridgment of Goldsmith's England, we lately placed these events ten years earlier.] She appointed Joseph Dudley, formerly President of New-England, Governor of Massachusetts and New-Hampshire, and he published his commission in this town on the 11th of July. The Assembly immediately established his salary by law, during his continuance in office.

On the trial of the appeals before the Queen in Council, the former judgments were affirmed, upon the ground that Allen had not proved that Mason was ever in possession of the lands. Allen, however, had permission to commence his actions anew in the Courts of New-Hampshire to try his title to the lands, or for the quit rents for the same.

PROSECUTIONS.—It is reported in a morning paper that the government intends to prosecute the journals which copied a recent article from a Philadelphia paper giving the positions of the army in Virginia. The government will do much better if it will prosecute the war.—N. Y. Evening Post.

☞ A large number of 100-pounder Parrott guns have recently been received at Portland for the forts in that harbor.

☞ The hippopotamus has been caught. He floundered into Lake Erie but was persuaded out by a big dog and Egyptian keeper who worried him ashore and secured him. After he dropped from the steamboat he plunged, came up and snorted, plunged again, explored the bottom, then appeared once more and kept his head up until the dog, who had been his companion in the cage, swam towards him, was recognised and followed. The "hip" is valued at $40,000.

☞ In the Southern part of Illinois, there was once a lengthy caucus discussion as to who should go to the legislature. The knot was cut by an old chap who had for years had an itching that way. He expressed himself in a brief speech, thus:—"Why don't you elect somebody who don't want office? I don't want any office."

☞ The Portland Press states that an old sheep, one of a flock, had the audacity to butt an engine on the York & Cumberland R.R. on Wednesday. In the attempt it passed between the driving wheels and under the tender, and came out mutton. The rest of the flock scampered off at the side of the track.

☞ In the course of his sermon at the dedication of St. Theresa's Church in New York, Sunday, Archbishop Hughes said that one party can make war but it requires two to make peace. He, therefore, pertinently asked, "What prospect is there of peace?"

☞ It is said that Baltimore, at this juncture, could bear the presence of several negro regiments without kicking up a row about it.

One of Humewell's Preparations.

HUNNEWELL'S UNIVERSAL COUGH REMEDY.—To make a Cough Remedy through for all Throat and Lung Complaints, and to rid the mind of Climatic causes, when the great error has been the introducing of components which debilitate, and by such to restrain the greatest freedom of use, as the only true theory by which such complaints can be effectually cured, was the point made in this valuable preparation. To prevent asking attention to long stories of great cures, and to long descriptive technicalities, I would ask confidence which will be sacred, in COLDS, COUGHS, HOARSENESS, SORE THROAT BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC COMPLAINTS, to all THROAT and LUNG COMPLAINTS, which, when neglected, end in CONSUMPTION, and to prove the declarations by true results.

Local.

☞ Our citizens are promised an unusually attractive entertainment on Monday and Tuesday evenings next, when, as will be seen by the advertisement in this morning's paper, Miss Kate Reignolds, who so long was the attractive feature at the Boston Museum, will appear in this city. She has recently been playing in Portland, with the company with which she visits this city, and last evening was tendered a complimentary benefit by many of the most prominent citizens. The Portland Press of Friday, in speaking of the proposed benefit, says:

The success which this talented lady has met with in this city, has been unprecedented. She came here with the intention of remaining but one week, but has played four weeks, every night to large and enraptured audiences.

☞ Maj. Hoyt, Paymaster U. S. A., was among the passengers who arrived in Boston on Tuesday in the U. S. transport City of Bath, from New Orleans, 14th.

☞ Letters received in this city state that Mr. Robert Smart of this city, a private in Capt. Thacher's Company, K, of the 16th N. H. Regiment, recently died at New Orleans.

A SWINDLER.—The Bath Times states that a man calling himself John C. Bailey, was in that city a few weeks since, soliciting aid for the Congregational Society in Kittery. One gentleman, seeing names upon his book in other places who had contributed to the object, gave him $5 and referred him to other persons. This gentleman seeing a notice in a paper of a man of that name, who had been obtaining money under false pretences, wrote to the pastor of the church in Kittery, and obtained an answer saying: "I am sorry to tell you that you have been deceived by a scoundrel.—This is the only Congregational Society in Kittery, and there is no John C. Bailey among its members. Our Society is not building a church, and has employed no one to represent it." It is hoped the scoundrel may be brought to justice.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ITEMS.

—— A small boy, at work in one of the Manchester Mills, on Wednesday afternoon fell through an elevator opening, a distance of 49 feet, (five stories) striking on one shoulder; though somewhat bruised he had no bones broken.

—— Gen. Hooker has sent to Alexandria all that remain of the N. H. Cavalry.

N. H. LEGISLATURE.—The Senate, on Wednesday, passed the act authorizing the Eastern R. R. in New Hampshire, and the Eastern R. R. in Massachusetts to unite and form one corporation. The act to extend the Dover & Winnipiseogee R. R., sent up from the House, was read a first and second time, and then referred to the committee on railroads.

In the House, the Committee on Elections reported against the right of the members from Ward 5, Manchester, to seats in the House, it being proved to their satisfaction that there was fraud in the election.—The matter was made a special order for Thursday morning. Appropriate resolutions, in reference to the death of John Webster, of Kingston, a member of the House, were passed. Mr. Sinclair, of Bethlehem, introduced a resolution condemning the dismissal of Lieut. A. J. Edgerly, of the 4th regiment, from the military service "for the offence of voting the Democratic ticket." He spoke in favor of the resolution, which, on his motion, was referred to the Judiciary Committee with instructions to report thereon. The House adopted a joint resolution that the business of the session be brought to a close July 2d.

In Convention, on Thursday, the following officers were elected: Secretary of State, Allen Tenny; Warden of State Prison, John Foss; Treasurer, Peter Sanborn; Printer, Amos Hadley; Commissary General, Newell Clifford.

NAMES FOR FORTS.—The three forts above Chain Bridge, now called Alexander, Franklin and Ripley, are to be called Redoubts Davis, Kirby and Cross, in honor of three Generals recently killed. The three redoubts are to be called Fort Sumner, in honor of Gen. Sumner. Fort DeKalb is to be called Fort Smith; Fort Cass Fort Whipple; Fort Richardson, Fort Berry; Fort Worth, Fort Williams; Rockcuck Battery is to be called Battery Sill. The battery in advance of Fort Kearney is to be called Battery Terrh.

☞ The Fourth of July, now at hand, will not be celebrated in Newburyport; at least that is the appearance now; but the Herald announces, that the centennial of the town will be celebrated, though the day for the celebration has not been fixed.

☞ The New York Tribune condemns the wholesale pillage which characterizes the raids of Col. Montgomery's negro troops in the Department of the South. Such license is no part of legitimate military operations.

☞ The rebel pirates Alabama and Georgia still remained at Bahia, May 19th, having taken in a supply of coal in the night from a British vessel recently arrived from England. They had both been ordered by the authorities to leave Bahia, but they had not set sail. There is a report that a large American ship was seen on fire, off Nova Scotia, on Friday morning, with a large lead-colored steamer close by.

A schooner which arrived at Portland on Friday, reports a large steamer, a barque, and a three-masted schooner at the mouth of the Bay of Fundy, destroying vessels.—The pirate Tacony was seen on Tuesday 30 miles S. E. of No Man's Land, working up towards a fleet of fishermen. On the 24th a U. S. gunboat was seen off Georges, and heavy firing was heard on the next day. A burning side-wheel steamer was seen to sink near South Shoal Light on Tuesday.

☞ The London Typrographic Advertiser states that a gentleman, a large capitalist and one of the most successful inventors of the day, has succeeded in chemically treating the pulp, during the process of manufacturing printing paper, in such a manner that when the paper is impressed upon the uninked types the chemical particles are crushed and a perfect black impression is the result. The advantage sought to be obtained is the discarding of ink and rollers; and by revolutionizing printing machinery and printing from a continuous roll of paper, it is calculated that the time occupied will be nominal in comparison to the requirements of the present day. Cleanliness in the printing office would thus become proverbial, and the time now wasted in inking and distributing the rollers obviated.

☞ At an inquest held in London a few weeks since, in the case of a woman who had been burnt to death through wearing crinoline, the coroner (Dr. Lankester) remarked on the folly and danger of women indulging in the absurd and ridiculous fashion. It had been proved that in fifteen years 48,000 deaths had occurred through fire, and the female portion greatly preponderated. Eight deaths a day by fire was truly lamentable.

☞ We learn from the Portland Press that Mr. Ezekiel Turner, an experienced shipbuilder, employed in a yard at Cape Elizabeth, Me., died quite suddenly Tuesday evening. From a strain in lifting on Saturday he bled at the lungs, but on Tuesday he was very comfortable and apparently recovering. In the evening, after partaking of some refreshment, he suddenly threw himself back, said he was going, and in a few moments died from suffocation of blood. He was 40 years of age and leaves a wife and five children.

ROCK-FALL AT NIAGARA.—The St. Catherine's Journal says that on Saturday night, the 13th inst., with a sound louder than the discharge of a park of artillery, a large section of the rock on the north or Canada side of Niagara Falls, near Mr. Davis's Table Rock Hotel, fell into the yawning abyss below, giving the Falls on that side a more decided horse-shoe appearance than they had before.

SCHOOLEY'S
NEW IMPROVED
ICEBERG REFRIGERATORS.

This upright REFRIGERATOR combines every improvement. It is the most perfect article of the kind in the market, requiring less ice than any other, and keeping its contents sweet and free from any unpleasant odors.

Daniel T. Curtis, Fruit dealer, Boston says of it, "I have preserved grapes and pears, peaches, and an extensive variety of plums and berries for five or six weeks in Schooley's Refrigerator."

Oren Peck, Boylston Market, Boston, says, "I find, on careful trial, that it will keep meats perfectly fresh and dry for ten or twelve days."

John Hunt, Butter dealer, Cincinnati, says, "I can keep butter sweet and fresh any length of time in reason, say six weeks."

C. E. Carpenter, Ice Dealer, Providence, says, "I have kept a cup of custard in one of Schooley's Refrigerators during the warm weather one week, when I ate it and found it perfectly good."

Thousands of similar testimonials can be shown in its favor.

SCHOOLEY'S ICE KING REFRIGERATOR. (Patented Jan. 6, 1863.) We present the ICE KING to our customers as the "ne plus ultra" of cheap Refrigerators, combining in its operation all of the great improvements necessary for complete ventilation. In the introduction of Patent Refrigerators to the public, the cost of construction has been necessarily so great as to prevent their sale to the "million." In consequence has been that those who could not afford to purchase a Patent ventilated Refrigerator, were compelled to procure one of the old style, or go without.

We are now happy to state that, by the introduction of our new patent ICE KING, we can offer to the million a complete ventilated Refrigerator, made of the best materials, lined with zinc, at cheaper prices than ever before sold.

The various sizes of the above are for sale by the subscriber—also, ICE PITCHERS, ICE AWLS, &c.

From the Journal
CITY STATISTICS.

Valuation of Real Estate in	1862,	$2,542,250.
" " " " "	1863,	$2,581,940.
" " Stock in Trade,	1862,	$1,123,875.
" " " " "	1863,	$1,221,400.
Rate of tax on $1000 in	1862,	$9.61.

Polls,	1862,	1,995.

In speaking of the city taxes last week we stated that an increase of 20,000 on 60,000 is an advance of only 25 per cent. A correspondent is right in saying that a reduction of 20,000 from 80,000 would have been at the rate of 25 per cent., but an increase of 20,000 on 60,000 would be at the rate of 33⅓ per cent.

NEW POSTAGE LAW.—Some of the most important changes are noted in an advertisement by our Postmaster. Nothing now can be mailed with less than two cents postage. Regular weekly newspapers, however, can be mailed from the printing office for 20 cents per year, or 5 cents per quarter. This is lower than heretofore.

While the expense of sending a single transient paper by mail is two cents, the law allows no restriction of the number of papers put in one envelop, only that it shall not exceed four ounces in weight. So those who are in the habit of sending papers to their friends abroad, can put three papers of the size and weight of the Portsmouth Journal in one envelop, and be taxed only two cents postage.

The postage on the Monthly Magazines will probably be less by the new arrangement, than formerly.

A NEW LOCOMOTIVE.—Among other useful additions to the running stock of the Eastern Railroad is a splendid locomotive from the works of that Company in Boston, constructed under the direction of the head machinist, Mr. John Thompson, and just placed upon the road. West Beach is its name. The engineer may well be proud of his handsome and powerful iron horse, which though weighing twenty-five tons, glides swiftly and smoothly over the rail, as though it weighed was not in the least a burden. The large 5 1-2 feet wheels and the 15 by 22 inch cylinder accomplish this with ease, and the ponderous machine moves away lightly as by magic under his fingers. It was entirely completed at the Eastern Railroad works. Like the rest of the engines on the road, it is a coal burner.

COLD JUNE.—The Boston Traveller says, the mean temperature of the 1st quarter in June was 60.04 degrees; of 2d, 63.19; 3d, 60.19, or 2.80 degrees, 2.21 and 6.38 below the average of those quarters in 39 years; all these quarters were therefore cold and the third quarter the coldest third, within twenty-seven years. Indeed the mean temperature of every day of this quarter, without exception, was below the average. This month has thus far been the coldest June since the cold June, in the cold summer of 1836.

ALLOWING THE SOLDIERS TO VOTE.

The following is an outline of the bill now before the N. H. Legislature, allowing the soldiers to vote:—

In time of war, every qualified voter of the State engaged in either the military or naval service of this State or of the United States, where their name is upon the check-list of the town or ward, in which he has his home, and who shall on the day of the election of State, county, and town officers, or for election of President or Vice President, or member of Congress, be without the limits of the State, but in the actual service of the country, may be present by his attorney, and shall be entitled to vote by ballot at any such election hereafter to be held in those towns, wards, or places where his name may be upon the check-list.

Every such qualified voter shall by power of attorney by him made, executed and acknowledged, within forty days next preceding the day of such election, authorize and empower some legal voter of the town, ward, or place where he has a right to vote, to cast for him his ballot or ballots for all officers for whom he would have a right to vote were he present.

The said voter shall prepare and fold the ballot or ballots he may cast at such election, write his name upon the back of each ballot, with his place of residence, the company, regiment, or other corps in which he is serving, and transmit the same with his power of attorney by mail or otherwise to the person whom he designates to vote for him.

The legal voter, so authorized, shall deliver the ballot or ballots so received by him from the qualified voter in the service, to the moderator of the meeting on the day of election, and said moderator shall receive and deposit such ballots in the ballot-box in the same manner as other ballots are received and deposited.
